IV DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Annual Conference 2020

Changes to the Location of Annual Conference

Bishop Announces Postponement of the 2020 West Ohio Annual Conference

April 15, 2020

West Ohio Conference Email

Greetings in the name of Jesus, the resurrected Christ,

United Methodists are people of faith, people who are willing to adapt and change when faced with difficult times. Resilience.

As I preached in an empty sanctuary on Easter Sunday, I thought of pastors across our conference who provided incredible opportunities for people to celebrate Holy Week when gathering in our church buildings was not possible. Resilience.

Over the past several weeks, we have all made changes for the safety of others as well as ourselves. And now, out of an abundance of caution, I am writing to inform you that the 51st session of our annual conference has been postponed. This decision was made in cooperation with the leadership at Lakeside, the Annual Conference Planning Team and the cabinet. Resilience.

Here is important information you need as we move forward:

- Please reserve September 11 and 12 for the business of the annual conference. Information regarding the agenda, location (Columbus area) and other important details will be forthcoming.
- Hotels/Cottage Rentals: Starting Monday, April 20, Lakeside staff will contact you directly by phone to process hotel and Lakeside Chautauqua Realty cottage rental cancellations and refunds.
- If renting through Street Sotheby's International Realty or from individual homeowners, please contact them directly about cancellations and refunds. Street Sotheby's phone number is 419-798-1123.
- Group Housing: Starting Monday, April 20, Lakeside staff will contact you directly by phone to process group housing rental cancellations and refunds. Wo-Ho-Mis check reimbursements will be a delayed process.

We apologize for any inconvenience these changes may cause. Thank you for your understanding – and your resilience – during these ever-changing times.

Yours through the Risen Christ,

Bishop Gregory V. Palmer

Special Announcements Regarding the Business of the Annual Conference

May 28, 2020

West Ohio Conference Newsnet

Greetings, Sisters and Brothers:

As you prepare to restart some activities that involve people gathering together in your local church, please know of my prayers. I hope that you are planning with care, attention to best practices and patience. Doing it right, so to speak, and doing it well increase the likelihood of not needing to do it over. I am pulling for you and for all of us.

We all know that we have been pushed to a place where we must do some necessary things differently than the ways to which we are accustomed. Among these are the way we conference as United Methodists. Absent COVID-19 or another comparable disruption, we would be getting ready to head to Lakeside for Annual Conference. The days we had set apart were June 7-10. As previously stated, we will not be making that pilgrimage in early June. But I do want to visit with you about how we will do the work of Christian conferencing this year. We will make great use of digital technology to facilitate what seems unwise to do in a large crowd.

- On Tuesday, June 9, at noon, I will deliver my Episcopal Address (Part 1, at least) via livestream. I will do so from the sanctuary of Church of the Messiah United Methodist Church, Westerville. This date will place it close to when I might have delivered such a message to you at Lakeside. The place will be a foretaste of other aspects of Annual Conference 2020, about which you can read below. In next week's NewsNet and on our conference website, you will find more detail about how you can logon for the address. If you cannot view it live, it will be posted to be viewed at your convenience. I look forward to being online with as many of you as possible at noon on the 9th.
- On Tuesday, July 28, 10 a.m.-noon, the Clergy Session will be held via Zoom. We will tend to a few necessary matters having to do with clergy status and conference membership. A wonderful team from the Episcopal Office, the Office of Ministry, the Communications Office, Connectional Ministries and the IT Office have been hard at work studying the right technology to meet our needs. We are almost ready to go. Preregistration will be required. Training resources will be provided so that you can prepare to conference virtually. Sometime between mid-June and July 1, the training material will be available, and the gate for registration will open.

- As previously stated, the Annual Conference Session will convene on Saturday, Sept. 12. This will be a hybrid of virtual and face-to-face meetings in small configurations across the conference. The Conference Sessions Committee is working hard with staff to bring together the virtual and in-person aspects of conducting the essential business of the Annual Conference. As those details are tested and confirmed, more information will be widely dispersed by early July.
- Pray for patience in this season of preparation for our conferencing together.

Just as you have had to adapt to new means of doing ministry in this crisis, the conference will continue to adapt to do the work of ministry and keep us all safe. Contrary to the sound bites and rhetoric of this season, the church has never closed, even if some buildings are shuttered. Ministry has never ceased. We have all been doing ministry in innovative ways. Your nimbleness and resilience inspire me. Thank you.

Sunday, May 31, is Pentecost. I am looking forward to preaching online from the Glenwood UMC sanctuary in Columbus. There will be no gathered congregation, just five or six people and the pastor. But I am no less excited about the opportunity to proclaim the good news about the disruptive activity of the Holy Spirit. As I have been preparing, the image of Spirit as wind and breath has been rife in my mind in many ways. Wind and breath are essential for physical life, whether you're a COVID patient or a criminal suspect on the ground with someone's knee crushing you down and constricting your breathing. If you can't breathe, you are not alive.

Lord in your mercy... In a similar way, the wind and breath of the Holy Spirit are essential for every disciple of Jesus and for the church. Without the power of the Spirit within and without, we are lifeless as disciples and churches. So, in either case, I say and I pray, "Come, Holy Spirit, to convict, convert, refresh, renew, equip and empower. Disrupt our patterns and isms. Crush our idols. Make us over again. Come quickly and abide."

Yours in the power of the Holy Ghost,
Bishop Gregory V. Palmer

2020 Clergy Session Invitation

June 24, 2020

West Ohio Conference Email

Dear West Ohio Clergy,

Thank you for your adaptability as we prepare for the upcoming Clergy Session and the 51st Session of the West Ohio Annual Conference. For the first time, we will be hosting a Virtual Clergy Session on Tuesday, July 28, 2020, 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. Our theme for this is Resilience.

We have been working in cooperation with the United Methodist connection nationwide along with our own Episcopal Office, Communications Department, IT and Office of Ministry areas to provide a fair and accessible approach to the Clergy Session. Due to some of the restrictions in place with COVID-19 and in adherence to the State of Ohio safety protocols, we have developed an online format that will care for the Business of the Annual Conference in the best way possible given our current circumstances. We understand that we will miss being in community face to face and some may not yet feel comfortable using technology, but we will work hard to equip you with what you need to succeed. As we have heard many times, we are all in this together. Our own, Dr. Brian Law, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) will provide our Homily for the Clergy Session as he highlights the work of the BOM over the last quadrennium and brings a message of encouragement as we maneuver through this year. Registration will be open from June 24 – July 24, 2020. You must pre-register to attend. Registration will require a two-step process. Once you register, you will receive a link to connect to the Zoom Webinar that will be used for Clergy Session. Please follow the details below to help you prepare.

- You will need your own device (tablet or computer) to participate in the Clergy Session.
- Each person will need his or her own device. Married couples cannot share devices to vote because each device will be attached to a separate voting account.
- It is recommended that you hard-wire (plug into the Internet Service) where possible.
- If you are in an area with limited internet, please find a location where you can go for the duration of the Clergy Session and be fully connected. We will not have sites reserved for the Clergy Session.
- We are using Zoom Webinar. Please set up a Zoom account, they're free, if you do not have one. It is also necessary to do the updates to Zoom so that you are using the most current operating system.
- We will provide detailed instructions on the link that you receive after registration and will be available to assist those who may experience some challenges with the process.
- The thought of using technology may create some apprehension but we have secured a professional company to work with us to ensure that everything runs as smooth as possible.
- Although we will begin at 10:00 a.m., please plan to log in between 9a – 9:30a to allow yourself time to troubleshoot if necessary.
- Find attached, a detailed listing of eligibility for voice and vote during the Clergy Session.

For questions, please feel free to reach out to the Office of Ministry where it is our pleasure to serve you.

May you know the continuous favor of the Lord and peace of the Holy Spirit during this season and always,

Yours in Christ,
Rev. Donnetta Peaks
Director, Office of Ministry

A Message from Bishop Palmer regarding Annual Conference

July 1, 2020

West Ohio Conference Email

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

The 51st session of the West Ohio Conference will undoubtedly be different than any of recent memory. After much research, discernment and prayer, and for the safety of our clergy and members, the Annual Conference Planning Team has decided to host a virtual meeting on Saturday, September 12. Our theme selected 4 years ago, is “Be not afraid. God is with us.” We will begin with Opening Worship and then proceed to conference business.

With this new experience comes opportunities for personal and professional growth. I know this to be true.

Other important information includes:

- ONLINE REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. You may register through the conference website: westohioumc.org. Should you need assistance, please contact your district office or Tim McCoy at tmmcoy@wocumc.org or by phone at: 614-505-7413. Registration opens on July 8 and will close on August 7.
- The Book of Reports will be made available to you online or by USPS. Please be sure to mark your registration with your desired delivery system. We suggest you review it carefully.
- Information Sessions will be held virtually prior to Annual Conference so you have the opportunity to learn more about the recommendations before conference.
- In August, you will receive a voter identification number. You must have this number in order to vote. At this time, you will also receive the link which will take you to the September 12 session.
- Since this is a virtual gathering, training is strongly recommended and will be held on September 9 with one session at 12:00 p.m. and another at 6:00 p.m. Each session will last 90 minutes. We will be utilizing the Zoom Webinar platform. However, for those with slow or no internet capabilities, a phone-in option—which includes voting—is available.
- The conference offering will go toward COVID-19 Response through UMCOR and the West Ohio Conference. The offering will be divided equally. Details to follow.
- Commissioning and Ordination will take place on September 12 at 3:30 p.m. via livestream on the conference website and Facebook Live.

Rest assured that you will continue to receive more information later this summer.

Thank you for your continued flexibility and support as we navigate these uncharted waters. I ask for your prayers for those directly impacted by the coronavirus and with all of us as we continue to minister during such a time as this.

In the service of Christ Jesus,
Bishop Gregory V. Palmer

Episcopal Address

June 9, 2020 Noon

Live Stream from Church of the Messiah, Westerville

Rev. Karen Cook, chair of the Episcopacy Committee, brought greetings to all conference members and friends present online from Church of the Messiah in Westerville, where Rev. Jim Wilson serves as senior pastor. She acknowledged those present in person: Mrs. Cynthia Palmer, Rev. Linda Middelberg, Rev. Sharon Beattie, the musicians, and media crew. After the hymn “Great is Thy Faithfulness”, Rev. Cook read Isaiah 58:1-9.

Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer then presented his Episcopal Address live via social media. He spoke into the realities of 2020, and the truth of the Annual Conference theme, “Be Not Afraid: God is With Us.” He gave thanks for how churches, pastors and lay leadership have been living witnesses for ministry unceasing and adaptive in the face of COVID-19. He spoke about the reality of lower apportionment giving and lower statistical end-of-year data and our challenge to hear and meet the needs of the world around us. He spoke about confronting the virus of racism and white supremacy, inviting us to live into our baptismal vows to resist evil and oppression. Bishop Palmer acknowledged ministry right now is not easy, but we are not alone; God is with us.

The full text and video link of the Episcopal Address can be found on page 233 of this Journal.

Clergy SessionJuly 28, 2020 10:00am*Zoom Webinar from Church of the Messiah, Westerville

As we gathered online, music was provided by Dr. Kent Brooks and Rev. Justin Williams. Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer welcomed everyone to our virtual clergy session via Zoom Webinar then called the Clergy Session of the 2020 West Ohio Annual Conference to order and opened our gathering with prayer. Rev. Sherri Blackwell, Vice-Chair of the Board of Ministry, led the Call to Worship.

Reflection

The Rev. Dr. Brian Law, Chair of the West Ohio Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, gave the homily. He asked, "How many of us feel like we're stuck in the middle?" He then reminded us that God loves us too much to leave us stuck there forever. Referencing Exodus 3, Rev. Law reminded us that what God said then, he says to us today: "I see you, I hear you, I am concerned for you." He challenged everyone gathered online to trust that God will provide, and to choose a heart of trust rather than a spirit of complaint. He encouraged us that although the church will not be the same from the beginning to the end of 2020, God has not changed. And God will empower us and strengthen us and provide us with vision and passion. Rev. Law quoted Helen Keller, who once said, "A bend in the road is not the end of the road unless you fail to make the turn." He then encouraged us to make the turn, and know that God will be there.

Turning to the work of the Board of Ministry, Rev. Law reminded the clergy session that the work done today is the result of thousands of hours of work from the Board of Ministry and the District Committees on Ministry, who have taken seriously reviewing, vetting and interviewing every candidate.

The biggest project of the past four years was the creation and implementation of the eight-year assessment, "Your Ministry Reflecting, Equipping and Flourishing," known as REF. This kicked off with 50 clergy, including cabinet members, in September 2019, was cancelled for fall of 2020, and will resume in 2021.

As this was Rev. Law's last Board report, he spoke of the personal privilege it was to service the Board, Bishop Palmer and the Conference. He then thanked the conference for their prayers and affirmation as he has grown in his appreciation of the process of the UMC, as well as learning to be more nimble as a leader.

Rev. Law then offered prayer for the day ahead.

Episcopal Reflections

Bishop Palmer began his remarks thanking Brian for his eight years of service on the Board of Ministry, these past three years as chair. He then reflected on how we have seized the moment to do our essential work in new and fresh ways, socially but not emotionally or spiritually distanced. As he looked around the room, he stated that those in person were all attempting to practice what we preach, and were a minimum of 10 feet from each other, each at their own tables.

Bishop then thanked our host church, Church of the Messiah in Westerville, their senior pastor Rev. Dr. Jim Wilson, and his team. Bishop thanked GNTV for their technical infrastructure and the communications work of Kurt Tomlinson, Evan Smith and Kay Panovec. He thanked Donnetta Peaks and Susan Thomas from the Office of Ministry still hard at work, the officers of the Board of Ministry, Conference Secretary Amy Haines, and Linda Middelberg and the episcopal office staff not present this day.

He reminded us that technology is not perfect nor it is implemented by perfect people, so invited everyone to give love and grace.

Before moving into the Business of the Annual Conference Bishop Palmer noted the name of Donald "Bud" Heckman under 46.c, one who is no longer a clergy member of any conference of the UMC, and noted the long and painful journey that brought us to this day. Bishop regretted that the original complaint could not have been brought to a just and redemptive conclusion sooner than it was, admitting that he and the conference have learned a lot and a number of better practices have been put in place especially for clergy in extension ministry. He noted that provisions for healing resources continue to be made available, and offered gratitude to those who labored to see this through. Bishop concluded by saying when we come to 46.c, he will pause and invite us to a time of prayer that focuses on the victims of misconduct by clergy and other church workers and church volunteers.

BAC Preparations

Rev. Brian Law reminded clergy that a copy of the Business of the Annual Conference (BAC) had been emailed the day prior, and noted that any editorial corrections are to be sent to Mrs. Susan Thomas in the Office of Ministry. He called attention to the first page of the BAC for abbreviations as well as the guide of who is eligible for voice and vote. As the Cabinet is still making appointments, he asked for patience for continued adjustments to the BAC.

Rev. David Wood from GNTV was introduced to offer technical guidance and introduce a few practice ballots. He highlighted that the chat feature was disabled, the Q & A feature is how questions and comments will be received, and shared the tech support phone number.

Opening Worship Service

September 12, 2020 9:00am

Zoom Webinar from Church of the Messiah, Westerville

Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer called the 51st session of the West Ohio Annual Conference to order. Rev. Mark Chow, chair of the Annual Conference Worship Team, welcomed everyone to our first virtual annual conference, while acknowledging our grief at not being together at Lakeside. Worship began with a video of music and a reflection from Bishop Palmer on the hymn "And Are We Yet Alive" featuring an all-conference virtual choir.

The promise of God found in Revelation 21:1-5 was proclaimed by Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner, followed by a sermon by Bishop Palmer reflecting on this passage that supported our conference theme, "Be Not Afraid: God is With Us." When the theme was chosen four years ago, no one had any idea some of the things we would be facing in 2020.

Admitting that preachers don't often preach on Revelation, Bishop Palmer reminded us that chapter 21 echoes chapter 1, calling us to intensify our capacity to see and hear what God is doing in God's created order. Instead of using this passage to teach us how to get out of this world, this passage, like John 1, reminds us that God is making God's home with us. "Why in the heaven am I trying to get out of here, instead of entrusting what is next to God?" Bishop asked. God chooses to be with us. An old prayer he heard growing up was, "Lord, you've been better to us than we've been to ourselves." In spite of everything we do, God will not abandon us. Rather, God will make all things new. God will turn our lament into laughter, and our pain into praise. God will take our messes and turn them into miracles. Our assignment is to be living tablets upon which God's word of newness is written. In closing, Bishop declared: "If I've got one word for you West Ohio—ye need not be afraid—God is with us; not by accident but by choice. It's a trustworthy, true, rock solid, dependable promise."

Responding to the promise, Ms. Deborah Brennan sang two verses of "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling." Ms. Barbara Kimmel then taught the conference American Sign Language for "Be not afraid. God is with us," the refrain of our call and response led by Rev. Jim Wilson.

Engaging the promise, Ms. Brennan sang the final verses of "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling" and Bishop Palmer offered a blessing on our time together. Worship closed with a postlude on "Hyfrydol" by Mr. John Holsinger, organist.

Laity Address
September 12, 2020 12:52pm

Bishop Palmer introduced Lay Leader Mr. Mitchell Harper, who gave a pre-recorded Laity Address. He thanked the conference to be in their virtual presence, and offered shout outs to those on the conference staff who have an ongoing passion for laity empowerment. Mr. Harper recognized his new co-lay leader, Ms. Shannon Spencer. Then he spoke on the conference theme as an ever-necessary reminder and glimmer of hope to acknowledge God's presence in moments of comfort, celebration and conviction. He encouraged laity, who are boots on the ground for ministry to the unchurched, to say and live in ways that proclaim God is with us. Mr. Harper concluded with a call to continue to grow together as examples of God's never-ending presence in our lives. Bishop Palmer then gave thanks for Mr. Harper's leadership.

Casting a Future of Hope

Bishop Palmer next shared his response to where he wanted to go with this annual conference over the next four years. He confessed that it is discombobulating being here without the vote of jurisdictional conference, yet he is glad to still be here in West Ohio. And if he remains here, he wants to not coast or run to the tape of retirement, but through the tape. He reminded the conference not to wait on change, for change is already here, and the question for all of us is, "Who will we be in the midst of the change and how will we serve?" Who do we choose to be? His suggestion is for us to actually be the church.

Even though West Ohio has been hovering at around 1000 churches, his vision for the future is 750 or less robust cruciform mission stations, where every community called United Methodist is a mission station, where the audience to be pleased is God, the world to be loved is the same world God loves, and our mission is to join God in the healing and redemption of the world. These communities of faith would be both deeply committed to the salvation of the individual as well as the redemption of the community and the world, raising our voices against the systemic evils and -isms that plague us. We would become an anti-racist institution. We would also strive to align our resources, structural and financial, to get disciple making and the subversion of evil into the core of our agenda as an annual conference.

Bishop Palmer declared, "We're in the middle of a mess and I'm more excited than ever." He knows that the core of our mission is unchanging, to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Together, we are called to join God in the healing of the world and helping everyone know they are beloved children of God.

Deaconess Consecration
September 12, 2020 1:24pm

Since 1888, deaconesses who have been called by God have been consecrated and commissioned by the church into a covenant community for lifelong service in ministries of love, justice and service. Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner presented our newest deaconesses, both who serve within our conference. Ms. Krstyl Shoaf is Communications Director for North Broadway UMC and Short North UMC (CAN), and Dr. Katelin Hansen is Minister of Music and Director of Operations at Church for All People (CAS). Through the laying on of hands, Bishop Palmer was delighted and honored to consecrate them into the lay office of deaconess. He ended this time of celebration with prayer.

Closing Remarks- Bishop Palmer

In closing, Bishop Palmer thanked everyone who helped to make this virtual conference possible, especially the conference staff and the technicians from GNTV and Hughies. Several moments of personal privilege were then shared that had come through the Q&A.

Bishop Palmer announced the 2021 West Ohio Annual Conference will be held between June 6-10, 2021 at a location and in a manner that effectively allows us to complete our business as well as attend to fiscal and health realities.

The business session of annual conference concluded at 1:40pm after a video benediction by the newly elected conference co-lay leader Ms. Shannon Spencer.

The official count for our Zoom Webinar was 1,564 attendees.

Celebration of Ministry
September 12, 2020 3:30pm
Church of the Messiah, Westerville

The Celebration of Ministry service was live streamed from the sanctuary of Church of the Messiah, beginning with a video based on the hymn "Lift High the Cross." Rev. Donnetta Peaks, Director of the Office of Ministry, and Rev. Dr. Brian Law, chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, set the context of today's service, grounded in our baptism and God's call to set apart ministry. Bishop Palmer reminded everyone present and online to remember their baptism and God's promise, provision, and call to many kinds of ministry.

Candidates for commissioning and ordination were then presented and examined by Bishop Palmer. One associate member was received. Two deacons and six elders were commissioned. Four deacons and eight elders were ordained. (Names listed on pages 201-202 in the BAC) Via pre-recorded video, the bestowing of symbols of ministry occurred from four retirees to four newly ordained clergy.

Bishop Palmer offered words of request, council and prayer to those commissioned and ordained today: "Never get spiritual and ecclesial amnesia." He encouraged them to remember their promises and commitments made this day, and to allow those commitments to be a part of how the Holy Spirit mentors them on a daily basis.

To all watching online, Bishop invited those who are feeling spiritual discomfort to consider a time of prayerful discernment, asking, "Lord, what would you have your servant do?" If God is calling them to be a layperson, Bishop challenged them to claim that they are a baptized, beloved child of God sent to be salt, light and leaven in the world. If God is calling them to set apart ministry, Bishop invited them to pray and talk with those around them as part of their discernment process.

To both those watching and those in person, Bishop Palmer concluded with his conviction that there has never been a better time to serve God in the church and the world.

The service concluded with the hymn "We Go with God, Together" sung by Rev. Justin Williams and played by organist Mr. John Holsinger. Rev. Sharon Kunselman and Rev. DJ Kim gave the dismissal with blessing. Following the postlude, the West Ohio Annual Conference stood adjourned at 4:39pm.

The West Ohio Conference Awards and Recognition Celebration debuted via video, beginning with Bishop Palmer offering a welcome and thanks to the many named and unnamed individuals and congregations serving their communities for Christ, witnesses to God's love for all humanity.

Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner, West Ohio's Director of Connectional Ministries, introduced the awards with a reminder that this year's theme appropriately echoes God's words to Joshua as he prepared to cross the Jordan River and enter God's promised land: "I hereby command you: Be strong and courageous; do not be frightened or dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go." These awards recognize individuals and congregations in West Ohio who have found new and innovative ways of doing and being the Church.

Conference Lay Leader, Mr. Mitchell Harper, then joined Rev. Stickley-Miner to present the first two awards.

The Missional Church Development Multiplication Awards are given to congregations that have experienced breakthroughs in fruitfulness as a result of participation in The Missional Church Consultation Initiative (MCCI), or the Greenhouse Program. This year's recipients were: MCCI Multiplication Award: Central Trinity UMC in Zanesville (FTH), led by Pastor Steve Judson; and Greenhouse Multiplication Award: Mosaic Church in Dayton (MIV), led by Pastor Wayne Botkin and Pastor Rosario Picardo.

Rev. Stickley-Miner presented the Light of the World Award, given to one church from each district that demonstrates a commitment to shine the light of God's love into their community, churches recognized for reaching new people for Christ in 2019 after having no professions of faith or baptisms in 2018. Those recognized were Centenary UMC (CAN) led by Pastor Callon Holloway, Atlanta UMC (CAS) led by Rev. Samuel Harnish, Buchtel UMC (FTH) led by Mr. David Shoemaker, Catawba UMC (MIV) led by Rev. Douglas Bovey, Toledo Wesley UMC (MWD) Rev. Waverly Earley, Owensville UMC (ORV) led by Rev. David Tennant, and Wellston UMC (SHV) led by Rev. Susan Allison-Keeton.

Mr. Harper presented the One Matters Award offered through the General Board of Discipleship, which celebrates churches extending the love of Christ into the community and bringing new members into their congregations. The One Matters Initiative recognizes one congregation from every Conference that has transformed zero professions of faith and baptisms into positive numbers, as each number represents a transformed life. This year's recipient was Antwerp UMC (NWP) led by Rev. Michael Schneider.

The Harry Denman Evangelism Award is given to those who display a passion and commitment to evangelism to bring people to a life-transforming relationship with Jesus Christ. Rev. Stickley-Miner presented this year's Denman Award to lay person Ms. Marie Ferree from St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Defiance (NWP) led by Rev. John Schlicher. Ms. Ferree first came to St. Paul's food pantry as a client, then as a volunteer, and now is the director of the pantry, where she has expanded the ministry to share the love of Jesus with her neighbors in both word and deed.

The United Methodist Rural Advocates (UMRA) William B. Murray Vital Church Award recognizes rural churches who worship less than 100 for displaying the five fruitful practices of ministry. Mr. Harper presented this year's district award recipients, which included Johnstown UMC (CAS), First Hope UMC (FTH), Lindsey Trinity UMC (MWD), Gilboa UMC (NWP), New Vienna UMC (ORV), and Liberty Chapel UMC (SHV). The overall West Ohio UMRA William B. Murry Vital Church Award recipient is Lewistown-Trinity United Methodist Church (CAN) led by Rev. Debra Ketcham.

Rev. Stickley-Miner presented two Faith in Mission Awards, created to recognize individuals or congregations that have shown exceptional faithfulness in serving God's people, in their own communities or around the world. The first award went to pastors and churches involved in the Walk with a Pastor Initiative. Walk with a Pastor promotes healthy habits by encouraging church members to simply take a walk with their pastor. Recipients include Rev. Mark Chow, Zanesville Grace UMC (FTH), Rev. Ronnie Griffin, Finley/Mt. Sterling/Mt. Olive charge (FTH), Rev. Steve Judson, Zanesville Central Trinity (FTH), Rev. Richard Purvis, Findlay St. Paul (NWP), Rev. Elizabeth Reed, Malta UMC (FTH), Rev. Joy Wigal, Zanesville First (FTH), and Rev. Justin Williams, Zanesville Coburn UMC (FTH). The second award recipient was Mr. Jack Reif, long-time Volunteers in Mission team leader and coordinator for the Ohio River Valley District. In his 30+ years of mission work, Jack participated in 61 Volunteers in Mission teams and was team leader for 40 of those teams. Jack says, "Christians need to engage in risk-taking service and mission, which can mean anything outside the door of home or church."

The Camp Changes Lives Award is presented to a person or church that has shown outstanding dedication and support for the camping and retreat ministries of the West Ohio Conference. Mr. Harper presented this year's award to Rev. Joel Harbarger who currently serves at Monroe UMC (ORV). For over 20 years Rev. Harbarger has been heavily involved in West Ohio camps as pastor of the week, Camp Vision Team chair, rock climbing instructor, high ropes facilitator, kayaking instructor, trip leader, staff and camper mentor, and retreat leader. His love, care, passion for the ministry of camping and laughter have blessed many involved in West Ohio camps.

Rev. Stickley-Miner recognized and celebrated new Safe Sanctuaries trainers, who are all committed to walking with local churches as they develop, implement, refine and revise their Safe Sanctuaries policies. New trainers recognized this year: CAN- Lauren Burns and Shelly Nall; CAS- Judy Hug and Amanda Stufflebeam; FTH- Heather Matarazzo; MWD- Julie Carter, Jodi Packard and Melissa Steinecker; MIV- Charlie Bosworth, Deb Egloff, Wendy Lybarger, Christina Miller, Deb Roth and Cheryl Wilson; NWP- Justin McCall, Matt Overman and Michelle Shiparski; ORV- Suzanne Allen, Benji Sayre, Marie Smith and Jaime Sparks; SHV-Ann Marie Carley, Larry McCoy, Anthony Thomas and Jamie Wirth.

Mr. Harper recognized the All in Community Leadership Team, who for the past five years have assisted lay, clergy, and community members in ministry with justice-involved persons, welcoming all people into the family of God, including those affected by mass incarceration. They have been responsible for creating and leading new ministry efforts including HOPE letters, Life Builder groups, Good Samaritan teams, and Caring Community mentors.

Team members include: CAN-Kathi Herington, Whitehall UMC; Debra Ketcham, Lewistown-Trinity UMC; Hope Roberts, Maynard UMC; and Wendy Tarr, Summit UMC; CAS-Vaughn Cook, Gethsemane UMC; Jeff Daniels, Church for All People; and Dave Pennington, Brushy Fork UMC; MWD-Jami Nathan, Archbold UMC; Debo Onabanjo, Toledo Zion UMC; and Melissa Steinecker, Aldersgate UMC; MIV- Amelia Boomershine and James Clay, Grace UMC; Rick Jones, Yellow Springs UMC; and Nicole Land, Ginghamburg UMC; NWP- Ruth Carter-Crist and Kathy Kaufman, Gilboa UMC; Mark Hollinger, Cridersville UMC; and Jessie Roark, Lima St. Mark's UMC; ORV- Barb Vogt, Westwood UMC; SHV- Tom Knauff, Jeffersonville UMC; and Derek Russell, Hillsboro First UMC.

Rev. Stickley-Miner reminded us it has been a little over a year since the Dayton area was devastated by 17 tornadoes on Memorial Day. The final recognition of the evening went to the many individuals, teams, and churches that have worked to help rebuild and restore the Dayton community. Just in the first nine months of recovery, more than 1,900 volunteers gave 16,663 hours toward tornado relief work, and West Ohio raised $224,000 for disaster response. Two UMCOR-funded case managers continue to walk with survivors through the recovery process. Even so, it may take 5-10 years for Dayton to fully recover. As we celebrate what has already been done, we recognize that there is more work to do.

In conclusion, Mr. Harper once again congratulated all award winners and nominees, and Rev. Stickley-Miner concluded the celebration with a blessing to "trust in the Holy Spirit to lead us through the rough waters into the promised land of God's abundant life for all people."

VII REPORTS OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A. EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

Transcribed from the video recording of the Episcopal address at the 2020 West Ohio Annual Conference on June 9, 2020.

Live feed from Church of the Messiah, Westerville

Under customary circumstances we would right now be at Lakeside for the regular session of the West Ohio Annual Conference. But where we find ourselves is anything but regular or customary. So it seemed meet and right that I should find a way to meaningfully connect with you who are the members of the annual conference, lay and clergy, and all of you who are numbered among the hundred and forty thousand United Methodists in West Ohio. To connect with you now even though it is not possible for us to be physically together at Lakeside or in any other place where two thousand or more of us might be gathered in a single room. It is an understatement to say that we live in a changed world, a world that has dramatically changed since last we were together in the annual conference session. My goodness, it has changed so dramatically even since January 1 of 2020. We have literally and figuratively been turned upside down and inside out by a virus, a pandemic, that has danced across the globe and in some settings tarried for a while, delivering blows of death and destruction to human bodies and life, to families, to economy, to jobs, to not-for-profit organizations and institutions among which we number ourselves as the church and as churches.

You will note that postponements are the order of the day if a meeting cannot be held virtually or by Zoom or by WebEx. Annual conference, postponed. General Conference, postponed. Jurisdictional and central conferences, postponed. Graduations and ordinations, postponed. My goodness, not even the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church tells us what we ought to do in such a situation. We have no playbook for the circumstances under we in a Covid-age are living our lives and trying to exercise our ministry. We are literally and figuratively walking across a bridge that has yet to be completed. Or, as they say proverbially, flying the plane while we're still building it.

It is clear to me that our theme for the 2020 annual conference, albeit postponed, "Be Not Afraid: God is With Us," which was, by the way, set 4 years ago, is actually spot on and on the proverbially bullseye. We have every natural reason to fear, to doubt and to question. And yet in the power of the triune God we have every reason to live our lives and practice our faith and be the church with great hope and great confidence. To live in hope, faith and confidence is, not to be naïve or Pollyanna, ignoring the troubles and the change the circumstances around us. But it is to open our hearts and our minds and to take into ourselves a power that is beyond us, but a power that hungers to fill us and infuse us in order that we may live the lives that God has intended for us.

The words from Revelation 21:3, which has been the scriptural passage which has undergirded this theme for annual conference, are apropos. "And I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, 'See, the home of God is among mortals. God will dwell with them. They will be God's people, and God himself will be with them.'" Now, while this text soars on the wings of eschatological anticipation, it is a reminder that we are not alone. We are not alone now, and we will not be alone into a future that we cannot see. Even John Wesley, or perhaps I should say especially John Wesley, the progenitor among others of our movement, is reported to have said twice on his dying bed, and as breath was failing him, "the best of all, God is with us." If I was in the same space with all of you, I would say, "Would you turn to your neighbor now and repeat after John Wesley and say, "The best of all, God is with us, even on our dying beds."

In this crisis, brought on by the novel coronavirus called COVID-19, I want to say to you my friends, you have demonstrated a resilience, a nimbleness, a patience and an adaptiveness born out of the faith and conviction that we are not alone. Please know of my love, my support and my gratitude and encouragement, and that of all of our district superintendents, all of our conference and district staff. They have come alongside your faith and work in ways that I know you cherish and appreciate. And their love, support and encouragement for you, born out of their admiration for how you in local congregations have soldiered on, inspires all of us to keep running alongside you in order that we might deliver on the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

My hat is off to all of our pastors and the lay leadership of our congregations in the West Ohio Conference. You are living witnesses that you do not intend for ministry to cease, to come to a grinding halt because of a virus, no matter how virulent. You are those who said we will simply learn how to practice our ministry in different ways. You are those who have said by your action, we have left the building of necessity. We have forsaken large gatherings, but the church is not closed. Perhaps we need to hear those words again from the lips of the Lord Jesus, "Upon this rock I will build my church and the gates of hades—the viruses named, known and unknown—shall not prevail against the church."

As you make your way back into being a more public church, so to speak, I do ask that you would make very good use of the guidelines that have been developed by a wonderful task force of lay and clergy people in this annual conference. We did not import that data from some other place. We did it ourselves. We learned from others and then it was developed, nuanced and tweaked by the people of the West Ohio Conference who live in this geography and context. As you make your way back into being public church again, tend toward all things that keeps everyone safe. As you make your way back be patient and remember it is fruit of the spirit. As you make your way back be prayerful with every step. As you make your way back, be wise. And as you make your way back, be nimble and adaptive. Nothing, nothing will ever be quite the same. Not that it ever is. And may I say to you, that's not all bad.

I want to turn the channel, so to speak, and talk to you a little bit as I do sometimes during these addresses, about finances and membership. Your annual conference is not without being challenged by this pandemic in serving you in this season. You, in local congregations, are our lifeline in one sense. And you are at the heart of our mission. The annual conference, according to our Book of Discipline, exists, has as its mission, to equip local congregations to engage robustly in the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. And at the end of the day, the local church, its thriving and its flourishing, is our single aim. As it goes for you, so it goes for us.

So I need to say to you that apportionment income is noticeably down in April and in May as it has likely been down in your local congregations; that is, April and May of 2020 as compared to April and May of 2019. I'm told by our conference treasurer that in May, in the aggregate giving to the annual conference for our ministry among you, is down 26%. I say that not to depress you or me, but to remind us all of the interdependent relationship of all of the pieces and parts that we call the United Methodist Church. That said, you should know that we are in a rigorous assessment about how to best align our resources with a single eye toward executing the mission of equipping local churches for the mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Secondly, you should know that because of your generosity before this crisis of COVID-19 came upon us, your giving made it possible that when the crisis hit and we saw the fragility and the danger to many of you in the local church, that our conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits was able to gather together a half a million dollars, all of which went to benefit supplement grants to local churches so that payments for healthcare and pension could be cared for without too much trouble to you in a time that is deeply troubled. You should also know that we expended all of that half-million dollars set apart, but just in the last week two congregations who received the grant, returned the grant with the understanding that things did not turn out as bad as they thought they might. And so they returned the grant so that other churches (at least two) could have an opportunity that may have been cut off when those funds had come to their end.

The treasurer's office in this crisis, and our IT department, developed an online giving platform through which any person, any member of your church, if you did not have online giving, could give through that platform and it could reach the coffers of your local congregation. At no level of the United Methodist Church in West Ohio, in your local church, in your community, in districts and in annual conferences did ministry cease. We have a single eye toward the mission toward which we have been called. The list could go on and on of things that are mostly in the background to you, but you know that you benefit from because we are in this together.

I said to you that I wanted to say a word about membership which usually means statistics. I've been musing over the year-end data for 2019 on membership, worship attendance, professions of faith and baptisms. Statistics don't tell us everything about ourselves, but they do tell us something important. Those of you that check yourselves for hypertension or blood sugar and things like that, that data doesn't tell you everything about who you are; it doesn't define you even if you've got diabetes or high blood pressure. You might say, I'm a quite happy and well-adjusted human being. But you stop checking your blood pressure and checking your blood sugar and go crazy eating anything you want to eat and not getting any exercise and living under too much stress and you will find yourself in a very uncomfortable place. So while they don't tell us everything not looking at them ever our membership, worship attendance, baptisms, professions of faith do tell us some things that we ought to pay attention to. We do not test or get data on everything that might be useful and we don't have every angle of view. But, when I look into the data that talks about our membership declines in the West Ohio Conference, not just 2019 to 2020, but over a long period of time thinking that in 1972 we were north of 400,000 United Methodists in this conference. And at the end of 2019 we are at 140,000 United Methodists while we have continued to be in a state and in a region that in the aggregate has tended to lean toward a growing population and an ever more diverse population.

So we cannot stare into the throat of these statistics and let them wash over us as if they were meaningless. Neither should we be consumed by them as if they paint an entire picture of our ministry. What I want to say to you about that is that we are in the best position, perhaps, in the 21st century that we have ever been in these first 19 or 20 years, to organize, align and adapt ourselves to new ways of commending the good news that is the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ our Lord in word and deed to a world that continues to cry, to scream, even sometimes to beg for the church to be the church, to be the ones that we say we are, who follow Jesus Christ in the ways of love, of righteousness, of justice and of peace, who tend toward the best practices of building community and of healing the brokenness of individuals and of the whole land.

Jesus says, according to Mathew 9:37 and following: "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore ask..." Some translations say "...pray that the Lord of the Harvest might send out laborers into his vineyard." So the question for us is, will we see our world and its needs and hear its cries and its supplications and heed this call to go? Do we have the courage to ask God to send us, even us, feeble, frail, imperfect though we are, with love, with faith, with courage, to get out of our safe bubbles and cocoons and our self-serving behaviors in too many places, to be the church in the world and for the world, and to be the disciples of Jesus Christ in the church and in the world, that God needs? Will we dare to love the world that God loves more than we value taking care of ourselves? Do we believe that if we engage in really touching the world in the name and with the love of Jesus Christ, in word and in deed, that God is with us? If so, I can assure you that God will keep God's promises in us, through us and to us. Do you remember those other words of accompaniment and of assurance, Matthew 28:20 where it says, "See, I am with you to the very end of the age."

That said, it seems meet and right again to turn to an urgent matter that is in our midst. Earlier I referred to the novel Coronavirus. Novel, unless you're referring to a written work, means 'new,' for a while unknown and unnamed. And while still navigating COVID-19, this new virus that attacks the body, we now find ourselves called into action to fight a 400-year-old virus called racism and white supremacy.

This virus is not new. This virus is not unknown. This virus is not unnamed. We know what racism is. We know it as a church. We know it in the church. We know it in our society. And we know it in more ways than we can name to share with all of you. Some of us have experienced it poignantly. No one under the sound of my voice, live (or if you see it posted later) can say they have not ever observed, heard or know what racism is. It may be comfortable to hear it and even more comfortable to engage and talk about it, but the time has arrived.... And may I say to you, it was past time 400 years ago, and it was past time when the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution were issued. It is time for us to stare down this evil, to adjure this demonic force whose name is legion. It has manifested itself in different iterations. Sometimes it has been codified in law. And when the laws have changed to be better, however it has never completely before excised from the soul of this nation.

This virus demeans. It denigrates. It castigates the psyche, and has on more than one occasion killed and taken human life. Sometimes those killings are en masse, and at other times they are one by one. Sometimes they are by vigilante mobs as in the days of lynchings or in Brunswick, Georgia in 2020 Ahmed Arbery, and sometimes done by those who are supposed to uphold the rule of law. This virus pushes down some in order to elevate others. This virus makes whiteness normative, perfect, privy, the description of all things beautiful and of greater value than all else. The Bible calls this idolatry and overreach.

Someone has asked me in the midst of all the conversations I've had in these days of racism to hear a bit more of my story about race. I need you to know that I went back and read (it was painful), but I went back and read.... I don't know about you, Pastor Jim. I don't like to go back and reread my sermons. I went back and read every episcopal address that I have given to you. And I have told my story in pieces and in parts because that's the way our lives are. But when I say that racism is the elevation of whiteness to be normative, greater than, and the most beautiful standard by which everything must be measured, I do want to tell you one story.

I have an aunt on my maternal side, now deceased, who was about my complexion, maybe a little darker. She grew up in a small mill town in central Pennsylvania as did she and my mom and their other 7 siblings. She was so tormented by race throughout her life because she had drunk the Kool-Aid and inhaled that if you're white you're right. If you're white, you're beautiful. It was the standard of every positive thing she saw, and what she saw and heard so many times mirrored back to herself, was that her blackness was ugly. It was an obstacle. It would make life difficult for her. I said to you racism and white supremacy damage the psyche. One day she left home, never to return again so to speak. And in a difficult conversation with my maternal grandmother she said to her, (can you imagine?) "I curse you, my mother, the day you bore me black into the world."

You want to know my story? I want you to know my story. And I want you to know how many people of my hue and of varying shades have stories like that, perhaps not as dramatic, perhaps only internalized. And I want you to imagine the long-term damage that does to the human personality. I tell you, when you make whiteness normative, when you make whiteness of greater value than everything else, when you make whiteness the standard of that which is good, perfect, beautiful and excellent it is overreach. It's a sin. It's another sign of our falling short of the glory of God and of God's dream for all, not for some. God's dream is that every child of God in this nation and in the nations of the world, would have the opportunity to flourish, and that our diversity of color, the distribution of melanin in our bodies, the varying rainbow of color and pigment, that we are together, would not be a curse, not be an obstacle, not be a stumbling block to value and to importance and to opportunity and to relationship.

The question going forward, even as George Floyd is buried in Texas today, and as we continue to wrestle in the public space with demonstrations in the street, as they ought to be, peaceful. A question for us as church... May I be specific? ...the United Methodist Church. May I be more specific? The West Ohio Conference. ...is: will we engage rigorously and robustly or will we sit on the real and proverbial sidelines assuming that this little crisis will pass? Do we believe, we as church have anything to contribute to the healing of the land from the Indiana line, the Michigan line, the Pennsylvania border and the Ohio River? Are our one thousand churches...the demographics of specific communities and counties notwithstanding, do we have the moral fortitude and courage to hear the voice of God calling us? And when we hear that song that says "I can hear my Savior calling," does it include engaging in the work of dismantling racism and white supremacy?

Are we a voice and a presence and a sign that stands as a contradiction to the insidious destruction of the image of God that is in all of us, but acted out through systemic and personal racism against some of us more than others? Will we be seduced into the notion that we can't get involved because it's political? Seriously? Open your Bible. Read your Bible. You may want to start with Exodus 3, and if you don't have much time, leap to the passage that Karen read this morning from Isaiah 58. And so this question: if not now, when? And if not us, who?

Yesterday the President of the Council of Bishops, Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey, the first Latina president of the Council of Bishops, issued a statement in our behalf. And in it were not just words that abhorred the egregiousness of racism and white supremacy, but a Call to Action. Not a complete blueprint for what will make what is wrong right, but a starting place. And she has asked, and I in turn as your bishop, ask you to join me, but most of all join one another, in implementing some of these things and trust that God will guide us into the other ways in which we might implement pathways that will help us be rid of the scourge of racism. She asked, and now I ask you, that we would all reclaim our baptismal vows. They would not just be words that were said to us and over us as some rite of passage so we could get a membership card, but that we take seriously again the invitation of those vows to resist evil and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves.

I ask, along with the bishops of our church, that we name, we find voice, we find courage to say out loud, it is racism and there is white supremacy in our society, unspoken and unnamed, talked about only in smoke-filled parlors. We will not ever get anywhere in this regard. I ask you, along with colleagues, that we affirm peaceful protests. I ask you that we would claim that it is time to use our voices, our pens, our feet and our hearts, and I want to say to you, and our votes to vote in directions locally and otherwise, that will help the people be in office who are deeply committed to the dismantling of racism in our midst.

It is time for silence to be broken on this matter for our silence breeds and speaks more complicity. It is time for us to re-read and more than that, to converse and to truly know our neighbors. And finally she asked, and I ask of you, for the next 30 days at least (the letter says) at 8:46 a.m. and p.m. for 8 minutes and 46 seconds, would you find it possible to bow your heart if not your body in prayer that God would join us in this work of dismantling racism and white supremacy and all forms of injustice in our society and the societies where the United Methodist Church is present.

My friends, this is hard work. For some it will be the hardest work you have ever done to date. We are called to do nothing less than to cry deliverance in the streets in these times. We are called to nothing less than the complete dismantling of racism in order that we might build the beloved community, we are called as Jeremiah intones "to pluck up and to plant." This is not about the tearing down of one thing and not putting something better in its place. We tear down systemic evil and injustice that's called racism and white supremacy, in order that we are freer to build the beloved community where I see in you and you see in me, and I see in groups of people that look like one pigment, I see nothing but the image of God.

We should have no expectation that this will be easy. Evil will not stand down without a fight, especially when it permeates the personal, the social, the systemic and the institutional. But we should expect, my friends, that God will be faithful because that is the very nature of God. We should work in the sure knowledge that we are not alone. Why? Because God is with us.

We should trust that if we start across the Red Sea from injustice to justice, from racism to beloved community, that every time the chariot wheels of Pharaoh seek to grind anyone into the dust, that God is in the middle of the Red Sea confounding those chariot wheels.

Charles Tindley said it best for me in his hymn Beams of Heaven. "As I go through this wilderness below, guide my feet in peaceful ways and turn my midnights into days. When in the darkness I would grope, faith always sees a star of hope. And soon...soon from all life's griefs and dangers I shall be free someday." But the third verse is the verse that sustains me. Tindley says, (sung by Bishop Palmer) "Harder yet may be the fight; might may often yield to right; wickedness a while may reign; and Satan's cause may seem to gain. But there is a God who rules above with hand of power and heart of love; and if I'm right...and if we're right, he'll fight our battle. We shall be free someday. I do not know how long 'twill be or what the future holds for me." (But let me tell you what I do know.) "But this I know, if Jesus leads me, I shall get home someday."

And now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. And may the blessing of God, Creator, Redeemer, Perfector and Sanctifier be with us all now and always. Amen.

B. BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Presented by: Brian Law

The Board of Ministry's work is important. We are entrusted with the responsibility for each candidate that comes before us. We take that responsibility seriously. The Board of Ministry and the District Committees on Ordained Ministry are charged with the task of reviewing, vetting and interviewing all ministerial candidates and those requesting specialized certification.

The work that the BOM and DCOM cannot be done without the hard work of the West Ohio Conference Office of Ministry. The work of the BOM couldn't be done without the support, guidance and work of the Office of Ministry. The work that Rev. Donnetta Peaks and Susan Thomas do is amazing. Not even a pandemic can stop the work of the Office of Ministry.

Because the majority of the work of the BOM involves interviewing candidates for ministry, it has been a priority to spend time at our fall board meetings honing our skills of interviewing candidates. Every interview team bears the weight of responsibility for every candidate interviewed as they read hundreds of pages of a candidate's file which includes references, answers to the historical questions, Bible studies, and sermons. Each candidate works hundreds of hours to complete the work needed for the interview. Because of the responsibility the BOM carries, it is imperative to learn best practices on how to read and process each candidate's file.

Another commitment we have made as a BOM to the annual conference is to work hard to ensure that our district and conference board of ministry members are diverse. Our teams are made up of individuals who reflect our conference. We have a mix of individuals from different locations around conference, male and female, different racial backgrounds and theological diversity that makes for a rich grouping of people to interview our candidates.

The biggest project we have been working on as a Board over the last three years has been the creation and implementation of an eight-year assessment and vocational renewal process for all clergy. A team was formed to help build this process and have worked hundreds of hours to design this process for West Ohio. We designed a six-month process that includes time for reflection, equipping and setting our clergy up to flourish. The name of the West Ohio process is – "Your ministry: Reflecting, Equipping and Flourishing," or REF.

We kicked off this six-month process last September with 50 clergy including the cabinet. We gathered for a three-day event that gave room for us to reflect, be equipped for the future or to help to learn how to flourish. The retreat also helped each participant think deeply about their own Emotional Intelligence or (EQ). After the retreat, a coach was provided to help each participant set goals for the six months and provide ways to help each clergy reflect, be equipped and flourish.

This will be my last BOM report because my term has come to a conclusion. It has been a privilege to serve the Bishop, the Board of Ministry and the West Ohio Annual Conference. The last three years have grown me as a leader and grown my appreciation for The UMC's process for the identification, examination and credentialing of clergy women and men. I have learned how to be nimble as a leader as we navigated the challenging waters in the UMC over the last few years. Thank you for your prayers and affirmations.

Respectfully submitted by Rev. Dr. Brian Law, Chair, Board of Ordained Ministry

C. BOARD OF PENSION & HEALTH BENEFITS

Presented by: Ken Woode

Bishop, members of the cabinet and Members of this Annual Conference, at the request and with the authority of outgoing board chair, Barry DeShetler, I'm pleased to report on the work of your Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits and present our recommendation. The recommendation from the Board is found on pages 70 to 76.

While staying true to the theme of this Annual Conference Session, Be Not Afraid – God Is With Us, I will take a few moments to review past accomplishments of your Board and to look ahead to future preparations. Through both of these linear directions, we remember that God Is With Us.

Even during “normal” times, dealing with the complexities of our health care systems (no matter what system in which you participate) and managing the retirement systems for our clergy can be a daunting task. Now, add to that, the new environment that COVID-19 has caused including the postponement of General Conference, Jurisdictional Conference, and our own Annual Conference session, navigating through 2020 and beyond requires us all to place our trust in KNOWING that God Is With Us.

So, what has happened over the past few years that allows us to look back and agree that God has been guiding us as we navigated through our clergy benefit programs?

I would like to take a few moments to cover three areas:

- Changes in Attitudes Toward Clergy Benefits
- Changes in the Support of Individual Clergy Members
- Changes in the Support Provided to Local Churches

Changes in Attitudes

Whether you consider your health care coverage or your retirement plan participation, your Board has consistently encouraged you to take on personal responsibility. You are your own best advocate.

Our health care demographics prove difficult for any insurance carrier to offer a financially reasonable health care coverage that fits everyone. With that in mind, for several years the Conference has been paying the actual claims for active clergy under our health care policy. Even when we changed from Aetna to Anthem last year, the Conference is self-insuring the policies. We pay for what we use.

Yes, there is “stop-loss” coverage for catastrophic claims.

Yes, we exist under a “high-deductible” policy.

However, you have access to a Health Savings Account that is generously underwritten by the Conference. Also, more resources have been made available through the Conference website with new programs initiated to assist YOU in being the best health care advocate you can be.

Changes in Support of Individuals

- Wellness Pages on the Conference Website
- Wellness Seminars
- Financial Well-Being Initiative
- Automatic Enrollment and Escalation in UMPIP
- Employee Assistance Program (EAP)
- Gardner Housing Grant Program

One of the features added last year was Physical, Financial, Emotional, and Spiritual Wellness pages on the West Ohio Conference website.

Through this website information, you can access clergy wellness benchmark reports and information and/or links to other sites that provide wellness information for both active clergy and retirees.

Last fall we rolled out Wellness Seminars designed to inform and inspire clergy on their journey to holistic wellness. Over 125 clergy and spouses made their way to one of three events where breakout workshops from OhioHealth, EY and Spiritual Director Bonnie Weaver-Miller were available. The feedback from these seminars was amazing with 96% of respondents saying they would recommend the seminar to a friend and by comments such as “great program with financial debt reduction: kudos to the conference;” “practical, actionable information that can help your life;” and “great time, very encouraging, loved the surprise about the incentive for debt reduction.”

Speaking of the incentive for debt reduction, the conference applied for, and received, a grant through Wespath’s Clergy Financial Well-Being Initiative to offer an incentive to those who attended the financial wellness breakout session. This six-month incentive awarded $100 for every $1,000 of debt paid. By the time it was over, 29 individuals paid off over $152,000 of debt and were awarded $12,900 in incentives. The program was so successful the conference was asked to share its findings with other conferences and organizations.

Another financial wellness initiative relates to the Retirement Plan. Over the past two years the board has been proactive and strategic about retirement readiness by implementing automatic enrollment and escalation. Automatic enrollment has lifted our UMPIP participation to 91%. Automatic escalation has seen the average retirement contribution rate go from 4.6% to 5.4% or an estimated additional $273,000. Between the debt reduction incentive and automatic escalation, our participants have seen a $425,000 increase in net worth this year. YOU are helping yourselves to have a more secure financial picture upon retirement.

An Employee Assistance Program (EAP) was initiated to provide confidential support for professional emotional assistance. This program has been utilized by both clergy and lay members of the Conference and their family members. The EAP is available for eligible clergy, lay Conference and District employees, and their dependent family members. For clergy, this includes ALL pastors appointed to a local church, clergy appointed to extension ministry, and clergy serving on Conference and District staffs. For laity, this includes certified lay ministers as well as lay Conference and District staffs.

If you are a first-time appointed clergy OR a newly hired Conference or District staff person, you are eligible after six months.

We rejoice that this service is being provided at no cost to you by OhioHealth.

Your Board continues to support retirees in financial need through the Gardner Housing Grant program. In 2019, just under $20,000 in grants were awarded to retirees and their spouses to support their housing needs.

Changes in Support of Local Churches

- Incorporation of the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits
- Implementing electronic pension payments
- COVID-19 Financial Benefit Grants

In an effort to increase efficiencies, insulate board assets and protect members and officers from personal liability, the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits became an incorporated entity with the West Ohio Conference being the sole member.

Another cost-effective effort was the implementation of electronic pension payments made by the local churches. What has been done for years in the collection of health insurance premiums is now done for pension also. This change will lead to increased efficiency, improved accuracy and savings at the local church and conference level.

Perhaps more directly, your Board allocated $500,000 to be distributed in the way of benefit grants to local churches to assist those most in financial need during the COVID-19 pandemic. Grants were given to 168 churches as the full $500,000 amount was distributed. A shout out to Rhonda Tyree and Conference Controller, Linda Russo, who assisted in making this happen while also working remotely.

In addition, Wespath implemented a three-month Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) holiday to the Conference. This meant that the Conference saved approximately $250,000, making the net impact of the grant distribution only $250,000. When you consider that all these things occurred in the midst of changing the active health care and dental provider plans, there is no doubt that God IS indeed with us!

Preparing for the Future

While the future is always considered to be uncertain, it does not take a superior prognosticator to realize that as tumultuous as 2020 has been, 2021 and beyond will continue that trend. This makes the role of your Board even more important as we continue to navigate what makes sense for you and the Annual Conference.

Due to the diligent care and tough decisions made over the past several years, the Health Care plans have approximately $58 million in reserve to cover active and retiree health care liabilities. Also, we continue to be fully funded for our pension plan.

It is the belief of your Board that reducing connectional giving requests (i.e. apportionments) for clergy benefits is of the upmost priority. Moving toward self-supported plans is a goal for your board.

In order to meet this goal for years to come, the Board unanimously voted to begin restructuring the retiree health care plan using a Health Reimbursement Account model under the Via Benefits program in consultation with Wespath.

This shift of retiree health care will allow for participants to right-size their medical, dental and vision insurance coverage by choosing what best meets their unique needs. It will also reduce long-term plan liability which speaks to future sustainability and offer financial savings for participants and spouses. More information regarding this potential 01/01/2022 change will be communicated to retirees next year.

At this time, there is no anticipated change for the active clergy health care plan. The latest medical claims data are being reviewed in preparation for setting 2021 premiums.

We all are reminded that we have a personal responsibility to God, our families, our local churches, and ourselves to take the best possible care of ourselves. The stabilization of our health care costs will only happen when, individually, we take better care of us.

Going forward, there continues to be reliable resources at the Conference office to help you navigate your benefits. Mike Kremnitzer, Director of Benefits and Human Resources, and Sandi George, Benefits Coordinator, will help you and answer questions you may have around YOUR benefits.

For the Pre-82 plan, the past service rate or PSR will remain at $611 per service year for 2021, and this yearly rate may not be decreased.

As I have mentioned, you are your own best advocate. Yet, you are not the only advocate – God Is With Us. In addition, the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits walks this journey with you and seeks additional ways to help you become “retirement ready.”

While we know that God is with us in trying and perhaps chaotic situations, preparing for retirement can be something that YOU can help to control. Participate in retirement funding to the maximum level you can. Continue to or begin to take advantage of retirement seminars. I know that for some of you, retirement is really low on your list of priorities. Still, it is NEVER too early to be considering how you are preparing for that day in the future when you move into retirement status with the Annual Conference.

Bishop, members of the cabinet, and members of this annual conference I want to thank Barry DeShetler, chair of this board; Mike Kremnitzer our Conference Benefits Officer, Sandi George our Conference Benefits Coordinator, and Bill Brownson, CFO and Director of Administration, for their leadership and work this past year. They all are superb assets to our Conference. I look forward to moving Recommendation #2 to Annual Conference consideration when we convene on September 12.

D. BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Presented by: Ann Baird

Greetings Bishop Palmer and members of the West Ohio Annual Conference. In a typical year, the Trustees' report would serve as the annual meeting requirement under our State of Ohio Code of Regulations. This year, this written report, which will be entered into the proceedings of Annual Conference and acknowledged during session, will serve as our 2020 meeting requirement.

The Board of Trustees met five times since the last Annual Conference and conducted substantial work on behalf of the conference.

As a consequence of the February 2019 Special General Conference, Trustees reviewed new paragraphs in the Book of Discipline, particularly with respect to churches wishing to leave the denomination, and provided guidance on implementing them in West Ohio.

After a two-year process, we finalized the creation of the Board of Pensions of the West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church, Inc., and the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio, Inc. The Conference is the sole legal member of each corporation and they will continue to work consistent with their historic activities, the Book of Discipline and their respective Codes of Regulation. By way of this report, the Board of Trustees requests the Conference Secretary review and update Annual Conference Rules to be consistent with each Code of Regulation, particularly with names (e.g., no longer Council on Development) and the means by which directors are nominated and seated.

The committees of the Board were also active. Julie Hurtig, Chair of the Real Estate Committee, led continuing conversations about facilities needs at our three camps and the Conference Center. As of this writing and because of COVID-19, major projects at our camps were suspended, except for those addressing safety and health matters. The Conference Center roof was replaced, and elevator cab updated, bringing to a close the years-long planned renovation work. Feedback on the renovated Conference Center has been excellent and rewarding. We look forward to the day when it can be used to its full potential once again.

In April 2020 the Trustees approved the application for a $1.1 million Paycheck Protection Plan loan under the CARES Act, which was passed and adopted in response to the economic impact of COVID-19. This loan was applied for on behalf of all districts and the conference, and we expect it all to be forgiven and to restore depleted reserves.

Trustees also have the responsibility for property of closed local churches. This comes about after a District Superintendent recommends closure or reports abandonment and Extended Cabinet concurs. Since our last Annual Conference, the following churches were closed:

- In the Capitol Area South District:
 - Village Chapel, October 21, 2019
 - West Park, December 31, 2019
- In the Foothills District:
 - Pisgah June 15, 2019
 - Cannelville, October 27, 2019
 - Carbon Hill, May 1, 2020
 - Portersville, June 30, 2020
- In the Maumee Watershed District:
 - Bettsville Salem, June 30, 2019
 - Toledo Zion, June 30, 2020
- In the Miami Valley District:
 - Gordon UMC, December 31, 2019
 - Camden UMC, June 30, 2020
- In the Ohio River Valley District:
 - Bethel, September 15, 2019
 - Deerfield, April 19, 2020
- In the Shawnee Valley District:
 - Slabfork Centenary, July 1, 2019
 - Rarden, June 14, 2020

Under the oversight of the Trustees, the Conference Investment Policy Committee stewards the investment management of more than $80 million. Marlen Yost chairs this committee, which ensures that local church endowment funds, assets set aside for clergy benefits, conference reserves and the Trustees own endowment are appropriately invested. We are grateful for the diversification of our investment portfolios that so far have weathered well the extreme ups and downs in the market. With the United Methodist

Foundation of West Ohio now created, the Trustees moved at its June 2020 meeting to place all conference investments under the administration of the Foundation.

Trustees also relate to the Conference Commission on Archives and History. Sharon Monigold started the annual conference year as the new archivist for West Ohio and East Ohio Annual Conferences. As with many employees, particularly in higher education, Sharon's position was furloughed for several months. She is expected back on campus when students return. I'm grateful for Tom Slack who leads our Archives Commission and Trustee Bill Davis who keeps the trustees informed of the commission's work.

The final area of Trustee focus is with our Affiliated Organizations Committee. They continue to refine their role and relationships with our senior living communities, UMCH Family Services, The Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, United Methodist Financial Credit Union, and Preachers' Relief Society. COVID-19 has provided yet another context through which we value and appreciate the missions of all these organizations. OhioHealth in particular has been of great assistance, providing timely and informed guidance to the Conference on matters of returning to worship, summer camping experiences and Conference Center activities. The groundwork for this was laid by years of persistent and diligent work led by Rev. Keith Vesper who retired from OhioHealth on January 1 of 2020. I am ever grateful for Ann Hartmann's leadership of this committee over the past several years.

I would be remiss if I didn't single out Chris Hogan, our Conference Chancellor. Chris provides the Board of Trustees and the Conference with excellent legal counsel. He's developed a portfolio of work that other conferences have benefited from as well. He also leads our annual Legal Forum that alternates its location between Ohio Northern University's Law School and Ohio Wesleyan University. The Legal Forum will not be in-person this year. The current plan is to hold a virtual Legal Forum via Zoom or other online platform.

This being the end of a quadrennium, years of experience and exceptional talent will depart this board including committee chairs Julie Hurtig and Ann Hartmann, as well as Bill Davis, Greg Stover, Althea Botts and Janice Deal. They have contributed to the work and leadership of the Conference in many ways, mostly unseen. I'm grateful for their leadership and support. Finally, it has been an honor and a privilege to serve on the Board of Trustees for eight years and as chair the past four years. Thank you for the opportunity to serve my church in this way.

The Board of Trustees requests this report be placed in the records and proceedings of the 2020 Annual Conference as if it were formally adopted in a Corporate Session as has been historical practice. We look forward to an in-person presentation and report at the 2021 Annual Conference, God willing.

E. CABINET

Presented by: Barry Burns

Bishop Palmer, members, and friends of the West Ohio Annual Conference, it is once again my honor and privilege to bring to you the cabinet report. Even in the midst of a season of uncertainty, anxiety, ambiguity, and many, many questions, this is a cabinet that enjoys our work with the clergy and laity of the West Ohio Annual Conference. We are honored to serve you in this time in our history.

This is an experienced cabinet. Four of us are now in our seventh year in this capacity, one is in the sixth year, two are now in their fifth year, and one is in his second year, I think all of us can honestly say that this has been a year like no other in any of our ministries. What started out a year ago as a year we were all anticipating the General Conference in May of this year, and dealing with the decisions made there, quickly changed in what seems like a blink of the eye. We would never have predicted that the COVID-19 pandemic would prevent us from worshipping together for as long as it did. But during this time, we were forced into seeing ministry in all new ways. We saw more and more pastors and congregations dive into an online presence with virtual worship in ways they never dreamed possible before this. Congregations stepped up and began intentionally reaching out and caring for one another in a time of social distancing. Our churches rallied to provide food where there was a lot of insecurity; clergy and laity both volunteered to be trained as contact tracers in the battle against COVID-19; and technology was used in ways and in places never attempted before. Of course, we grieve what has happened and for the lives that have been lost and for the families who have been devastated, but we also acknowledge that the church never closed. We have leaned into and faced the challenges presented by the pandemic and continue to strive to be the church God calls us to be!

Then came the protests in response to the acts of racism that we continue to see in our country far too often. We know that our silence in the face of systemic racism and oppression makes us part of the problem. It is not enough to rationalize that we, as individuals, are not racists. But we, as the Body of Christ, must stand against racism and oppression, wherever we see and experience it as Christ called us to do. There is much to lament, and confess, and repent of, but we must also commit ourselves to doing better from here on if we are going to be the church God calls us to be!

And if all of that isn't enough, even though it has been pushed into the background for a while, we know the elephant in the room is what will happen when the 2020 General Conference that was postponed meets in 2021. We know that we are still polarized as a denomination around human sexuality and other theological issues. We understand and acknowledge that we know we will look different in the future than we look currently, and that is probably a good thing. But we strongly believe that if we are unable to commit ourselves to our primary mission of Making Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World, then little else will matter. Our mission is not to save the denomination; it is not to preserve our buildings and keep our doors open, it is not to protect our traditions, or whatever else we have slipped into. Our mission is to Make Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World. All that we do must be centered on that mission.

Last year in my report, I spoke about some of the challenges facing our churches. The demographics showing fewer people in our country participating in churches and our difficulty engaging our changing rural, suburban, and urban communities. Then there are the institutional challenges like our system of itinerancy, the sustainability of our congregations as well as our conference structures, and the polarization of our culture which has found its way into our denomination and local churches. And as I look at this list, it hasn't really changed.

Life and ministry are just complicated beyond what any of us expected. And I am guessing that there are times we could admit that we long for simpler days. We just want to go back to the good old days when our pews were filled, our Sunday school classrooms were filled with the noises of children, and we didn't have to worry about all of these complications. But, as I get older, what I have come to realize is that the good old days that we long for were never really as good as we remember.

The truth is: life and ministry are difficult. But as I read the Gospels, there was no place where Jesus promised that following him as a disciple would be easy. With all of the challenges facing us today, there come wonderful opportunities for us to be faithful witnesses of God's grace as we speak out against oppression and racism, as we feed the hungry and clothe the naked, as we visit the sick and imprisoned, as we proclaim the Good News of new life in the midst of death and brokenness.

But to get to that point, we must get over ourselves, and realize that the church is not about us. It is not about getting the next appointment that I deserve. It is not about retaining control of my church. What it is about is building our ministry around our mission of Making Disciples. It is about loving God and loving others. If we as clergy and laity alike can build our ministry on our mission, and put aside all those things that distract us, the future can be bright!

In closing, let me say that it has indeed been my honor to serve as the Dean of the cabinet once again this year. This is a gifted, experienced team of superintendents who love the church, who continue to love and pray for the congregations and people in each district, and who continue to be hope filled for what God is still doing in and through the West Ohio Conference.

F. CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Presented by: Chris Clough

Greetings to you Bishop Palmer and Members of Annual Conference. I am pleased to bring a report that will give an update on our financial state from the Council on Finance and Administration.

The years 2019 and 2020 (so far) have been a challenge for many of us in The West Ohio Annual Conference – at all levels – local church, district, and conference. We have struggled together with what it means to be the United Methodist Church in this world, and in 2020 we have been faced with a global health pandemic perpetuated by the COVID-19 virus. Many of us are not in our church buildings, and have not been in some months, as we work to protect one another from a virus that has no proven treatment or vaccine. Our relationships have been strained as we try to maintain our congregations and continue our mission and ministries in our communities and broader world. Our personal finances have been diminished and strained with job losses and reductions. And, although faithful giving to our local churches, districts and the annual conference continues, the reductions have had an impact that no one could have anticipated as 2019 rolled into 2020.

But, yet here we are again – meeting together to implement the work of The Annual Conference, which means reviewing our finances and presenting a meaningful budget for 2021 so that we may all continue our mission as the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church. I can confidently state to you that your Council on Finance and Administration has been preparing for a moment such as this. We meet regularly throughout the year to review our existing financial position and plan for the future. We have a devoted and competent financial staff who advise and guide us.

Since 2011, the West Ohio Conference leadership and the Council on Finance and Administration have been focused on realizing meaningful efficiencies and prioritizing resources that allow us to equip local churches for making disciples of Jesus Christ. A key result of this work is reducing the overall level of apportioned connectional giving, so more resources remain part of each church's mission and ministry plan. Since 2012, the beginning of my eight years on CFA, the conference has achieved several millions of dollars in expense savings by taking actions such as these:

- The sale of fleet vehicles and adopting a mileage reimbursement strategy;
- Savings from restructuring Retiree and Active health plans;
- Increase in investments for retired clergy housing assistance with the sale of Gardner Village;
- Annual rental savings due to the purchase of the conference center;
- Consolidating the financial administration of two Districts into the conference financial department;
- Staff reductions through attrition at the Conference level, and
- Use of non-apportioned income to fulfill expense obligations, including funds raised through the Light the Way Campaign.

Additionally, conference and district connectional giving apportionments were reduced by $2.7 million (12.5%) to empower local church mission and ministry. Bishop Palmer has described the purpose of our administrative actions as making sure that we as a conference have the capacity to keep our promises and to keep dreaming.

While you will find a more detailed financial and budget narrative in Conference CFO, Bill Brownson's report and in supporting information for Recommendation #1, I'd like to share a few items:

- Receipts on apportioned connectional giving for 2019 came in at 68%, not 72% as budgeted; 525 churches participated fully by contributing 100% of their apportioned connectional giving level. We are grateful for this commitment.
- The West Ohio Conference maintained our commitment to our United Methodist connection by paying 90% of our 2019 General Church apportionments, a reduction from 95% fulfillment of our 2018 General Conference obligations. I would like to note in the four years prior to 2018, we maintained four consecutive years of paying 100% of our General Church obligations.
- The members of your CFA believe that we must be committed to meeting our General Church obligations if we ask our local churches to meet their apportioned connectional giving commitments. The 2021 budget attempts to continue our practice of funding 100% of our General Church apportioned giving to continue our support of global church priorities.
- Planned conference programming took place as budgeted.

The Audit Committee continues to work on our behalf to ensure that our sound financial position is supported by a successful audit. We continue to work with Clark Schaefer Hackett as our auditing partner. The audit will be completed in August and received by CFA prior to Annual Conference. As always, the audited financial statements will be reported in the Journal and posted on the Conference website..

I look forward moving Recommendation #1 for Annual Conference action when we convene on September 12.

Recommendation #1 will be our shared financial commitment to provide for the Mission and Ministry of the West Ohio Conference and our districts. This is a statement about our missional priorities and is the backbone and support of our work together in 2021. A few highlights to consider:

- The total amount apportioned will be a reduction from what has been requested for 2020 due to:
 - Reductions in connectional giving requests from the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits and the board of Trustees related to administrative costs for those two boards; and
 - Organizational changes for Missional Church Development expenses.
 - We are expecting an overall 65% apportioned connectional giving receipt rate for general church (60%) and conference ministries (69%)
- Our 2021 financial plan provides support of the Connection at 100% of the apportioned General Church and Jurisdictional requests.

This is my final year serving on the West Ohio Conference Council on Finance and Administration. It has been my privilege to serve on this council for two quadrennia – the final four years as president. Anyone looking to be involved in a meaningful way for our annual conference should consider the CFA. It is one of the most concrete and visible ways to support the mission and ministry of the church in our annual conference. I thank all the council members with whom I have served with over eight years. A special recognition and thanks must go out to the members who complete their service with me this year as well: Rosemary Dupler (Foothills), Ron Fanning (Northwest Plains), Rev. Cyndy Garn (Capital Area North), Rev. Doug Johns (Ohio River Valley), and Vancenja Rutherford (Miami Valley). I am indebted to the collaborative and important work of the folks who have chosen to serve on the council.

In addition to the members of the council, I thank the West Ohio Conference financial staff under the direction of Treasurer/CFO Bill Brownson and Controller Linda Russo. The value of their direction, guidance, attention to detail and devotion to supporting the mission of the church is without price.

As a past church treasurer, I understand the commitment and sacrifice made at the local church to participate financially in our conference and district mission. And, especially in 2020 the sacrifice is felt so keenly in our local churches. Your Council on Finance and Administration feels this burden as well, and we recognize that we live amid uncertainty within our denomination. We know that this uncertainty can lead to changes in local church priorities, including financial priorities. Your CFA is prepared to evaluate and adjust to those priorities as needed. What has not changed is our commitment to support our shared mission and ministry in our local churches, our districts, our Conference and throughout the world. Your support turns our missional aspirations into realities. Thank you for your faithfulness. Thank you for your commitment to the mission of the United Methodist Church – in your community, in our Conference and throughout the world.

Respectfully Submitted,
Christine L. Clough
President, West Ohio Council on Finance and Administration

G. EPISCOPACY

Presented by: Rev. Karen Cook

Greetings to the members and friends of the West Ohio Annual Conference, Bishop and Mrs. Palmer, Conference Superintendents, and Conference Staff. I bring greetings from the Ohio West Area Committee on Episcopacy, where it has been my honor to serve as your chair over these past four years. I want to say a word about this incredible team who travel from the north from the Maumee Watershed District and from the south from the Shawnee Valley District and districts in between. This team asks good questions; they engage in deep listening and offer loving and caring support for our Resident Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer.

Members of the committee:

Stephen Brooks	Rev. Wade Giffin	Dale Lynch	Rev. Paula Stewart
Charlotte Bruhn	Leslie Hall	Diana Skinner	Rev. Greg Stover
Rev. Edinson de Arco	Rev. Cathy Johns	Tom Slater	Valarie Willis
Haze Flowers	Stacey Kyser	Chris Steiner	Kyung Yu

Over these past four years Bishop Palmer has walked this conference through four movements of Be Not Afraid: In 2017, Be Not Afraid: Facing the Future. In 2018, Be Not Afraid: There is Enough. In 2019, Be Not Afraid: Hope and we made it to this year's theme, Be Not Afraid: God Is With Us

Bishop Palmer is uniquely gifted and deeply passionate about his service among God's people. His giftedness radiates beyond the bounds of West Ohio. He is the Bishop of the whole United Methodist Church. He is respected and therefore chosen to serve in a multitude of ways. I believe this is because he is deeply rooted in his call as an Elder and his covenant with all other Elders to order the life of the Church for service in mission and ministry. ¶332

Our theme this year, Be Not Afraid: God Is With Us, captures for Bishop Palmer this sense that whatever is going on in the world around us: God is with us! In uncertain times, God is with us, in times of chaos, God is with us, in times of fear of what the future might hold...God is with us! Beloved, 1 John 3:2 (CEB) articulates it this way:

"Dear friends, now we are God's children, and it hasn't yet appeared what we will be. We know that when he appears we will be like him because we'll see him as he is." So if Bishop Palmer were to put this passage of scripture in a song, what came to my mind was "We Shall Behold Him" by Sandi Patty:

The sky shall unfold
Preparing His entrance
The stars shall applaud Him
With thunders of praise
The sweet light in His eyes, shall enhance those awaiting
And we shall behold Him, then face to face

O we shall behold Him, we shall behold Him
Face to face in all of His glory
O we shall behold Him, yes we shall behold Him
Face to face, our Savior and Lord

The angel will sound, the shout of His coming
And the sleeping shall rise, from there slumbering place
And those remaining, shall be changed in a moment
And we shall behold him, then face to face

We shall behold Him, o yes we shall behold Him
Face to face in all of His glory
We shall behold Him, face to face
Our Savior and Lord
We shall behold Him, our Savior and Lord
Savior and Lord!

And the people of God said: Amen!

H. EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

Presented By: Mark Weatherman

Bishop Palmer, Members of the Cabinet, honored guests and Brothers and Sisters in Christ, on behalf of the Equitable Compensation Commission, we humbly come before this annual conference with the recommendation for Equitable Compensation. As this is my 8th and final year to make this report to the Conference, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the members of the Commission, our staff representative Jack Frost, Treasurer Bill Brownson and Bishop Palmer. I, personally, and the Committee appreciate the support of you and the Cabinet, as well as providing and listening to input over these years, as we strove to address the issues of Equitable Compensation in a trying financial time and yes, even addressing the issues of vacation!

In all of our actions and ministry, as a conference, as well as individual churches and clergy, may we live into the Scriptural theme of this conference, where we are the people of God. God will be with us and will be our God. We are at a difficult crossroads, but we are still God's people and may we always live, love and act as His church in this world that needs to see His presence through us. Through these months of disaster fatigue and trying times, we need even more to seek God's love and justice for all His people.

Over the eight years, we have strived to move Equitable Compensation in new directions, although often it is needed mainly to continue to best match clergy and congregations within the conference. So, as we continue to remember all who have been called to God's ministry, and pray that while they are faithful to God, and that we as a Conference and a church must also be faithful to them, thus our need to be certain that pastors are treated with care and respect. The Equitable Compensation Commission is called to assist those who are called by God in the ministry to His people. The commission is established by Discipline to allow the Bishop and Cabinet additional flexibility in connecting the right and best Spiritual Leadership with the local community, even in cases where financial assistance may be required to help this match occur. We all have various gifts that God has given us and the opportunity to match a pastor's gift with the needs of the local church is paramount to advancement of God's Kingdom. We all know God's desire for the church. We pray that those who are called into God's service, along with the communities they serve, will be faithful and fearless so that all people may come to know of the plans of God, including His love, justice and grace. Often, however, the potential for a local congregation and community outreach, can only be accomplished and its territory grown with the proper transformational leadership, that may require temporary financial assistance to reach that goal.

As established under the guidelines of the Book of Discipline, funds were set aside in this year's budget to provide temporary community support under the definitions presented under minimum salary support; key leadership support; key Missional salary support and special salary support. Working with the Cabinet, the commission seeks to coordinate local needs, while working to minimize the need for long term minimum salary support.

The minimum salary increase recommendation for 2021 is an average of 2% over last year. This increase was determined after much discussion, as we seek to balance the issues of seeing that clergy families are properly supported versus the realization that with the costs of salary, housing, pension and health insurance is becoming a struggle for many congregations. While some cost of living studies show a higher rate of increase, we know that some reports show a slowing in wage inflation. We also continue to emphasize that minimum salaries are just that, a minimum compensation level for the purpose of determining Missional support needs. Any individual local church can and should determine merit increases at or above this amount of increase.

However, we realize that for us to continue ministry in many locations, a cost-of-living increase for the pastor may create undue hardship on the congregation and even possibly limit ministry in certain locations. We realize each situation is different and compensation should be determined based on the needs and conditions of the church and pastor. Furthermore, with the reduction of Conference budget, including the Equitable Compensation line item, the amount of minimum compensation for those on full Equitable Compensation must be considered.

Once again, we as a Commission are thankful for your support over the years for your clergy. Thank you for your consideration as you have read and evaluated the Commission's resolution for your consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,
Mark Weatherman, EQ Chair

I. LIGHT THE WAY

Presented by: Doug Johns & Tom Hofmann

As United Methodists, we are living in a time of challenge and opportunity. The Leadership Team for Light the Way and the Staff are convicted and committed to continue the mission of this great church which is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. For those of us in West Ohio, we believe this includes a world of justice, love and peace filled with people growing in the likeness of Jesus Christ.

The words of Isaiah 30:21 encourage us, "And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, 'This is the way, walk in it, when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left.'" Friends let us keep walking in the way of God and remember, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness but will have the light of life (John 8:12).

In West Ohio, we are Lighting the Way with new communities of faith, Fresh Expressions, and new life cycles of ministry. A year ago, we were reaching 1,200 new people, and today we stand at 2,362. Since September 2017 we have baptized 259 in Jesus Christ. Even more of our existing congregations are discovering Fresh Expressions and discerning new methods for ministry. The Great Commission has not been placed on "pause," thanks to YOU. These ten new faith communities and 30-plus fresh expressions are helping the Church reach new people in various regions across Ohio who are younger, more ethnically diverse, and more socioeconomically diverse.

As of June 20, 2020, we have received 1,630 gifts from 747 individual, church, and district donors for a total of $2,931,596.14. In addition, 9 gifts were paid directly to four new church starts totaling $2,129,000.00. Light the Way is breaking through the $5M goal standing today at $5,065,892.00. Many thanks West Ohio! Keep up the Offering; it makes a difference in your life and the lives of others.

J. MISSIONAL CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

Presented by: Clark Hess

In the world of Fresh Expressions there is a phrase, Deep Roots and Wild Branches (actually the title of a book by Michael Beck), that speaks of renewing already existing churches but also the expansive growth of new faith ventures. I believe that phrase captures the various expressions of the work of the Missional Church Development Team. The work of the MCD Team is focused on three primary strategic initiatives: 1) Revitalization and Capacity Building helping churches discover new seasons of fruitfulness—hence Deep Roots, and 2) New Church Development (NCD) as we seek to raise up new faith communities, and 3) Fresh Expressions as we seek to take the love and mercy of our gracious God to people in places and spaces where they can relate, hence Wild Branches.

One of the ways we seek to deepen the roots and promote the growth of new branches is the awarding of grants through both Revitalization and NCD. Through an extensive process of grant review/assessment/award including site visits, the MCD Team awarded $170,000 in grants to local churches. And through a process in partnership with Brad Aycock with NCD, we awarded $250,000 for NCS grants.

Ten New Faith Communities were planted across the WOC reaching 2300 people in worship with 250-plus baptisms and five more new faith communities being launched this year. This was fueled by the formation of Greenhouse; led by Brad Aycock; which is the seedbed for growing MCD leaders. In 2019, there were eight participants in Greenhouse with 14 already in the process in 2020.

This year, we were able to use some reallocated grant funds to create Boost Grants. These are smaller, one-time, focused grants that help congregations who sense a fresh dream stirring about how to cultivate new relationships with people outside their church that will open the possibility of connecting them to Jesus Christ. We have awarded our first Boost Grants this spring with a total of $40,500 being distributed.

Another aspect of the MCD is the work of the Missional Church Consultation Initiative (MCCI) under the direction of Sue Nilson Kibbey. In 2019-20, we have had four MCCI churches, with over 83 churches all told. In addition to those congregations served in the West Ohio Conference, the MCCI has come alongside 150 congregations in six other conferences within the UMC.

Another exciting development in our MCD work is the flourishing of the Traction Tracks (TT). More than twenty short courses ranging from one-time events to four-day series, more than 140 congregations and pastors have participated in these TT equipping sessions with more than 1100 participants altogether. In addition to the extensive Breakthrough Prayer Traction Tracks (which has become a prayer movement across the United Methodist spectrum with 16 Annual Conferences participating), Sue and Brad and other leaders have offered Family Ties, Guest Readiness, Sparking a Volunteer Revolution, Doing the Math of Mission, Creating a Social Media Strategy, Growing Generous Givers, and more.

Another thrilling story is exponential development of Fresh Expressions (FX) with over 50 in churches across West Ohio. Over 700 people have attended some sort of FX Vision Days or Dinner Church Training. And a number of congregations have participated in the Pioneer Learning Community, a six-month equipping and coaching process for development of FX. For example, at Anderson Hills Church in Cincinnati, Jonathan Kollman launched Faith and Friends on Tap at the Little Miami Brewing Company, where more than 70 people worship. And Trinity UMC in Chillicothe, which has started nine Fresh Expressions, and Sylvania First with 12 unique Fresh Expressions already launched.

And while it will be reported in much greater detail in their own report, the MCD Team is the primary grant review/assessment/award body responsible for utilization of the Light the Way funds.

“Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing.”

John 15:5 (NLT)

K. NOMINATIONS

Presented by: Laura Bensman

I have had the honor and privilege of serving as the chair for the West Ohio Committee on Nominations.

Thank you, West Ohio, for the great people you elected last year to serve! And thank you to those who have said yes to serving in conference leadership! A huge thank you to those who have served the entire quadrennium (or two) and are completing their service. Thank you for blessing West Ohio Conference with your gifts and graces.

The role of the nominations committee really shifts depending on the year and where we are in the quadrennium. For the past few years, the role of our team was to respond to openings that come up for each committee. Although people are elected for four years, things happen in life that requires faithful people to step back from leadership.

This past fall, our focus shifted to preparing for the 2020 slate that will be before annual conference members on September 12. We worked closely with the chairs and staff of each conference committee to understand the nature and work it does, and the leadership qualities important for that work. We also adhered closely to requirements for committee make up, contained within the Book of Discipline and the West Ohio Rules, as we identified lay and clergy to serve in leadership.

We are grateful for those of you who completed the leadership interest form that we placed on the West Ohio Conference website. Your interest deepened the pool of people from which our committee was able to consider as we identified people to serve over the next four years. We invited many of you to serve in leadership. Unfortunately, we were not able to invite everyone to serve. We do, however, still have your interest forms. As positions come open over the next few years, we will review your gifts. If you have not submitted an interest form and would like to be considered for leadership in West Ohio, please go to this link: <https://www.westohioumc.org/nominationscommittee>

As you review the nominations slate that follows this report, I want to celebrate that we have two high school students who have agreed to serve in leadership along with several college students. It has been several years since high school students have been included on the nominations slate. Approximately 25% of the names you see on the slate are new to conference or district leadership. Creating space for new voices and perspectives is critical as we seek to live into the mission God has given us.

As I close, I want to give a special word of thanks to members of the nominations committee with whom I have had the privilege to work. Our team is comprised of a lay and clergy member from each district, selected by the district superintendent, and three at-large members selected by the bishop. Our members put in a lot of time and effort identifying, recruiting, and inviting people to serve. The slate immediately following this report, is the result of their work. We are also grateful to the support of staff in our work. We want to thank Karen Corbitt who provided administrative support this year and the West Ohio Director of Connectional Ministries, Rev. Dee Stickle-Miner, who partners with me in leadership of our nominations work.

As you review the slate that follows, I invite you to pray for each person. Each person is called and gifted by God to serve the church and its mission. They will provide critical leadership on our behalf. Thank you for your prayers and support.

Those elected are found listed under their respective committees and teams in the Organization and Personnel section in this Journal beginning on page 5.

L. 2019 STATISTICIAN'S REPORT

West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church

The Statistical Data collected from our local churches for 2019 is highlighted in this report. We continue to use the GCFA Statistical Website (Ezra) to collect our church data as this provides for a better management of our data at the General Church and Conference levels. This year, with help from the District Offices we were able to collect 95% of the reports from our 1,005 churches. Unfortunately, there were 3% or 32 churches that did not completed their reports to give a true statistical picture of the West Ohio Conference. Capitol Area South District and Maumee Watershed District were the only districts that had all their churches complete their yearend reports. We again allowed churches to enter their data using the online entry method or by sending the information to the Conference Office to be manually entered by the Conference Statistician.

At the close of 2019, the membership of the West Ohio Conference stood at 140,309 members. A total of 4,452 members were added to the membership across our conference in 2019. That meant that every day last year, 12 members either joined a congregation or restored their affirmation in our conference. Like the previous years the largest increase was received on profession of faith, a total of 2,440 members. That number decreased by 204 from 2018. In 2018, a total of 164 churches held confirmation classes, representing 16% of our churches. In 2019 that number has decreased from the previous year by 3, representing 16% of our churches.

At the close of 2019, the West Ohio Conference membership was down from what was reported at the end of 2018. The total loss of members in all statistical categories was 11,950. Unfortunately, that meant that every day last year 33 people were leaving congregations in the conference. Like the trend over the last few years the largest loss was removed by charge conference action, a total of 3,545 members. This number decreased from what was recorded for the year in 2018. The net loss from the new members minus the members lost shown below is 7,498 members. The West Ohio Conference membership has been reduced by 35,482 members over the last 5 years. The membership loss in 2019 of 7,498 is the second largest loss since 1978. The average annual loss for our conference over the last ten years has been 6,558 members per year.

Starting Membership 2018	147,807
Those received during 2018 – Add	4,452
Those removed during 2018 – Subtract	-11,950
Ending Membership 2018	140,309

Every Sunday the West Ohio Conference had an average of 95,190 members participating in worship across the conference. Of that amount is a new category for this quadrennium of online worship. Online worship had 10,561 members participating. The 95,190 represents 67% of conference membership in worship every Sunday morning. The average attendance in principal worship services increased by 101 members from what was reported in 2018. We also baptized 2,229 individuals during 2019. The number of baptisms decreased by 215 from the totals reported in 2018. A total of 457 churches or 46% of the congregations in our conference reported at least 1 baptism in during 2019.

The Total number of Christian Formation Participants for 2019 was 86,952 participants. All four of the categories Children, Youth, Young Adults & Other Adults showed decreased numbers in 2019. Overall, the West Ohio Conference experienced a 10% decrease in the number of participants from 2018 to 2019. The Average Attendance at Sunday School decreased from that of 2018 by 1,977 members. There were 32,061 participants involved in Vacation Bible School in our churches during 2019. This was a decrease from those participating in 2018 of 2,782 or 7%.

There were 138 UMVIM teams sent out from local churches in 2019. That was a decrease from 2018 of 16 mission teams. That accounted for 1,411 participants in UMVIM teams which decreased by 151 participants. We also have several churches that are involved in community ministries for outreach, justice, mercy, and daycare. The number of persons engaged in mission in the local churches was 53,080 serving 2,123,743 people in those communities. There were 761 or 75% of our congregations that had persons engaged in mission.

The West Ohio Conference recorded a decrease in total paid in 2019. The conference received $187,265,771 which was a decrease of $5,886,000 compared to 2018. That breaks out to a cost of $1,334 per member as compared to $1,304 per member in 2018. Almost 52% or 522 of the churches in our conference paid their apportionments at 100% or more in 2019. That number has decreased from what was reported in 2018 by 8 churches. General Advance Special giving for specific, designated ministries and projects showed an increase of $68,308 in 2019. Total giving to General Advance Specials was $649,050. The West Ohio Advance Specials in 2019 collected a total of $109,226 in gifts. That was an increase of $27,699 or 33% from what was reported in 2018.

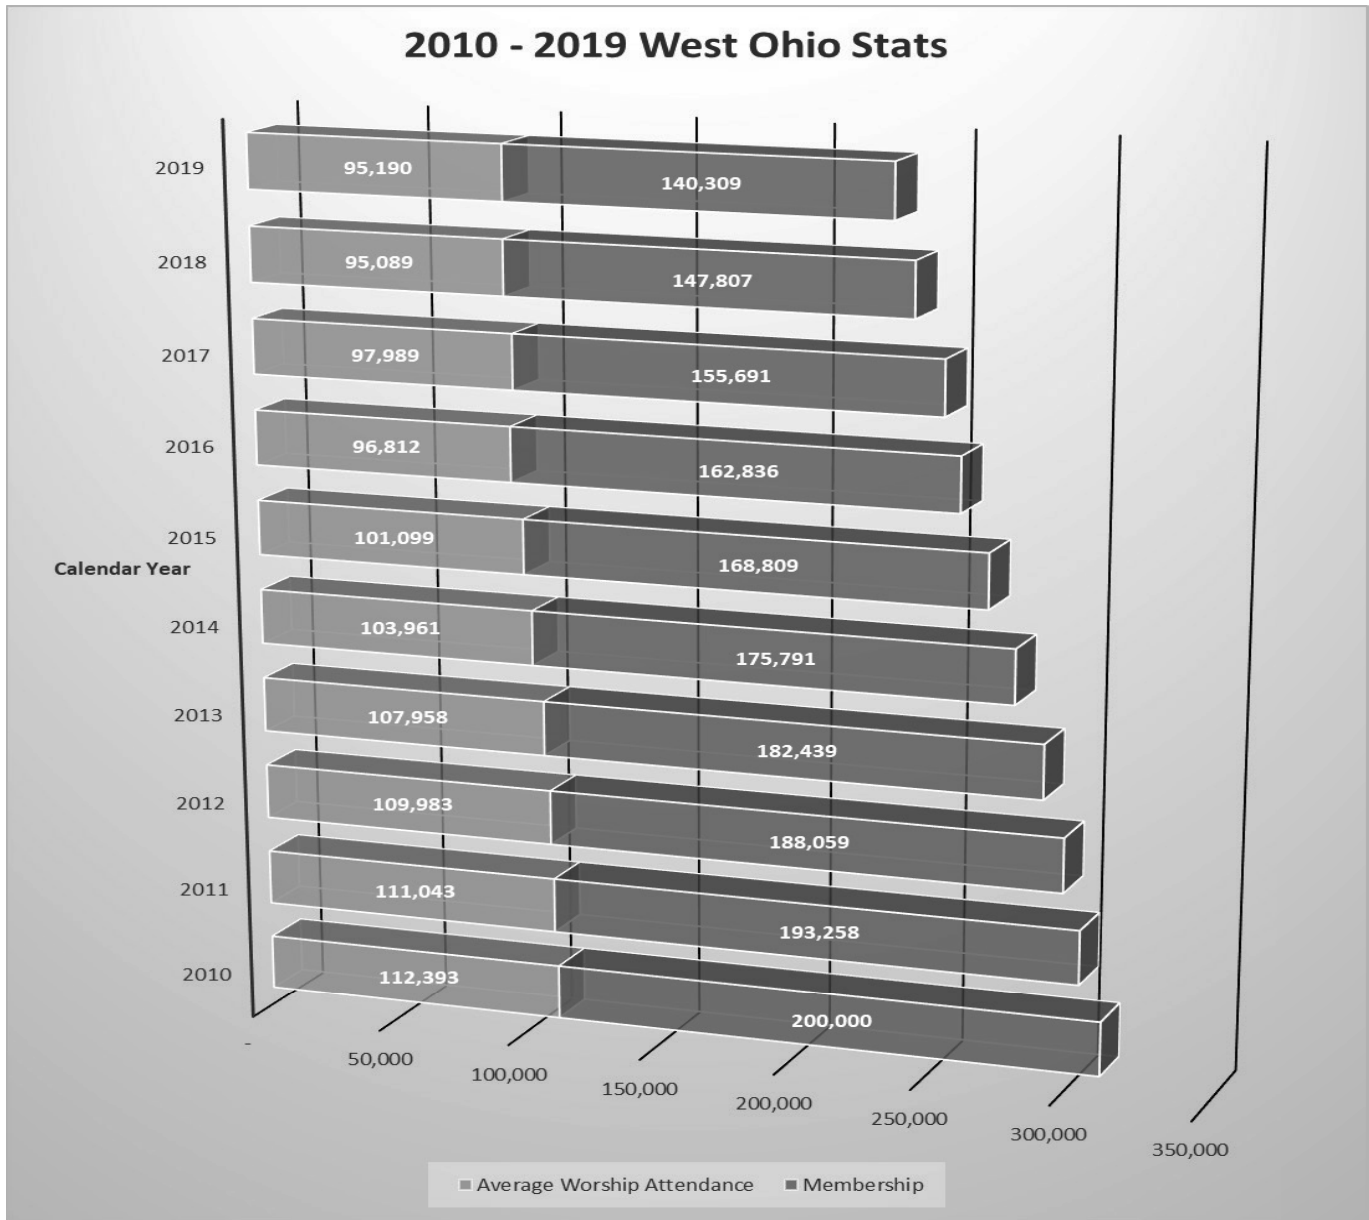

Other ministries in the conference that are not recorded in the Statistical Data include: Groups and gatherings of people using the churches of the West Ohio Conference for worship, Emmaus Walks, Chrysalis, food pantries, after school programs, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4H, kindergarten, pre-school, and many other civic functions. Some ethnic congregations are using West Ohio Conference churches for worship services. In situations like those mentioned above, vital ministries are taking place to help establish or re-establish the United Methodist Church as an integral part of their communities. The West Ohio Conference appreciates those churches for providing this outreach.

In conclusion, please be aware that this report covers only part of the Statistician's entire Report. Please review your church's records in the conference journal and compare how your church measures up against others in your district and across the conference.

M. TRANSFORMATIVE DISCIPLESHIP

Presented by: Doug Damron

Greetings, West Ohio friends, in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! I have the privilege of sharing with you this year's report on Transformative Discipleship within The West Ohio Conference. The work of Transformative Discipleship seeks to do just that – transform our congregations into disciples of Jesus Christ who will go out to love and serve their neighbors, thus transforming our churches' relationships with the communities around us, and perhaps – in the end – transforming the community's relationship with God and with each other.

But transformation is a process, not a program. Let me say that again. Transformation is a process, not a program. A congregation that truly wants to connect with the community around it – and folks, that's what we all should want – must be focused on forming relationships, not on counting the number of people who attend their next event. So, how do we, as the Church, go about forming relationships with the people around us, who may not even look or sound like us?

Fortunately, The West Ohio Conference has a whole team of people working behind the scenes to help our churches do just that. The Connectional Ministries team is in the business of connecting churches to communities, in West Ohio and beyond. Connectional Ministries is all about Equipping churches to Converse with their neighbors so they can Relate to their communities and Send people to live out the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The first step in the process is being Equipped. In 2019, laity discernment retreats shepherded 21 people through a process of discerning God's call in their life and how it would look to live out that call in the world. God's mission requires empowered laity who can live and lead in the church and in the world, and that's what West Ohio is equipping laity to do and be.

Additionally, West Ohio has a team of 20 Cultural Coaches who equip churches, ministry teams, laity and clergy to navigate diversity and difference. Think about your church and the community in which it does ministry. Do the people sitting in your church look like the people you see living in your neighborhood? West Ohio's cultural coaches are ready to help you learn more about who your neighbors are and how you can build bridges of understanding so that the love of Jesus can be shared.

The second step in the process of connecting with your community? Converse. When was the last time your church created a safe space for people to dialogue with members of your community? There is power in listening to others. There is power in sharing with people we do not know. West Ohio has trained guides to accompany congregations as they learn how to create and hold conversations with people in their community. The Community Engagement Experience provides practical tools and a process to bridge relational gaps between congregations and communities.

Want to learn how to converse about race? Over the past year, West Ohio has created resources like The Gospel and Race, a free Bible study available on the Conference website, as well as the 'Underground' documentary tour, which brought together over 270 people from more than 50 churches to learn and talk about race.

The third part of the connectional process is to Relate. Are your ministries focused on giving and receiving, as opposed to fostering and deepening relationships? West Ohio's Connection Blueprint can help you think through models of ministry that move from transactional engagements with your neighbors and neighborhood to building relationships and sharing faith. Relationships are the bedrock of inviting people into the full life of the church and a life of faith.

In Mark 16:15, Jesus commands us to, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation." All creation and all people. West Ohio has helped over 1500 people learn to relate with people impacted by incarceration...people like Hope. Hope was an inmate at Dayton Correctional Institution who started participating in Life Builders, a faith-based mentoring program led by a lay person from Westwood United Methodist Church in Cincinnati. Life Builders is offered through West Ohio All In Community's partnership with the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections. After being released, Hope began attending Westwood UMC and stayed connected with her mentors. She has remained sober and now has a job. Hope says, "I have come so far from the person I used to be. The Life Builders group and mentors have truly changed my life. They allowed God to use them to share his love." Because of Westwood UMC's commitment to relate to their community, Hope found a church – and a God – who loves her.

Fourth in the process of churches connecting with communities is Sending. Once churches form relationships with the communities around them, the natural next step is to send people outside the bounds of the church to be God's love and grace in the world. One example in West Ohio is the Volunteers in Mission program, which sends people into mission and ministry in our state, across the country, and around the world. For many years, Volunteers in Mission teams from West Ohio have been visiting the Kamina Children's Home in North Katanga in the Democratic Republic of Congo. These teams have witnessed young children orphaned by civil war grow into young adults. Without family of their own, The United Methodist Church has become their family. Now as these young people transition into adulthood, West Ohio will continue to stand by them, supporting their efforts to start small businesses and create a future for themselves.

Another example of sending is the tremendous response from within West Ohio to those impacted by tornadoes and floods in 2019. Sent from many churches, you showed up to be the love of Jesus. More than 16,660 volunteer hours from 1,974 people were reported to West Ohio, but we know that only represents a portion of what you gave. Because of you, those impacted by disasters not only received tangible help, they also experienced first-hand that they are beloved children of God.

That is transformative ministry at its best.

Equip. Converse. Relate. Send.

Each step is a vital link in the process of connecting churches to communities – a process that we in West Ohio call Transformative Discipleship. Transforming the way we think, the way we talk, the way we understand the world around us. And especially, transforming the ways in which we do mission and ministry with our neighbors.

On behalf of the Transformative Discipleship and Connectional Ministries staff of The West Ohio Conference, thank you for your prayers, support, and participation in the work of impacting our communities for Christ. We look forward with anticipation to the opportunities we will have to continue partnering with you to magnify the witness of Jesus' healing and redemptive love.

N. UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF WEST OHIO

Presented by: Bruce Boyd

Greetings West Ohio! June 2020 marked the 41st anniversary of the Council on Development and the birth of the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio. The enabling legislation for the Council on Development took place during the 1976 Annual Conference session. The Journal reports:

Name

The deferred giving program of the West Ohio Annual Conference shall be called the United Methodist Development Council.

Purpose

- To acquaint United Methodists and others with the program and agencies of The United Methodist Church.
- To create awareness of the opportunities for service and investment.
- To encourage bequests and deferred giving – That was the beginning, mission.

Here are a few numbers for you to celebrate:

- In the first 10 years, 8,789 gifts were made.
- In the first 30 years, $45.5 million dollars was contributed.
- In the last 10 years, another $21.3 million was given for a total of $66.9 million since 1978.

PLANNING FOR A NEW FUTURE: the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio

The Council on Development Board began a process in the Fall of 2018 of discerning God's future direction for the Council on Development. Reverend David Bell, President of the United Methodist Foundation of Michigan, was retained to provide consultation and engagement with the Board, Staff, Superintendents, donors, and constituents in the discernment process.

The Board of Directors reviewed several scenarios going forward regarding organization, governance, and direction. We learned that currently there is only one Council on Development, and 60 conference and General church foundations that are part of a United Methodist Foundation Association.

Reverend Bell met three times with the Board and interviewed a number of individuals to assess knowledge, thoughts, and insights about the Council. Two focus groups took place that included the Appointive Cabinet. Reverend Bell offered a recommendation to the board to move from a Council to a Foundation. On February 18, 2019 the Council on Development Board approved the recommendation to move to a Foundation – still receiving funds for operation from the conference (albeit fewer), the board still elected by the Annual Conference, and controls still with the conference.

The rationale includes the following:

- An opportunity to rebrand the COD;
- Optimum context for future ministry ;
- Alignment with contemporary foundation structure in communities and church;
- Opportunity to increase assets under management and planned gifts ;
- Minor shift in structure with a major upswing in perception among constituents;
- Greatest opportunity to identify best possible executive leadership going forward.

Work continued on developing the new Foundation filing appropriate documents with the State of Ohio, General Council on Finance and Administration, IRS, and contracting with a web designer. On Tuesday, February 11, 2020 the West Ohio Board of Trustees recommended and voted to create the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio.

“Marlen Yost motioned to authorize Bill Brownson to take all necessary steps to incorporate UMFWO. Joel Teaford second. Motion passed unanimously.

Ann Hartmann motioned to accept United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio Inc Corporate Resolution. Gregory Stover second. Motion passed unanimously. Ann Hartmann motioned to accept Board of Pension Corporate Resolution. Bill Davis seconded. Motion passed unanimously – Board of Trustee Minutes, February 11, 2020

A Code of Regulations has been filed with the State of Ohio, the Board of Directors met with the West Ohio Chancellor, Chris Hogan, concerning the work, and legal responsibilities of Board members. The rollout of the Foundation will take place in the last quarter of 2020.

Foundation Priorities

Donor Relationship, Cultivation, and the Stewardship of gifts

Assist donors in planning for their giving by providing information, sharing stories, and defining the purpose for a variety of opportunities. And we have stories – donors moved and inspired to make a difference and donors sacrificing for the sake of others.

It is the Council's responsibility to steward each gift through the channels that lead to the intended recipient to fulfill the desired ministry outcomes and then to provide acknowledgment to the donor with thanks, and appreciation. Donors are #1.

The Foundation is committed to Local Churches and the development of Generous Givers. We provide Stewardship training, planning and consultation with local church teams in the development of a year-round plan. There is a surge in local church Endowment development and legacy planning. Thirty-one new endowments with a total of $1.2 million was added to the Council's Endowment program in 2019. Our Endowment portfolio stands at $22 million.

Building a Better Future means offering donors and members of our congregations the opportunity to continue their generosity into eternity. You will find excellent interactive resources on our website (www.umfwestohio.org)

Conference Mission and Ministry is the third priority:

Light the Way Campaign, Mission Partnerships in North Katanga, the Volga District in Russia, the Oriental Conference in Mexico, and in Southeast Asia – Cambodia, Laos, and Vietnam; Retired Clergy pension and health care benefits continue to be important as ever. Our stories include a Medical Mission plane flying in North Katanga, lives saved because of Mosquito Nets, New church communities – lives brought into the Light of Christ.

We are reminded how Jeremiah described a vision of promise and hope this way: "For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope." Jeremiah 29:11 And then during the chaos of exile, Jeremiah bought a field as a commitment to the future. "And I bought the field at Anathoth...and weighed out the money...17 shekels of silver. I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on the scale. For thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land." (Jeremiah 32:9-15) Surely God's promised HOPE continues; we will keep investing in the future of HOPE.

O. RECOMMENDATIONS

2021 Budget Narrative for Recommendation #1

The delay of Annual Conference to September as a result of COVID-19 presented CFA and other boards with an extended opportunity to look closely at the 2021 budget. They made good use of their time. The 2021 budget builds on and accelerates trends that have been several years in the making. On a combined basis, Council on Finance and Administration recommends apportioning $18.4 million of which $2.7 million or 15% is for districts and $15.7 million is for Conference and General Church ministries. Here are the highlights:

- Total amount apportioned for Conference and General Church Ministries is more than $1 million less than in 2020 and represents a 19% three-year total reduction in amounts apportioned to local churches.
- Apportioned connectional giving is no longer needed for clergy benefits, thanks to two generations of faithful giving, effectively managing plan design, and good investment returns.
- The United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio officially succeeds the Council on Development, and investment advisory fees will nearly eliminate the need for apportionment support.
- The 2021 budget fully funds our expected obligations to the General Church.
- The total apportioned compared to total local church operating expenses (from your local church annual statistical reports) has been decreasing since 2003.
- Bishop Palmer is currently leading a strategy and operations review of conference and district work. Results of the effort will be defined in late 2020 and implemented in 2021 and 2022. The 2021 budget does not account for financial implications from this work.
- We continue to look at turnover as an opportunity to revisit roles and responsibilities and better manage salary and benefit costs.
- Light the Way donations for new and revitalizing churches continue to fund a significant portion of New Church Start grants, reducing the need for apportioned dollars. Thank you for your generosity!
- Districts will apportion $2.7 million, down 6% from 2020 and expect to produce $2.4 million in support for their work. $1.1 million from other sources such as restricted assets and investment earnings will provide the additional support needed to cover $3.5 million of expenses. Investment income on district parsonage funds will provide nearly $100,000 to the Conference for District Superintendent housing allowances. All D.S. expenses, including housing, are provided by the Conference. Contact your District Office with questions about district budgets.

Conference leaders believe this plan will support critical ministries, which are briefly described by function below. At the same time, we understand current denominational uncertainties may lead to a significantly different level of resources available to carry out the plans as we understand them today.

Funding Plan Discussion by Section

General Church (lines 22–48)

The General Church helps West Ohio churches make a difference in the conference, our nation and around the world. The infrastructure of the General Church allows UMCOR to be among the most effective disaster relief organizations in the world. World Service, which includes UMCOR, Discipleship Ministries, Higher Education and other agencies is 47% of the general church budget. The Episcopal Fund is 19% of the denominational budget. $6.8 million is apportioned for General Church purposes, and at the projected collection rate of 60%, apportionments will cover 100% of West Ohio's allocation.

Twenty-eight percent of general church connectional giving supports education efforts of both clergy and lay through the Ministerial Education Fund, the Africa University Fund and the Black College Fund.

Clergy Benefits (lines 49–87)

Clergy Benefits, at more than $17 million, continues to consume the majority of conference income and expense. Most of the expense is related to the active clergy health plan, followed by clergy pension plan liabilities. For the first time, perhaps in the history of the Annual Conference, nothing will be apportioned for clergy benefits. Ten years ago nearly $5 million was apportioned. This is possible because of the good work of the Council on Development (now the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio) and the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. The Foundation has helped raise funds since its inception and today there are $56 million in investments set aside for clergy benefits. The Board of Pensions and Health Benefits has managed plan designs, established direct billing and taken other steps to manage expenses and revenues. Declaring financial victory for clergy benefits is a watershed moment in West Ohio. Thousands of people, many who are likely reading this, have made this possible.

The three major expenses in this section are:

- Health insurance for clergy appointed to local churches, which is directly-billed to each church. Premiums are set each September by the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits at a level projected to cover projected claims. Conference plan is self-insured and the budget projects $8.7 million in expenses for this benefit.
- Clergy Pension and other income support totals $5.9 million, which is provided by directly billing churches (via ACH) of participating clergy.
- Retiree health care costs are budgeted at $2.9 million. Retired clergy premiums generate $1.2 million of revenue and donations cover $300,000 of this expense. The balance is covered by investment income and apportionments.
- Shortfalls in directly-billed benefits, apportionments and other support are covered by $1.6 million of income from the Clergy Benefit Fund, which had a balance of $57 million as of June 30, 2020.

Taken together, we project $17million in resources will be needed to pay for clergy benefit expenses in 2021. Policies that give rise to benefit obligations are set forth in Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefit Recommendation #2.

Questions should be directed to Mike Kremnitzer, Conference Benefits Officer and HR Director at mkremnitzer@wocumc.org or at 614-844-6200, ext. 226.

Conference Ministries (lines 89–201)

Planned Conference Ministries expenses are $8.8 million. Apportioned Connectional Giving will cover 69% of planned expenses and other sources provide 31% or $2.7 million. To realize $6.1 million of apportionment income, the amount apportioned is $8.8. The net expected from apportioned connectional giving for conference ministries is 20% less than the actual received in 2018. Major shifts in this part of the budget are:

- In Missional Church Development, MCCI and salary expenses are reduced as a result of Rev. Sue Nilson Kibbey's move to a new extension ministry appointment in 2021.
- Net apportionment support needed for the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio (formerly COD) is reduced by investment administration income from investing assets of the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits and the Conference Board of Trustees.
- District financial and property administration will be consolidated at the Conference level. This consolidation will increase conference expenses by $100,000 and decrease district financial administration expenses in the aggregate by $250,000.

Transformative Discipleship Team (Connectional Ministries) (lines 95–126)

The Transformative Discipleship Team works to align resources, ensure effective collaboration and develop evaluative processes resulting in greater effectiveness in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, a world of justice, love and peace filled with people growing in the likeness of Jesus Christ.

We prioritized ministry areas for funding and adopted outcomes for 2021. Connectional Ministry staff and lead teams will develop strategies for attaining these outcomes. The strategies will include identifying appropriate metrics and the development of assessment tools to measure the impact of our work, moving beyond just counting people and events. The Transformative Discipleship Team membership includes five at-large people and the chairs of the five lead teams.

Connectional Ministries exists to equip local congregations to extend the healing and redemptive love of Jesus Christ in life-changing and communit-transforming ways. In 2021, we will focus upon the following outcomes.

Questions about the Transformative Discipleship Team budget and the mission it makes possible should be directed to Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner at dstickley@wocumc.org. Contact Ken Overholser, koverholser@wocumc.org with questions about Camps & Retreat Ministries. Both can be reached at 614.844.6200.

Missional Church Development (lines 127–135)

Missional Church Development equips clergy and lay leaders committed to revitalizing existing churches and with starting new churches and worshipping communities. Resources for covering the $929,000 of Missional Church Development initiatives noted below come from apportioned connectional giving ($569,000), donors to Light the Way ($350,000) and program income.

- The Greenhouse: Leadership development for clergy called to start new churches and worshipping communities.
- New church start grants: Grants for emerging churches and worshipping communities led by specially trained and/or clergy who have proven track records of starting new worshipping communities.
- Missional Church Consultation Initiative (MCCI): MCCI will be ended as a Conference program in 2021. Resources for equipping new churches and revitalizing existing ones remain in the budget under General Program Expenses.
- Traction Tracks: Culled from years of MCCI experience, Traction Tracks afford participating churches the opportunity to focus on a specific area needing attention.
- Revitalization Grants Intended to provide churches with resources to address matters inhibiting vitality.

Contact Rev. Sue Nilson Kibbey, at snkibbey@wocumc.org or 614.844.6200 for questions about Missional Church Development.

Office of Ministry and Clergy Leadership (lines 136–144)

The Office of Ministry administers clergy credentialing and continuing education, provides financial support for seminary and course of study students, and supports the work of the Board of Ministry.

Programming for credentialing includes a summer internship program for undergraduates exploring a call to ministry, local pastor licensing school, Candidacy Summit for clergy candidates, and Crucible for clergy in their provisional years. The work of this office has expanded to include preparing pastors and churches for cross-cultural/cross-racial appointments and fulfilling the Book of Discipline requirement of an in-depth assessment of each clergy member every eight years. For some programs, West Ohio hosts students and generates income from other annual conferences, particularly East Ohio. Credentialing education expenses are offset by tuition and registration fees.

The Office of Ministry and Clergy Leadership expects $647,000 in 2021 expenses of which $400,000 is covered by tuition and donor-restricted income, and $247,000 is provided by apportioned connectional giving. Twenty-five percent of receipts toward the Ministerial Education Fund stays at the Conference and is applied by the Office and Board of Ministry according to the restrictions on the fund.

Questions about the work and budget of the Office of Ministry can be directed to Rev. Donnetta Peaks at dpeaks@wocumc.org or 614.844.6200.

United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio (formerly Council on Development) (lines 145–153)

The Foundation equips local churches in stewardship education, capital campaign planning, legacy planning, and creating, establishing and managing endowments. As of January 2021, the Foundation will administer $80 million of investments, including the assets of the Conference Board of Trustees, Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, several districts and many local church endowments. The Foundation has led the Light the Way Campaign, our current major development initiative. As a result of administering this level at assets, administration fees will offset all but $27,000 of $267,000 of projected expenses. The long-term plan is for the Foundation to operate without apportionment support.

Questions about the Foundation can be directed to Rev. Stan Ling at sling@wocumc.org or at 614.844.6200.

Finance and Administration and Board of Trustees (lines 154–173)

Finance and Administration includes many functions that span the districts and conference, including accounting, treasury management, human resource management, information technology, conference statistics, facilities and property management. The area equips local churches through training and online content and resources the Council on Finance and Administration, the Conference Chancellor, the Board of Trustees and the Conference Investment Policy Committee.

2021 will continue to benefit from full ownership and operation of the Conference Center. While program income is limited, interest and dividend income is earned on operating cash balances and reserves. Financial administration expenses are projected to be $1,449,000. The increase over 2020 provides the resources to administer on a consolidated basis all District and Conference financial matters. While Conference expenses will increase, districts will reduce financial administration expenses in the aggregate by $250,000. Income consists of $315,000 of interest on deposits and investment income and $30,000 in rent from Capitol Areas districts. The budget includes $160,000 of depreciation and nonroutine building expenses.

Questions about the Finance and Administration Budget can be directed to Bill Brownson at 614.505.7440 or at bbrownson@wocumc.org.

Episcopal Area Leadership (lines 174–201)

Bishop Palmer, District Superintendents and his Episcopal Office staff oversee the following areas which, together, are budgeted to incur $2,647,000 of expenses with all but $196,000 provided by apportioned connectional giving. Together, they provide for the deployment of credentialed clergy; superintending of local churches, Annual Conference Session, and communicating helpful information to and about local churches, the conference, general church and current events for which a Christian witness is needed. Budgeted expenses for each area are:

Episcopal Area	Net Expense
Annual Conference and Special General Conference:	$232,000
Episcopal Office Administration:	$319,000
District Superintendents & Cabinet:	$1,341,000
Equitable Compensation:	$270,000
Conference Communications:	$463,000

Bishop Palmer's salary, benefits, travel and support are provided for and paid directly from the Episcopal Fund of the General Church.

Questions about Communications can be directed to Kay Panovec at kpanovec@wocumc.org or at 614.844.6200. All other questions about the budget and responsibilities of Episcopal Area Leadership can be directed to Rev. Linda Middelberg at lmiddelberg@wocumc.org at 614.844.6200.

Introduction to Board of Pension and Health Benefits

This year's recommendation from the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits is largely consistent with those of past years.

Specific items of note in this year's recommendation include:

- In addition to full-time appointments, West Ohio will continue to include clergy serving $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{3}{4}$ time in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP), the denomination's pension plan for clergy. (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #2)
- For the Pre-82 clergy pension plan, the past service rate (PSR) will remain at $611. (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #7)
- Local churches will continue to be billed directly for clergy pension costs. The billing rate will remain at 11% of plan compensation (cash salary and housing) for the CRSP defined benefit portion of the plan, capped at DAC (Denominational Average Compensation). (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #5)
- Retiree housing allowance exclusion will remain unchanged.

Questions about this recommendation can be directed to Mike Kremnitzer, Conference Benefits Officer at mkremnitzer@wocumc.org or at 614-844-6200.

Recommendation #2

2021 Board of Pension and Health Benefits

Adopted

Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans

1. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church gives authority to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) to establish and maintain a retirement program for the benefit of ordained ministers and their families, other church workers, and lay employees (§11501). As a part of those plans (as approved by the General Conference) participation by full-time ordained clergy is required. The Discipline does not give permission for a local church to deny payment of the retirement benefits for any pastor appointed to that charge. Such payments are part of the total obligations of receiving the appointment of a pastor.
2. The 2012 General Conference made Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) eligibility optional for Annual Conferences for those clergy with less than full-time appointments. The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits approved the continued CRSP eligibility of three-quarter and one-half time appointments effective January 1, 2014. The Board affirms this recommendation for 2021.
3. Licensed local pastors (not the local church) may waive participation in the pension program if the pastor is appointed less than full-time. Provisional elders and deacons and full elders and deacons (not the local church) may waive participation in the pension program if they are appointed half time. To waive participation, the pastor must complete, have notarized, and return a "Waiver of Participation," which is supplied by the Conference Benefits Office.
4. The Plan Compensation shall include salary plus 25% for housing where the minister lives in a parsonage or the amount of any cash housing allowance where provided.
5. The contribution rate for funding the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) will be billed in two parts; the Defined Benefit (DB) portion shall not exceed 11% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation up to the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC)¹. The DAC for 2021 is $74,199. The rate for funding of the Defined Contribution (DC) portion shall not exceed 3% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation. (The participant must be enrolled and contributing a minimum of 1% United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPPI) contribution to have the full 3% credit to CRSP-DC.) Billing begins at the time of participant's eligibility for, not enrollment in, the program.
6. The contribution rate for the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) shall not exceed 3% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation for all full-time or three-quarter time appointments for Full, Provisional, or Associate members and full-time local pastors. Contributions will be paid monthly by each charge for their pastor or pastors. The West Ohio Conference, acting as an agent of Wespath, shall be responsible for the collection of these funds. Because each full-time or three-quarter time appointment for Full, Provisional, or Associate members and full-time local pastors must be part of the CPP, it is the obligation of each local church to pay this cost. Billing begins at the time of participant’s eligibility for, not enrollment in, the program.

7. The base annuity rate for 2021 on Pre-82 pensions will remain at $611. The yearly PSR may not be decreased.
8. Annuity rates for surviving spouses shall be 70% of the base rate on Pre-82 pension.
9. Each eligible clergy member and local pastor will contribute at least 3% of his or her plan compensation to the UMPIP unless opting out of the auto-enrollment feature. Additionally, each eligible clergy member and local pastor will have their UMPIP contribution increased 1% until a maximum of 10% is reached unless opting out of auto-escalation. Participants may contribute more than the 10% maximum, if desired. Personal contributions will be billed to the local church by Wespath and paid from payroll deduction by the local church.
10. Medical Leave and Death Benefits: Eligible clergy also have CPP as part of the benefit package. CPP provides disability income, death, and other supplemental benefits. Complete policy information can be found on the Wespath website at www.wespath.org. Clergy whose health condition may indicate a need for medical leave should contact his or her District Superintendent.
11. A death benefit of $50,000 is part of CPP for active clergy. An additional death benefit of $50,000 is provided by the Conference for eligible active appointments. The cost is included in the Clergy Benefit billing for full-time or three-quarter time appointments of Full, Provisional or Associate Members and full-time licensed local clergypersons.

2. Retired Pastors, Surviving Spouses, Medical Leave participants

Eligibility: When a pastor retires under ¶358.1, ¶358.2b or ¶358.2c health insurance is available to the pastor, spouse, and eligible dependents.

- b. Upon retirement at age 65 or thereafter, the pastor and spouse (at age 65) are responsible for enrolling in Part A and B of Medicare. Those having opted out of Social Security will not have access to West Ohio Conference retiree (over 65 years) insurance.
- c. Surviving spouses of retired pastors will pay a portion of their premiums based on the number of years of service toward retirement eligibility for the deceased clergy member. Premiums will be applied to type of policy used.
 - i. Retired clergy or surviving spouses who remarry will not have access to Conference insurance for a new dependent.
- d. Premium contributions shall be collected monthly by Automated Clearing House (ACH) transaction from a bank account designated by the retiree.
- e. Pastors who transfer from an Episcopal appointment in another United Methodist Conference to an Episcopal appointment in the West Ohio Conference where the Conference has pension responsibility will be granted years of service from previous conferences.

3. Other Health Care Provisions

- a. All full-time (at least 30 hours per week) lay employees of the West Ohio Conference and its District Offices will have access to health insurance under the same provisions as active and retired clergy.
- b. Any participant who terminates employment may continue their health insurance for up to 12 months at his or her own expense. The participant's payment for insurance will continue through the former local church to the Conference until coverage is terminated or 12 months pass, whichever occurs first.
- c. The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits shall be empowered to select the carrier, set the premium rate, and adjust benefits and method of funding the total health insurance program in a manner that is deemed appropriate and equitable for both local churches and participants in the program.
- d. The Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits shall extend an invitation to the Board of Ministry to review and comment on material changes in the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits recommendation to Annual Conference at least 30 days prior to Annual Conference.

General

1. The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is designed for eligible clergy and lay Conference and District employees and their dependent family members who seek professional emotional assistance. This includes certified lay ministers and pastors appointed to a local church, clergy appointed to extension ministry and serving on Conference and District staffs, as well as lay Conference and District staff. Pastors appointed to their first church and newly hired Conference and District lay staff are eligible after six months. This service is provided by OhioHealth at no cost.
2. A moving reimbursement (receipt(s) of cost) of up to $3,500 is paid to each full-time and three-quarter time clergy household of the retiring class and each member accepting CPP disability leave and the families of active full-time members in the event of the death of the member, provided they have not previously had a move reimbursed and provided they have been a participating member in the Conference Pension Program for the last five years prior to retirement.
3. The Board requests no apportionments in 2021 to support its work.
4. The church from which the pastor is moving will pay pension payments for pastors moving at conference time for the whole month of June. Payments for new pastors will begin on the first of the month following the appointment.
5. All churches shall be encouraged to include eligible full-time church lay employees in UMPIP; the retirement Benefits program offered by Wespath. ¶258.2g (12)
6. The Conference will post on its website the date when the 2021 Comprehensive Funding Plan from Wespath releases its opinion. This became an annual requirement because of 2012 General Conference legislation.

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the West Ohio Conference

The West Ohio Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for retired or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

Whereas the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergy”), and

Whereas the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergy with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation, and

Whereas pensions or other amounts paid to retired and disabled Clergy are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to retired and disabled Clergy in consideration of previous active service, and

Whereas the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for retired and disabled Clergy who are or were members of this Conference;

Therefore, be it resolved that an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) during the year 2021 by each retired or disabled Clergy who is or was a member of the Conference or its predecessors, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergy; and

Therefore, be it resolved that pension or disability payments to which rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans and/or annuities from funds authorized under the Discipline. This may include payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline. Those payments may result from any service a Clergy rendered to this Conference or that a retired or disabled Clergy of this Conference rendered to:

- any local church
- annual conference of the Church
- general agency of the Church
- other institution of the Church
- former denomination that is now a part of the Church
- any other employer

that employed the Clergy to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such retired or disabled Clergy’s pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

Note:

The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy’s gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations thereunder to the least of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

Commission on Equitable Compensation 2021 Recommendation

Adopted

Ministry is traditionally supported by the body of Christ, especially in the local community where ministry happens. The United Methodist expression of the body of Christ is the connectional system. Through it, we share in the missional ministries of the West Ohio Conference. United Methodist clergy are called and sent by God to serve in a variety of ministry settings.

Through the distribution of designated Conference funds, the Equitable Compensation Commission seeks to support the Annual Conference through the Cabinet's appointment of transformational leadership in strategic appointments to further the mission of Christ.

Guidelines and Recommendations

The Commission presents the following guidelines and recommendations for calendar year 2021 with consideration of the projected General Board of Pensions Conference Average Compensation (C.A.C.) of $64,933 (which includes salary plus 25% for housing where the minister lives in a parsonage, or the housing allowance where such is provided).

A. Minimum Salary

Recommended Minimum Salaries	2021*	2020
Elder in full-time appointment; Full-member deacon in full-time appointment in a local church	$43,400	$42,550
Provisional on elder-track in full-time appointment; Provisional on deacon-track in full-time appointment in a local church; Associate member in full-time appointment	$39,350	$38,575
Licensed local pastor in full-time appointment who has completed the Course of Study or equivalent	$37,950	$37,200
Licensed local pastor in full-time appointment	$35,960	$35,225

*Average increase 2%

Each elder in full connection who is in good standing and who is appointed by the bishop to less than full-time service under the provisions of paragraph 338.2 of the 2016 Book of Discipline shall have a claim upon the conference Equitable Compensation Fund in one-quarter increments (Paragraph 342.2).

B. Definition of Eligibility

1. MINIMUM SALARY SUPPORT

- a. Elders, provisional members on the elder-track, deacons in full connection serving in local churches, provisional members on the deacon-track serving in local churches, associate members, and licensed local pastors serving full-time appointments in local churches are eligible for minimum salary support.
- b. Retired members, retired local pastors, full-member deacons appointed beyond the local church, provisional members on the deacon-track appointed beyond the local church, student pastors, and members in extension ministries have no claim to minimum salary support.
- c. Support from all church sources (District, Conference, and General Church) in addition to local sources will be used in computing claims.
- d. The commission will continue to work with the Cabinet in providing minimum compensation, sensitive to such variable factors as unique situations needing special skills, missional priorities, and ethnic/racial considerations.
- e. When a church withdraws from a charge to a station, its pastor shall not be eligible for minimum salary support for at least five years.
- f. A charge with more than 300 members shall have no claim to minimum salary support.
- g. Any situations limiting full itineracy of pastors will be taken under consideration, prior to approving equitable compensation amounts.

2. KEY LEADERSHIP SALARY SUPPORT

Developing/redeveloping Ministries: Situations where new congregations should be developing or where existing congregations are facing circumstances that enhance the potential for unusual growth. These churches have the potential of becoming viable and self-supporting within five years.

3. KEY MISSIONAL SALARY SUPPORT

Situations where churches/parishes have an unusually large or complex program of missional ministries and require pastoral leadership for expanded ministries. This also includes Ethnic Churches where support is necessary in getting the ministry established.

4. SPECIAL SALARY SUPPORT

This category provides pastoral support on a short-term basis to meet a temporary situation. Funding under this category shall not continue beyond the appointive year in which it began.

C. The goal of the commission is to eliminate the need for long-term minimum salary support by:

1. Agreeing that any new Equitable Compensation grants for Minimum Salary Support or Key Leadership Salary Support shall not exceed 25% of the total cash salary received by the pastor of the church or charge. The 25% rule shall not apply to Key Missional or Special Salary Support.
 2. Limiting the maximum number years of eligibility for all Equitable Compensation grants to five years per pastor or church. Grants will be decreased by 20% of the original amount each year.
 3. Asking for greater accountability of the local churches in the process of applications for funds through the District Superintendents, providing information on budgeted receipts and expenditures, having a stewardship plan, detailing how they are living within the CORE process, and an apportionment plan.
 4. Being aware that churches or charges which reach the total grant or grant term limitations described above, and which are unable to maintain support for a full-time appointment will be assisted by the District Superintendent to move to a part-time pastor, or to realign the charge.
 5. Being open to knowing that there may be special circumstances that would warrant an exception to these guidelines which can be made with the approval of the cabinet and the Equitable Compensation Executive team.
- D. The commission reminds the members of the Conference, local church Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, and pastors, that total ministerial support includes items beyond cash salary, such as accountable reimbursements, housing, utilities, pension benefits and health insurance.
- E. It is the responsibility of the pastor of any church not receiving agreed-upon compensation from the church during a calendar year to contact their District Superintendent by the earlier: March 15th of the next year; one year from the date of the initial arrearage; or at the time of an appointment change. Failure to submit such notice of arrearage will end the statute of limitation for filing a claim from the Annual Conference for such funds (under Discipline ¶ 342.4 once an appointment ends the Pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds) and/or may cause an administrative complaint to be filed against such pastor.
- F. The commission recognizes that clergy compensation contributes to pastoral morale and encourages openness in financial matters among all persons, boards, and agencies who share the concern for the well being of churches and pastors.

VIII. FINANCIAL REPORTS

A. CFO REPORT

Presented by: Bill Brownson

The 2021 Conference budget, the 10th I've prepared as your CFO & Director of Administration, continues and accelerates some trends that have been years in the making. These are the key themes that will be expanded on in this report:

- Total amount apportioned is more than $1 million less than in 2020, and represents a 19% three-year total reduction in amounts apportioned to local churches in support of Conference and General Church ministries;
- Apportioned connectional giving is no longer needed for clergy benefits thanks to two generations of faithful giving, effectively managing plan design, and good investment returns;
- The United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio officially succeeds the Council on Development, and investment advisory fees will nearly eliminate the need for apportionment support;
- Conference responsibilities and ministries are adequately funded and supported with apportioned connectional giving and other resources;
- The 2021 budget fully funds our obligations to the General Church.

Clergy Benefits

After 40 years of work, the Conference Board of Pensions and Health Benefits has concluded that apportionments are no longer needed to fulfill benefit promises to clergy. All promises can be met between its direct billing authority and its accumulated investments, which at the time of this writing are about $57 million. The key conference responsibility is for retiree healthcare. As you will learn in the Board of Pensions report, they will be moving from the current group retiree health plan to a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) model in 2022. This shift will preserve and even increase benefits for most retirees, and it will reduce the liability by millions.

Council on Development is now the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio

A great deal of credit for the financial position of the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits can be attributed to the Council on Development. Since its inception in 1976, its focus has been on ensuring promises to clergy and their spouses will be met, and that mandate will be met. The Council on Development has accomplished its mission. As of 2020, COD is now the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio. Its focus will be on working with churches on developing and investing endowments and with stewardship in general. Please refer to the report from the Foundation to learn more.

For 2020, both the Board of Trustees and the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits have agreed to entrust their investments to the Foundation. This means the Foundation can move forward with almost no apportionment support and be funded almost entirely by investment administration fees.

Conference Ministries

$8.8 million is apportioned for Conference Ministries, which is expected to produce $6.1 million in resources for ministry. Reliance on apportionments at this level is 20% below the $8.5 million actually received in 2018. A 20% reduction in such a short period is a function of clarifying priorities, combining roles, not replacing certain roles when there are retirements or other turnover occurs, and relying more on non-apportionment support. Total conference-level staffing is down 20% from its recent peak.

As you'll see in the budget narrative found in the Book of Reports, Conference Ministries includes District Superintendents, Episcopal Office staff other than Bishop Palmer, Office of Ministry, Connectional Ministries including Camps & Retreats, Missional Church Developments (new churches and revitalization initiatives), Communications, Finance & Administration, Communications, Equitable Compensation grants, and Annual Conference.

General Church

Apportioned support for the General Church in 2021 is $4.1 million, down 6% from the 2020 budget. This level of funding is projected to produce resources that will allow West Ohio to return to a 100% Annual Conference in 2021. Because the 2020 General Conference has been delayed to September 2021, the final quadrennial General Church budget is projected at this point based on the legislation that was in place for May 2020.

2019 Financial Results

Overall, 2019 financial results were positive due to good investment results. Operating results were worse than planned primarily as a result of apportioned connectional giving receipts being almost $500,000 below budget (68% collection rate versus budgeted rate of 72%). Most of this shortfall appears to be from the outcome of the February 2019 Special General Conference in St. Louis. Some churches lost members and their giving as a result of the General Conference, and that led to fewer resources for all levels, including at the local church. A few previously paying churches decided to pause connectional support. We are grateful for the 525 churches that paid 100% of apportioned connectional giving and for the ministry they make possible for all churches.

2020 Financial Results through June

If 2019 were the year of General Conference, 2020 is the year of COVID-19. The broad shutdown in mid-March affected the church as it did many businesses. While congregations quickly learned how to do church online, if they weren't doing so already, concerns about financial resources led to significant year over year drops in receipts from apportioned connectional giving. March collections were 23% below 2019 levels; April's were 52% below 2019 and May 23%. June receipts rebounded significantly coming in at more than was received in June 2019. For the first six months, we're still running 17% behind last year, but the improvement is gratifying. Reduction in sources were offset by reductions in travel, meals and meeting expenses and not filling vacant positions. Annual Conference will be dramatically less expensive in 2020 than in a typical year, and Camping & Retreat Ministries summer programming was cancelled. Even with working virtually, the Finance Team and Board of Pensions and Health Benefits teamed up to award and distribute $500,000 in clergy benefit support grants to 168 churches during the month of April. The Finance and IT teams implemented a free, conference-sponsored online giving platform for any church that wished to use it. The Conference, along with the districts, applied for and was granted a Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loan of $1.1 million that we expect to have fully forgiven.

While the balance of the year is uncertain, it appears that through June, expense management and the PPP loan will come close to offsetting the reduced apportionment resources. Your faithful support in the second half of the year will be key to the continuation of critical mission and ministries.

It's hard to believe that I've served as your CFO for ten years. What I know with certainty is that all we've accomplished is the result of many hands and many minds. My work is not possible without the guidance and support of the three boards I relate to most closely, CF&A, Board of Pensions and Health Benefits and Board of Trustees and their chairs, Chris Clough, Barry DeShetler and Ann Baird. Nor would much be accomplished without the staff who support this work, particularly Mike Kremnitzer, Linda Russo and Steven Schneider and their teams, as well as Bishop Palmer and my extended cabinet colleagues. I thank you for your support and engagement. And to all the clergy and lay members of Annual Conference, thank you for the opportunity to serve as your Chief Financial Officer and Director of Administration.

B. 2021 MISSION & MINISTRY FUNDING PLAN

2 The West Ohio Annual Conference Budget relies significantly on receipts from Connectional Giving apportioned to 3 two funds:

- 4 1. Seven General Agency and the North Central Jurisdiction are combined into the General Church Ministries Fund.
- 5 2. Conference Ministries combines all conference offices (Connectional Ministries, Missional Church Development,
6 Financial Administration, Episcopal Office and District Leadership, Communications, Office of Ministry and 7 Council on Development)
- 8 3. 2021 is the first year with no apportionment for clergy benefits.

9 General Church funds cannot be used by the Annual Conference for any purpose and will be forwarded pro-rata to the 10 General Church each month.

11 The detailed 2021 budget also shows the 2020 and 2019, budgets as well as 2019 actual results. The format strives 12 to reflect all sources used to meet expenditures, including donor income and program income.

13 The total amount of apportioned Connectional Giving in 2021 through the Conference will be $15,660,000, a 14 reduction of more than $1 million compared to 2020 and nearly a 20% reduction since 2018.

15 District apportionments are $2,695,809, a reduction of 6% from 2020. A summary of each district's budget is on page 279.

C. AUDIT REPORT

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration and Board of Trustees
West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Columbus, Ohio

Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliates (a not-for-profit organization), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used, and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the changes in their net assets and their cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole. The consolidating information on pages 29 to 34 is presented for the purposes of additional analysis and it is not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The consolidating information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the consolidated financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements or to the consolidated financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the consolidating information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements as a whole.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2019 and 2018

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of activities

The West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates (the "Conference") is a religious not-for-profit organization that was established to provide organizational structure and support to its member churches. The Conference provides management of conference-wide programs for missional, ministerial, and charitable giving purposes. The Conference also operates retirement and healthcare programs for eligible lay and clergy employees and retirees of the Conference and member churches.

Conference and Affiliates

The more than 1,000 member churches are organized into eight districts. The Conference is legally the sole member of each of the eight districts included in these consolidated financial statements. The eight districts are:

- Capitol Area North (CAN)
- Capitol Area South (CAS)
- Foothills (FTH)
- Maumee Watershed (MWD)
- Miami Valley (MIV)
- Northwest Plains (NWP)
- Ohio River Valley (ORV)
- Shawnee Valley (SHV)

Because of the control exercised by the Conference over the Community Ministries of the Capitol Area (CAM), that entity is included in the consolidated financial statements.

Adoption of new accounting standards

During 2019, the Conference adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The ASU, as updated, represents a comprehensive overhaul of substantially all previous revenue recognition guidance within U.S. GAAP. Additionally, the ASU requires expanded disclosures relating to the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers. The Conference adopted the new standard effective January 1, 2019, the first day of the Conference's fiscal year using the modified retrospective approach.

As part of the adoption of the ASU, the Conference elected the following transition practical expedients: (i) to reflect the aggregate of all contract modifications that occurred prior to the date of initial application when identifying satisfied and unsatisfied performance obligations, determining the transaction price, and allocating the transaction price; and (ii) to apply the standard only to contracts that are not completed at the initial date of application. Because contract modifications are minimal, there is not a significant impact as a result of electing these practical expedients. Management has analyzed the provisions of the ASU and have concluded that no changes are necessary to conform with the new standard.

During 2019, the Conference adopted ASU 2017-07, Compensation – Retirement Benefits (Topic 715): Improving the Presentation of Net Periodic Pension Costs and Net Periodic Postretirement Benefit Cost. The standard addressed the disclosure of the net periodic pension costs. There was no material impact to the consolidated financial statements presented upon adoption of this standard.

Also, during 2019, the Conference adopted ASU 2018-08, Clarifying the Scope and the Accounting Guidance for Contributions Received and Contributions Made. The standard provides guidance on determining whether a transaction should be accounted for as a contribution or as an exchange transaction and whether a contribution is considered conditional. The presentation of the Conference's consolidated financial statements has not been changed as a result of the standard.

Basis of presentation

The Conference's consolidated financial statement presentation is in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). Under GAAP, the Conference's consolidated financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, and the Conference reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: net assets without donor restrictions and net asset with donor restrictions.

Accordingly, the net assets of the Conference, and changes therein, are classified and reported as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions- Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and are available for use in the Conference's ongoing operations.

Net assets with donor restrictions- Net assets that are "temporarily restricted" and therefore limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that can be fulfilled by either the actions of the Conference, or the passage of time; and net assets that are "permanently restricted" and therefore limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that permanently restrict the use of the funds by the Conference, with the exception of the investment earnings.

Generally, if the corpus of a contribution will, at some future time, become available for spending, it is recorded as with donor restrictions. In addition, contributions that are promised to be given in a future period are presented as with donor restrictions. If the corpus never becomes available for spending, it will be held in perpetuity by others and classified as net assets with donor restrictions. Net assets held by others represent the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date and the original value of subsequent gifts to donor-restricted endowment funds.

Net assets without donor restrictions include resources without restrictions, including donations, gifts, and bequests available for the use of the Conference, over which the Board of Trustees has discretionary control. The Conference reviewed all endowment funds, and no reclassification to net assets was required.

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash includes all cash on hand, demand deposits, and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less. Cash and cash equivalents excludes the cash components of investments.

The Conference maintain financial relationships with financial institutions subject to FDIC or NCUA membership. Under FDIC and NCUA guidelines, all depository accounts are insured up to $250,000. Throughout the year, the Conference's and certain Affiliates' deposits exceeded these limitations for deposits held at certain financial institutions. Balances are insured subject to the regulatory guidelines for banks and credit unions. Further, periodic reviews of financial institution relationships include assessment of capital adequacy. Deposits in excess of insured limits were approximately $1.9 million and $1.2 million at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

Accounts receivable and revenue

Apportionments - Apportionment revenue represents amounts paid by member churches to fund Conference initiatives and operating expenses. Requests for apportionment contributions are sent in the early part of each year, and additional requests are sent throughout the year. The Conference records revenue based on the satisfaction of the performance obligations over time, which is appointment year. Final revenue and receivables for the current year are recorded at year-end, based on subsequent receipts collected in January that relate to the prior year. Accordingly, there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible apportionments. Receivables are never considered delinquent and no interest is charged on receivables. Apportionment revenue does not include amounts collected from member churches to be passed on to the general United Methodist Church. These amounts are recorded as liabilities until transferred.

Medical Coverage Insurance - The Conference operates a medical coverage plan covering eligible lay employees, eligible clergy employees, eligible retired clergy of the Conference, and member churches. Medical coverage premiums are collected from member churches and retirees monthly. Revenue is recognized based on the related satisfaction of the performance obligations over time, which is monthly. Receivables are recorded, and there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible accounts as payments are automatically pulled electronically when invoiced.

Camp Operations - The Conference operates several camps throughout its region. Camp sessions primarily occur in the summer. Revenue is recorded at the related satisfaction of the performance obligations at point in time, which is at the time of the camp session. As such, no receivables are recorded. Any revenue collected in the current year pertaining to a camp session for the next year is recognized as deferred revenue.

Program Fee Income - At times, the Conference also requests a fee for events (other than camps) to defray a portion of program costs. These programs may be educational sessions or mission trips. Revenue is recorded at the related satisfaction of the performance obligations at point in time, which is at the completion of the event. Any revenue collected during the current year that pertains to a future event is recorded as deferred revenue.

Miscellaneous Revenue - Non-operational and ancillary income is reflected as miscellaneous revenue in the consolidated statement of activities. Miscellaneous revenue consists primarily of revenue generated from rental income, and random monetary or property gifts received from donors.

Total revenue recognized at a point in time is $889,771 and $958,352 for December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively. Total revenue recognized over time is $24,794,350 and $26,905,618 for December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

Investments

Investments are recorded at fair value based on quoted market values. Investment returns, including interest income, dividends, unrealized and realized gains or losses and fees are included in the consolidated statement of activities. See Notes 4 and 6.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost and depreciated over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. Routine repairs and maintenance are charged to expense when incurred, and improvements and additions are capitalized. The carrying value of long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the amount of assets may not be recoverable. Management has determined there was no asset impairment on depreciable assets in 2019 or 2018.

The Conference holds approximately 798 acres of land related to its camps that were donated or otherwise acquired in prior years. As the fair market value of this land could not be reasonably determined at the time of its donation, it is not recorded in the consolidated financial statements. In addition, the Conference is holding 12 properties for resale at December 31, 2019 and was holding 8 properties for resale at December 31, 2018. These properties have been recorded at their estimated fair values.

Endowment investment and spending policies

The Conference has adopted investment policies for all investment assets for which it is accountable, including certain endowment assets. The investment policy acknowledges and accommodates objectives unique to each fund, pool, or donor. In some cases, the investment policy is designed to produce an income stream to meet conference obligations to annuitants; in other cases, the policy is designed to preserve the real purchasing power of the assets and produce increasing income over time. In all cases, the policy provides a governance framework and guidance on investment management practices that are prudent and respectful of The United Methodist Church's social principles and underlying investment objectives.

Where not restricted by donor intent, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). Spending and disbursements from each fund are set by donor agreement or the investing body (e.g., Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, Trustees, or Council on Development). Certain affiliated churches that have placed investment assets with the Conference, be they endowed or otherwise, may request a distribution of some or all of their balances at any time. The liability for funds held for the benefit of these churches is included in amounts held for distribution on the consolidated statements of financial position.

Each district or mission board within the Conference that has investable assets, separately maintains an investment policy statement designed to meet their respective needs and objectives.

Contributions

Revenues from contributions are recognized when a donor's unconditional commitment is received. Donor contributions are recorded as without donor restrictions or with donor restrictions, depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions. When a restriction is satisfied, net assets with donor restrictions are released to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the consolidated statements of activities as satisfaction of donor restrictions. Any restricted contributions that are received and fulfilled in the same year are recorded as net assets with donor restrictions originally, and then released to net assets without donor restrictions in the same year. Contributions of marketable securities and property and equipment are recorded at their fair value at the date of the gift.

Expense allocation

The Conference allocates a portion of administrative expenses to program and mission services based on various direct costs related to each program and an analysis of personnel time.

Income and property taxes

The Conference is a not-for-profit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except for unrelated business income as defined by the Internal Revenue Code. The Conference did not have any unrelated business income during 2018 or 2019. Accordingly, no provision for federal, state, and local income taxes is included in the consolidated financial statements.

As a religious organization, the Conference is not required to file tax returns if it has no unrelated business income. Based on its review, management does not believe the Conference has taken any material uncertain tax positions, including any position that would place the Conference's exempt status in jeopardy for 2019 and 2018.

Life annuity gifts

The Council on Development (COD) receives funds from donors classified as life annuity gifts. The donors contribute an irrevocable remainder interest in the donated funds and establish an interest that requires monthly or quarterly payments of a specified amount to the donor annuitant or another annuitant. Payments must be made for the remaining life of the specified annuitant.

Upon the death of the donor, other identified party or annuitant, the remainder interest becomes available for the final beneficiary, which is either the Conference, or other organizations generally associated with The United Methodist Church. The final beneficiary is designated in the life annuity contracts; however, the Conference enables the donor to change the final beneficiary up until the time of death, with the stipulation that the donor must either change the final beneficiary to the Conference or to another organization associated with The United Methodist Church. Since the final beneficiary is not determinable until the date of death, the Conference records all original gifts as liabilities and includes them in amounts held for distribution in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Upon the death of the donor, identified party or annuitant, if the Conference is named as the final beneficiary, then the Conference records contribution revenue for the remaining portion of the gift in the year of death. If another organization is named as the final beneficiary, then a liability is recorded to that organization by the Conference for the remaining portion of the gift. When the remaining portion of the gift is paid to the other organization, the liability is released.

2. PLEDGE CAMPAIGN RECEIVABLES

The Conference conducts fundraising activities on an ongoing basis and some of those efforts result in multi-year promises to give. Pledges are recorded at their estimated fair value using discount rates ranging from 5.20% to 6.17%. Pledge campaign receivables as of December 31 are as follows:

	2019	2018
Pledges due in:
Less than one year	$ 8,750	8,750
One to five years	35,000	35,000
More than five years	166,250	188,125
	210,000	231,875
Less discount to present value	(116,444)	(136,089)
	$ 93,556	95,786

3. NOTES RECEIVABLE

The Conference provide loans to member churches for purposes of providing a source of funds to pay for renovation projects or new construction. Payments are due either on a monthly or quarterly basis, or in a lump sum upon completion of project construction. Interest charged may be at a rate of Prime (4.75% and 5.50% at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively) plus 2.00%, the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) (1.543% and 3.078% at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively) plus 0.90%, a fixed rate ranging from 2.25% to 4.25%, or be interest free. The payment terms range from due upon project completion up to 17 years.

Notes receivable are considered delinquent if required payments are not made; however, loans are not charged incremental interest or penalty fees provided foreclosure of property does not occur. Based on this practice, despite loans made to churches closely related to the Conference, there is a certain level of credit risk that may become significant.

Management assesses the collectability of notes receivable at year-end. Based on collection activity and known financial status of the church, an allowance may be recorded. The allowance for uncollectible notes receivable was $27,015 at December 31, 2019 and 2018.

Maturities of notes receivable over the subsequent five years and thereafter are as follows:

Year ending December 31
2020	$ 29,837
2021	34,224
2022	20,405
2023	16,522
2024	7,157
	$ 108,145

4. INVESTMENTS

Marketable securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain marketable securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the value will occur in the near term, and such changes could be material. Investments consisted of the following as of December 31:

	2019	2018
Money market	$ 2,184,053	1,473,308
Government obligations	2,742,929	5,992,004
Corporate securities	6,433,657	11,549,526
Common stock	31,010,957	25,393,269
Mutual funds	54,989,998	43,070,006
Certificates of deposit	2,006,515	935,274
	$ 99,368,109	88,413,387

5. BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN ASSETS HELD BY OTHERS

ORV has a beneficial interest in two assets held by others. The assets are not in possession of the Affiliate and are administered by the Board of Trustees of The United Methodist Church. Under the terms of the endowment, ORV has the irrevocable right to receive income earned on the endowment assets held by others in perpetuity. ORV has recorded an asset titled "beneficial interest in assets held by others" equivalent to the present value of the expected future cash flows from the endowments, approximated by the estimated fair value of the endowments' assets.

Additionally, another bequest was identified by the Board of Trustees of The United Methodist Church where the beneficiary is the West Ohio Conference Board of Pension and Health. It was determined that only the initial bequest amount was to be held in perpetuity so only that corpus was recorded as permanently restricted and the investment income from the gift was recorded as other restricted assets held by others at December 31, 2019.

6. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Generally accepted accounting principles define fair value, establish a framework for measuring fair value, and establish a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Conference has the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2019 and 2018.

Money market and certificates of deposit: Valued based on the contractual terms of the underlying money market or cash equivalent account.

Common stock, corporate securities and government obligations: Valued at the closing price reported on the active market on which the individual securities are traded.

Mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value of shares held by the Conference at year-end.

Property held for sale: Valued at fair market value based upon real estate appraisals.

Beneficial interest in assets held by others: Valuation is determined by the underlying interest in funds held by the custodian, which are primarily invested in marketable securities with quoted market prices.

The following table summarizes the valuation of financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis in the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31:

Property held for sale is measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis in the consolidated statements of financial positions as of December 31, 2019 and 2018. Property held for sale is valued at $2,107,958 and $1,841,405 as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively, as a Level 3 input.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Changes in the fair value of properties held for sale and beneficial interest in assets held by others, which are measured on a recurring and nonrecurring basis using significant unobservable (Level 3) inputs, for 2019 and 2018:

	Recurring Beneficial Interest in Assets Held by Others	Nonrecurring Property Held for Sale

Several districts have acquired church properties from former congregations that have ceased to be associated with the Conference. These properties are recorded at their estimated fair value when the relevant district determines it will be held for resale. The Conference is committed to selling these properties as soon as possible.

7. LINE OF CREDIT AND LOAN GUARANTEE

ORV maintains a $1,500,000 revolving line of credit with a financial institution due on demand. The line of credit bears interest at a rate determined by the size of the District's assets that are under management of the financial institution (3.25% and 3.00% at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively). The assets of the ORV are pledged as collateral.

ORV is guarantor on the commercial loan of a local church in that district. At December 31, 2019 and 2018, the outstanding balance on the loan was approximately $1.2 million, for which ORV may be immediately liable if the church defaults on the loan or files a bankruptcy petition. The loan balance is due before March 1, 2023, and ORV may be released from the guarantee prior to that time, provided certain terms of the guarantee are met. The local church was current on the loan as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and management does not expect to be required to perform on the guarantee. Accordingly, no related liability is recorded in these consolidated financial statements.

8. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment consisted of the following as of December 31:

	2019	2018
Land and improvements	$ 3,457,929	3,340,804
Buildings and building improvements	12,978,553	11,789,860

	$ 16,368,217	15,304,899

9. OPERATING LEASES

ORV leases office space as an operating lease commencing in January 2018 from a local church. Annual payment of $1 is due in January 2019. In addition, as compensation to the Lessor, Lessee will pay for repairs and remediation to the property as set out in Exhibit B to the lease. Since the commencement of the lease, ORV has paid $196,675 towards the repairs and remediation of the property.

The Conference leases certain other office equipment under non-cancelable operating leases, which expire at various times over the next five years. Total lease expenditures in 2019 and 2018 were $168,177 and $175,423, respectively. Future minimum lease payments are as follows:

Year ending December 31
2020	$ 6,845
2021	1
2022	1
	$ 6,847

10. NET ASSETS WITH DONOR RESTRICTIONS

The net assets with donor restrictions that are restricted by time or purpose includes assets and trust obligations of the Conference related to gifts with explicit donor-imposed restrictions that have not been met. Net assets restricted by time or purpose at December 31, are restricted to the following uses:

	2019	2018
Church buildings	$ 2,563,909	2,299,060
District operations	1,220,016	1,023,694

Beneficial interest in assets held by others	951,456	142,700
	$ 13,735,282	11,120,500

The net asset with donor restrictions that are held by others includes assets of the Conference related to gifts with explicit donor-imposed restrictions that permanently restrict the use of the corpus of the original gift. See Note 5 regarding beneficial interest in assets held by others. Net assets that are being held by others at December 31, are restricted to the following:

	2019	2018
Beneficial interest in assets held by others	$ 122,998	528,138
Local churches	176,057	176,057
Church buildings	68,696	68,696
Cemetery support endowments	22,726	22,726
Other	30,000	-
	$ 420,477	795,617

11. FUNDS HELD IN TRUST BY OTHERS

The COD is named as the remainder beneficiary of certain trusts held by others. These trusts are not included in the consolidated financial statements as the funds are neither in the possession of nor under the control of the COD. Total estimated fair value of the COD's interest in these funds at December 31, 2019 and 2018, is not available.

12. EPISCOPAL FUND

The Conference receives funds from the Episcopal Fund established by the General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) of The United Methodist Church. This fund is one of the general church funds to be used for administrative expenses of annual conferences.

The GCFA requires certain comparative information to be disclosed as a part of the annual audit of the Conference for the years ended December 31:

	2019	2018
Revenue
GCFA Episcopal Fund receipts	$ 106,252	106,252
Expenses
Salaries	210,740	236,127
Payroll taxes and benefits	62,801	74,587
Travel	8,288	15,998
Episcopal initiatives	87,328	38,195
Occupancy and office expenses	56,107	35,473
	425,264	400,380
	$ (319,012)	(294,128)

Episcopal related expenses exceed funding received annually; accordingly, there is no beginning or ending cash balances as funds are fully utilized by the year-end. Other operational or contribution funding is effectively utilized to pay for Episcopal expenditures greater than the funds provided from the Episcopal Fund. None of the Episcopal Funds were used for property and equipment purchases in 2019 or 2018.

13. ENDOWMENT FUNDS AND UPMIFA

Management has determined that certain Conference assets meet the definition of endowments under the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act of 2006 (UPMIFA). The Conference has interpreted UPMIFA as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as net assets with donor restrictions (a) the original value of gifts donated to endowments, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to endowments, and (c) accumulations to the endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

In accordance with UPMIFA, the Conference considers these factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the fund;
- (2) The purposes of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund;
- (3) General economic conditions;
- (4) The possible effect of inflation and deflation;
- (5) The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments;
- (6) Other resources of the organization; and
- (7) The investment policies of the organization.

14. HEALTHCARE POST-RETIREMENT BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS

The Conference sponsors a defined benefit post-retirement healthcare plan covering substantially all employees, and is a participant in a denomination-sponsored defined benefit pension plan as described in Note 15. GAAP requires an employer to recognize the over-funded or under-funded status of a defined benefit plan, or post-retirement benefits plan, as an asset or liability in its consolidated statement of financial position.

For pension plans, the asset or liability is determined by comparing plan assets to the projected benefit obligation. Pension plans recognize changes in the funded status in the year in which the changes occur through net assets without donor restricted revenue or expense. For post-retirement plans other than pension plans, the asset and liability is determined by comparing plan assets to the accumulated benefit obligation.

The size of the post-retirement healthcare obligation and related expense is based upon the plan benefit levels approved each year by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Conference had assets designated for this liability totaling approximately $58.2 million and $48.8 million as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively, in the Retired Clergy Benefits Fund.

15. RETIREMENT PLANS

The Pre-82 Plan

The Conference participates in a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan (the Plan), administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBPHB) of The United Methodist Church, covering all clergy with Pre-82 pension credit service. The benefits are based on the greater of the past service pension rate multiplied by the number of the clergy's Pre-82 years of service in the Plan, or the service annuity benefit specified by the Plan.

Annual contributions by the Conference are determined within certain guidelines established by the GBPHB. Contributions made by the Conference are held in a general pool with the contributions of other conferences, and are generally available to pay the beneficiaries of all employers in the Plan. The Conference's account within the Plan was over-funded as of the January 1, 2019 valuation. The Conference was not required and did not make any contributions for 2019.

The GBPHB prepares actuarial valuations annually as of January 1 and generally issues its report each September. The most recent valuation reflects the Plan asset values and liability funding status as of January 1, 2019.

Plan information and assumptions at January 1:

	2019	2018
Assets and funding:
Fair value of plan assets	$ 69,299,295	74,510,093
Less pension benefit obligation	(65,398,291)	(68,571,395)
Funded past service liability	$ 3,901,004	5,938,698
Assumptions:
Interest rate	6.375%	6.500%
Past service rate (PSR) increase	2.00%	2.00%
Mortality table	RP-14 (MP-16)	RP-14 (MP-16)

All Plan assets are invested in the Multiple Asset Fund (MAF) of the GBPHB. The investment objective of the MAF is to maximize long-term investment returns, including current income and capital appreciation, while reducing short-term risk by investing in a broad mix of investments. Weighted-average asset allocations of Plan investments as of December 31:

	2019			2018
	Policy Target Range		Actual	Policy Target Range		Actual
US Equity Fund	32%	38%	35.9%	32%	38%	33.9%

Cash	0%	2%	0.2%	0%	2%	0.4%

Ministerial Pension Plan 1982- 2006 (MPP)

The Conference participates in a 403(b) defined contribution plan, the MPP for clergy employees. Eligible employees are 100% vested in their contributions. When the Plan was active, the Conference made a matching contribution equal to 12% of Denomination Average Compensation (DAC) for clergy employees. This Plan was closed to new contributions at December 31, 2006.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

Effective January 1, 2007, the GBPHB amended its pension plan, creating the CRSP, which has both a defined benefit and defined contribution component. The defined contribution component of the CRSP is capped at 3% of eligible compensation. The defined benefit component provides annual income based on years of service and a percentage of DAC (1.25% for service years 2007 through 2013 and 1.00% thereafter).

The terms of the plan permit the Conference to use an over-funded position in the Pre-82 Plan to fund the defined benefit component of the CRSP. Although a surplus was available, the Conference made a full contribution of $3,384,168 and $3,329,724 years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively. The Conference bills its churches at a percentage of eligible compensation regardless of whether the surplus is utilized. When amounts collected exceed the amount remitted to GBPHB, the excess funds are used to build a reserve for the post-retirement healthcare liability or other clergy benefits, as designated by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan

The Conference sponsors a 403(b) defined contribution plan for clergy and full-time lay employees of the Conference and Affiliates. Participants are 100% vested in their contributions. The Conference and Affiliates make matching contributions subject to their respective adoption agreements with the GBPHB. Matching contributions for the 403(b) defined contribution plan are immediately vested. Matching contributions for totaled approximately $163,000 and $150,000 for years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

16. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

The Conference is substantially supported by earned revenue. The Conference also receives contributions with donor restrictions. Because a donor's restriction requires resources to be used in a particular manner or in a future period, the Conference must maintain sufficient resources to meet those responsibilities to its donors. Thus, financial assets may not be available for general expenditure within one year. As part of the Conference's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due.

	2019	2018
Financial assets:
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 3,674,243	3,257,319
Investments	99,368,109	88,413,387

Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year before board designated and post-retirement benefit obligations	89,972,106	81,450,067
Board designated	32,154,971	20,848,572
Post-retirement benefits obligations	50,033,518	48,683,086
Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year	$ 7,783,617	11,918,409

17. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In preparing these consolidated financial statements, the Conference has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure September 11, 2020, the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

Subsequent to the date of the consolidated financial statements, the Conference organized and incorporated the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio, Inc., and the Board of Pensions of The West Ohio Conference, Inc. In each case the Conference is the sole legal member, the Conference exercises control, and the financial activity will be consolidated in subsequent statements. No financial transactions have been recorded in either corporation. It is anticipated that financial activity previously associated with the Conference departments of Council on Development (COD) and Clergy Benefits will be recorded in these new corporate entities.

Subsequent to the date of the consolidated financial statements, an outbreak of a novel strain of coronavirus (COVID-19) has disrupted supply chains and affected production and sales across a range of industries. The extent of the impact of COVID-19 on the Conference's operational and financial performance will depend on certain developments, including the duration and spread of the outbreak. Impact on the Conference's donors, employees and vendors cannot be predicted, and the extent to which COVID-19 may impact the Conference's financial condition or results of the operations is uncertain at this time.

Additionally, as a result of COVID-19, the Conference applied for a Paycheck Protection Plan loan (PPP Loan) for $1,119,400 with a rate of 1%, which was approved and received on May 5, 2020 with a maturity date of May 5, 2022. As of now, the Conference has neither sought forgiveness nor determined the amount of forgiveness the Conference will seek.

D. CLERGY PROCEDURES

1. MOVING TO A NEW APPOINTMENT

The cabinet shall annually determine the effective date of appointment changes and the moving date for pastors.

2. COMPENSATION FOR NEWLY APPOINTED PASTORS

When a pastor receives a new appointment, the cabinet shall determine the date for compensation changes including salaries, pension, and hospitalization.

3. COMMITTEE ON STAFF/PASTOR-PARISH RELATIONS AND NEWLY APPOINTED PASTORS

We strongly recommend that the Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations and newly appointed pastors meet monthly for the first six months and at least quarterly thereafter for the purpose of developing a supportive relationship.

4. VACATION

a. Vacation Policy

Time for vacation, continuing education, Sabbath and formational renewal are extremely important to every person involved in professional ministry. There must be times of recreation, study and re-centering in each clergy's life. The West Ohio Conference adopts these guidelines for clergy and churches as a way of encouraging clergy to live a balanced life in ministry.

The guidelines that are listed below are the minimum of all clergy under appointment. A charge and the appointed clergy in consultation with the District Superintendent may negotiate mutually agreeable changes to fit unusual circumstances in line with the spirit of this section.

Details and agreements regarding vacation, sick time, continuing education, days off, formational and spiritual growth leave, and connectional responsibilities should be established at the time of the appointment and reviewed annually as part of the annual pastor evaluation with the charge's Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations (SPRC).

All clergy shall have at least, but not limited to, the equivalent of four weeks (based on estimated weekly workdays), plus two days. These days may be taken individually. This shall include a maximum of four Sundays. The following table shows minimum paid vacation days by nature of appointment.

MINIMUM VACATION STANDARDS

Appointment Level	Estimated Weekly Workdays	Total Vacation Days including 4 Sundays
Full Time Appointment	6	26 (6 x 4 = 24) + 2
¾ Time	4.5	20 (4.5 x 4 = 18) + 2
½ Time	3	14 (3 x 4 = 12) + 2
¼ Time	1.5	8 (1.5 x 4 = 6) + 2

*Clergy do not need to take a vacation day for regularly scheduled weekly day(s) off

Vacation shall be granted on the annual conference year (July 1 through June 30). In order to establish proper healthy boundaries, pastors and other clergy persons under appointment are expected and encouraged to take all vacation days annually. Vacation is not cumulative and cannot be carried over to the succeeding year. It is expected that the pastor will make arrangements in advance with the SPRC and consult with them in obtaining vacation supply coverage. Vacation leave for appointment beyond the local church (deacons) or extension ministry (elders and local pastors) is determined by that employer.

b. Continuing Education and Spiritual Growth

In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.2, clergy members continuing education and spiritual growth program shall include professional formation leaves at least one week each year and may include at least one month during one year of every quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered vacation time and should be coordinated through your SPRC committee.

More extended time for renewal leave is a healthy part of the rhythms of vocational ministry. In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.3, clergy members who have held full-time appointment for at least six years may request a formational and spiritual growth leave of up to six months while continuing to hold an appointment in the local church.

c. Sabbath and Weekly Day Off

It is important for clergy to have regular time away each week. Clergy members are strongly encouraged to establish a schedule that includes at least one day of Sabbath and one day away from ministerial responsibilities each week. Experiencing and modeling the rhythm of weekly Sabbath rest is vital to the work of vocational ministry. This day is included as a part of the six-day workweek for full time appointment in the chart above. Such days should be communicated so that congregation and staff will know when such days are to occur, so as to allow a time of refreshment. These are not vacation days.

d. Connectional and Community Responsibilities

All clergy are expected to attend all sessions of the Annual Conference. In addition, clergy may have other connectional responsibilities. Time spent on these responsibilities shall not be counted as vacation or as continuing education. Clergy will inform the SPRC of time needed for these responsibilities.

Clergy are also often involved in various community groups. Such involvement provides an opportunity to build a bridge between the community and the church. These involvements shall not be considered vacation or continuing education. Clergy are encouraged to use good judgement in determining the commitment accepted beyond the primary appointment. Consultation with the SPRC should take place before accepting such responsibilities.

When a recommendation is under consideration, it shall be the duty of the chair to ascertain, when recognizing a member of the conference, on which side the member proposes to speak; the chair shall not assign the floor to any member proposing to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak on the other side thereof.
- b. Except for undebatable motions (Rule 2), no recommendation shall be adopted or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two against the same recommendation. After three speeches for and three against and provided no secondary motions come before the floor, the question shall be put automatically.

13. LIMITATIONS ON DEBATE

No member shall speak more than once on the same question until all who desire to speak have spoken. Speeches shall be no more than two minutes without leave of the conference. When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending) he/she shall indicate to what he/she intends it to apply if any secondary motion or motions are pending. A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order any time if offered by a member who voted on the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is nondebatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

is the head of the area, vitally concerned with the decisions of this body. Therefore, the bishop shall have the right to speak on the issues before this conference, providing he/she surrenders the chair to someone of his/her appointing at any time that he/she feels he/she should apprise the conference on matters pertaining to the issue before the house.

Rev. Dr. Lowell D. Crabtree passed away at age 83, on July 10, 2019, at SOMC Hospital, Portsmouth, Ohio. Lowell graduated from Wakefield High School in May of 1954, then immediately joined the United States Army on May 24, serving in the army security agency until March 11, 1957. He attended Ohio State University and received a Bachelor of Science in Education degree, August 25, 1962.

Lowell taught Industrial Arts and Driver's Education at Licking Heights High School from 1961-1973. He also coached Junior High and High School football.

At age 38, Lowell received a clear call from God to become a pastor. He retired from teaching and was assigned to pastor the two-point charge of Perryton and Frazeyburg churches in the Newark district. He loved both churches. Lowell loved to preach the word and they responded. He served these two churches five years. While he pastored these churches, he attended Methodist Theological Seminary, receiving his Master of Divinity degree on June 4, 1977.

In 1979, Lowell was called to move to Bethel church in Clermont County. While always serving with a loving spirit toward all parishioners, the church thrived, and he found it a joy to serve and see congregants growing in their faith. While he was pastoring Bethel, he went to Luther Rice Seminary in Atlanta, Georgia, receiving his Doctor of Ministry Degree, June 4, 1992. While serving there, the Bethel church buildings were demolished, except for a two-story brick Sunday School building. A beautiful new church was constructed, as God proved faithful in this large undertaking.

Lowell retired in June 2001, and he and Scottie bought a home in Georgetown, Ohio. They joined the Mt. Nebo United Methodist Church where they served as laypeople for eleven years.

After Lowell was diagnosed with a serious illness, he and Scottie sold their home and moved to Hillview Retirement Community in Portsmouth, Ohio, in 2012. They celebrated 61 years of marriage the week of his passing. Lowell was faithful to the call.

STEPHEN B HAYES

Stephen B Hayes "Steve" was born on December 5, 1950, to Gordon and Gretchen Hayes, of Celina, Ohio. Steve was the eldest of three brothers and grew up working on the family farm. After graduating from Celina High School in 1970, Steve enlisted in the United States Army, and was sent to Vietnam for a year, where he served honorably in the 173rd Airborne Division. Following his discharge, Steve continued working on the family farm, as well as full time factory work. Steve and his family were lifelong, faithful members of the Pleasant View Church of God, on State Route 118, west of Celina. Steve's maternal grandmother was a member of St. Paul's United Methodist Church on Main and Fulton Streets, in Celina, and he was baptized there as an infant. Thus was his early initiation into the denomination that he would later join, after marrying a United Methodist pastor, Kathleen J Condict "Katie," on January 8, 1994.

Steve met Katie when she was serving as a student local pastor at Landfair United Methodist Church, Celina, while attending seminary at UTS in Dayton. Steve, his folks, and his young daughter, Rachel, were living in the farmhouse across the road from the Landfair parsonage. After three and a half years of friendship and dating, Steve married "the girl next door," and began his journey as the spouse of a United Methodist Pastor. Together they raised Rachel and three more children: Sharon, Stephen Jr., and Gracie. Steve stood on the Hoover Auditorium stage, in Lakeside, beside Katie, when she was ordained an elder in 1999.

Steve's family eventually sold the farm, freeing the Hayes's to become fully itinerant. Steve served churches alongside Katie in Celina (Landfair, and St. Paul's), Waynesfield, Columbus Grove, and Ottawa--all in the Northwest Plains District. In 2013, they were blessed with their first grandchild, Aiden. Besides continuing to work full time in manufacturing (until he retired in 2014), Steve enjoyed volunteering wherever he was needed, both in the local church and in the local schools their children attended. Steve provided the support system and balance that enabled Katie to be wife, mother, and pastor for the 26 years they were in ministry together. He died from metastatic melanoma on February 21, 2020, at The James Cancer Hospital, Columbus, and went to be with his Lord as all of his family were gathered around him in love and prayer.

SUSAN LEE ROBERTS-MCGLADE

Born August 1, 1953, in Lima Ohio, to Tom and Charlotte Roberts. She is survived by her husband, Eric McGlade, her daughter, Caitlin Roberts McGlade, her parents, Tom and Charlotte Roberts, her sister and husband, Dave and Becky (Roberts) Carr, her sister-in-law and husband, Jana (McGlade) and George Basham and two nephews, Todd Carr and Eric Basham, and three nieces, Alison (Carr) Crowe, Melanie (Carr) Orzechowski and Elizabeth Basham.

She saw her life as a “pastor’s spouse” in the United Methodist Church as a responsibility, if not always a blessing. Living in mold infested parsonages, wrestling with unrepentant trustees, and encountering the brutality of those who wore their “troubled” souls in public took the shine off much of church life for her. Yet her faith in God was deeply rooted. She loved the poetry of the church’s liturgy. She was fed by the unfolding story of our faith as shared in the gospels. The vision of the peaceable and just reign gave her hope.

She had a great love of history, especially local history. She was a certified interpreter of local history in Dayton and Toledo, Ohio. The highpoint of her career was during the 100th anniversary of Flight. She got to work with John and Annie Glenn as the city of Dayton was preparing for its celebration of the town’s most famous inventors. When it was time to re-open the expanded Wright Museum, she was chosen to give Neil Armstrong the tour. She took personally the fraud perpetuated on the world by the people of North Carolina that their state was “first in flight.” She would argue that Ohio owned that title since the plane was invented and perfected here. All North Carolina provided was wind! In Toledo, she was one of the writers of the interpreter’s manual for the Manor House at Wildwood. She could enlighten a perfect stranger, long time friend, or family member with exacting details of Toledo historical characters and events that few would know or even care about.

Then there was her family. She could not get enough of the family. She was usually the first to arrive at a family gathering and the last to leave. She collected the “family history,” discovering through ancestry.com family members we did not know we had. She was devoted to her parents finding her mother’s love essential in her own self understanding and her father’s work ethic and competence the pattern for how she would order her professional and personal life. Her daughter Caitlin would tell others that her mother taught her what it meant to love unconditionally. She was proud of her daughter’s work as an investigative journalist and was masterful of the art of loving her through her difficult moments without judgment. Through her faith and the way she loved unconditionally, Susan became for me one of my greatest teachers...my strongest friend and the love of my life. She was, is, and always will be a great source of strength for me, Caitlin, and those who knew her well.

XII HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The hardy pioneer itinerants who blazed their way through the uncharted Indian wilderness were people of giant hearts, stalwart frames and steadfast convictions. Surely these faithful pioneers, always ready for any hardship and toil the Church and its elders might demand, would be most happy that the Church militant has achieved such a historical time line as is evidenced in the continued health and aspirations of this, the oldest original Conference in the Northwest Territory.

The east and west borders of the Western Conference were that portion of Ohio bordering the Ohio River on the east to the "shores of the setting sun" on the west. At the annual meeting of the Western Conference in Cincinnati on October 1, 1811, both Bishop Frances Asbury and Bishop William McKendree were in attendance. At that time it was decided that, if the General Conference voted to divide the Western Conference, the "lower conference" would next meet at Fountain Head, Tennessee, and the "upper conference" – to be called the Ohio Conference – would be held in Chillicothe, Ohio, on October 1, 1812.

Our present West Ohio Conference, therefore, reflects the unions of the former Cincinnati (1913), Central Ohio (1913), old West Ohio (1927), part of the former Central German (1936), and part of the Lexington (1964), Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Ohio (1939) and the Muskingum (1918) Conferences of the Methodist Protestant Church, and the Ohio Miami (1968), Ohio Sandusky (1968), and Ohio Southeast (1968) Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

On June 10, 1970, a Special Session of Six Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church, within the Ohio West and Ohio East areas, was held in Veterans' Memorial Auditorium, Columbus, Ohio, for the purpose of uniting the six conferences into two. The former Ohio Methodist, Ohio Sandusky Evangelical United Brethren, Ohio Miami Evangelical United Brethren, and Ohio Southeast Evangelical United Brethren Conferences were united to become the West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church. The former North East Ohio Methodist, the East Ohio Evangelical United Brethren and a designated number of churches in the former Ohio Sandusky and Ohio Southeast Conferences were united to become The East Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church.

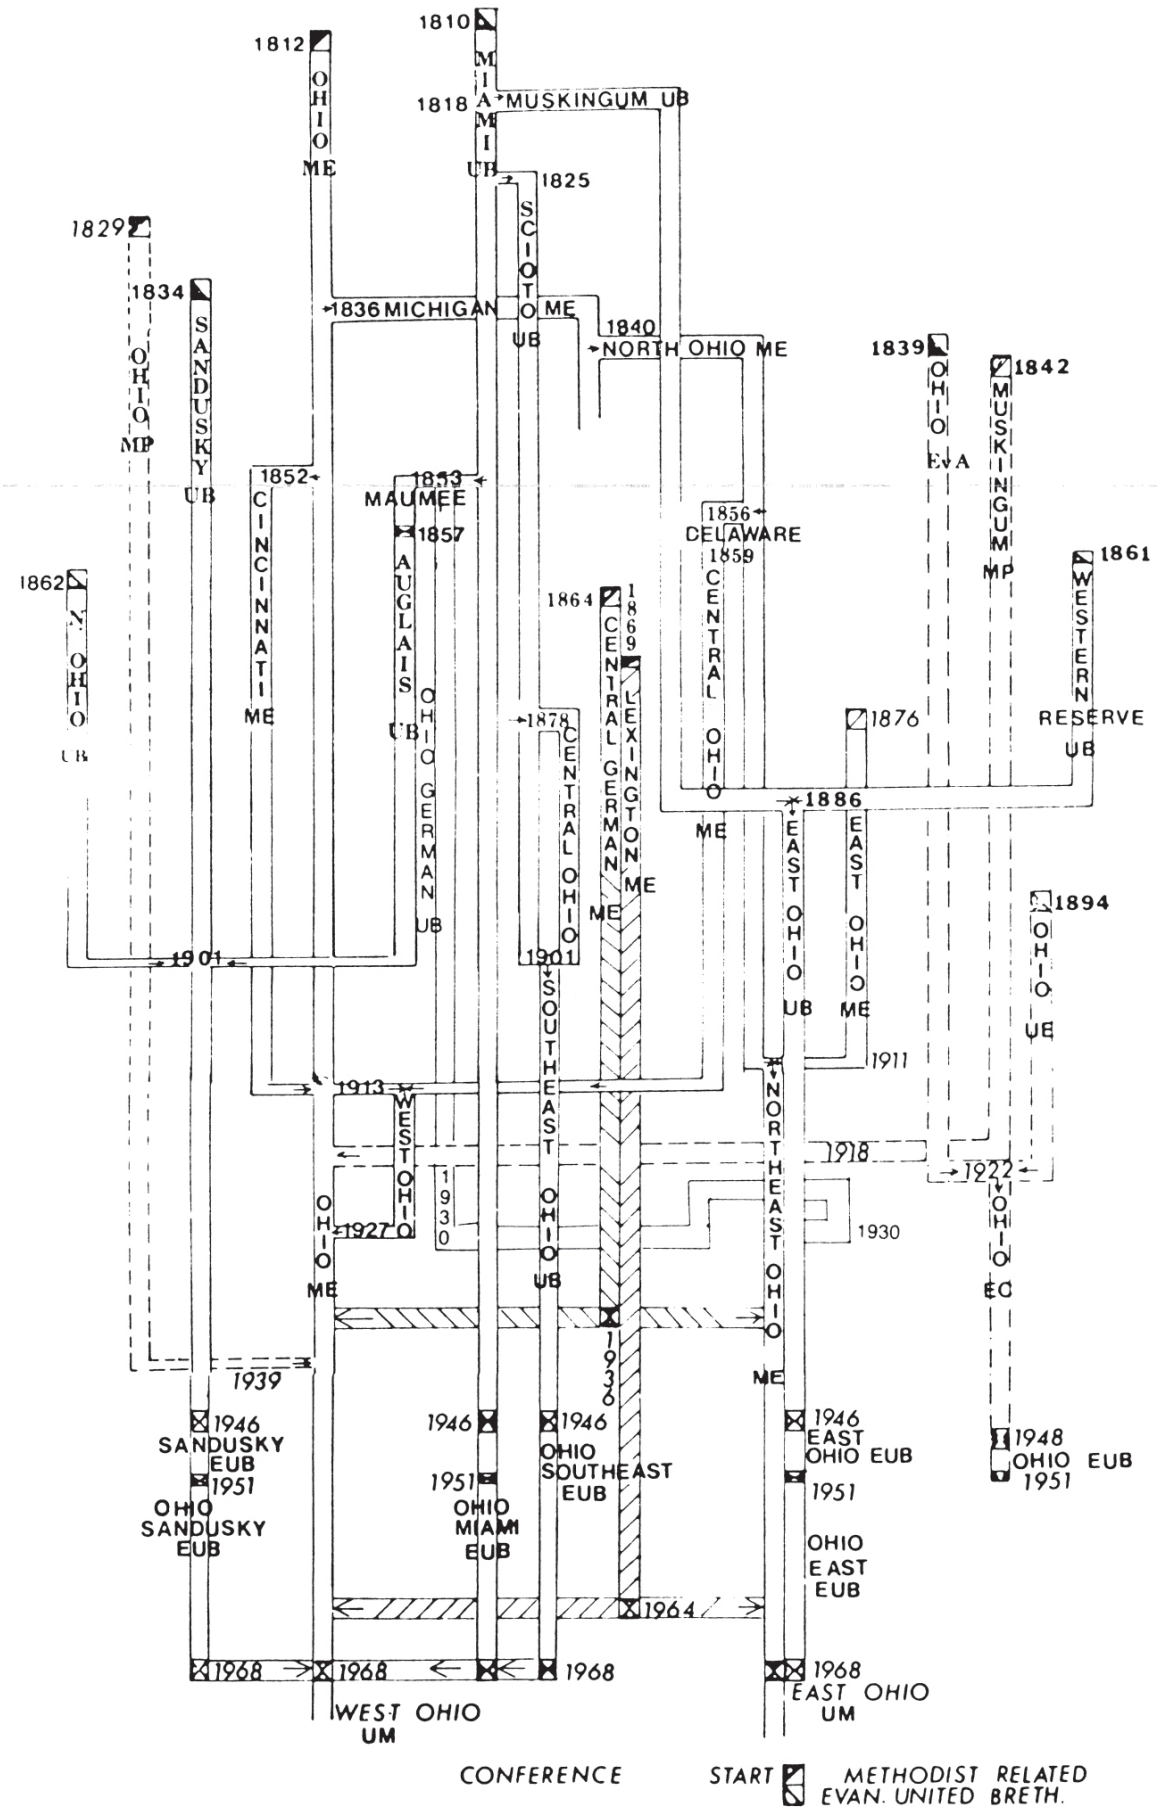

West Ohio, State of Ohio: counties of Adams, Allen, Athens, Auglaize, Brown, Butler, Champaign, Clark Clermont, Clinton, Darke, Defiance, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Gallia, Greene, Hamilton, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Highland, Hocking, Jackson, Lawrence, Licking (excluding the towns of Homer and Utica), Logan, Lucas, Madison, Meigs, Mercer, Miami, Montgomery, Paulding, Perry, Pickaway, Pike, Preble, Putnam, Ross, Scioto, Shelby, Union, Van Wert, Vinton, Warren, Williams, and Wood; west of the Muskingum River in the counties of Morgan, Muskingum (including the city of Zanesville), and Washington (including the city of Marietta); west of Route 23, north of Route 37, and west of Route 71, south of Route 37 in Delaware County and west of Sandusky Street (excluding Asbury United Methodist Church) in the city of Delaware; west of Route 23 in the counties of Marion and Wyandot (including the city of Upper Sandusky); west of the 83rd longitude in Ottawa County; and west of the Sandusky River through the counties of Sandusky (including the city of Fremont) and Seneca.

This is the 223rd year of organized Methodism in Ohio. It also marks the 209th Conference Session within the territory covered by the West and East Ohio Conferences.

XIII ANNUAL REPORTS FOR 2019

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The National Organization of United Methodist Women has been focusing on the needs of women, children and youth since 1869. West Ohio Conference echoes that emphasis, with efforts to promote spiritual growth, leadership development, transformative education, service, and advocacy. We seek to live out faith, hope, and love in action locally and around the world.

United Methodist Women faced the challenge of not being able to meet in person in 2020, due to the Covid-19 pandemic, and met it head-on. We quickly adapted to meeting via Zoom for conference and district leadership team meetings, and moved on to planning, promoting, and implementing mission education events and training.

Our Mission u was planned for July at Otterbein University, but Dean Beth Vanoli and Assistant Dean Rev. Don Wilson, with guidance and support from the National Organization, converted it to a virtual event. Four study leaders led a study on Anxiety, a very timely subject for these times. The classes were offered on different days and times, and sessions were spread out over four weeks in August. We were pleased to have several United Methodist Women from other conferences join with us, beginning a relationship that is continuing. Rev. Don Wilson and others from the Mission u team provided worship experiences on two Sunday nights during the August sessions.

District Leadership Teams used a variety of means to accomplish their annual meetings in the fall, by Zoom meetings, emailed communications, in-person gatherings or some combinations of these. The Conference Annual Celebration was a Zoom event, with Bishop Gregory Palmer as an honored guest and speaker. Bishop Palmer complimented United Methodist Women on our adaptability and affirmed our mission.

We have used Zoom to good effect to reach out to women (and some men) in West Ohio and, as mentioned before, new friends from other conferences. Beth Vanoli has organized several Bible studies as well as Zoom training sessions which have been well-received.

We partnered with All in Community, the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections, and the West Ohio Disaster Response network to make masks and collect supplies for Reentry Kits, which were modified UMCOR health kits for people returning to their communities from incarceration. Also, some of our knitters and crocheters responded to a special request from Bishop Palmer for prayer shawls to be given to the loved ones of those clergy and spouses who passed away during the conference year. In addition, local and district groups have found other ways to reach out and help in local communities.

National UMW has announced plans for 2022 Assembly, to be held in Orlando, Florida. West Ohio UMW Leadership Team continues to meet virtually to plan our events for the year, including a virtual retreat in May, Mission u in the summer, a joint virtual event with Iowa United Methodist Women, and our annual meetings in the fall.

“Faith, hope, and love in action” continues to be our theme, as we look forward to the ending of the pandemic and the changes ahead for United Methodist Women, as well as for the United Methodist Church.

SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY AFRICA UNIVERSITY

In 2019, Africa University’s story was one of resourcefulness, investment, and ministry growth.

Thank you, Bishop Gregory Palmer, the Cabinet, and the dedicated lay and clergy leaders who nurture vitality within the local congregations of the West Ohio Conference. Africa University is grateful to you for all that you do to sustain the United Methodist connection and global mission.

Africa University affirms its commitment to The United Methodist Church, its Cross and Flame, and the denomination’s global mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

In 2019, the West Ohio Conference graciously maintained a 100 percent investment of the asking to the Africa University Fund

(AUF) apportionment. Thank you, West Ohio United Methodists, for being a source of hope that leads to transformed lives and communities.

The support of the West Ohio Conference is helping Africa University to educate leaders who think for themselves, are contextually relevant, and have a passion to serve. Since opening in 1992, Africa University has trained more than 9,000 graduates who lead and serve across sub-Saharan Africa. These young people are equipped to be ethical, responsible and responsive leaders who discern their calling and serve their communities with great energy and creativity.

Institutional Update:

- Africa University has an annual enrollment of around 2,800 students. There are 25-30 African nations represented in the student body each year.
- The university's three colleges operate as centers for teaching, research, innovation, community engagement and enterprise development. Africa University is still the only university in Zimbabwe accredited to offer online degree programs.
- Students, faculty, and alumni contribute solutions to Africa's current challenges with interventions that include graduate programs in migrant and refugee protection, articulated by refugee students, as well as doctoral level training for military chaplains in Africa.
- In the area of campus infrastructure, Africa University is transitioning to solar energy with the support of the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church. A residence hall for women and a new wing of the student union building—gifted to the university by the Dallas, Texas-based Highland Park United Methodist Church—will be the first solar-powered facilities on the campus.

Thank you for your love and generosity, West Ohio Conference. By giving freely, you ensure that the promises of God come to life for more people and in new places. Through your faithfulness, you invite and encourage new partners to join in the mission and change the world.

Together with you, Africa University continues to celebrate God's amazing grace. West Ohio United Methodists, thanks to your stewardship of God's blessings, Africa University has gone beyond what some thought was possible. "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God." Luke 18:27 NKJV

BUSTH looks to the future. We celebrate transformational leaders of the United Methodist Church, who love with their whole hearts and follow Jesus Christ with their whole lives. Your legacy and witness give us hope and courage for the future.

Blessings and gratitude,
Mary Elizabeth Moore, Dean

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Since our founding in 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has educated more than 10,000 students, shaping thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders who are dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

This is especially important to note amid the current shifts in our denomination. It is an honor and a privilege for Candler to be one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church. Yet true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, Candler has enthusiastically welcomed the entire Wesleyan family to our community for generations. Faculty, staff, and students from the AME Church, the AMEZ Church, the CME Church, Free Methodists, Nazarenes, and others have worked, worshiped, learned, and prayed alongside United Methodists, and have been a vital part of shaping Candler and our mission. This diversity has been a wonderful gift and a rich blessing. As we move forward, we will continue to invite and welcome those from all expressions of the Wesleyan tradition. Indeed, we will continue to welcome all those who follow Jesus Christ.

This year, Candler has continued to strengthen our deep commitment to alleviating student debt and promoting financial literacy. In 2018-2019, we awarded $6.3 million in financial aid, with 100 percent of master of divinity (MDiv) students receiving support and financial coaching. In fall 2019, we announced a major expansion of our financial aid program to include full-tuition scholarships for all MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in The United Methodist Church, and new merit scholarships covering 75% of tuition for qualifying MDiv students who identify as pan-Wesleyan, and those pursuing chaplaincy through Candler’s new chaplaincy concentration. In addition, all incoming students in the master of divinity, master of theological studies, and master of religious leadership programs will receive awards covering at least 50% of tuition.

This year also saw the launch of two pilot “formation communities,” off-campus student housing that focuses on intentional living and spiritual formation. Students from multiple degree programs applied to take part in these pilot groups. At the start of the year, the housemates created a “rule of life” to guide their days together, emphasizing prayer, fellowship, and celebration. A house chaplain—a Candler faculty member or church leader—supports them and shares in the journey. The ten students who took part this year describe feeling a richer sense of community and deeper connections to God and one another in the midst of their busy lives. It is clear that this fulfills a need for our seminarians, and we eagerly anticipate the program's growth in the coming years.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 470 from 12 countries and 38 states, with 40 percent people of color (U.S.) and a median age of 27 among MDivs. Students represent 42 denominations, with 45% of all students and 50% of MDivs coming from the Methodist family.

We offer six single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, and social work. Our Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry while completing their degrees.

Candler draws strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us in person or online at candler.emory.edu.

DUKE UNIVERSITY DIVINITY SCHOOL

Dean L. Gregory Jones had his term as dean extended for a full five years through 2023.

The Duke Endowment awarded Duke Divinity School a $12 million grant in support of DDS's three core priorities and traditions: Thriving communities enlivened by healthy congregations and gifted pastors, embodied wisdom through rigorous intellectual vitality, and creative institutions that inspire imaginative and transformative leadership including the Thriving Communities Fellowship program, which will provide 52 new full-tuition scholarships over the next four years.

DDS launched the Duke Divinity: Black Pastoral Leadership Collaboration which will draw on original research in Black church traditions and historical examples of effective Black church leadership to train and build networks of effective leaders for the Black church of today and the future. The collaboration will be led by the Rev. David Emmanuel Goatley, research professor of theology and Black church studies and director of the Office of Black Church Studies.

In 2019, Duke Divinity School welcomed 215 new students from 33 different states and seven other countries. The Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.) and Master of Arts in Christian Practice (M.A.C.P.) degree programs received record enrollments of 35 students and 22 students respectively. The Master of Theology (Th.M., 14 students), Doctor of Ministry (D.Min., 20 students), and Doctor of Theology (Th.D., 4 students) all had strong enrollment. The D.Min. program was named the top online program by TheBestSchools.org. Duke Divinity's new Certificate in Theology and Health Care will enroll 8 students, all of whom are fellows with the Theology, Medicine, and Culture (T.M.C.) Initiative at the school. The M.T.S. program also includes 8 students who are T.M.C. fellows, for a record year of 16 total fellows. The M.Div. degree program gained 110 new students, with minority students comprising more than 32 percent of the incoming M.Div. class, and Black students comprising 18 percent of the incoming M.Div. class. Female students made up 44 percent of incoming M.Div. students, while males were 56 percent.

Two new faculty members, Brent Strawn and Brett McCarty, joined the DDS faculty in July 2019. Strawn, Professor of Old Testament, is an ordained elder in the North Georgia Conference. Prior to joining the Duke faculty, Strawn taught at Candler School of Theology at Emory University for eighteen years.

McCarty, Assistant Research Professor of Theological Ethics, is a theological ethicist whose work centers on questions of faithful action within health care. He is associate director of the Theology, Medicine, and Culture Initiative.

Randy Maddox, William Kellon Quick Professor of Wesleyan and Methodist Studies, general editor of the Wesley Works Editorial Project, and elder in the Dakotas Conference, retires at the end of the 2019-2020 academic year.

The Hispanic-Latino/a Preaching Initiative is currently in its fifth year of providing high quality theological education to current and aspiring Hispanic-Latino/a ministers. 21 students from multiple denominations are taking courses with us this year. Tito Madrazo joined the administrative leadership of as Senior Strategist for the Hispanic House of Studies and a consulting faculty member.

DDS has a partnership with Huntingdon College and Virginia Wesleyan University to create streamlined admissions process and campus events to better equip students from those institutions with a call to serve the church. DDS is also partnering with the Turner Center at Martin Methodist College to offer theological training for innovative and entrepreneurial ministries in the Nashville Episcopal Area.

METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL IN OHIO

Thank you for this opportunity to bring you news from MTSO.

MTSO adapts to COVID-10 realities

The students, faculty and staff of MTSO responded with grace, ingenuity and resilience to the challenges presented by the coronavirus pandemic. All classes moved online beginning in March and remain entirely online through the summer term. With input from graduates, a virtual commencement was held on the date and time the original ceremony was scheduled.

Full-tuition scholarships extended to those pursuing United Methodist candidacy

MTSO and the school's generous donors have pledged to extend a full-tuition pledge to all prospective students who are pursuing United Methodist elder or deacon candidacy. The MTSO admissions staff is happy to answer questions at 800-333-6876 or admissions@mtso.edu.

Two young scholars appointed to faculty

MTSO President Jay Rundell has announced the appointment of Tejai Beulah and Kyle Brooks to the faculty, effective July 1. Beulah has been appointed assistant professor of history, ethics, and black church and African diaspora studies. She earned her doctorate in American religious history from Drew University; a Master of Theological Studies degree from MTSO; a master's degree in African American and African studies from Ohio State University; and a bachelor's degree in English, history and gender diversity studies from Xavier University. Brooks has been appointed assistant professor of homiletics, worship, and black church and African diaspora studies. He has served for two years as a Louisville Institute postdoctoral fellow at MTSO while completing his doctoral dissertation in pursuit of a Ph.D. from Vanderbilt University with a concentration in homiletics and liturgics. He holds a Master of Divinity degree from Yale Divinity School, and an M.A. in Urban Education Studies and B.A. from Yale University.

AI Gore among participants at MTSO conference

In June 2019, more than 100 religious leaders, scholars, scientists and farmers gathered at MTSO for a three-day conference, "On Food and Faith: Ministry in the Time of Climate Change." Former Vice President Al Gore, founder and chairman of the Climate Reality Project, participated in all three days of the conference, delivering a multimedia climate presentation during a plenary session.

Becoming Debt-Free

United remains committed to becoming debt-free by the seminary's 150th anniversary on October 11, 2021. Thanks to the support of generous donors, United has received more than $2.5 million toward its goal of raising $4 million to "burn the mortgage." Becoming debt-free as an institution will enable United to focus on generating income for scholarships that lighten the load of student debt for seminarians.

In Romans 10:14, St. Paul writes: "How shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? AND HOW SHALL THEY HEAR WITHOUT A PREACHER?" For 150 years, United has been preparing faithful and fruitful Christian preachers and leaders who proclaim the Good News of God's unconditional love which has come to us in Jesus Christ. Thanks be to God!
