IV DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Clergy Session

Wednesday, May 28, 2025 – 9:00 a.m.

Capital University, Bexley, Ohio

Clergy Session Theme – “Rise Up” inspired by Mark 5:35-43

The Clergy Session opened with words of welcome from Bishop Hee-Soo Jung, and Bishop Jung leading the congregation in singing, “This is the Day That the Lord Has Made.” Bishop Jung offered a prayer of condolence for Rev. Mark Chow and Mr. Bill Brownson, both of whom recently lost their mothers. The session was then called to order.

Rev. Barry Burns, Chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry, reminded the body that we have gathered at a pivotal moment in the life of the United Methodist Church. He reminded us that for many years our church upheld prohibitive language in the Book of Discipline that deeply wounded our LGBTQ+ siblings. Rev. Burns continued that as we move into a new chapter of justice, compassion, and full inclusion, we cannot embody welcome without first offering repentance. Rev. Burns then led us into a Liturgy of Confession and Welcome.

A Litany of Confession was led by Rev. Heather Nordgren and Rev. Dr. Kevin Orr, which was followed by a Prayer of Confession and Blessing led by Rev. Kurt Tomlinson.

Following the Litany and Prayer of Confession, the worship service of word, music and communion was opened by Rev. Yijoon Chang with the Call to Worship and opening prayer. Two songs followed; “Rest on Us” by Maverick City Music and “Build My Life” by Pat Barrett. Rev. Peter Hamm followed the musical selections by reading the verse for the 2025 Annual Conference, Mark 5:35-43.

The Bishop’s Homily – Bishop Hee-Soo Jung

As a Bishop of the church, Bishop Jung wishes to add his own personal lament regarding the wounding of our LGBTQ+ community in the United Methodist Church.

Do not fear – only believe. This powerful invitation to trust in God from Jesus to Jairus is a window into God’s heart. When Jesus takes us by the hand, as with Jairus, the only response is to Rise Up. We’ve had a turbulent five years. Jesus is calling on us to rise up in these times and be a hope for the world. United Methodism’s strength is Connectionalism. All local churches should be connected to one another. With the covenant of the Connection, we are able to hold one another accountable and provide support to each other. The Connection of local churches to one another actually encourage both unity and freedom, because not all local churches are the same - each brings its own strengths to the community. Our Connection within the West Ohio Conference is a strength – it brings efficiency, productivity, and creativity to our annual conference. Bishop Jung feels that Ohio is at the center of a mission movement – mission is not a moment but a movement.

The service of communion was presided over by Bishop Jung, Rev. Scott Campbell, and Rev. Barry Burns. Upon the completion of the communion service Bishop Jung offered a closing blessing. A short break followed prior to continuing with the Business of the Annual Conference.

The Clergy Session continued after the mid-morning break with Bishop Jung welcoming representatives from the Conference Council on Finance and Administration: David Hoffman, Grace Welch, Bill Brownson, and from Wespeth Rev. Rachel Miller. Ms. Lynn Hammell from Wespeth was introduced by Rev. Miller. Ms. Hammell was present to share information and insights regarding the new Compass program. Ms. Hammell was assisted by Ms. Grace Welch and Mr. David Hoffman to answer questions about the new Compass program. A short video ended the Wespeth presentation.

Upon the conclusion of the Wespeth presentation, Rev. David Meredith rose to take a moment of personal privilege. He expressed that he was very moved by the personal moment of repentance from Bishop Jung. He thanked Bishop Jung on behalf of himself and others in the LGBTQ+ community. He ended his remarks stating that repentance is the beginning . . . next comes repair.

After thanking the Compass team, Bishop Jung invited Rev. Barry Burns to lead the body through the Business of the Annual Conference. Rev. Burns pointed out the abbreviations used for Clergy Status and for Appointments. All voting is to be conducted by the raising of hands, and Rev. Burns asked the body to review the Voice and Vote Guide which describes voting privileges.

Opening Motions were conducted. The first motion is to allow clergy guests to be admitted to the session without voice or vote; that the Annual Conference Secretary, Office of Ministry Staff, Communications Dept., WOC Ushers/Tellers, and the Capital AV/IT staff be admitted to the session to support the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry; to set the bar for all those permitted to participate, and to perfect the BAC. (v) The motion carried.

The second motion was to seek permission to conduct a vote on each category after all questions within that category have been asked and answered, with the vote being held at the highest level for that category. (v) The motion carried.

ROLL CALL OF THE VICTORIOUS

Clergy Session moved into the Roll Call of the Victorious. Ms. Christine Clough, conference secretary, read the names listed in BAC# 42 of colleagues who passed away since the end of the 2024 Annual Conference Session. Following the reading of the names, the body sang “Hymn of Promise,” which was followed by a prayer for those who have passed offered by Bishop Jung.

- 78 – Other notations – Rev. Barry Burns
- 79 – Next Conference Session – at the time of the Clergy Session this is TBD.

Rev. Burns acknowledged the clergy who encourage, mentor, and coach those exploring and discerning their call, candidates actively pursuing credentials, and those already serving who can benefit from on-going coaching. The mentors, sponsors and coaches stepped forward on the stage to receive recognition and applause. Rev. Burns remarks were followed by the closing hymn, “The Summons.”

Bishop Jung offered brief closing remarks stating that together we continue to answer the call to Make Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World. Bishop Jung, on behalf of the entire conference, acknowledges the clergy’s tremendous effort and unwavering commitment to this mission. He thanked all for their faithfulness and looks forward to continuing the journey in service to God and one another.

Bishop Jung provided a benediction and blessing, and the Clergy Session adjourned.

Laity Session

Wednesday, May 28, 2025 – 2:00 p.m.
Capital University, Bexley, Ohio

The laity session opened with introductions for the new co-lay leaders of the West Ohio Conference – Mr. Leslie Hall and Ms. Christina Albrecht. Ms. Albrecht is not present due to a family issue but hopes to join via streaming later in the session.

Mr. Leslie Hall introduced Bishop Jung and Bishop Jung called the laity session to order. Leslie Hall then led the session in a hymn-sing. Following the hymn-sing, Ms. Kathy Moore, director of Lay Servant Ministries, recalled her experience from the 2024 Annual Conference session; she fell on the sidewalk and required medical care. Our connections with one another enabled her to be cared for and helped in that time of need. Ms. Moore announced that we celebrate the first graduation class of six members from the Certified Lay Minister Academy. There will be another Academy term starting in the Fall and information can be found at the information table in the Capital Center. Two recent graduates, Ms. Karen Bustamante and Ms. Sandra Combs, provided testimonies about their experience with the academy. They encouraged laity to take advantage of the Lay Servant Ministry classes and confirmed that the experience was very affirming. Home Missioner Andy Hill testified via video about his ministry and provided information about the Order of Deaconess and Home Missioner program.

Bishop Jung provided a brief homily based on our theme scripture, Mark 5:35-43. The substance of his remarks conveyed Jesus’ command to Jairus to not be fearful; only believe, and that when Jesus takes us by the hand, we have no choice but to rise up. We are in a challenging time, and we are here to bring hope to world.

Rev. Beth Ortiz, the Director of Discipleship for the Ohio Area spoke to the body about those who inspired her ministry as she came up through the United Methodist Church. Ms. Christina Albrecht joined the Laity Session and announced the West Ohio Laity Convocation for East and West Ohio, August 15-16 at Worthington UMC in the Columbus area.

The laity session was closed with an activity created by Ms. Julie Carter, Director of Faith Formation. After reading our theme scripture, beach balls were thrown out to the laity members in the session. Members got together in small groups to answer questions determined by the color of the beach ball – such as favorite comfort food when sick and what noise keeps you from experiencing the fullness of God. Following a time of small group sharing, Mr. Leslie Hall interviewed people about the questions and answers they gave and heard. The session closed with the distribution of buttons saying, “It begins with me.”

Opening Worship with Memorial Service
Wednesday, May 28, 2025 – 7:00 p.m.
Capital University, Bexley, Ohio

The service began with welcoming words from Rev. Justin Williams, Chairperson of the Annual Conference Worship team. He announced the theme of our Annual Conference Session is Rise Up, Beloved. Rev. Williams also thanked and welcomed the families of those being remembered in the service. Rev. Williams announced that there would be an Annual Conference Choir composed of singers from 25 churches in the Annual Conference. Communion instructions were given, and Rev. introduced our Worship Leader, Dr. Mark Miller.

Following the opening remarks, the worship leaders processed to the stage accompanied by congregational hymns “I Want Jesus to Walk With Me” and “Just a Closer Walk With Thee” led by Mark Miller and his band Subject to Change. Bishop Hoo-See Jung welcomed the congregation to the service. He particularly welcomed the family members of those persons being remembered and honored in the memorial service. West Ohio Conference Intern Ms. Vanessa Adams presented the opening prayer and fellow intern Ms. Marcia Gause read the Old Testament lesson, Isaiah 40:28-31. Mr. Marcus Bode, West Ohio Conference Intern, was the featured soloist for the hymn, “On Eagles Wings.”

The Roll Call of the Victorious was read by Ms. Chris Clough, Annual Conference Secretary. Candles were lighted and a bell tolled as the names of the clergy members and their spouses who had passed away since our last Annual Conference Session were read. Tolling bells and lighted candles also memorialized the children of clergy and the laity from each District in the West Ohio Conference. The congregation then joined in singing the hymn “For All the Saints.”

Rev. Linda Middelberg, the Clergy Assistant to the Bishop led the congregation in a Prayer for the Saints and the Faithful Departed honoring those who have passed away over this past year. The prayer was followed by the Annual Conference Choir, directed by Jeff Daubenmire singing an inspiring rendition of “I Believe” composed by Mark Miller.

Ms. Alina Jackson, West Ohio Conference Intern, read the New Testament scripture lesson, John 6:35-40. Following the scripture reading, Bishop Jung offered us a lesson entitled “The God of All Consolation.”

Bishop Jung began his homily by thanking all the participants in the service. He proclaimed that he is honored and privileged to serve in Ohio at this time. Bishop Jung stated that it is a joy to remember the lives of the blessed siblings and their ministry. The Bishop read a passage from the Apocrypha, the Book of Ecclesiasticus 32:1-2. Bishop Jung feels that this passage is a wonderful image of Christian faithful servant leadership. The servant leader recognizes with humility, compassion and reverence the dignity and value of all people. Bishop Jung reminded us that a commemoration service is more than an opportunity to say farewell. It’s a celebration of the gifts, contributions, kindness, and creativity of the deceased – the gifts that help to make our church what it is. We say thank you for all they have done for and meant to us. And it’s time to reflect about how they have modeled faithful witness in this world. Bishop Jung then turned to a message about unity in the church; about our obligation to proclaim that Jesus is our life, our pride, our everything. We should embrace the power of Jesus working in Ohio and proclaim that we are the beautiful people of God. Our differences are precious and beautiful, and our diversity is our strength in the name of Jesus. In 2008, “witness” was added to the vows of membership in the United Methodist Church. The rationale is that it is vital for the world to know that we speak and act on our faith. And we give thanks for the saints we remember in this service for their witness, and we rejoice knowing that they now rest in the peace of God. The Bishop concluded his remarks, speaking to the families of the departed, by telling them that we offer them the comfort of Jesus, and that we hold them in our hearts.

Following the message from Bishop Jung, the West Ohio Conference choir offered another selection by Mark Miller, “Sing Me Home.” Bishop Jung and Rev. Deb Widdowson led the service of Communion. After Communion was served, Mr. Marcus Bode led the congregational prayer. Mark Miller and his band led the congregation in an inspiring and enthusiastic rendition of “Marching to Zion.” Bishop Jung closed the service with a benediction and sending forth followed by Mark Miller’s band singing “When the Saints Go Marching In.”

West Ohio Annual Conference
Thursday, May 29, 2025 – 9:00 a.m.
Capital University, Bexley, Ohio

Opening Remarks, Welcoming Guests, Poem and Drum Ceremony

The 56th Session of the West Ohio Annual Conference began with greetings and prayer offered by Bishop Hoo-See Jung. Bishop Jung then introduced visitors who are with us for the morning:

- The Reverend Suzanne Dillahunt – Bishop of the Southern Ohio Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. She told us that the Southern Ohio Synod would be praying for us while we are in our Annual Conference session. Bishop Dillahunt reminded us that we are the hands and feet of Jesus in the West Ohio Conference sent out to serve.
- David Kaufman, the current, but soon to retire president of Capital University welcomed us to the campus for our Annual Conference session. He offered a few words about Capital University, explaining that the University exists to transform the lives of students through education.

Following the greetings from our guests, Rev. Linda Middelberg, Assistant to the Bishop, introduced Rev. Fred Shaw, a retired elder of the West Ohio Conference. Rev. Shaw is a traditional storyteller and gifted poet. He is with us today to share his poetry within the context of a drum ceremony. The drum is a circle and is a symbol of the connectedness of everything and everyone to God. The circle represents the love of God, which cannot be divided; it is for all. Rev. Shaw showed us a small drum that would be used by a child. The drum is broken and has the imprint of a red hand on it. The red hand is the symbol of missing Indigenous women and children. With the broken skin, it represents the broken heart of God. Rev. Shaw recited an original poem dedicated to the memory of missing and murdered Indigenous women. After reciting the poem, Rev. Shaw presented the drum to Bishop Jung.

Rev. Lou Seipel came to the podium to read the Land Use Acknowledgement of the West Ohio Conference. This statement acknowledges that the land now home to the West Ohio Conference is the ancestral home of multiple Indigenous tribes and that current Indigenous residents have an on-going love and relationship with the land. The acknowledgement goes on to recognize the trauma realized by native people removed from this land and calls upon the United States to work for justice and acts of restoration.

Opening Worship

Rev. Justin Williams opened our Mission focused worship with greetings and an introduction of our Annual Conference musicians – acclaimed composer and musician Mark Miller, and his band – Subject to Change. After the Call to Worship and several musical selections, Deaconess Wendy Putka read the lectionary scripture: 2 Corinthians 5:16-21. Rev. Linda Middelberg, then introduced our preacher for the morning, Rev. Dee Sticklely-Miner – a Deacon from the West Ohio Conference and currently the Executive Director of Mission Engagement for the General Board of Global Ministries.

Rev. Sticklely-Miner preached a powerful sermon about the Reconciliation ministry described in the lectionary reading from Paul's second letter to the Corinthians. She described how the world values wealth, power, and popularity, but that through reconciliation God requires us to seek a similar mission as ambassadors for Jesus. We need to sit at the table with those who are forgotten and unworthy in our world, just as Jesus did during his ministry. For us, this means being in reconciliation ministries with immigrants, people of color, those living in poverty on the margins of society, the LGBTQ community and anyone who is disregarded and considered unworthy. We need to resist the powerful in our world who would threaten us with fear, uncertainty, and separation because we choose to be ambassadors for Jesus. True reconciliation will help us to learn mercy, burst with a desire for justice, and cause us to risk personal scandal for reaching out to those the powerful deem as unworthy. The love of God will flow through us and empower us in this important mission of reconciliation.

Mark Miller and his band offered musical selections followed by Bishop Jung's Consecration of Deaconess Tracy Craft. The graduating class of six Certified Lay Ministers were then introduced to the congregation and were greeted and recognized by Bishop Jung. The Mission Offering was taken for this Annual Conference session, which will benefit the UMC in the Congo, UMCOR, and the Mission Center in Seoul, South Korea. Our service was closed with a traditional Korean prayer – "Tongsung Kido" – To Cry Out in a Loud Voice.

The opening worship service was followed by a 20-minute break.

Resume Annual Conference Session – 11:00 a.m. Morning Business Session

Bishop Jung brought the morning business session to order with introductions and thanks to West Ohio Conference officers and staff. Dr. Kent Millard, the president of United Theological Seminary offered a prayer for the work in front of us in the morning business session.

Bishop Jung asked the Annual Conference Secretary, Ms. Chris Clough, to provide information helpful to the work of the Annual Conference, including procedures for recognition and addressing the Annual Conference as well as the "Voice and Vote" requirements for voting throughout the Annual Conference session. Ms. Clough then presented the opening motions to set the bar for voting during the Annual Conference Session and nominated Reverends Rachel Miller and Steve Putka to serve as the secretarial staff. The opening motions were carried by hand vote.

Recommendation 1 – Changes to Structure, Procedure and Rules – Annual Conference Rules and Policy – Rev. Brian Gath

Rev. Brian Gath, chair of the Rules Committee, asked the members of the Rules Committee to stand to be recognized. Brian explained the impetus for the rule changes presented in the Book of Reports. The goal is for language that is clear, does no harm and is designed to do good – relative to formerly harmful language regarding members of the LGBTQ+ community.

During our 2024 Annual Conference Session, questions came up regarding the eligibility requirements for United Women of Faith and UM Men on various boards and committees of the Annual Conference. The Rules Committee researched the Book of Discipline for the appropriate requirements. As a result, the United Women of Faith remains on the Leadership Team; per the Book of Discipline, UM Men are not a member of the Leadership Team. A Conference Board of Laity was not included in our Rules, so this structure was added to the Rules for this coming year. Rules and Structure is a complicated and time-consuming exercise. For that reason, the Rules Committee must meet to review and approve any proposed recommendations for changes and/or additions to our conference rules. Language for clarity has been added to two sections of the conference Rules – Section E Conference Procedure, item 17, and Section F Parliamentary Procedure, opening paragraph. Rev. Gath reminded the body that January 15 is deadline for proposed rule changes for the coming Annual Conference Session.

Bishop Jung moved the acceptance of Recommendation 1. A question regarding the reason for the changes to Section A, item 1.i was answered by Rev. Gath, and two speeches for the recommendation were offered. The motion carried by hand vote.

Preliminary Nominations Slate – Rev. Brandi Grant-Rigsby

Rev. Grant-Rigsby presented the preliminary Nominations report on behalf of the Nominations Committee. Rev. Grant-Rigsby explained the nominations process and thanked those who completed interest forms. 43 people have been nominated to serve on various committees and boards. Rev. Grant-Rigsby thanked the Nominations Committee and Rev. Karen Cook for their partnership in leadership on the Nominations Committee. After reading the names of those being nominated this year, Rev. Grant-Rigsby indicated that the vote for approval of the nominations slate will take place on Saturday morning. Bishop Jung recognized the members of the Nominations Committee.

Connectional Table Update – Mr. Tom Hofmann

Mr. Tom Hofmann gave a brief status on the work of the Connectional Table. Mr. Hofmann indicated that the primary work of the last three years has been the development of the Strategic Plan to fulfill the United Methodist Church and West Ohio Conference's mission and vision. The work of the last three years has included working with consultants, administering surveys and working with focus groups. Four strategic areas evolved from this work resulting in the Strategic Framework. The four strategic areas are: Strengthen the Ministry Pipeline; Develop an Approach to Engage Younger Generations; Laity (development) and New Faith Communities. West and East Ohio staff from all four areas have developed plans. Quarterly meetings will continue with particular focus on the Strategic Framework. Mr. Hofmann thanked the Connectional Table team and the Annual Conference for supporting the strategic framework and asked all members to stand for recognition.

Constitutional Amendment #1 – Worldwide Regionalization

Bishop Jung asked Conference Secretary, Ms. Chris Clough to come forward to present an overview and instructions for the Ratification of Constitutional Amendments for the United Methodist Book of Discipline. Ms. Clough explained that four amendments to the Book of Discipline were approved by the 2020/2024 session of the General Conference. The amendments must now be ratified by the various Annual Conferences of the United Methodist Church. Ratification occurs with both "a two-thirds majority of the General Conference present and voting and a two-thirds affirmative vote of the aggregate number of members of the several annual conferences present and voting." Ms. Clough reviewed which members of the Annual Conference are eligible to vote with reference to page 8 of the Book of Reports for the 2025 Annual Conference session. Eligible members are Lay Members and Full Member Clergy identifiable by nametag color. The procedure to be followed is a brief presentation of the amendment, followed by debate and then a vote by paper ballot. Debate will be conducted by our Annual Conference Rules. The ballots will be collected and counted by Ms. Clough and the ushers; no ballot results will be revealed during the Annual Conference Session. Bishop Jung and Ms. Clough will complete a certification form to be submitted to the Secretary of the General Conference, Rev. Dr. Aleze Fulbright and the Secretary of the Council of Bishops, Bishop Gregory Palmer. Once the certification forms are received from all of the Annual Conferences, the results will be tallied and announced by the Council of Bishops. We can expect an announcement of the results in November.

Rev. Dee-Stickley Miner presented an overview of Amendment 1, Worldwide Regionalization which can be found on p.91 of the Book of Reports.

- Regionalization allows each region of the church to make decisions that will best support outreach and ministry efforts.
- This ability is already in place for the central conferences; regionalization brings that ability to the U.S. as well.
- Regionalization was developed collaboratively by United Methodists across the globe and was adopted by an overwhelming majority of the General Conference delegates.
- Nine regional conferences will comprise the UMC: one in the US, and eight in Africa, Europe, and the Philippines.
- Regional Conferences CAN'T: create their own constitution or adopt any policy in violation of the constitution in the Book of Discipline, or alter the Doctrinal Standards, Our Theological Task, The Ministry of All Christians, or The Social Principles.
- Regional Conferences CAN: draft and publish their own regional Book of Discipline, hymnals, books of worship and other liturgical resources; set requirements for ordination and licensed ministry with respect to their needs and resources; set standards for lay membership; reorganize their annual conferences, districts or charge conferences to best serve their missional needs and convene their own judicial courts; and work with annual conferences to ensure policies and practices align with the laws in each country.

Bishop Jung moved the ratification of Amendment 1. A question was asked to suspend the rules to change which clergy have voting privileges; this was ruled to be out of order by Bishop Jung, because voting privileges are determined by the Book of Discipline. Ballots were distributed and collected by the ushers.

Recognition of George Howard

Rev. Lou Seipel introduced Mr. George Howard, Lay Member of the West Ohio Conference. Mr. Howard has served both the West Ohio Annual Conference and the United Methodist Church for over 31 years in multiple capacities. He joined the West Ohio Conference Staff as the Associate Director of the Conference Council on Ministries and worked with the conference in this role for sixteen years. From 2000 onward, Mr. Howard was a delegate from West Ohio to nine Jurisdictional and General Conferences. During this time, he also worked for the General Board of Global Ministries as an Executive Director until his retirement. With a permanent move to Atlanta, Georgia with his wife Eileen, this will be Mr. Howard's last year with the West Ohio Conference. Rev. Seipel then invited Mr. Howard to the stage to provide remarks and insight into his 31 years of ministry with the West Ohio Conference. In celebration of George Howard, the members of the Annual Conference rose to their feet with an enthusiastic ovation.

Following the recognition of Mr. Howard, Rev. Seipel offered courtesies and a blessing before the noon meal and released the body for the lunch break.

Resume Annual Conference Session – 2:00 p.m.

Bible Study, Afternoon Business Session, Corporate Session

Bishop Jung introduced our Bible Study teacher for the Annual Conference Session, Rev. Dr. AHyun Lee. Dr. Lee is associate professor of Pastoral Theology, Care, and Psychotherapy at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary in Evanston, Illinois. She is an ordained elder in full connection with the Wisconsin Conference of The United Methodist Church and a licensed clinical professional counselor (LCPC). Dr. Lee will lead us through a two-part Bible Study, "Rise Up: Soul Care Amid Trauma and Despair." In two sessions, today and tomorrow, this study helps us to explore how Jesus' command to Jairus' daughter, 'Talitha koum!' ("Little girl, get up!") from Mark 5 can bring fresh hope to our deepest struggles. By acknowledging the weight of trauma and fear, and the movement through those dark moments of feeling 'asleep' or 'swallowed up,' we discover the power of God's voice inviting us to rise.

Council on Finance and Administration Report – Mr. David Scott, chairperson

Following the Bible Study offered by Rev. Dr. Lee, the Annual Conference session continued with the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) Report offered by Mr. David Scott, chair of the CFA. Mr. Scott asked CFA members to stand and be recognized. He thanked Paula Stewart for her leadership through pandemic and disaffiliation process. West Ohio once again received an "Unqualified opinion" from our outside auditors – this is the highest audit evaluation possible.

Mr. Scott continued with the announcement that the proposed budget for 2026 will include a proposed 3% reduction in apportionments. Other work accomplished by CFA is the creation of a conference personnel committee to be chaired by Ms. Callie Picardo. The committee will provide support for the Human Resources processes within the conference. Mr. Scott thanked Ms. Grace Welch, Director of Benefits and HR, for her leadership. The CFA has worked with the District Superintendents and visited local churches to ask, "what keeps you up at night and what keeps you hopeful as a member of the WOC?" Mr. Scott thanked the local church leaders and pastors who helped him in those meetings. Mr. Scott closed his report by letting the body know that the West Ohio Conference, one of among many conferences, is in particularly good fiscal health. He then thanked Mr. Bill Brownson, Conference CFO, for his leadership.

Treasurer Report and Budget Presentation – Mr. Bill Brownson, Conference CFO and Director of Administration

Mr. Brownson described a comprehensive budget for 2026 that shows all spending, not just that needed from apportionments. CFA has observed a priority to lower apportionments, so that there are more resources available within local churches. Apportionments for 2026 will decrease by 3% to $11.7 million. Apportionment receipts remain the most important contributor to the resources needed to equip local churches. On a combined conference and district basis, apportionments provide 64% of the 2026 budget. The remaining 36% of conference expenditures are funded using income from investments and other reserves. In addition to apportionments, West Ohio Conference staff have been reduced by 48% over the last 10 years (since 2015). Current staffing and apportionment levels no longer means doing more with less.

Mr. Brownson touched on the major ministry areas funded by the proposed budget. He also mentioned that we continue to collaborate more and more with the East Ohio Conference, which can impact expenses for both annual conferences in Ohio. CFA is anticipating paying 100% General Church apportionments in 2025 and 2026. The 2026 amount is expected to be close to the 2025 amount of $2,511,000.

Mr. Brownson mentioned two corrections are needed to the Book of Reports "CFA Recommendations Calendar Year 2026." The first is to p.60 line 21 – the deadline for 2025 statistical reports is Monday, February 2, 2026, not April 10, 2026. The second correction is to p.61 line 14, item 3 – the correction is that the "Conference will reimburse one lay alternate and one clergy alternate delegate to General and Jurisdictional . . ." Corrections will be made with the publication of the Journal.

Mr. David Scott moved the adoption of Recommendation #2. Rev. Becky Scofield-Motter asked a question as a point of privilege about what parts of the budget are going toward the emerging generations ministry area.

The motion was then carried by hand vote.

Bishop Jung offered a special prayer for Mr. Brownson and his family due to the recent death of his mother.

Corporate Session – Dr. Julie Hurtig

Bishop Jung welcomed Dr. Julie Hurtig, Chair of the Board of Trustees, to the stage. Dr. Hurtig moved to adjourn the Annual Conference Session and convene the Corporate Session. The motion passed by hand vote. Dr. Hurtig announced that the Board of Trustees had met five times and asked all of the Trustees to stand to be recognized. Some of the highlights of the Trustee report include:

- Finance and Budget
 - o The administration of closed churches gave rise to the Closed Church Fund with just over $8.2 million in 2024. Light the Way Funds are incorporated into the Closed Church Fund. Distributions for funding new faith communities is $125K for 2025 and $140K for 2026.
 - o Budget assistance requested due to lower apportionment receipts for the 2026 budget will be $30K for Conference Center capital items; $20K to support the Episcopal residence (East Ohio will contribute in addition to West Ohio); $170K to support churches as they work to be more accessible, and $95K to support the cost of superintendent housing.
- Real Estate
 - o Continued work with Foundry and other realtors to sell Camp WideWater.
 - o Investment of $500K to support Camp Wesley.
 - o Investment in the UM Foundation of West Ohio Camps and Emerging Generations Ministry Fund of $2.6 million from the sale of Camp Otterbein.
- Legal Matters
 - o Updated the policy on establishing churches with historic designations or Historical Landmarks.
 - o Prepared materials for congregations on the basics of immigration law and what churches can and should do.
 - o Personal thank you extended to Conference Chancellor for his expertise in legal matters.
- Conference Archives – the conference archives were moved to the Methodist Theological School of Ohio with a grant of $100K from Ohio Wesleyan to support the move.

Dr. Hurtig moved acceptance of the Board of Trustees Report, which can be found on p. 23 of the Book of Reports, and the motion passed by hand vote. Dr. Hurtig moved to adjourn the Corporate Session and reconvened the Annual Conference Session; the motion carried by hand vote.

Recommendation 3 – Board of Pension and Health Benefits – Rev. David Hoffman

Rev. David Hoffman shared highlights from the report for the Board of Pension and Health Benefits that can be found on p. 26 of the Book of Reports. Some of the highlights of the past year:

- The second year of a successful HealthFlex Open Enrollment.
- Revision of the conference's "Baby Stipend" policy to the "Pregnancy, Birth, and Loss Stipend" policy. The policy supports newborns, adoptions, pregnancy, and assistance in the event of loss – regardless of enrollment in HealthFlex. The changes aim to provide meaningful support to families in need in situations of both joy and loss.
- Grants from the Edith Gardner Housing Fund – both provided and expanded to assist retired clergy in making their homes more accessible and safer.
- Through HealthFlex, more than 85% of clergy and/or conference staff have benefited from zero out-of-pocket premiums over the past two years. Excess premium credit in HSA accounts helps to cover deductible and other out-of-pocket expenses.
- Training provided to local church treasurers on the new processes required for the new retirement program.
- Bill Brownson, Conference CFO, and Grace Welch, Conference Benefits Officer have worked with the Board and Wespath to ensure the long-term security of our pension, retirement, health and wellness programs.
- Ms. Grace Welch offered that work continues with Wespath on the new COMPASS retirement program. Ms. Welch also encourage plan participants to complete the HealthFlex questionnaire to avoid higher premiums in the coming year.

Following these updates, Rev. Hoffman moved with the approval of Recommendation 3. The motion carried by hand vote.

COMPASS Update with Wespath – Ms. Lynn Hammell

Ms. Lynn Hammell, the West Ohio Conference Relationship Manager with Wespath was introduced to the members of the Annual Conference. A short video was presented describing at an elevated level the attributes of the new COMPASS retirement program. Ms. Hammell began a description of the program keeping in mind that this is a clergy retirement program. Lay members also need information about COMPASS due to the role that local churches will play in the plan's implementation.

Ms. Hammell encouraged everyone to visit the COMPASS information table. She mentioned several important steps including setting up an account, gaining benefit access, and ensuring personal and beneficiary information is correct and up to date. Members will have access to a "retirement projection tool" and help from financial advisors. There are upcoming Webinars and an on-line training event in September. Ms. Hammell encouraged everyone to become familiar with the Wespath site. She'll be here and available at the information table through Saturday.

Recommendation #4 Equitable Compensation Report – Rev. Bob Baugher

Rev. Bob Baugher, a member of the Commission on Equitable Compensation, presented the commission's report, which can be found on p.80 of the Book of Reports. The Commission is recommending an increase of 3% to the minimum salary requirements for 2026 (see p. 82 of the Book of Reports). Rev. Baugher moved the acceptance of Recommendation 4.

A question was raised by Rev. Melissa Steinecker, retired clergy regarding housing allowances. Rev. Steinecker asked if housing is a requirement or a guideline due to disparities in housing for women clergy. Rev. Baugher indicated that housing is outside of the guidelines of the Equitable Compensation Board. Bishop Jung stated that housing is necessary – whether through a housing allowance or a parsonage.

The motion carried by hand vote.

United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio – Ms. Susan O'Donnell Black, Executive Director, Eric Rice, Chair of Trustees of the UM Foundation of West Ohio

Eric Rice, the outgoing Trustee Chair of the Foundation shared that the Foundation currently has more than $130 million under its administration. He thanked the conference for the opportunity to be involved with this ministry for the past twelve years. He introduced the new Chair – Ms. Karen Perry Smith.

A short video presentation provided the testimony of Rev. Clara Kwon – a cradle United Methodist. She was taught and encouraged by her parents to understand the importance of giving to the church. She advised that tithing is not giving something away, but it is an investment in the future.

Ms. Susan Black, Executive Director, shared thoughts about God's great abundance. People and churches have stories of how God beneficially provides through members of the church. What are we going to do in response to God's abundant generosity? Ms. Black suggests that one thing an individual or church can do is to call the foundation. She invited all present to stop at the Foundation Table and to consider attending the Generosity Summit at Maumee Bay September 15 to 16.

Connectional Ministries – Camp Wesley Update – Rev. Karen Cook

The Director of Connectional Ministries, Rev. Karen Cook, presented the organization's report. Rev. Cook joyfully reported on the 2026 return of camping to Camp Wesley. The goal is to have 400 campers over 4 weeks in the summer of 2026. There is a new logo and website. A refresh of the facilities is underway. We'll all be invited to be a part of the journey by volunteering this summer to help refresh the grounds of the camp. This is a new beginning for our camping story – new and as yet unknown. Rev. Cook invited everyone to visit the Camp Wesley display to discover a way to help and support the return of summer camping in the West Ohio Annual Conference.

Office of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings – Rev. Katya Brodbeck

Rev. Brodbeck shared information about Go!Grants. There were over 200 applications submitted with 120 grants worth $700K offered. Rev. Brodbeck outlined several ministries that have come out of the Greenhouse Leadership Development Program and Go!Grants:

- Elliston Zion – Rev. LisaAnne Greg – L.I.G.H.T. Mobile Food Pantry expansion to a mobile trailer.
- Forest Chapel UMC – Rev. Dr. J Kabamba Kiboko – Developed a relationship with a Bhutanese community in 2015. On Pentecost Sunday, 70 Bhutanese joined the church. This Spring there will be a new congregation – Bethel Bhutanese.
- Suzanne Gandy – Faith Community Xenia – Description of the Bishop's Go! Awards celebrating Go!Grant recipients.

Laity Address – Mr. Leslie Hall and Ms. Christina Albrecht

Bishop Jung introduced new Conference Co-Lay Leaders, Mr. Leslie Hall and Ms. Christina Albrecht and invited them to deliver the Laity Address.

Mr. Hall began the Laity Address by singing an inspiring version of Mavis Staples' "Woke Up This Mornin' (With My Mind Stayin' on Jesus)." On behalf of himself and Co-Lay Leader Ms. Christina Albrecht, he greeted the Bishop and the body in the name of Jesus. Mr. Hall expressed thanks to Bishop Jung and the West Ohio Conference for giving them the privilege of representing the laity of the West Ohio Conference. He and Christina are here to lead, encourage and push a little bit to achieve the mission of West Ohio Conference and the United Methodist Church. Christina and Leslie have witnessed the diversity of gifts and talents present in the laity of the West Ohio Conference. Mr. Hall has been traveling with the Bishop around the conference and feels not only the movement of the spirit but has witnessed the diversity of gifts and talents being used to promote the Kingdom of God. Mr. Hall closed his remarks by stating that he and Ms. Albrecht pray for us daily and covet our prayers for them. Ms. Christina Albrecht came to the podium to announce a Fall Laity event to be held at Worthington UMC, and she extended an invitation to all of the laity to plan to attend.

Clergy Address – Rev. Amy Haines, Dean of the Cabinet

Rev. Haines came to the podium full of thanks and joy. She thanked all of the members of the cabinet who work as a team to lead in the West Ohio Conference. Rev. Haines asked us to remember five years ago when we found ourselves in a worldwide health pandemic. We needed to try, to pray for, and dream of new ways to be the church with strategies such as on-line church, parking lot church, ZOOM Bible Study and meetings. Other changes that we've experienced are that we're not offering the same programs, we miss people who have left, and there aren't enough pastors to cover all of the churches in our Annual Conference. We still need to try to find new ways to be the church. Some ways that we are still working in the world can be seen through mission trips, new faith communities, new ministries that welcome new people and feed the hungry; showing faithfulness in the face of fear.

So, how does this old-new-ever-changing church Rise Up? We remember that we are God's beloved children – working together as the body of Christ. We are sinners, saved by Grace, and growing everyday through Grace to be more like Jesus to fulfill our purpose of making disciples for the transformation of the world. Prayer is a powerful tool to aid in Rising Up. When was the last time that we earnestly prayed for our world, our church leaders, our sister churches? Intentional programs encouraging prayer will empower our work in the world. Who do we love? Do we see who is in our communities needing our love – children, outcasts, the marginalized? Are we praying for our communities? Are we reluctant servants? Giving financially, but also with time and talents – and giving with joy. We should not be stopped by fear, finances, or few in numbers. Rev. Haines challenges us to Love Boldly, Serve Joyfully, and Lead Courageously empowered by the Holy Spirit to Rise Up and fulfill our purpose to be and make disciples for Jesus Christ.

Following the Clergy Address, Bishop Jung received a gift of flowers from the Wisconsin Annual Conference. Leaders of the Wisconsin Conference conveyed their love for Bishop Jung and let us know they will be praying for us throughout our Annual Conference.

Constitutional Amendment #2 – Inclusiveness of the Church

Bishop Jung asked Conference Secretary, Ms. Chris Clough to come forward to present information needed to consider and vote for Amendment 2.

Ms. Clough explained that our process for the consideration of Amendment 2, found on p.93 of the Book of Reports, will be the same as Amendment 1. She reviewed which members are eligible to vote for constitutional amendments; reminded the body that we will use our Conference Rules for debate, and that the amendment may be debated, but not amended. Voting procedures are also the same as Amendment 1 with ushers distributing blank and collecting completed ballots for counting.

Amendment 2 updates paragraph 4, Article IV of the Book of Discipline by adding the words "gender and ability" to the existing categories that clergy in the United Methodist Church cannot use to discriminate against a potential member. Said another way, a pastor may not deny membership in the church because a person is a female, a male or has a disability. For pastors, the primary question is readiness, so gender and ability cannot be used to as a determination of readiness for membership.

Bishop Jung moved the ratification of Amendment 2. Several questions seeking clarity arose: Rev. Seth Evans asked why "gender and ability" are not included with the list of attributes on line 10. Rev. April Casperson answered the question to indicate the author's intent. Mr. Mark Miller asked if any district or conference funds are available to make churches more accessible. Mr. Bill Brownson responded that there are no financial responsibilities attached to passing the amendment, and that there are accessibility grants available through the Fresh Starts and New Beginnings area led by Brad Aycock. Rev. Rachel Widdowson stood to point out that not all clergy members are eligible to vote. Ballots were distributed and collected by the ushers.

Following the ratification vote for Amendment 2, Bishop Jung recognized and introduced Rev. Bruce and Mrs. Char Ough to the conference, and they were warmly welcomed with applause. Rev. Lou Seipel provided courtesies and a blessing for dinner. Instructions for the Picnic in the Park were given, and we were dismissed for the day.

West Ohio Annual Conference
Friday, May 30, 2025 – 9:00 a.m.
Capital University, Bexley, Ohio

Morning Worship Service and Awards

Rev. Justin Williams opened the morning worship service with greetings to the body. Ms. Christina Albrecht, liturgist, thanked Rev. Deb Stevens who assisted in the writing of the morning's liturgy. She thanked Rev. Stevens for her twelve years of service on the Annual Conference Worship Committee. Mark Miller and his band, Subject to Change, introduced and taught a new song written specifically for the West Ohio Conference Annual Conference session – Rise Up! Beloved Rise Up! Ms. Albrecht offered an opening prayer followed by reading our theme scripture, Mark 5:35-43.

Rev. Linda Middelberg, Assistant to the Bishop, introduced our guest preacher, retired Bishop Linda Lee.

Bishop Lee began her sermon entitled "Stand," by describing the story of Jairus, a leader of the synagogue, reaching out to Jesus for the healing of his young daughter. At the time of this story, the Jewish people were suffering under the stifling control of the Roman Empire. 90% of the people were suffering from poverty, hunger, and lack of opportunity for employment. The Roman Empire sought to control Israel as the supreme power of the earth through fear and depravation. Jesus was demonstrating a different way. He was demonstrating good things were available vs. just the persecution of Rome. Healing and hope were possible amidst the oppression. Jesus instructed the people to not be afraid – only to believe. Believe in a different reality. When Jesus arrived with Jairus, his daughter had died, but Jesus said this was not so. Jesus spoke to the child from a different realm – not to her body – but to the eternal part of her. He commanded her to stand up – and she did immediately. God is speaking with us today – God is telling us to Stand Up – to collect our faculties and to wake up. The fate of the whole human race is at stake; there is too much suffering. God wants us to Stand and show that there is another way and a greater power than the oppression in the world. God's love is the greater power, and it cannot be erased. Only God's power is the supreme power; with us until the end of time.

Bishop Jung thanked Bishop Lee for her powerful message. Bishop Jung then led the Annual Conference in a litany of confession for harm caused to our siblings through lack of acceptance of those who are different and lack power. The litany describes how we have specifically failed Indigenous people, people of color, women, members of the LGBTQ+ community, and those on the margins of society. We repent of our denial of just compensation, of denying our siblings calls to ministry and credentialing, and our use of the disciplinary process to prevent those who love Christ from serving Christ through the church. The litany was followed by a musical selection, "I Choose Love," by Mark Miller. Bishop Jung offered a prayer and asked the body to begin exchanging signs of peace. The service closed with a benediction from Bishop Lee.

Immediately following the worship service, Bishop Jung introduced Bishop Bruce Ough, a former Bishop for the West Ohio Conference. Bishop Ough brought words of greeting to West Ohio Conference and thanked Bishop Jung for inviting him to our Annual Conference Session. Bishop Ough shared that he has a vision of the Ohio area – that it will emerge as the strongest mission Annual Conference in the United Methodist Church.

After Bishop Ough's greetings, the award presentations began. The following awards were presented:

- Ms. Christina Albrecht presented the Harry Denman Evangelism Award, which has been newly imagined and named the New Foundation for Evangelism Laity Award. The award was presented to Sandy Ferrell of Kirkersville UMC in the Olentangy River District.
- Rev. Carrie Jenna, a member of the Fresh Start Team, presented the new award – the Fresh Start Multiplier Award. This award is a congregational award for a congregation that is not just growing, but multiplying by launching a new church, a new campus, or a fresh expression of worship. The inaugural award was given to three churches:
 - o Clifton UMC in Cincinnati launched a network of fresh expressions across the greater Cincinnati area.
 - o The Gem City Collective consisting of four churches – Christ Kettering UMC, Mosaic, First FilAm Dayton, and Refresh Springfield. The collective launched a new congregation – The Point in Dayton which is a new stand-alone church.
 - o North Broadway UMC in Columbus Ohio which had previously launched the Short North Church is now officially launching the Short North Church at Ohio State.
- Rev. Dr. Bener Baysa Agtarap, the Executive Director for Community Engagement & Church Planting at Path 1 presented the Discipleship Ministries One Matters Discipleship Award. This award is given to churches that move from 0 baptisms and 0 confessions of faith to at least one in the previous year. Rev. Amy Haines announced the nominated churches in each district: Mt. Moriah – Great Miami River District, East Fultonham UMC – Hocking River District, Liberty Center UMC – Scioto River District, and Karo UMC – Western Lakes District. The winner of the award is the Gethsemane UMC of the Olentangy River District – Rev. Vaughn Cook, pastor.

Zero Emission Task Force Report – Rev. Ryan Grace

Rev. Ryan Grace, the chair of the Net Zero Task Force which was created in 2023 gave the annual report for the task force. Greenhouse gas emissions continue to rise – we're moving in the wrong direction. The task force seeks to form strategic partnerships with local congregations. The goal is to engage the local churches to work with the task force. The task force can provide Green Church training, and they want to meet churches where they are to help them get started to develop plans to lessen greenhouse gas emissions. We are not powerless; we can act for the good of our environment, and we can help each other. Rev.

Ryan encouraged annual conference members to visit the Creation table and website.

Bishop Jung encourages the Green Church movement – and is committed to the movement for both the West and East Ohio Annual Conferences. The Bishop released the body for a twenty-minute break.

Resume Annual Conference Session – 10:50a.m.
Morning Business Session

Upon the return from the break, Bishop Jung extended courtesy and welcome to Rev. Angela Lewis, the new Dean of the East Ohio Cabinet, and to Rev. Beth Ortiz, the new Executive Director of Discipleship. Bishop Jung then asked Rev. John Wagner to come forward to present the report from the Palestinian Christian Team.

Rev. Dr. Charles Ferguson greeted us and introduced us to the topic of Palestine. He introduced two members of Jewish Voice for Peace, Farrell Brody & Alexandra Stein.

Farrell Brody began by thanking us for receiving him. He shared his story of leaving behind Zionism. He explained that Zionism is a colonial settler program, not a religion. He believes it has caused a great deal of suffering and death. In his view, Judaism serves the state and that pro-Israel lobbyists have effectively convinced many that criticism of the national politics of Israel is anti-Semitism. It is not. He offered to speak at our churches.

Alexandra Stein spoke next. She shared that her grandparents were refugees from Ukraine many years ago when they arrived in Columbus. Alexandra described her birthright trip in her 20s. The experience was eye-opening. She came to realize that Israel was an apartheid state, despite the propaganda shared as part of the trip. Because of that trip, she joined and has remained a part of the pro-Palestine movement. She urged us to consider that what we have seen with our own eyes in the last 18 months is not complicated.

Rev. Alyssa Graves- Clergy Olentangy District - encouraged us to pray, listen, learn, act, and share our faith related to issues involving the destruction and dehumanization of Palestine. She invited us to join them for lunch conversation at the Troutman Lounge.

John Wagner led us in prayer, thanking God for our blessings, including the Christlike responsibility to advocate for justice in Palestine.

Constitutional Amendments – Amendment #3 Racial Justice and Amendment #4 Clergy Education Requirements

Bishop Jung asked Conference Secretary, Ms. Chris Clough to come forward to present information needed to consider and vote for Amendment 3 Racial Justice.

Ms. Clough explained that our process for the consideration of both amendments, found on pp.95-96, of the Book of Reports, will be the same as the previous amendments. She reviewed which members are eligible to vote for constitutional amendments; reminded the body that we will use our Conference Rules for debate, and that the amendments may be debated, but not amended. Voting procedures are also the same with ushers distributing blank and collecting completed ballots for counting.

Amendment #3 – Racial Justice addresses Paragraph 5. Article V of the Book of Discipline and serves as a framework for the United Methodist Church's commitment to addressing and eliminating racism in all its forms. Recent proposed changes to paragraph 5. Article V, at the General Conference session in April/May 2024, have strengthened this commitment by explicitly recognizing the church's role in combating racism, racial inequity, colonialism, white privilege, and white supremacy both within the denomination and in broader society. The changes reflect a critical shift in the church's acknowledgment of and response to deeply entrenched racial injustice. The amendment contains several points of significance:

- An Explicit Acknowledgement of Racism
- A Commitment to Active Anti-Racism
- A Response to Historical Context
- Emphasis on Unity and Healing
- Moral Leadership
- Legacy of Reform and Justice

Bishop Jung moved for ratification of Amendment # 3.

Michael Wildermuth-Western Lakes laity spoke against the amendment. He stated that he believed the amendment language was exclusive and in spirit supported the intent but opposed it based on its language. Rev. Leo Cunningham-Miami Valley clergy spoke in favor of the amendment. He believes we must properly name what we oppose and that the language is clarifying. Secretary

Clough indicated and clarified that the amendment reflects a critical shift in terms of how we discuss racial justice and a clear communication to support anti-racism. Bishop Jung called for the vote for Constitutional Amendment #3 Racial Justice. He invited Rev. Mark Chow to pray for the vote.

Amendment #4 – Clergy Education Requirements. The amendment's purpose is to clarify and contextualize, and to mirror current educational standards that appear in other places in the Book of Discipline, and to not expand, restrict or change current educational standards for clergy members charged with electing clergy delegates to the General Conference. The amendment updates paragraph 35.Article IV in two ways: first by substituting the abbreviation of M.Div to Master of Divinity which is a grammatical revision to reflect the formal writing style of the Book of Discipline, and the second update is an addition of the phrase, "from a University Senate approved theological school or its equivalent as recognized in a central conference. "Bishop Jung moved for ratification of Amendment # 4.

Bishop Jung received a question from Doug Widdowson - clergy MRVD - asking if you retain your right to vote if your seminary later loses accreditation. Bishop Jung called on Rev. Dr. Valerie Bridgeman, Dean of MTSO, to clarify that you do not lose your right if you gained the degree while accredited. Jessica Stonecypher - Clergy HRD - asked if Deacons can still substitute a Masters in the realm of their work. Bishop Jung called on Rev. Bridgemen to clarify and she answered affirmatively. Bishop Jung called for the vote for Constitutional Amendment #4 Clergy Education Requirements. He invited Rev. Bridgeman to pray for the vote.

Recommendation 5 – Building a More Sustainable Future – Rev. Ryan Grace

Rev. Ryan Grace, Olentangy River District was invited to speak as Chair of the Creation Care Task Force to introduce Recommendation 5. Rev. Grace spoke of his experience of visiting communities devastated by Hurricane Helene in the mountains of Appalachia. He spoke about the reality and danger of climate change. He invited us to reduce greenhouse gases in our local ministry spaces. He summarized the detail of the legislation. Bishop Jung placed the business before us and asked for discussion following a shouted "second" from multiple people. With no debate, the house voted to carry the legislation with about one dozen voting against.

Rev. Lou Seipel offered courtesies before our lunch break. We were reminded about various events occurring during lunch and this day. We were notified that St. Joseph Church of the Maria Stein Community was currently on fire. Rev. Dr. Jack Sullivan, Ohio Council of Churches, was introduced and recognized. He prayed for our lunch and we were dismissed until 2:00 p.m.

Resume Annual Conference Session – 2:00 p.m.

Bible Study, Afternoon Business Session

We returned from our lunch to the music of the Mark Miller band. Bishop Jung introduced former Governor Ted Strickland to the body. Governor Strickland is a prior United Methodist clergy member. He greeted all of us in the West Ohio Conference and stated that he is proud to be associated with Ohio Methodism.

Bible Study Part 2 – Soul Care Amid Trauma and Despair – Rev. Dr. AHyun Lee

Bishop Jung welcomed back our Bible Study teacher for the Annual Conference Session, Rev. Dr. AHyun Lee. Dr. Lee continued the two-part Bible Study, "Rise Up: Soul Care Amid Trauma and Despair." The study explores how Jesus' command to Jairus' daughter, 'Talitha koum!' ("Little girl, get up!") from Mark 5 can bring fresh hope to our deepest struggles. By acknowledging the weight of trauma and fear, and the movement through those dark moments of feeling 'asleep' or 'swallowed up,' we discover the power of God's voice inviting us to rise.

Ohio Area Task Force – Bishop Jung, Rev. Linda Middelberg, Rev. Doug Anderson

Bishop Jung invited Rev. Linda Middelberg to come forward and introduce Rev. Doug Anderson, our consultant who shared the report of the Ohio Area Task Force and invited the 20 clergy and lay members of the team to stand for recognition from the house. Rev. Doug Anderson began with reminding us that the team had no responsibility for deciding about the Annual Conferences; that will be the task of each conference in 2027.

He shared insights from William Bridges about Change and Transition, whose book of that title was the guiding content of the task force. We begin with the ending, then hit the neutral zone, and then move toward the new beginning, using the story of Moses and the Exodus. After the Red Sea, the Hebrew people were in the neutral zone. But they needed to lose their Egypt mentality. They needed a new identity for a new reality. We as conferences also need to figure out our new identity as an Ohio Area. In the listening sessions, the task force heard that people are hopeful that we would build connection. We yearn for a new vision. We became excited about more resources and possibilities. We hope for less bureaucracy and more efficiency, experiencing challenging change that will be worth the effort. The task force heard concerns about change fatigue and shifting culture in our prior conferences. Others expressed concerns about falling into old habits. Again, the task force heard words like unity, stronger together, and forward-looking. The listening session responses indicated that to create the vision, it will take all of us. In the next three years, we will develop fifteen teams to explore what the annual conferences have been doing and how we might plan to go forward into the future. Doug Anderson hopes we will build a relational missional priority focused on the mission field and concluded with a blessing for us all.

Rev. Rachel Billups- Olentangy River District requested a suspension of the rules to present an enabling resolution. Multiple seconds were given. George Howard - Lay Olentangy River District asked what the request is about? Rachel responded it is to affirm the desire to work together. The motion carried by greater than the 2/3 margin required.

Rev. Billups moved that the West Ohio Annual Conference affirm Bishop Jung's formation of the Ohio Episcopal Area Task Team, affirm the continuing exploration of the formation of a new, unified Annual Conference for all of Ohio, and commit to including this process in our ongoing prayers, personally and corporately. George Howard- Laity- proposed an amendment by addition to include after "corporately and to include our missional partners from Laos, North Katanga and Mexico to join us in this process." The Howard amendment to the original motion passed.

A few questions were raised regarding the motion. Mr. Mark Miller, lay HRD – strongly supports the motion but would like to postpone until tomorrow morning – to have more time to consider. The motion to postpone was not supported.

Marie Smith- Scioto River District- asked if the resolution changes the timeline? Bishop Jung answered that there would be no change in the timeline. Andrea Curry- Miami River- clergy- what is the function of the legislation? Mark Holmann- Laity Maumee Watershed- Can we adjust the sound so we can hear on stage left? Roger Maumee Watershed- What happens if we vote no? We will continue to move forward. Robin Rader clergy- Great Miami River District- Are we voting to bring the mission partners here physically? George responded that the idea is to engage them in both process and prayer. Scott Campbell-clergy GMRD- Is this for East Ohio as well? Rachel replied that there is similar legislation being presented in East Ohio next week. Bishop Jung called the vote and the vote carried broadly.

Bishop Jung recognized Rev. Jeremy Moyers-Olentangy River District for a personal point of privilege. Rev. Moyers welcomed Izzy Alvarez, Director of Reconciling Ministries. Rev. Alvarez extended greetings from Reconciling Ministries Network, the Philippines Conference, and California-Nevada Conference. He shared that the litany of lament was a balm for him. He described that he heard it as grace. He expressed thanks and blessings upon the conference.

Recommendation 6 – Task Force for LGBTQ+ Ministry - Lay Member Jace Belz and Rev. Angie Cox

Rev. Angie Cox clergy introduced Resolution 6 (Page 87 & 88 in the Book of Reports). She explained that the legislation would help to create a process to identify and develop new ways to bring LGBTQ+ persons into the process. The Task Force is a dream of over 50 years to be intentional about ensuring LGBTQ+ seats are at the table. Rev. Cox moved its adoption, and multiple seconds were received.

Fuhrman Amendment – Justin Fuhrman, clergy GMRD, proposed an amendment to change text on lines 2 and 4 of the recommendation. Two speeches were given against the amendment: no speeches other than the maker's for the amendment. The vote for the amendment did not pass; the amendment is not accepted.

Roland Moore GMRD retired clergy asked if being included at the table meant creating a line item for LGBT ministry. It was explained that the goal was representation, not funding.

Justin McCaul clergy MRD asked how do we go about determining the 1/3 representation (line 30, p. 87) will it be a database? Do people need to disclose? Jay Sparks answered that there is an intention to try their best for 1/3 LGBTQ+ membership. Debate continued with two speeches for the recommendation and one against. Bishop Jung moved for the vote, and the motion carried. Bishop Jung offered a prayer for the body.

10 Minute Break

Resume Annual Conference Session – 4:40 p.m. Episcopacy Committee, State of the Conference Report

We returned from our break to the music from Mark Miller's band, and the announcement that our new theme song, "Rise Up! Beloved Rise Up!," will soon be published and available to all of us.

Bishop Jung brought us back to order while Rev. Wade Giffin, Chair of the West Ohio Episcopacy Committee, and Rev. Heidi Welch, Chair of the East Ohio Episcopacy Committee came to the stage to welcome, formally introduce, and honor Bishop and Rev. Jung. The two Episcopacy Committee chairs have worked together over the last year preparing for the arrival of Bishop and Rev. Jung. On behalf of both Annual Conferences, Reverends Giffin and Welch welcomed the Jungs to the Ohio Episcopal Area. All of the members of the Episcopacy Committees were asked to stand and be recognized. Services of installation to welcome the new Bishop shared a Day of Unity around Thanksgiving time. In February folks from East and West Ohio Annual Conferences joined together for a Martin Luther King, jr. celebration. Both Episcopacy Committees worked together to refresh the residence and grounds of the West Ohio Episcopal residence and brought in groceries to welcome the Bishop and Rev. Jung. Both Reverends Giffin and Welch are part of the Ohio Episcopacy Task Force. Bishop Jung is described as a "field" Bishop. Has committed to visiting every church in East and West Ohio during his four years as Bishop.

Rev. Giffin presented a gift of flowers to Rev. Im Jung and introduced Bishop Jung's history of ministry. Bishop Jung has been recognized for having a pastoral heart – a sincere love for all people.

State of the Conference Report – Bishop Hee-Soo Jung

Bishop Jung began by sharing how thrilling and humbling it is to serve as our bishop of the Ohio Area. He reflected on the theme of “Rise Up, Beloved!” In terms of our movement of healing and restoration, we are called to be an incarnation of Christ for the world. He shared that it is more appropriate to reflect on our state rather than our status.

We are a strongly committed missional conference. Our missional giving remains strong. We give honor and glory to God as we care for others in our world. However, we continue to see division in our midst. There is strenuous debate over how we are to live together. Those differences are magnified in a global context. We are striving to allow regionalization to assist us in doing ministry effectively in different contexts.

The institutions of the church are changing, but the mission will remain unchanged. The commitment of our staff, cabinet and leaders are all tasked with the mission. Our top priority is discipleship. We stand today in the hope of turnaround. Partnerships will be essential. We are stronger together and are committed to a common gospel and a common mission.

We have many in our Conference who are willing to work together, and churches are coming together. We are going to continue beyond a small beginning to offer hope to the world!

Our thinking is changing from how do we keep the doors open to how do we open doors to others? Let us lean on each other, working together, and with the trust that the Spirit is doing something new. There is liberation, power, and light across our state. We are working to save the whole world in the name of Jesus Christ!

On behalf of the joint Episcopacy Committees, Rev. Clara Kwon presented a gift for the Bishop and Rev. Jung. The gift is a Retreat Box that includes a bakery gift card, mugs, Korean tea, and the details for a weekend stay in the Hocking Hills.

Rev. Linda Middelberg introduced our new staff positions, including new staff and cabinet members. Rev. Ed Peterson, Executive Assistant to the Bishop in East Ohio, introduced the East Ohio and West Ohio staff who are crossing boundaries to lead ministries in both conferences.

- Brad Aycok will be the executive director of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings for the Ohio Episcopal Area.
- Rev. Beth Ortiz, the current Strategic Ministries director in East Ohio, will be the executive director of Discipleship for the Ohio Episcopal Area in a still evolving role.
- Rev. Donnetta Peaks will be the executive director of the Office of Ministry for the Ohio Episcopal Area.
- Rev. Karen Cook continues to serve as the executive director of Connectional Ministries in West Ohio, and Ed Fashbaugh continues to serve as the executive director of Connectional Ministries in East Ohio. Lou Seipel shared courtesies and reminders for the body. She also shared a blessing to conclude the business of the conference. Business concluded at 5:41pm.

She shared reflections on her experiences in ministry and several churches she has led and visited. She shared her grief over disaffiliation and expressed our new determination to serve in cooperative ministry. She exhorted that even if we feel tired, to remember that God is not done with us yet!

She expressed thanks to all volunteers and especially Jill Phillips, Lou Seipel (for five years of service as chair of conference planning) and Justin Williams (for five years of service as chair of conference worship planning).

We closed our service of praise and worship.

Bishop Jung invited the following to extend greetings:

- Bishop Denise Anders-Modest of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church and the World Methodist Council.
- Ed Peterson (Assistant to the Bishop of East Ohio) and Kelly Brown brought a greeting on behalf of East Ohio, and an expression of thanks for Linda Middelberg. He also led our morning prayer.

Nomination Slate, Conference Business, Board of Ordained Ministry

Bishop Jung expressed appreciation for all East and West Ohio Staff. Bishop Jung then welcomed Rev. Brandi Grant-Rigsby for the Nominations Report and vote. She recognized all members of the team and presented the slate for both the West Ohio Conference and Wesley Foundation. Bishop Jung spoke about the role of historian and shared that Dave Boling was named as Historian.

Rev. Brandi Grant-Rigsby then shared slides of all the nominees. There were two votes, one for approval of West Ohio slate and one for the Wesley Foundation. Both carried unanimously. She closed with gratitude and an invitation to fill out nominations via the West Ohio Conference web site.

Rev. Dee Stickley Miner (Global Ministries) rose for a moment of privilege to recognize the pain of immigration attorneys and clergy serving immigrant communities. She led us in prayer at the request of Bishop Jung.

Recommendation 7 – United Methodist Immigration Ministries of Ohio: Forming an Ohio Site of the Immigration Law & Justice Network – Rev. Emily Kvalheim

Rev. Lizzy Ortiz shared about her ministry connected with Grove City UMC, the only Spanish-speaking ministry in West Ohio. She described the legislation before us, Recommendation 7.

Rev. Madet Merove of Covenant UMC in Springfield encouraged care for immigrants and invited us to care for Haitian migrants as part of our mission. Rev. Emily Kvalheim (Deacon) rose to support the resolution and summarized the creation of an Ohio Site of the Immigration Law & Justice Network. Others shared in reading the full resolution. There were three speeches in support of the recommendation and several questions: Deb Ketchum requested that we make clear how we might get info on how to support financially. Emily shared that in two weeks the East Ohio will consider creating an Advance Special and the website www.haitiancss.org can provide support for Haitian immigrants. Nicole Henderson asked why we are not establishing a migrant Sunday until 2027. Bill Brownson responded that Special Sundays were set for 2026 in prior business.

Nicole Henderson requested an amendment to the legislation. The Rules were suspended to permit an amendment. Two questions were asked: Is the amendment to set a date for a Special Sunday? Yes. Ashton Dupler clergy MVRD asked if the colleagues recommending the legislation could speak to the timeline of implementing the amendment. They responded.

The amendment reads as follows: Line 23, page 90, reading “or special similar offering to be set no later than July 1, 2025.” The amendment passed. Bishop Jung called for a vote for the amended recommendation, which passed with unanimous approval.

Board of Ministry Report, Introduction of Commissioners and Ordinands

Rev. Barry Burns, the Chair of the Board of Ministry addressed the session with an introduction of ministry interns. He then summarized some of the work of the BOM. He expressed appreciation for all in the ordination process and each local church who supports a sense of call. He invited members of the Board of Ministry to be recognized and named various leaders within the Board of Ministry and their staff. He recognized those who completed the Course of Study, our new Certified Lay Ministers, and newly licensed pastors who came up on stage and were named and greeted personally by Bishop Jung. He then recognized those who will be commissioned and ordained. Bishop Jung read the historic questions and the candidates responded appropriately.

Superintendents were formally appointed and each assisted Bishop Jung in the fixing of appointments for their districts and named all new appointments. Appointments to be supplied were also named, along with new extension ministry appointments.

Closing Motions were made by Secretary Chris Clough for corrections and editorial adjustments; they were approved unanimously. Lou Seipel shared courtesies and led us in prayer for our gathered conference and for our lunch.

Bishop Jung announced that our 2025 Annual Conference will be held May 27-30 with the location to be determined. Bishop Jung closed with comments regarding how it is a blessing to be our Bishop and extended our prayers to the East Ohio Annual Conference. The body was excused for lunch and to attend the Celebration of Ministry Service at 2:00 p.m.

Celebration of Ministry

Saturday, May 31, 2025 – 2:00 p.m.

Capital University

Bexley, Ohio

The Celebration of Ministry Service which celebrates those clergy entering retirement status and the commissioning and ordination of candidates for ministry was held at Capital University in Bexley, Ohio. Music for the service was provided Mark Miller and Subject to Change. Rev. Justin Williams, Chair of the Annual Conference Worship Committee, offered words of welcome to the congregation present for the service and watching online via the livestream.

The opening procession began to the accompaniment of the congregational hymns “Lift High the Cross” accompanied by Mark Miller at the organ, and “O For A Thousand Tongues to Sing” presented by Mark Miller and his band, Subject to Change. Ordination banners honoring each of the full member candidates were placed across the stage. Bishop Jung led the congregation in the Call to Worship and the opening prayer. The Bishop then recognized our “Common Ministry and Reaffirmation of Baptism.”

Rev. Barry Burns and Mr. Leslie Hall, on behalf of the Board of Ordained Ministry, began the celebration of retirement with a responsive greeting and thanksgiving for the retirees present. Bishop Jung offered a responsive prayer of thanksgiving and blessing for the retirees. Each of the retirees were introduced with a summary of years of service and special moments of remembrance regarding their ministry. As the introductions were read, each retiree present came to the stage to be greeted and recognized by Bishop and Rev. Jung. There are 28 retirees with 710 collective years of service in appointed ministry in the 2025 Retiree Class. Following the recognition of the retirees, the congregation joined in singing the Doxology. Rev. Donnetta Peaks led the congregation in a responsive prayer of intercession.

Recognition of Local Pastors

The service continued with the recognition and blessing of 19 new Local Licensed Pastors. The Mark Miller Band offered the song “This I Believe.” Each Local Licensed Pastor was introduced by name and came across the stage to be greeted by Bishop Jung. Bishop Jung closed the recognition of the Local Licensed Pastors with a prayer of blessing.

The Scripture Lessons

Bishop Denise Anders-Modest of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church offered the Old Testament scripture lesson Isaiah 58:6-10. The New Testament lesson was our Annual Conference Theme Scripture, Mark 5:35-43 read to the congregation by Bishop Suzanne Dillahunt of the Southern Ohio Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Bishops Anders-Modest and Dillahunt are our Ecumenical Representatives for today’s Ordination and Commissioning Service.

Introduction of the Preacher

Reverend Linda Middelberg, Assistant to the Bishop introduced Bishop Bruce Ough, a retired Bishop of the United Methodist Church. Bishop Ough served as the leader of the West Ohio Annual Conference from 2000 through 2012.

The Sermon – Bishop Bruce Ough

Rev. Linda Middelberg introduced our preacher, Bishop Bruce Ough, who served as the Episcopal leader in the West Ohio Annual Conference for twelve years from 2000 to 2012. Rev. Middelberg invited Bishop Ough to bring his message to us.

Bishop Ough began his message by reminding us how much we and our world have changed since he served as our Bishop. Wars have erupted around the world, we’ve had the racial reckoning of the George Floyd murder, a worldwide pandemic, and the schism and disaffiliations of our United Methodist Church. He called out the authoritarian takeover of our political system and the governance by division, lies, chaos, and fear. He’s reached his limit and is experiencing anxiety, fear and is questioning his role in God’s Kingdom. Amongst this, we have the story of Jairus pleading with Jesus to heal his dying daughter. Fear and fatalism are the core dynamics in the story of Jairus and his daughter. The quintessential element of fatalism is the lack of hope and faith. They are the victims of fatalism and cause humans to say, “Why Bother?” At a crucial moment in the story of Jairus and his daughter, Jesus reaches out his hand and commands the young girl to rise up, which she does. Jesus is in the “Raising up business;” raising us to new life, new hope, and a new future.

The remainder of Bishop Ough’s message uses the “Raising Up Business” metaphor to inspire the congregation to throw off the fear and despair of fatalism and reach out a hand to Jesus, asking Jesus to raise us up. And, when Jesus raises us up, we in turn must raise up others. Bishop Ough asked us to be the Vanguard of the Rise Up Movement of the whole church. He challenged the new commissioners and ordinands to join the family business of raising the dead – the perfect metaphor for our mission to make disciples for the transformation of the world. He concluded his message with words of encouragement to the new commissioners and ordinands – Come and kneel down; let Jesus take your hand and raise you up and out of any fear or doubt that you may harbor. Kneel down and let the Holy Spirit wash over you and fill your soul. Jesus will grant you the power and the authority to rise up and bring light to the world’s darkness.

Following Bishop Ough's sermon, Mark Miller and Subject to Change led the congregation in our new Annual Conference song, "Rise Up! Beloved Rise Up!"

Recognition of Mentors – Rev. Barry Burns

Rev. Burns began the recognition of mentors with a moment honoring the ministry of Rev. James "Benji" Sayre, who in April of 2021 survived a devastating car accident that left him with severe brain injuries. Since then, the path has not been easy for him, his family, and caregivers. Rev. Sayre was a mentor who influenced many who are pastors today. Rev. Burns stated that we are grateful for all the mentors who have stood alongside candidates and retirees. He asked all those who have mentored candidates to stand to be recognized and thanked. Rev. Burns shared that these mentors help shape the future of the church one faithful relationship at a time.

The Presentation and Examination of the Candidates – Bishop Hoo-See Jung

Bishop Jung began the presentation of the candidates for ministry with a responsive liturgy of support.

Following the liturgy Bishop Jung engaged the candidates for ministry in the historical examination. The General Examination for all candidates was followed first by the examinations of those candidates being commissioned as Deacons and then by the examination of the candidates for ordination as Elders. This was followed by the Bishop's prayer for the candidates and a Hymn of Response, "Send Me Out."

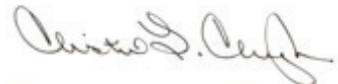

Two provisional deacons and five provisional elders were commissioned. Four deacons, and five elders were ordained. (Names listed on pages 172-174 in the BAC). Symbols of ministry - the Bible, Cup and Plate, Book of Discipline, and Bowl and Towel - were offered from four retiring clergy to four newly ordained clergy. Rev. Lou Seipel closed the Commissioning and Ordination program with a prayer of thanksgiving and blessing.

The congregational hymns, "To God Be the Glory," "We'll Understand it Better By and By," and "This Little Light of Mine" were sung enthusiastically and led by Mark Miller and Subject to Change. The closing hymns were followed by a dismissal with blessing from newly ordained Deacon Lucy Spieldenner Kelly and newly ordained Elder Carrie Jo Schwab.

The service closed with a creative postlude provided by organist Mark Miller and the 56th Session of the West Ohio Annual Conference was adjourned.

VII REPORTS OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A. STATE OF THE CONFERENCE ADDRESS

“Rise Up, Beloved: Trust in God’s Promises”

Mark 5:35–43

Resident Bishop’s Address to the Annual Conference

Grace and peace to you, Beloved Church.

It is good to be here with you.

To gather—side by side—as a people held together by grace...

Not by our perfection.

Not by agreement.

But by a calling that is deeper than our fears and a promise that is greater than our doubts.

“Do Not Fear. Only Believe.”

Our theme this year—“Rise Up, Beloved: Trust in God’s Promises”—is not just a hopeful phrase.

It is a holy invitation.

And it brings us to one of the most stirring, powerful moments in the Gospels.

Mark chapter 5.

A young girl has died.

The crowd says: It’s too late.

Why bother Jesus now?

But Jesus—He does not accept the finality of death.

He walks straight into that place of sorrow and says:

“Do not fear. Only believe.”

He takes the little girl by the hand and says:

Talitha cum.

“Little girl, I say to you, rise up.”

And she rises.

This story is not just about one girl’s healing. It is a window into God’s heart. It is a sign of how Jesus responds when others say the story is over. It is a reminder that God’s promises are not bound by human timelines. That moment in the house was not just resurrection power at work—it was love in action.

And friends, if Jesus still takes us by the hand, then our only calling is to rise.

A Life Changed by the Gospel

When I was a teenager in Korea, I saw a man clearing land right next to my house. This was a preacher who had been asking my grandfather, the town elder, for a piece of land to build a church. Finally he said you can have this rocky piece that’s not good for anything beside our house.

When I saw him clearing the land one day, I asked him if he needed I met a local preacher. After working, he took my hands and said “Mr Jung”, this was the first time I was called Mr Jung. Mr Jung, Jesus loves you. His name was Rev. Sung Chan Kim. And this was a transformative moment for me.

I was not born into Christianity.

I was shaped by Buddhist and Confucian traditions.

But something in his presence—something in his faith—sparked something in me.

My heart was changed... in a way that was strange and warm.
And I began to follow Jesus.

It was not easy.
There were costs to my faith.
But there was also joy.
Because I had encountered something real—something that held me and called me.

The calling of Jesus is always personal, always costly, and always worth it. In that encounter, I learned that faith is not a cultural inheritance—it is a relationship. One that changes the direction of your life.

What I didn't know then... was that the story of my faith had roots that stretched across an ocean.

Ohio's Mission That Reached the Ends of the Earth

In 1885, Mary Scranton, a 52-year-old widow from Cleveland, Ohio, landed in Korea with a Bible in her hand and a servant's heart. What many do not know is the depth and richness of the journey that led her there—a journey shaped by hardship, service, and a life of deep, deliberate faith.

Mary F. Scranton was born in 1832 in Belchertown, Massachusetts, the daughter of a Methodist Episcopal clergyman, Rev. Erastus Benton. She was raised in a family of faith and learning—her father, brother, nephew, and later her son all served in the ministry. She received a good education, attending public schools and later the Norwich Female Academy.

She married William T. Scranton in 1853, with her father officiating. They moved between New York City and Connecticut, and their son William Benton Scranton was born in 1856. During the Civil War, her husband served with distinction as a Quartermaster in the Connecticut 20th Volunteer Infantry. He survived the war, but passed away in 1872, leaving Mary a widow when William B. was just sixteen.

Mary supported her son's educational journey as he studied at Yale, then at Columbia's College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York. She was a leader even then, becoming secretary of the New York East Branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society (WFMS). After William's marriage and graduation from medical school, the family moved to Cleveland, Ohio, where Mary would make a quiet yet lasting mark.

In Cleveland, Mary became a member of Cleveland First Methodist Episcopal Church, located at the corner of Erie (now East 9th Street) and Euclid Avenue. There, she contributed actively to the life of the church and local mission. She was likely the founding force behind a new WFMS branch on Wilson Avenue (now East 55th), and she lived just blocks away. Though her time in Ohio was brief—only about two years—her legacy ran deep. As one researcher put it, Mary had more of an impact on Cleveland than Cleveland had on Mary.

In 1884, Mary was approved for foreign missionary service by the WFMS—sent not from Cleveland, but jointly by the New England and New York East Branches, with Cincinnati pledging support. On January 5, 1885, Mary's sending service was held at her home church in New Haven, Connecticut—a sacred and heartfelt moment captured in the pages of The Heathen Women's Friend, the WFMS publication. Two weeks later, she departed for Korea, traveling through San Francisco and Japan. She arrived in Korea in June 1885, stepping into mission at the age of 52 with courage and compassion.

Her son, Dr. William Scranton, also followed God out of Ohio and to Korea. served as a physician and missionary. He brought medical care and gospel witness, opening clinics and learning the language and culture of the Korean people.

While in Korea, they did not serve those only in the heart of the city or those with privilege. Where their early work was is now part of the city but at the time was beyond the limits of the inner circle of the city. They started clinics and missions where people were overlooked on the edges of the population and there they served with humility and hope.

Together, this mother and son laid the foundation for what would become the Korean Methodist Church, one of the largest and most vibrant Methodist bodies in the world today.

Mary founded the Ewha School, which became Ewha Womans University—the largest women's university in the world. Her work provided a spiritual and educational foundation that empowered generations of Korean women. Through her letters and reports, many published in missionary journals, she painted vivid pictures of life and ministry in Korea. She had the heart of a preacher, the insight of a teacher, and the pen of a poet.

From 1899 to 1903, Mary was on furlough due to illness, returning to New Haven and Hartford. She returned to Korea in 1904 and passed away there in 1909, buried in the land she loved and served.

And I—your bishop—am one life transformed by that mission. From 1979 to 1982, I served at Eastgate Church in Korea—a church that traces its roots back to the Scrantons' planting. And now, here I am, serving the people of Ohio—the very ground that sent out the gospel which reached me.

When I was assigned to Ohio, I asked, “Why Ohio?” And the Spirit whispered: “To pay back.” To pay back—not in obligation, but in love. To honor the legacy. To extend the story.

Ohio, I want you to hear this: You are the center of a movement that is still unfolding. The seeds planted here have taken root in places you’ve never been—and in people you may never meet. And the fruits of that mission are not only overseas. They are in your pews. In your neighborhoods. In your own hearts.

The question for us now is: will we continue to be a sending people? Will we keep sowing seeds of faith and freedom, of grace and justice? Will we rise up and go, as the Scrantons did—not for our glory, but for God’s?

The Scrantons remind us that mission is not a moment—it is a movement. It is the willingness to go where God sends you, to serve with open hands and open hearts, and to trust that God can use even small beginnings to shape eternity. The next generation of mission begins with us. May we rise up, as Mary did, to serve, to give, and to believe that the gospel of Jesus Christ truly has no boundaries.

We are not done. The next generation of mission begins with us. And it begins right here, in Ohio.

Listening, Healing, and Rebuilding Trust

When I first arrived in West Ohio, I could feel the ache. The pain of a pandemic still echoing in our halls. The heartbreak and confusion after disaffiliations. The exhaustion of trying to hold on to something sacred while so much around us seemed to be slipping away.

And so I made a promise: to listen and to be with you.

I committed to spend a day in each district. During the day, I met with clergy. In the evening, I sat with laity. Together we worshipped and we study Mark together. I asked questions, and then I listened. Not to fix. But to understand. Because healing always begins with listening.

There is a sacred power in being heard. There is a quiet strength that comes when we sit with one another’s stories. And I believe that as we keep showing up for each other, the Spirit will do what the Spirit always does: mend what has been torn, and breathe life into dry bones.

And I want you to know—I have not finished. It is still my goal to visit every church in both West and East Ohio. Not to inspect, but to encourage. Not to critique, but to connect. Because this is what a field bishop does. We walk together. We build trust not from the platform but from presence. Already, I have visited 90 churches.

And as we do this work of healing, we are becoming a new kind of Church—more honest, more humble, more compassionate, more deeply rooted in grace.

One New Ohio: Exploring a Shared Future

Let me speak plainly: I will serve as your bishop until 2028. That is four years we will walk together. Four years of shared leadership, of holy experiments, of deep listening, and bold action.

And one of the most significant opportunities before us in this season is the invitation to imagine One New Ohio—a united Annual Conference built on shared calling, shared mission, and shared trust between East and West Ohio.

We are not rushing into this. We are taking our time. As I’ve said before: right now, we are just dating. We are learning about one another. Listening. Dreaming. Sharing stories and asking hard questions. If all goes well, we may get engaged. And if God leads us, perhaps one day we’ll be married.

But already, something beautiful is emerging.

We have created the Ohio Episcopal Area Task Team—a dedicated group of laity and clergy from both conferences. They are diverse in background and experience, and they are united in prayer, listening, and discernment. Their task is not to decide if we will unite, but to explore how we could—faithfully, thoughtfully, and joyfully.

And I want you to know: the Spirit is moving.

We are already seeing the fruit of collaboration. Shared learning experiences. Shared ministry efforts. Shared leadership across conference lines. We are discovering that we are stronger together—not because we agree on everything, but because we are committed to a common gospel, a shared mission, and a bold future.

Imagine what it would look like if the gifts of East and West Ohio were brought together to form something new—not a merger, but a re-creation. A conference rooted in grace. Built on mutual respect. Fueled by mission. Open to innovation.

This is not about efficiency—it's about discipleship. It's about putting our energy into what matters most: starting new churches, revitalizing old ones, equipping leaders, supporting pastors, empowering laity, and reaching the next generation.

And even as we explore this future, I ask you to do three things:

Pray. Pray for the Task Team. Pray for one another. Pray for God to lead us with courage and humility.

Listen. Listen to stories from across the state. Listen to those who are excited—and those who are unsure. Listen for the Spirit's whisper in the midst of our discernment.

Trust. Trust in the God who makes all things new. Trust that we do not walk this road alone. Trust that resurrection is always possible—even for institutions.

I do not know exactly what the future holds. But I know who holds the future. And I believe the future of United Methodism in Ohio is bright—not because it is easy, but because we are willing to walk together into what God is already preparing.

Let us rise up to explore this future. Together.

Stronger Together: Circuits and Collaborative Ministry

And we already have many who are willing to work together outside of their church. Across Ohio, something the faithful are stirring. Churches are coming together—not in competition, but in collaboration. Congregations that once worked in isolation are now discovering the power of being stronger together. This new movement of shared leadership, shared vision, and shared impact is beginning to take shape in what I refer to as circuits—and I believe this is only the beginning.

Circuits are local churches that strategize around meeting the particular needs of their communities and regions. But more than a structure, circuits are becoming spiritual ecosystems—places where creativity, compassion, and callings flourish together.

These circuits empower both clergy and laity to share stories and insights about their communities, assess needs and opportunities that may go unnoticed by a single church alone, learn about the people not currently reached by our congregations and strategize how to reach them, and discover new ways to embody faith through acts of compassion and mercy.

In a world where needs are growing more complex and resources more stretched, strategically aligning our regional resources is not just wise—it is faithful. We are called not to preserve our silos, but to embrace the power of shared ministry.

These collaborations are not just about survival—they are about mission. They help us move beyond “how do we keep the doors open?” into “how do we open more doors to Christ's love?”

Imagine clergy and lay leaders sitting to dream—not just about what they can do for their own congregation, but what they might do together. Imagine each church bringing its unique gifts to bear in a coordinated, Spirit-led movement of renewal.

Already, they are beginning to transform the way we reach people, the way we serve our neighbors, and the way we transform the world for Jesus Christ.

So let us lean into this experiment with hope. Let us support our leaders as they explore new ways of working together. Let us trust that the Spirit is doing something new, not only within our walls but across our regions.

Because we are stronger together. Because the world needs a united Church. Because Jesus still sends us out—not alone, but in community—to make disciples and to change lives.

Revitalization and New Faith Communities

One of the great hopes I hold for our time together is this: that we will plant the seeds for 1,000 new small groups and 100 new faith communities across Ohioland. That is not just a number. That is a vision rooted in our calling.

These communities may not look like traditional churches. Some will meet in coffee shops, others in homes. Some will begin on college campuses or in apartment complexes. Others will grow out of community partnerships, where love is lived out before a sermon is ever preached.

We must not be afraid to try. We must not be afraid to fail. Because every attempt is a witness that we serve a God who makes all things new.

At the same time, I believe God is calling us to revitalize the churches we already have. That means doing the hard work of asking what God is calling us to now. It means opening ourselves to transformation. It means inviting in new leadership, especially from younger generations and diverse communities. It means reclaiming our Wesleyan roots of small groups, accountability, and social holiness.

Revitalization is not about going back. The church then served its purpose, and the church now must serve its unique purpose. It is about going deeper into the Spirit's call for this moment, in this place, among these people.

And let me say clearly: every church can be a place of new life. There is no congregation too small, no sanctuary too quiet, no town too overlooked for the Spirit to move. God is not done with us yet.

Raising Up Young and New Leaders

As we acknowledge that God is not done with us and as we rise up as a Church that is alive and faithful for generations to come, we must be intentional and bold about raising up young and new leaders both as clergy and dedicated lay members. Not just to take our place someday in the future—but to lead with us now.

Every generation of the Church is called to invest in the next. And today, that calling is urgent.

There are young people in our churches who are already full of faith, curiosity, and spiritual hunger. There are young adults leading in community organizing, racial justice, environmental stewardship, and neighborhood renewal—but they may not yet know they are called to ministry. There are children asking profound questions, teenagers ready to serve, and young adults longing for a community that will nurture their leadership without demanding that they first become someone else.

We must make room for them.

We must create space at every table—for youth, for young clergy, for emerging lay leaders, for people who do not yet see themselves reflected in the leadership of the Church. We must be willing to pass the mic, to step aside at times, to mentor and support without controlling or diminishing their voices.

I dream of a Church where young people are not just welcomed—they are expected. Where their leadership is developed. Where their creativity is celebrated. Where their questions are honored. And where their faith is nurtured by a community that believes in them.

And not just young in age—but new in faith. New to leadership. New to the UMC. We must also raise up those whom the Spirit is calling into leadership for the first time, regardless of age, background, or prior experience.

Our commitment to 1000 new small groups and 100 new faith communities must include equipping and releasing new leaders. We will not plant what we are not prepared to water. We will not revitalize what we are not ready to reimagine.

So let us rise up—not just to lead, but to lift others into leadership. To call forth the next generation. To mentor. To trust. To empower. To walk beside. And to believe that the Spirit who called us still calls.

The Role of the Laity: Every Disciple a Missionary

Let me speak clearly and with gratitude: the Church does not move forward on the strength of clergy alone. The laity are the lifeblood of the United Methodist Church. You are not simply members. You are ministers. You are not an audience to the gospel—you are active agents in the kingdom of God.

In every church I visit, I see lay people leading food pantries, organizing youth groups, advocating for justice, leading prayer circles, repairing buildings, teaching Bible study, and quietly loving their neighbors in ways that rarely make headlines—but always make heaven rejoice.

We need to expand our vision of lay ministry. We need to equip and empower every person to recognize that their gifts matter. That their witness matters. That their leadership is not secondary—it is vital.

Let us invest in our lay leaders. Let us nurture their spiritual growth and give them space to serve, to preach, to lead, and to dream. Because the future of our Church will rise on the faithfulness of the whole body—not just the ones with collars around their necks.

You, the laity, are the hands and feet of Christ. And I thank God for you.

Discipleship as a Way of Life

We are not just trying to build a bigger Church. We are trying to form deeper disciples.

That means helping people not only know Jesus, but follow Him. Day by day. Choice by choice.

Discipleship is not a program. It is not a one-time class. It is a way of life.

It happens in small groups where we pray with one another and ask hard questions. It happens in one-on-one conversations that help someone grow. It happens when someone is mentored in faith, when scripture becomes a guide, and when service becomes a habit.

And it happens best when we walk together.

John Wesley did not try to create a Church that entertained people. He formed a movement that expected transformation. A movement where faith changed lives and lives changed communities.

That is what we are called to today. A methodical, Spirit-led, Jesus-following, justice-seeking, world-loving, grace-filled way of life. And we need to invest our time, our resources, and our creativity into shaping disciples who shape the world.

Global Mission and the Gospel Without Borders

The West Ohio Conference has always had a heart for the world. You have sent missionaries, built relationships, supported clinics, and stood in solidarity with people you may never meet in person—but who are your neighbors in the Spirit.

We support ministries in Laos, Cambodia, Mexico, and the Congo. We raised millions of dollars for Imagine No Malaria and Wings of the Morning.

We must continue to nurture this missional heart. We must be a connectional Church that lifts others up—not just across counties and conferences, but across oceans and continents.

Let us continue to support global mission partnerships. Let us continue to learn from and with our sisters and brothers around the world. Because when one part of the Body rejoices, we all rejoice. When one suffers, we all suffer.

Denominational Unity and a Hopeful Future

I know these last few years have been hard. There has been division, disagreement, and disaffiliation. There has been heartbreak. There has been fear.

But there is also this: God is not finished with us.

We are still here. And we are still called.

The United Methodist Church is not perfect. But it is precious. Because it is ours. And it is God's. And it is a movement that is still being shaped by the Holy Spirit.

I believe in a Church where all are welcome. Where the table is long enough for everyone. Where grace abounds and love leads. Where we can hold differences without losing one another. Where our unity is not in uniformity but in Jesus Christ.

Let us rise up and be that Church.

Let us show the world what it means to be united in mission, diverse in expression, rooted in love, and propelled by grace.

This is the promise I trust. This is the Church I believe in.

And this, Beloved, is the work we are called to in the days ahead.

Final Call to Action and Benediction

Beloved, I have poured out my heart to you today not only as your bishop but as your fellow disciple. We have looked backward with gratitude, named our present reality with honesty, and imagined the future with courage and hope.

And now it is time to rise.

Rise up—not because the journey will be easy, but because Christ walks with us. Rise up—not because all the answers are clear, but because the promise is sure. Rise up—not because we are strong, but because God's strength is made perfect in our weakness.

Let us rise up...

- To listen deeply.
- To love boldly.

- To serve joyfully.
- To forgive freely.
- To plant generously.
- To worship passionately.
- To lead faithfully.

Let us rise up to be the Church the world so desperately needs—a Church that prays, that acts, that reconciles, that rejoices.

A Church that trusts in God's promises.

May the Spirit who brought life to the girl in that upper room— Bring new life to our churches.

May the Christ who called to her, "Talitha cum"— Call to us with the same tenderness, the same power.

May the love of God, that has never let go of this world, Hold us steady as we rise.

And may we go forth in peace, In power, And in promise, To be the body of Christ in this generation.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

B. BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Presented by: Rev. Barry Burns, Chairperson of Ordained Ministry

Rev. Barry Burns
Chairperson, Board of Ordained Ministry

The Board of Ordained Ministry continues to work faithfully to fulfill its role that includes “the enlistment and recruitment of ministerial leadership for our church and other ministry settings,” and to “renew a culture of call in the church” (The Book of Discipline, para. 635).

In conjunction with the Office of Ministry, The Board of Ordained Ministry offers a pathway that supports and encourages those who are discerning a call to ministry. This pathway includes:

- The Intern Program for Young Adults, New West Ohio Conference Ministry Interns for 2025, Vanessa Adams, Education Major at Otterbein University, who will serve at Church of the Master under the mentorship of Pastor Katya Brodbeck and her ministry team.
Marcus Bode, Math and Music Major at Ohio Wesleyan, who will serve at Powell UMC under the mentorship of Pastor Justin Williams and his ministry team.
Marcia Gause, Social Work Major at the University of Cincinnati, who will serve at Mt. Washington UMC and Gaines UMC, under the mentorship of Rev. Jeaninne Walker and her ministry teams.
Alina Jackson, Social Work major at Central State University, who will serve at McKinley UMC under the mentorship of Pastor Kima Cunningham and Ashton Dupler and their ministry team.

We are also thankful for Pastor Wendy Hanson Smith who is serving as the Intern Coordinator.

Other points on this pathway that we share with East Ohio Conference on, are:

- The Candidacy Summit for those exploring a call to ministry
- Clergy Licensing School for those serving in a local church as a Licensed Local Pastor
- Course of Study and Seminary support
- The Crucible Cohort during commissioned/provisional years

Areas of focus:

This year we continued to spend time on the changes related to the disaffiliations the last couple of years including passing a policy on reinstatement if any clergy wish to be reinstated to the UMC.

We also continue to prayerfully work with the East Ohio Conference BOM towards finding creative and strategic ways to work together that will benefit both conferences.

We have been working with the Connectional Table on the West Ohio Conference Strategic Plan, particularly in the area of “Strengthening the Clergy Pipeline,” refining the related goals and developing actions steps for them.

We have continued to explore and develop our discernment and credentialing pathway for ministry so that it is accessible to all people, particularly those who are younger and who come from diverse backgrounds.

Appreciation:

We offer our prayers and continued encouragement for those who are in the midst of this journey, thankful for each one who has responded to a call from God to serve in local churches and mission stations.

We are thankful for each local church community that offers support and nurtures a sense of call, for those who serve as mentors, cohort leaders, and chairs, registrars, and members of the District Committee on Ministry, as well as members of the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Now that we begin a new quadrennium, I also thank all those who have said yes to serving on the BOM for these 4 years. Because so many rotated off after 12 years last year, we have many new members who are gifted, passionate, and eager to do the work that they have been called to do. I look forward to a great 4 years working together.

It is an honor to be chosen to serve as the chairperson for this excellent team of individuals from throughout the WOC. I am also blessed to work with an executive committee who are gifted and passionate about the work of the BOM. These people are:

C. BOARD OF PENSION & HEALTH BENEFITS

Presented by: Rev. David Hoffman, Chair-Board of Pensions and Health Benefits

“And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work.” – 2 Corinthians 9:8, NRSV

2024 marks a transformative chapter for the Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. We are excited to welcome Bishop Hee-Soo Jung and our new board members, and we express deep gratitude for the dedicated service of our outgoing Bishop Gregory Palmer and board members. Their work among us has laid a strong foundation for the journey ahead.

We celebrate our progress so far this year and our unwavering commitment to serving the future needs of the West Ohio Conference. We welcome new board members: Jim Wilson (District Superintendent), Justin McCall (Clergy), Bethany Speith (Lay), and Christian Mateos (Lay). We also celebrate the leadership appointments of Beth Anne Crego (Vice Chair), Daryl Hams (Secretary), and my election as Chairperson.

We have achieved several key milestones through effort and collaborative spirit of many. We have successfully led the second year of HealthFlex Open Enrollment and revised the conference’s Baby Stipend Policy to the “Pregnancy, Birth, and Loss” Stipend Policy. This policy now supports newborns, adoptions (up to two years of age), pregnancy, and provides assistance in the event of loss, regardless of whether you are on the active healthcare plan. These changes aim to provide meaningful support to families in need and reflect our commitment to caring for families in times of joy and sorrow.

Working closely with Wespath, we made significant strides towards the 2026 implementation of COMPASS, the new Defined Contribution, and 403(b) plan, ensuring its impact is well understood. We also made prudent investment decisions to safeguard future pension liabilities, increased the 2026 Pre-82 PSR rate, and expanded Retiree VIA/HRA funding allocations.

Our commitment to clergy and their families continues through initiatives like Cabinet Grants for clergy appointments, emergency funds for clergy facing unexpected challenges, and hosting Pre-Retirement Workshops. Additionally, we’ve offered training to church treasurers and payroll teams on new behind-the-scenes processes like HealthFlex HSA true-up and Year-End W-2 reporting. We have also raised short-term and long-term disability income protection for conference and district staff from 60% to 70%, aligning it with clergy CPP benefits.

Additional grants from the Edith Gardner Housing Fund have been provided and expanded to assist retired clergy in making their homes more accessible and safer during this stage of their lives. These funds are specifically earmarked to support housing and accessibility needs, ensuring a broader range of assistance is available.

Bill Brownson (CFO) and Grace Welch (Conference Benefits Officer) continue to work diligently with Wespath Benefits and Investments to ensure the long-term security of our pension, retirement, health, and wellness programs. Their stewardship has fostered stability, enabling us to confidently meet future pension obligations.

Through the HealthFlex program, more than 85% of clergy and conference/district staff have benefited from zero out-of-pocket premiums over the past two years. In addition, these participants receive an excess premium credit in their HSA accounts to help cover their deductible or other out-of-pocket expenses.

The Board has continued to subsidize the HealthFlex premium credit for a second consecutive year, further reinforcing stability. This stability is also supported by the board’s successful efforts to maintain consistent healthcare premiums for the past four years.

The new COMPASS program represents a major departure from traditional pension structures, such as the Defined Benefit (DB) component of the legacy CRSP plan, which has been in decline since the 1980s. In contrast, Defined Contribution (DC) plans offer participants more control over their retirement savings and increased opportunities for financial growth.

This shift empowers individuals to take a more active role in shaping their financial future while adapting to the evolving landscape of retirement planning. We encourage everyone to actively engage with the new plan by attending upcoming workshops and reviewing the materials sent to your homes.

With the new COMPASS plan, churches and treasurers can expect billing arrangements similar to CRSP, featuring a flat rate for COMPASS and CPP. Additionally, it will be akin to HealthFlex, ensuring clergy personal COMPASS contributions match their payroll deductions for W-2 reporting purposes. Churches and treasurers are strongly encouraged to engage with the Conference Benefits and Finance teams for billing and reporting training in the 3rd and 4th quarters.

In the area of wellness, we strongly encourage all HealthFlex participants and their covered spouses to complete the HealthFlex HealthCheck Questionnaire and the Blueprint for Wellness annual exam by August 31 to avoid higher deductibles in the upcoming plan year.

We also urge you to take full advantage of the coaching and mental health services available through the HealthFlex Wellness Program, powered by Personify (formerly Virgin Pulse). Our ongoing partnership with the Ohio Health Employee Assistance Program (EAP) continues to provide invaluable resources to both HealthFlex and non-HealthFlex participants and their families.

We invite you to review the 2024 Financials and 2026 highlights. The Board had a strong financial performance in 2024, surpassing the 2025 budget expectations without needing apportionment support for several years. Key areas such as total income, operating expenses, and net receipts performed better than anticipated. Total income was higher due to significant investment income, while operating expenses were lower than budgeted. The balance sheet showed a $6.4M gain from investment earnings.

The Board has sufficiently invested funds to fully cover the retiree healthcare liability (VIA), which was $16 million as of 12/31/2023. The Board takes its responsibility seriously to be good stewards of its substantial assets, by equipping churches, clergy, and the conference beyond benefit plan administration. Examples include providing financial support to active and retired clergy and to churches through grants and other means. The Board looks forward to continuing this work.

As we move forward, we remain dedicated to refining our policies, ensuring clarity, and maintaining consistency in all we do. We will continue to closely monitor the performance of the COMPASS and HealthFlex plans to ensure their continued success.

It is our profound privilege to serve the West Ohio Conference. With faith, commitment, and gratitude, we look forward to advancing this vital work together.

In God's Service,
David Hoffman, Chairperson
West Ohio Board of Pension and Health Benefits

D. BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Presented by: Julie Hurtig

Greetings, Bishop Jung and members of the West Ohio Annual Conference. The conference trustees have met five times since the May 2024 Annual Conference and are grateful for the conference staff that assist them in their work. The Trustees have addressed matters of property, finances, and legal matters, while appreciating the work of the Conference's affiliated organizations.

Property Matters: The Book of Discipline assigns responsibility of all property matters to the Conference Trustees. Administering conference and district property centrally, including closed churches, has worked well these past five years. As of December 31, 2024, the Conference and districts own and manage 19 properties, including two parsonages, the Conference Center, two district-owned offices, one camp and retreat center, and one closed church now used for missional purposes. Nine closed churches, two parsonages and one camp property were also for sale.

The administration of closed churches has given rise to the Closed Church Fund. That fund was valued at $8.2 million on December 31, 2024, of which $2.8 million was held in cash, $2.62M was in the Light the Way endowment, and the balance represented the estimated value of closed church properties and mortgages. In 2024, the fund incurred $175,000 of property management expenses and $265,000 was awarded as grants to local churches. The Conference pledged up to $1 million from the fund over the next four years to Resurrection Mason, a new church collaboration with Church of the Resurrection in Kansas City.

Trustees fund the Light the Way endowment annually with at least 25% of closed-church proceeds to support new worshipping communities for years into the future. In 2024, the trustees invested $1 million in this endowment. Distributions for funding new faith communities from the endowment in 2024 were $70,000, and in 2025 and 2026, the distributions are budgeted as $125,000 and $140,000 respectively.

After discussion between each conference's Episcopal Residence Committees, the episcopal residence belonging to West Ohio was determined to be the best residence solution for Bishop Jung. The Trustees' Capital Fund supported $50,000 in current and deferred maintenance last summer in preparation of the bishop's arrival. Additionally, the Conference Center received $19,000 in updates.

Camp Property Update: Of the $3.1 million proceeds from the sale of Camp Otterbein, $500,000 remained in cash to support Camp Wesley. The remaining balance was invested in the UM Foundation of West Ohio in the Camps and Emerging Generations Ministry Fund. As of March 2025, Camp Widewater remains for sale and its net proceeds will be invested in the same Foundation account.

Legal Matters: In November 2024, the Trustees updated the policy on establishing churches with historic designations or Historical Landmarks. In early 2025, the Conference prepared materials to assist congregations on the basics of immigration law and what churches can and should do. I personally thank Chris Hogan, our Conference Chancellor. Chris is well connected throughout the denomination, and we are fortunate to have his guidance on the Board. Make sure your congregation representative joins Chris at the next Legal Forum.

Budget Support: The Trustees continue to partner with the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio on the investment of its assets. As the Conference adjusts to fewer apportionment receipts, the Trustees partnered with the our Conference CFO, Bill Brownson, and the Council on Finance and Administration to support the following items in the 2026 budget:

- $30,000 for non-operating Conference Center capital items to extend the life of the building;
- $20,000 to support the episcopal residence, with East Ohio contributing the other half;
- $170,000 from the Church Extension Fund to support churches as they work to be more accessible to their community;
- $95,000 to support the cost of superintendent housing.

Archives: The move to the Methodist Theological School in Ohio (MTSO) last summer went well and the Conference is grateful to Ohio Wesleyan University for their gift of $100,000. Since then, the archives work has focused on reviewing the collections policy such that the collection will continue to fit into the smaller space available at MTSO. Next steps include plans to digitize closed church records and there is a desire to explore ways to bring the history of the churches to congregations.

Affiliated Organizations: The Board of Trustees is the conference body that officially relates to our affiliated organizations. We are grateful to be in ministry with OhioHealth, Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, UMCH Family Services, Otterbein Senior Life, Life Communities and The Wesley Communities.

As Trustees Chair, I am engaged in the process of assessing and discerning an affiliation with the East Ohio Conference as part of the Ohio Episcopal Area Task Team, which would significantly impact the work of the Trustees.

Thank you for your trust and prayers as the Board of Trustees fulfills its responsibilities in support of the church and the ministries of the West Ohio Conference.

I look forward to annual conference, where I will provide a report on these and other matters. In the meantime, please contact me with questions at juliehurtig@gmail.com.

E. COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION

Presented by: David Scott, Chair

The Council on Finance & Administration understands that the local church provides the most significant arena through which disciple making occurs (§201). The purpose of the annual conference is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by equipping its local churches for ministry and by providing a connection for ministry beyond the local church (§601). In pursuit of meeting these dual objectives, I have been visiting local churches in every district since this past summer so that I could listen for and understand the context in which our local churches undertake their ministries. These insights, along with input from all CF&A members and from conference staff, has guided our work since the 2024 Annual Conference.

Gratefully, the pain of disaffiliation continues to retreat and the Conference has responded to the resulting financial realities. The recommendation before this year's Annual Conference calls for $11.7 million to be apportioned in 2026. This is a 3% reduction from the 2025 budget and a 34% reduction from 2023. Considering inflation over this period and our commitment not to shift apportionments to churches that did not disaffiliate, we believe this balances the needs of the local church and the Conference mandate to equip local churches. An explanation of the 2026 budget and the details can be found in the recommendations section.

Receipts in 2024 were 70% of the total amount apportioned. Nevertheless, West Ohio supported the General Church at an 87% level, including paying 100% of Episcopal Fund apportionment, which provides for Bishop Jung's leadership. The 2026 budget again assumes a 75% collection rate, and CF&A will work with conference staff on ways to help more churches fulfill this connectional commitment.

As Chair of CF&A, I look forward to working with other East Ohio and West Ohio leaders on the Ohio Episcopal Area Task Team. The role of this team is to "actively listen, discuss, discern, and make decisions about forming a new, unified Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church." While this process will take time, the 2026 budget already reflects ways the conferences are working together.

In addition to navigating conference financial matters, CF&A has several administrative responsibilities under the Book of Discipline, including personnel. Earlier this year CF&A adopted a Personnel Committee charter and is assembling initial members. The Committee is a governance body that will approve key policies and support CFO, Bill Brownson, and Director of Clergy Benefits and Human Resources, Grace Welch, in fulfilling their responsibilities.

Our work is connected to other boards and teams at the conference as you can see by reading the other reports and recommendations in this Book of Reports. We are grateful to the conference staff for the informed, comprehensive and timely information we need to fulfill our responsibilities.

I look forward to sharing more during my report at Annual Conference. In the meantime, I welcome your questions. You can contact me at davidjscott@juno.com.

F. EPISCOPACY

Presented by: Rev. Wade Giffin

Sisters and brothers in Christ, Bishop and Rev. Jung, and all members of the West Ohio Annual Conference, grace and peace to you.

This has been a year of transition for the Episcopacy Committee in West Ohio. We begin by expressing deep gratitude for our outgoing chair, Valarie Willis, whose faithful and gifted leadership guided our work. As her term concluded at Annual Conference, we celebrate her dedication to the kingdom of God through her service to West Ohio and this committee. Thank you, Valarie!

With the start of a new quadrennium, our committee itself has undergone transition. We give thanks for the faithful members who served in the previous quadrennium and warmly welcome those joining us for this next chapter. As we move forward, we are organizing into subcommittees to structure our work for the years ahead.

And speaking of transitions—what a significant one this has been! The Episcopacy Committee had the honor of both celebrating the retirement of Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer and welcoming Bishop Hee-Soo Jung as our new episcopal leader. Not only did we prepare for this transition, but we did so in partnership with the East Ohio Conference. We are especially grateful for the Rev. Heidi Welch, chair of the East Ohio Episcopacy Committee, whose leadership and collaboration have been invaluable throughout this process.

Together, the West Ohio and East Ohio Episcopacy Committees worked through many logistical details, including determining the Jungs' residence. After careful consideration, the decision was made to utilize the Worthington Episcopal residence, given its central location within the state. Though the residence sits within the West Ohio Conference, it has now transitioned to serve as the official Ohio Episcopal Area residence for now. To prepare for the Jungs' arrival, the committees worked together with a huge list of projects to refresh and ready the home. This included a joint workday at the residence, which provided a meaningful opportunity for both committees to meet, collaborate, and begin forming a shared rhythm of working together.

The decision to sell the East Ohio residence and utilize the Worthington home was made with stewardship and practicality in mind. Given the short timeline for Bishop Jung's arrival and the broader need to discern what best serves the entire Ohio Episcopal Area, the two annual conferences agreed that maintaining the Worthington residence was the most responsible use of resources. This decision allows us to steward our financial and physical assets wisely while also providing stability during this transition. Looking ahead, a task force will be formed in 2026 to assess the long-term needs of the episcopal residence and make a recommendation for 2028.

In the coming year, our committee will continue meeting with Bishop Jung both as the West Ohio Committee and in joint sessions with East Ohio, as we navigate this season of adaptive change together. We move forward in faith, trusting in the One "who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine" (Ephesians 3:20).

G. OFFICE OF FRESH STARTS AND NEW BEGINNINGS

Presented by: Robert Hyland

“Day after day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Messiah.”

-Acts 5:42

The Office of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings exists to encourage, equip and empower leaders, both laity and clergy, in the West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church to make new disciples of Jesus Christ. We also provide leader development opportunities and resources to encourage our laity and clergy to dream forward. We work as part of the appointive cabinet to discern strategic areas to start new faith communities to make new disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. These new faith communities and new expressions of church are supported through recruiting, assessing, training, coaching and funding. We are grateful for what God has accomplished in the past year through our churches and leaders in West Ohio.

Discover FX: Fresh Expressions, FX, are out of the box ways of reaching those who are far from Christ. They are new expressions of church launching out of established churches. In August and September, 4 Discover FX trainings were held across 3 districts to help our clergy and laity dream of sharing the good news in unique ways. Just under 75 clergy and laity participated in our Discover FX trainings which were led by our very own FX practitioners in West Ohio. Church is changing and Fresh Expressions are bringing new life to churches across West Ohio in all of our districts. Many people are hearing the good news in a variety of new ways from Messy Church to Dinner Church to Open Mic Nights to Strings of Faith, a ukelele ministry.

Greenhouse: The Greenhouse is West Ohio’s leader-development training for those who are feeling called to start a new faith community. This training teaches leaders how to start from ground zero in developing an action plan to plant a sustainable, diverse new faith community. They are equipped with skills in the area of prayer, culturally competent leadership, visioning, networking, discipleship, and sustainability in order to develop an action plan. Twenty-one people graduated from our Greenhouse Training this year. Our Greenhouse training is now being used by various conferences across the North Central Jurisdiction. Leaders from the Iowa, Indiana, Illinois Great Rivers, and Kentucky Annual Conferences joined us this year for our training that happened in 5 sessions from August to December.

New Faith Communities: In 2024, two of our new faith communities chartered as new United Methodist Churches in the Great Miami River District. New City in Dayton chartered on April 4 and Hope Collective in Dayton chartered on October 13. Reimagine Church in Newark launched in the Olentangy River District as a merger between 3 different churches. There were also 4 launches of new faith communities – Summit UMC in Lebanon, New Day in Cincinnati, Fellowship for All People in Toledo, and Open Church in Columbus launched in 2024. God is on the move in West Ohio and so many new things are already happening in 2025.

Go Grants: The Fresh Starts Committee partnered with the Disabilities Team, Next Gen, the UMFOW, College Ministries and the Green Church teams to offer more grants to churches for revitalization. “Go Grants” are awarded to encourage laity and clergy to dream of innovative new ideas for new ministries to reach our West Ohio communities. Categories for grant submission were divided into 6 areas: Community Engagement, Green Church, Next Gen Leadership (including college ministries), Building Bridges for building/accessibility enhancements, Greenhouse Grants and Leadership Development. 203 applications were received and 97 churches in the West Ohio Conference were awarded grants for their innovative ideas.

The Go Awards celebrated God’s work through West Ohio churches. This celebration was held at Powell UMC on February 2, 2025, with over 450 people in attendance.

Thank you for your partnership. If you and your church need assistance in dreaming forward, please contact our office to set up a meeting to discuss how West Ohio can support you. Contact Terri McClain or Brad Aycock at trmcclain@wocumc.org.

H. LAY SERVANT MINISTRY

Presented by: Kathy Haynes Moore-CLM, WOC Director of Lay Servant Ministries

Show me the right path, O LORD; point out the road for me to follow. Lead me by your truth and teach me, for you are the God who saves me. All day long I put my hope in you.

-Psalm 25:4-5 NLT

To the Bishop and members of the Annual Conference. We greet you in the name of our living Savior, Jesus Christ.

Lay Servant Ministry has provided a variety of classes to enhance the lives of those attending and provide them with tools and information to advance the mission and ministry of the church.

Through our mission of leading, caring and communicating, the district directors and teams have worked together to make these classes possible.

In addition, within the North Central Jurisdiction, we are working in conjunction with other conferences to provide these educational opportunities to a larger group of laity by making classes available to all interested persons across conference boundaries.

We continue to offer training in unique ways. Traditional Friday evening and Saturday training is now offered in many combinations of days and hours to make classes accessible for non-traditional students, including those who have work schedules or childcare needs that would prevent them from being able to attend.

Our largest gathering was a 5-day hybrid course of our Basic Class – The Fellowship of all Believers with 17 in attendance. This was followed by another 5-day Zoom course, Lay Pastoral Care Giving with 15 in attendance. Our overall class attendance increased by 44%. The following classes were offered:

- Leading Worship
- Living our United Methodist Beliefs
- Embracing Personal Prayer
- Spiritual Gifts
- Leading Public Prayer

I believe this combination of class offerings and the persons taking them is another sign of the desire of laity in the West Ohio Conference to do the work of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

A “big thanks” to the district committees and district directors that make the effort to put the schedules together and locate qualified instructors.

There are many more classes that can be offered if qualified and enthusiastic instructors are located or volunteer to come forward.

I. TRANSFORMATIVE DISCIPLESHIP

Presented by: Rev. Corey D. Perry, Chair

Bishop and Rev. Jung, members of Cabinet, and members of the conference, on behalf of the members of the Transformative Discipleship team and staff of Connectional Ministries whom we support, I greet you in the name of our Risen Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. It is my privilege to share with all of you the powerful work that Christ has done through the areas within Connectional Ministries in this past year.

In alignment to the conference's strategic focus to develop an approach to engage with young people, two goals were identified: 1) to equip, support, and empower local churches to create a culture which engages in intergenerational discipleship and leadership and 2) to launch a sustainable and diversified outdoor ministry.

In service to the first goal, the Leadership Development Team has collaborated with the Emerging Generations Team to create a Framework for Leadership that is designed to address three key elements of leadership within the conference, focused primarily on lay leaders. This framework consists of elements directed toward leadership of self, leadership of others, and leadership of communities. The goal of this framework is to position our congregations to undertake the necessary work that will foster a culture that equips the congregations to develop robust intergenerational engagement and, especially, reach younger generations.

Further, in service to the first goal, the Emerging Generations Team has launched Family Ministry Networks in several districts, with goals to have all six districts engaged. The purpose of these networks is to foster collaboration between the congregations engaged in intergenerational ministry so that they can learn from – and support – one another in this vital work.

The second goal has seen significant work, with a team being formed that has begun reimagining the ministry and needs of Camp Wesley. Work also began with identifying the needs and priorities of work that will be required to relaunch residential camping ministries at Camp Wesley in 2026. This work is being supported by the proceeds from the sale of Camp Otterbein, which are being held in an account by the Board of Trustees for the purpose of relaunching and revitalizing Camp Wesley. Camp Widewater remains on the market and a suitable buyer is still being sought, at this time.

Leveraging our relationship with OhioHealth and subject matter experts in sustainability within that system, work has commenced to make our 2025 Annual Conference a Zero Waste event, in keeping with the bishop's "green church initiative." Those experts within OhioHealth are also working with the Urban Farm Church to explore initiatives around solar power and waste digesters for use on that site. We hope that the lessons learned from those initiatives can be lateralized to other congregations within the conference.

On January 2, 2025, we welcomed Will Fenton-Jones as the Director of Multicultural Ministries. Will is the first shared staff person between East Ohio and West Ohio, where he has been in that role for several years. He has brought a strong sense of dedication to this work with West Ohio and has already begun fostering relationships in his short time in the role, as well as proven himself to be an asset with his colleagues in Connectional Ministries.

We ask for continued prayer for these ministries, and many others, that are taking place in and through these teams and areas that they may be strengthened and encouraged as they continue this vital work in increasingly challenging times.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. Corey D. Perry,
Chair, Transformative Discipleship

J. UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF WEST OHIO

Presented by: J. Eric Rice

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! I am excited and honored to report that 2024 was another dynamic year for the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio (UMFWO)

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, they are a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!”

New Beginnings

Across the West Ohio Conference, 2024 was a year for optimism, as we celebrated new beginnings. We welcomed Bishop Jung and began to live into the future God has for the UMC, following the 2024 General Conference. Celebrating its fourth anniversary, the Foundation embraced its future, with the completion of its second strategic plan, which the Board of Trustees believes will prepare the ministry for even greater impact in coming years.

Through a diligent and sometimes demanding six-month planning process, we learned more about what you and your local church need from your foundation. We recognized how new internal and external partnerships could enable the Foundation to expand its reach. Over the next three years (2024-2027), the board expects our new strategic plan will lead to:

- More churches improving their understanding of stewardship and best practices for asset management, while learning how to effectively incorporate both disciplines into their operations and witness; and
- More financial resources being available to the Foundation, allowing it to expand its mission and ministry, as it seeks to provide even greater support for missional outreach across West Ohio.

Working Together Across the Conference

Executive Director Susan Black and Program Manager Maddy DeWitt maintained a demanding schedule, meeting with churches throughout West Ohio in 2024, attending and sponsoring events, including educational sessions, and participating in Annual Conference. In addition many church leaders called the UMFWO with questions about improving stewardship, introducing legacy giving, and helping their donors achieve their philanthropic objectives.

While they listened intently to church leaders, both lay and clergy, our staff spread the word about the “triple impact” churches can have by investing through the UMFWO because of the Foundation’s relationship with Wespath Institutional Investments. Thanks to these efforts and positive market forces, the Foundation’s assets rose to $131M by the end of 2024.

Impacting the Church Locally and Globally

2024 will also be remembered as a time when millions were impacted by devastating hurricanes, floods, fires and war, in addition to the marginalization of vulnerable people. These terrible atrocities left most of us feeling overwhelmed and helpless. The Foundation offered hope by providing meaningful giving opportunities to compassionate people, committed to being the hands and feet of Jesus. In 2024, UMFWO managed the transfer of over $260,000 in gifts to local churches and over $66,000 of your gifts to United Methodist missions and ministries, offering hope to a hurting world.

Looking Forward

It has been my honor and privilege to serve as your Foundation Board Chair. As the Foundation now prepares to welcome a new, uniquely qualified and committed leadership team in July of 2025, I look back with a strong sense of gratitude; and look forward with incredible optimism for the impact the Foundation will have on churches, missions and ministries throughout West Ohio, in coming years. Our witness can and will be greater because of the UMFWO.

Whether your church is seeking to increase engagement, improve stewardship, secure its future through investing or legacy giving, or needs assistance with technical issues related to giving, the UMFWO is here to help. The Foundation exists to serve you and your church. The Foundation’s exceptionally talented staff and the dedicated members of the Board of Trustees look forward to connecting with you very soon.

Thank you for the opportunity to be of service.

Sincerely,
 J. Eric Rice, CFP®, ChFC®

K. 2025 ZERO EMISSIONS

Presented by: Rev. Ryan Grace Chair

The Zero Emissions Task Force was created in 2023 to help guide West Ohio towards Net Zero carbon emissions by 2050.

Over the last two years, the Task Force has begun to assess the properties currently owned by the West Ohio Conference to see how they might reduce emissions. This work is inhibited by the buildings having been designed to utilize fossil fuels rather than renewable energy, which means they will need to be retrofitted in some way. Thus, this work is ongoing and will likely take a number of years to complete.

This year, the Task Force endorsed legislation from the West Ohio Creation Care Task Force calling on all local churches in the conference to give consideration to energy efficiency and renewable energy when building new structures, as well as to encourage sustainability audits and energy efficiency upgrades for existing properties.

Also this year, we began to coordinate our efforts with West Ohio's Just Mission Team and Creation Care Task Force, both of which are working towards environmental sustainability. We believe we will accomplish more by working together than we would without coordinating our efforts.

For the coming year, the Task Force's goals are to 1) Meet with representatives of the conference Trustees and Council on Finance and Administration, 2) Explore carbon emission reduction legislation for Annual Conference 2026, and 3) Arrange for churches and other United Methodist property stewards who are interested in solar power to get low-to-no-cost consultations.

Rev. Ryan Grace
Chair, Zero Emissions Task Force

The cabinet shall annually determine the effective date of appointment changes and the moving date for pastors.

When a pastor receives a new appointment, the cabinet shall determine the date for compensation changes including salaries, pension, and hospitalization.

3. COMMITTEE ON STAFF/PASTOR-PARISH RELATIONS AND NEWLY APPOINTED PASTORS

We strongly recommend that the Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations and newly appointed pastors meet monthly for the first six months and at least quarterly thereafter for the purpose of developing a supportive relationship.

4. VACATION

a. Vacation Policy

Time for vacation, continuing education, Sabbath and formational renewal are extremely important to every person involved in professional ministry. There must be times of recreation, study and recentering in each clergy’s life. The West Ohio Conference adopts these guidelines for clergy and churches as a way of encouraging clergy to live a balanced life in ministry.

The guidelines that are listed below are the minimum of all clergy under appointment to local congregations. A charge and the appointed clergy in consultation with the District Superintendent may negotiate mutually agreeable changes to fit unusual circumstances in line with the spirit of this section.

Details and agreements regarding vacation, sick time, continuing education, days off, formational and spiritual growth leave, and connectional responsibilities should be established at the time of the appointment and reviewed annually as part of the annual pastor evaluation with the charge’s Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations (SPRC).

All clergy shall have at least, but not limited to, the equivalent of four weeks (based on estimated weekly workdays), plus two days. These days may be taken individually. This shall include a maximum of four Sundays. The following table shows minimum paid vacation days by nature of appointment.

MINIMUM VACATION STANDARDS

Appointment Level	Estimated Weekly Workdays	Total Vacation Days including 4 Sundays
Full Time Appointment	6	26 (6 x 4 = 24) + 2
¾ Time	4.5	20 (4.5 x 4 = 18) + 2
½ Time	3	14 (3 x 4 = 12) + 2
¼ Time	1.5	8 (1.5 x 4 = 6) + 2

Clergy do not need to take a vacation day for regularly scheduled weekly day(s) off

Vacation shall be granted on the annual conference year (July 1 through June 30). In order to establish proper healthy boundaries, pastors and other clergy persons under appointment are expected and encouraged to take all vacation days annually. Vacation is not cumulative and cannot be carried over to the succeeding year. It is expected that the pastor will make arrangements in advance with the SPRC and consult with them in obtaining vacation supply coverage. Vacation leave for appointment beyond the local church (deacons) or extension ministry (elders and local pastors) is determined by that employer.

b. Continuing Education and Spiritual Growth

In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.2, clergy members continuing education and spiritual growth program shall include professional formation leaves at least one week each year and may include at least one month during one year of every quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered vacation time and should be coordinated through your SPRC committee. More extended time for renewal leave is a healthy part of the rhythms of vocational ministry. In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.3, clergy members who have held full-time appointment for at least six years may request a formational and spiritual growth leave of up to six months while continuing to hold an appointment in the local church.

c. Sabbath and Weekly Day Off

It is important for clergy to have regular time away each week. Clergy members are strongly encouraged to establish a schedule that includes at least one day of Sabbath and one day away from ministerial responsibilities each week. Experiencing and modeling the rhythm of weekly Sabbath rest is vital to the work of vocational ministry. This day is included as a part of the six-day workweek for full time appointment in the chart above. Such days should be communicated so that congregation and staff will know when such days are to occur, so as to allow a time of refreshment. These are not vacation days.

d. Connectional and Community Responsibilities

All clergy are expected to attend all sessions of the Annual Conference. In addition, clergy may have other connectional responsibilities. Time spent on these responsibilities shall not be counted as vacation or as continuing education. Clergy will inform the SPRC of time needed for these responsibilities.

Clergy are also often involved in various community groups. Such involvement provides an opportunity to build a bridge between the community and the church. These involvements shall not be considered vacation or continuing education. Clergy are encouraged to use good judgement in determining the commitment accepted beyond the primary appointment. Consultation with the SPRC should take place before accepting such responsibilities.

15. MOTIONS AFTER SPEAKING ON A PENDING QUESTION

No member who has spoken on a pending question shall at the close of that person's speech have the right to call for the previous question or move to lay the motion on the table.

16. WHO MAY VOTE

Every member who is within the bar of the conference at the time the question is put has the right to vote. A member who is not within the bar of the conference at the time the question is put by the chair shall not be permitted to vote except such member is necessarily absent in the work of the conference.

17. PREVIOUS QUESTION

When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending) the member shall indicate to what it is intended to apply if any secondary motion or motions are pending. If the member does not so indicate, the chair may regard it as applying only to the immediate pending question. This vote shall be taken without debate and, if in the judgment of the chair, two-thirds of those present vote for its adoption, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies.

18. INTERRUPTING THE SPEAKER

No member who has the floor shall be interrupted except for a breach of order, or a misrepresentation, or to direct the attention of the conference that the time has arrived for a special order of the day, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.

19. RECONSIDERATION OF A QUESTION

A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order any time if offered by a member who voted on the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is nondebatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

20. SUSPENSION OF RULES

The application of any of the provisions of these Rules of Order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the conference.

21. ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER, SUPPLEMENTARY AUTHORITY

In any parliamentary situation not covered in these Rules of Order, the conference shall be governed in its action by the appropriate provisions of Roberts Rules of Order.

22. BISHOP'S RIGHT TO SPEAK ON ISSUES

The bishop is not, and by The Book of Discipline cannot be, a member of the body with whose presidency the bishop is charged. As head of the area, the bishop is vitally concerned with the decisions of this body. Therefore, the bishop shall have the right to speak on issues before this conference, providing the chair is surrendered to a person of the bishop's choosing at such time the bishop feels the conference should be apprised on matters pertaining to the issue before the house.

2026 Budget Narrative for Recommendation #2

Executive Summary

CF&A understands "the local church provides the most significant arena through which disciple-making occurs" (¶201). The cost of equipping local churches (apportioned connectional giving) must be balanced by the resources local churches retain for their ministries.

The 2026 budget builds on transformational changes in 2024 and 2025 that were implemented in response to disaffiliations and continuing impacts from COVID. To these recent matters, the 2026 budget incorporates some resource sharing with East Ohio and priorities of Bishop Jung.

- CFA recommends $11.7 million be apportioned, a reduction of 3% from 2025 and a 38% reduction over the past 10 years
- Apportionments fund 64% of budgeted conference and district expenses. Other sources, mostly fund balances, provide $3.6 million (36%)
- Lay and clergy leadership development and emerging generations ministries are continuing priorities
- Grant levels are generally maintained or increased.
- 100% support of general church apportionments budgeted
- The budget is balanced.

Looking ahead to 2027 and 2028, we can expect additional resource sharing with East Ohio. It is unclear if that means greater capacity to equip local churches only or if it means it will be done with fewer financial resources as well.

2026 Budget Highlights:

These are the distributions from funds that will support the 2026 budget. It is the most comprehensive review and use of fund balances to date for operating and missional purposes. While significant in total, the percentage of fund balances budgeted is within reasonable distribution limits for invested assets and the purpose of each fund.

- In support of Conference Administration:
 - $369,000 from interest on bank balances and from invested excess reserves (reduces apportionment reliance for Financial Administration)
 - $133,000 from the United Methodist Foundation in overhead support, primarily for back office financial administration of their $130 million of investments and other financial activity
 - $63,000 in overhead support from the Board of Pensions
- In support of new faith communities and fresh expressions:
 - $27,500 from Urban Ministries Fund
 - $140,000 from the Light the Way endowment funded with proceeds from closed churches
 - $300,000 from cash in the closed church fund
- In support of clergy leadership development:
 - $10,000 from the clergy leadership fund for seminary recruitment visits
 - $145,000 from the Ministerial Education Fund
- In support of Connectional Ministries:
 - For support of camping ministries:
 - $75,000 from the Trustees' Camps & Emerging Generations Fund for Camp Wesley property maintenance
 - $40,000 in scholarships from the Sewell Fund
 - For support of disaster relief, $12,000 from the Disaster Relief Fund
 - $14,000 from Peace with Justice offerings for Freedom Schools
 - $170,000 for building bridges grants (disabilities ministry) from the Trustees' Church Extension Fund
- In support of the Appointive Cabinet:
 - $325,000 from the Board of Pensions & Health Benefits to support benefits so certain appointments can work
 - $96,000 from the Trustees Parsonage Fund to support a portion of district superintendent housing expenses
- From the Trustees Capital Fund, $60,000 supports the Episcopal Residence, maintenance of major mechanicals at the Conference Center and for Archives' Methodist Theological School in Ohio location.

Staffing levels have contracted since 2015

Just like in the local church, being attentive to staffing is key to making sure there are resources to be fully in ministry. As of July 2025, there will be 38 conference and district full time equivalent (FTE) employees who are supported by apportioned connectional giving. This is a 48% reduction since 2015 when there were 71.5 conference and district FTE supported by apportionments. These figures include camp directors and exclude all other camp employees. By 2025, the employees of the Foundation (formerly Council on Development) and the Board of Pension are not supported by apportionments. They are supported by operating and/or investment income.

Financial administration historically in district offices is now centrally administered, leading to fewer district employees. As of July 1, one Regional Missional Specialist remains an employee. Others are being appointed to local churches. In 2015, most of the then eight districts included a full- or part-time clergy assistant to the DS.

There is one key staff addition and that is a superintendent. Effective July 1 and in the 2026 budget, there are six superintendents for six districts.

A note about Camp Wesley

In keeping with the October 2023 annual conference action, Camp Otterbein has been sold and Camp Widewater remains for sale. The proceeds of the sale of the two camps is set aside for camping and retreat and emerging generations ministries. A cross-disciplinary interim committee is tending to capital investments at Camp Wesley so that it's ready for residential camping in 2026. At the time of this submission, expected investments in Camp Wesley are between $3.0 and $3.5 million, which would leave an endowment of $2.0 million to support the ministry into the future. A capital campaign would still be needed to maximize the use of Camp Wesley.

This budget does not include the capital spending on Camp Wesley. It does include anticipated operating and nonoperating expenses including depreciation.

Risks and Unknowns

There are risks and unknowns in the 2026 budget:

- Interest rates on bank deposits that have been high in the past few years may fall more than expected. The budget assumes $88,000 of bank account interest.
- Two consecutive years of strong investment returns supports distributions from invested funds. Two years of poor investment returns would result in smaller future distributions from invested funds.
- The assumed apportionment collection rate is 75%. The collection rates in 2023 and 2024 were 71% and 70%, respectively. While efforts are underway to improve the collection rate in 2025 and 2026, each percent below 75 represents $117,000 fewer receipts.
- Program resourcing is increasingly shared between East and West Ohio. How much more will be shared and its financial impact in 2026 is unknown. An official affiliation between the two conferences might bring some efficiencies, but not until 2027 or 2028.

Even with these risks and unknowns, the Conference balance sheet is strong, well managed and protects the long-term interests and mission of the conference.

Budget Information by Area

General Church Support

The amount needed to fully participate in support of the General Church is $2,511,000 in 2026, almost identical to the 2025 amount. This is significantly less than in the prior quadrennium due to the denominational budget adopted by General Conference in 2024.

Financial support for the funds and agencies of the General Church:

- Funds all episcopal leadership, including Bishop Jung;
- Supports education around the world, including for United Methodist seminary education, clergy continuing education (Ministerial Education Fund), grants to historically Black colleges and universities (Black College Fund), and Africa University;
- Extends the church through missionaries, disaster response, and local ministries around the world (Global Ministries, including UMCOR) such as for the 2025 fires in California and impacts of hurricanes in the southeast US.
- Extends United Methodist voice and values to contemporary matters relating to public policy, race and gender (Church and Society, General Commission on Religion and Race and the Commission on the Status and Role of Women);
- Provides administration, marketing and communication support of the above-named ministries.

Conference Ministries in 2025 by Area

Connectional Ministries

Connectional Ministries, under the leadership of Rev. Karen Cook, equips local churches for ministry in their context, beyond their context and throughout the connection. Apportionment support of $1,293,000 is allocated for this work in 2026. Salaries and benefits for all Connectional Ministries areas are reflected in Connectional Ministries administration. Other program expenses are reflected in each area.

The strategic plan and this budget prioritize leadership development — both lay and clergy — and with emerging generations. Building on changes in the 2025 budget, apportionment support for Emerging Generations Ministries increases by $41,000 (13%). Youth and young adults will have opportunities to meet, learn and worship within their districts, at the conference level through confirmation and other events, and at the denominational level. Funding assumes operating four weeks of residential camping at Wesley. Expenses associated with Camp Wesley renovations and construction will be paid with existing assets and proceeds from the sale of other camps. Neither the revenue from camp sales nor expected capital expenses are budgeted.

Connectional Ministries in East and West Ohio will increasingly be sharing staff resources to equip the local church. If known, the impact of shared resources has been budgeted. To cover unknowns, the Connectional Ministries general administration budget has been increased to $100,000 from $50,000.

Other resourcing includes lay leadership development, equipping churches and communities to welcome citizens returning from incarceration, cultivating our global partnerships in North Katanga, Democratic Republic of the Congo and Mexico along with other Volunteer in Mission (VIM) relationships, and safe sanctuaries. Preparing congregations to be welcoming and incarnational in their local context is part of all of the work of Connectional Ministries.

Fresh Starts and New Beginnings

Led by Brad Aycock, Fresh Starts and New Beginnings is laser-focused on launching healthy and well led worshipping communities and helping existing worshipping communities break out from trends that constrain their mission. Scripturally, the work of this area helps us fulfill the Great Commission. In addition to providing training and education for clergy and lay leaders called to this work, this area is budgeted to facilitate $500,000 in grants to local churches in 2026 awarded by the Fresh Starts and New Beginnings Committee. Thanks to $467,000 in support from closed church funds, both endowed and cash sale proceeds, reliance on apportionment support is $90,000 (22%) less than in the 2025.

This is another area that is slated to support the East Ohio Conference. How doing so will affect the budget is presently unknown.

Office of Ministry – Clergy Education and Credentialing

The conference strategic plan prioritizes the development of ministry leaders, which makes the Office of Ministry, led by Rev. Donnetta Peaks, critically important. The Office of Ministry touches nearly every facet of clergy relationships with the Annual Conference. Starting with facilitating discernment through the internship program, continuing with the Candidacy Summit where discernment becomes focused on set-aside ministry, and then to commissioning and ordination. Whether for local pastors or clergy pursuing a lifetime conference membership, this office provides needed education and credentialing, not just at the outset of ministry but at critical junctures throughout. Whether by keeping clergy grounded in the sanctity of their work through boundary training or providing mid-career check-ins through an every- eight-year assessment process or offering exposure to learning opportunities for clergy to lead in increasingly diverse and complex contexts, this office is a key resource for clergy, right up to and including retirement. Throughout a clergy career, grants are available for continuing clergy education as well.

Annual Conferences keep 25% of apportionment receipts for the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF). The reduction in the general church budget due to disaffiliations and the calculated rate will reduce retained MEF resources to $98,000 from $137,000 received in 2024. While the long-term priority is to deepen the bench of clergy leadership, in the short-term there are fewer candidates which leads to lower training and Board of Ordained Ministries expenses. In 2026, apportionments will support $288,000 of this office's expected expenses. $170,000 will come from MEF and tuition.

Similar to Connectional Ministries and Fresh Starts & New Beginnings, it is anticipated that Donnetta Peaks will resource the East Ohio Conference in addition to the training that's been provided for the past several years. The 2026 budget impact of extending this resource to East Ohio is unknown.

Communications

Led by Kay Panovec, the Communications department is behind much of what you see, read, and hear. Whether it is Annual Conference, videos, the electronic newsletter T.R.E.E.S., digital magazine, SPARK, social media, website or print media, Communications produces it. They also provide consultation for local churches who need help navigating local media or sensitive congregational messaging. Our bishop and all other conference and district staff rely on Kay and her team to help project key messaging to the right audiences in the right way. The Communications budget of $370,000 is fully supported by apportionments and is nearly the same as the 2025 and in line with actual 2023 and 2024 expenses.

Episcopal Leadership

Bishop Jung's priorities begin to inform the 2026 budget for areas under Episcopal Leadership, which include the Leadership Team (cabinet), Equitable Compensation, the Episcopal Office and the Annual Conference session. Significantly, he has appointed a sixth superintendent, one more than the five who were serving six districts on his arrival. This decision led to the reallocation of responsibilities of the three Regional Missional Specialists who are being appointed to local churches.

The Leadership Team budget, which includes costs associated with Superintendents – all of which are supported by conference apportionments --and cabinet meetings will increase by 26% due mostly to the sixth superintendent. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits will continue its innovative partnership with the appointive cabinet by providing $325,000 in grants to support local churches appointments strained by benefit expenses, an increase of $50,000 over the 2025 budget. Until 2024, each district used its resources for similar purposes, which created inequity across districts, required more district apportionments and use of existing fund balances.

The Equitable Compensation budget provides grants to local churches to ensure clergy who are full members of the annual conference receive a minimum salary as set by annual conference action. The 2026 budget is $250,000, 7% lower than 2025, which reflects a combination of attentiveness to reducing this budget over time, resolving appointment dislocations caused by disaffiliating churches and the increase in grant support from the Board of Pensions.

Bishop Jung's priorities and being one of two conferences in the Ohio Episcopal Area means some things are little changed in the Episcopal Office budget from prior years and in other areas there are significant changes. There are three shifts to note:

- The Episcopal Fund (one of the General Church funds) provides support to the area (not each conference) for the bishop's office and parsonage. Instead of receiving $82,000 from the funds for the Episcopal office, we will receive $41,000 in 2026.
- An increase of $105,000 to $141,000 in Episcopal Office Program Expense provides resources for expenses related to navigating immigration matters for clergy appointments and a budget to retain non-staff resources for some of the work previously provided by the regional missional specialists.
- Operating costs associated with the episcopal residence will be shared with East Ohio. All other expenses related to the episcopal residence will be paid from the Trustees' Capital Fund. Taken together, fewer apportionments are needed to provide for the bishop's housing.

While some of Bishop Jung's priorities are reflected in the 2026 Episcopal Office budget, more changes can be expected as East Ohio and West Ohio work more closely together sharing personnel and resources.

Annual Conference is central to our governance and functioning. Months of planning provide for a multi-day event that convenes almost 1,000 United Methodists for business, learning, worship, and celebrations. $300,000 is budgeted for the 2026 Annual Conference with an expectation of some sponsorship revenue to reduce apportionments required. Nothing is budgeted for Jurisdictional or General Church delegations in 2026.

Finance and Administration

Bill Brownson is CFO and Director of Administration and is accountable for the Finance and Administration budget. This includes accounting and reporting for the conference, districts, Board of Pension, and the Foundation (nine corporations in all), information technology and cybersecurity, data, all property management (including closed churches) and facilities administration (including insurance). These services support all conference and district departments.

The 2026 budget includes $369,000 of interest and investment income, $51,000 less than the 2025 budget. The amount reflects expected interest rates on deposits, albeit lower than is projected for 2025. $236,000 of support is provided by the Trustees for major maintenance and the Foundation and the Board of Pensions for services provided by the conference (overhead). While neither the Foundation nor the Board of Pensions relies on apportionments for direct support, the Conference provides space, accounting, IT and other support.

This area relies on $1,025,000 of apportionment support, an increase of 4% over the 2025 budget, driven largely by a reduction in interest income.

Other Non-operating Income and Expenses Considerations

Over the course of a fiscal year, income is received, and expenses are incurred that are unrelated to programming or core operations. In the case of investments, balances increase and decrease over the course of the year. Because it is not predictable, it is not budgeted. It is, however, reported and distributions from invested funds are budgeted.

While churches close every year, how many close and what financial resources will come from them is unpredictable. Net proceeds from closed churches are added to the Closed Church Fund. The Closed Church Fund has become the key contributor to funding new churches and supporting revitalization efforts. The Trustees govern these resources, and the Extended Cabinet applies them.

Finally, depreciation, a non-cash expense, is projected to be $215,000 between Camp Wesley and other conference-owned assets. Depreciation is a way to spread the costs of major items over the life of the asset. It is a cash disbursement up front, but the cost (depreciation) is accounted for over time. Budgeting for depreciation is conservative and the 2026 budget balances, including depreciation.

District Ministries

The six districts share apportionment receipts equally after paying all district staff. Apportionments provide full support for staff and for office, occupancy, and program expenses (superintendents are funded in the Conference budget). Various district funds provide resources for mission grants to local churches and assist with making appointments affordable to local churches. Because the BOP has stepped in to provide resources directly to the appointive cabinet for clergy support grants, districts will rely on fewer apportionments or reserves to cover these expenses in 2026.

$1,000,000 of apportionments allocated to districts is expected to produce $750,000 of support. This is a 37% reduction compared to 2025. The reduction is mostly attributable to lower salaries and benefits from not replacing Regional Missional Specialist appointed to local churches. $1,038,000 of expenses will be mostly supported by fund balances, a 16% reduction from the 2025 budget.

Respectfully submitted,
Bill Brownson

Recommendation #3

Board of Pensions and Health Benefits

Adopted

1. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church gives authority to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) to establish and maintain retirement, pension, health and wellness programs for the benefit of Ordained ministers and their families, and lay employees (§1501). The Discipline explicitly prohibits local churches from denying retirement benefit payments for any eligible pastor appointed to their charge. These payments are part of the obligation associated with receiving a pastor's appointment.

As of January 1, 2024, the active health and wellness plan, HealthFlex, is fully insured and also administered by Wespath. Participation in HealthFlex is mandatory for all full-time local pastors and threequarters and fully appointed Elders, Provisional Members, Deacons, Associated Members, unless they meet specific requirements to decline coverage, as administered by the HealthFlex plan.

2. With the approval of COMPASS, a Defined Contribution plan, and 403(b) at the 2025 General Conference, the new plan will replace the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), converting it into a "frozen" plan, effective January 1, 2026.

At that point, clergy will no longer accrue additional service under CRSP. The maximum period of service under CRSP will be 19 years (CRSP will have been in effect 19 years: from January 2007 through December 2025). As of December 31, 2025, there will be no further service earned under CRSP.

3. Licensed local pastors, full elders, provisional elders, and deacons appointed to a local church for 75% or more of their time may choose to waive participation in the COMPASS pension program. To do so, the pastor must complete, notarize, and submit the 'Waiver of Participation' form, which is provided by the Conference Benefits Office.
4. The COMPASS Plan compensation contribution package includes the following components:
 - a. $150.00 cash payment per month,
 - b. 3% of the clergy's pensionable salary defined as:
 - i. base pay plus the cash housing allowance, OR
 - ii. base pay plus parsonage equivalent equal to 35% of the clergy's base pay,

- c. A 1-to-1 employer/church match on the clergy's contribution up to 4% of the pensionable salary.

Automatic Enrollment

Eligible clergy will be automatically enrolled into COMPASS to contribute 4%, unless they designate otherwise.

Automatic Escalation

Eligible clergy contributions will automatically increase by 1% annually until a maximum contribution of 10% is reached, unless they opt out of auto-escalation or choose to contribute a flat dollar amount. Additionally, clergy may contribute more than the 10% cap, up to the maximum 403 (b) limit set by the IRS.

5. Funding for COMPASS and CPP will be billed to the church or employer by the Conference at a flat rate to cover the cost of the plan. Additionally, the Conference will invoice the church for the clergy's personal contributions, which will be collected through the church's payroll deduction.
6. For the purposes of calculating distributions from the Defined Benefit (DB) portion of the legacy CRSP plan, the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) for 2026 is set at $81,603.00. Starting January 1, 2026, the DAC will increase 2% annually.
7. The base annuity rate for 2026 on Pre-82 pensions will increase from $670 to $685. The yearly PSR may not be decreased.
8. Annuity rates for surviving spouses shall be 70% of the base rate on Pre-82 pension.
9. Clergy members and local pastors who are not eligible to participate in the COMPASS plan, may participate and contribute to UMPIP subject to their church's adoption agreement with Wespath. Participants are encouraged to contribute at least 4% of their plan compensation to UMPIP and annually increase their contribution by 1% until a suggested contribution of 10% is reached. Participants may contribute more than the 10% max, if desired. Personal contributions will be billed to the local church by Wespath and deducted from payroll by the local church.
10. Effective January 1, 2026, all eligible Conference and District staff employees must contribute 4% to The UMPIP 403 (b) plan in order to qualify for the conference-sponsored match. Additionally, each staff member's contributions will automatically increase by 1% annually until a maximum contribution of 10% is reached, unless they opt out of auto-escalation or choose to contribute a flat dollar amount. Participants may contribute more than the 10% cap, up to the maximum 403 (b) limit set by the IRS. Personal contributions will be billed to the Conference by Wespath and deducted from payroll by the Conference.
11. Medical Leave and Death Benefits: Eligible clergy also have CPP as part of the benefit package. CPP provides disability income, death, and other supplemental benefits. Additionally, eligible clergy in disability status and who are 65 and over, may enroll in the retiree secondary Medicare program. Complete policy information can be found on the Wespath website at www.wespath.org. Clergy whose health condition may indicate a need for medical leave should contact their District Superintendent.
12. A death benefit of $50,000 is part of CPP for active clergy. An additional death benefit of $50,000 is provided by the Conference for eligible active appointments. The cost is included in the Clergy Benefit billing for full-time or three-quarter time appointments of Full, Provisional or Associate Members and fulltime licensed local clergy persons.

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the West Ohio Conference

The 2025 West Ohio Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions and advance designations relating to 2026 rental/housing allowances and receipts for retired or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

Whereas the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergy”), and

Whereas the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergy with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation, and

Whereas pensions or other amounts paid to retired and disabled Clergy are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to retired and disabled Clergy in consideration of previous active service, and

Whereas the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for retired and disabled Clergy who are or were members of this Conference;

Therefore, be it resolved that an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) during the year 2026 by each retired or disabled Clergy who is or was a member of the Conference or its predecessors, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergy; and Therefore, be it resolved that pension or disability payments to which rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans and/or annuities from funds authorized under the Discipline. This may include payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline. Those payments may result from any service a Clergy rendered to this Conference or that a retired or disabled Clergy of this Conference rendered to:

- any local church
- Annual Conference of the Church
- general agency of the Church
- other institution of the Church
- former denomination that is now a part of the Church
- any other employer that employed the Clergy to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such retired or disabled Clergy’s pension or disability as part of their gross compensation.

Note:

The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy’s gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

Equitable Compensation

Adopted

“The mission of the Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.”

Vital and healthy ministry takes place when clergy and congregations actively support the vision and mission of reaching and making new disciples of Jesus Christ for the purpose of transforming the world. When we work collaboratively, we are better positioned to support spiritual journeys in a variety of missional contexts.

We understand clergy to include elders and deacons in full connection, commissioned elders and deacons, associate members, and licensed local pastors. Each clergy member plays a vital role within the life and ministry of the Church. Each congregation’s unique context may call for a different type of clergy leadership.

Elders provide spiritual leadership through nurturing others in their relationship to God and lead the church through the ministry of Word, Sacrament, and Service while ordering the life of the church.

Deacons provide spiritual leadership through nurturing others in their relationship with God and act as bridges for the congregation to respond to those marginalized through Compassion, Service and Justice.

Associate Members and Licensed local pastors provide spiritual leadership through nurturing others in their relationship with God and lead the life of the local church.

Licensed local pastors can provide leadership within a local area while elders and deacons are able to itinerate to areas of need across the connection. Elders, deacons, and licensed local pastors may work together within a local church or be appointed individually based on the needs of each congregation.

Provisional elders and deacons, as well as ordained elders and deacons should be compensated equally (salary, pension, health insurance, housing, accountable reimbursement) if appointed full-time to a local congregation. See the Five Elements of Compensation for Full-Time Clergy table below.

Regardless of appointed role within a local church, the salaries outlined in this recommendation should be considered for all appointed clergy serving full-time within the local church. Those serving less than full time should be calculated in quarterly increments based on the full time number listed.

The Five Elements of Compensation for Full-Time Clergy

Ordained Elder/Deacon • Provisional Elder/Deacon • Associate Member Licensed Local Pastor (Course of Study) • Licensed Local Pastor
Compensation Elements	Salary	Pension	Health Insurance	Housing Allowance/ Parsonage	Accountable Reimbursement
Definition/ Explanation	Cash Salary paid by Local Church (Employer)	Contributions made toward Pension Plan (CRSP and UMPIP) by Local Church (Employer)	Participating in the conference plan with the Local Church paying a portion and clergy paying a portion	Compensation provided in lieu of parsonage.	Agreement to reimburse clergy for business expenses according to the approved and signed ARP Form

The Commission on Equitable Compensation, outlined in the 2024 Book of Discipline (§ 624), is a way to employ financial resources as a means of support for congregational revitalization. The goal is to come alongside churches and clergy as a transition resource to assist congregations in the movement toward greater vitality and health.

Guidelines and Established Minimum Salaries

The Commission presents the following guidelines and minimum salaries for the calendar year 2026 with consideration of the General Board of Pensions Denomination Average Compensation (D.A.C.) of $81,603 (which includes salary plus 25% for housing where the clergy lives in a parsonage, or the housing allowance where such is provided). Other factors considered are inflation rate, CPI, rates of similar conferences (i.e. East Ohio) as well as other data available. Minimum salaries reflect a 3% increase over last year.

A. Minimum Salary

Established Minimum Salaries 2026
Elder/Deacon Full-Time appointment in a local church	$49,344
Provisional Elder/Provisional Deacon Full-Time appointment in a local church	$44,748
Associate Member Full-Time appointment	$44,748
Licensed Local Pastor Full-Time (Course of Study completed or equivalent)	$43,156
Licensed Local Pastor Full-Time	$40,884

Each elder in full connection who is in good standing and who is appointed by the bishop to less than fulltime service under the provisions of paragraph 338 of the 2024 Book of Discipline shall have a claim upon the conference Equitable Compensation Fund in one-quarter increments (Paragraph 342.2).

B. Definition of Eligibility

1. MINIMUM SALARY SUPPORT

- a. Elders, provisional members on the elder-track, deacons in full connection serving in local churches, provisional members on the deacon-track serving in local churches, associate members, and licensed local pastors serving full-time appointments in local churches are eligible for minimum salary support.
- b. Retired members, retired local pastors, full-member deacons appointed beyond the local church, provisional members on the deacon-track beyond the local church, student pastors, and members in extension ministries have no claim to minimum salary support.
- c. Support from all church sources (District, Conference and General Church) in addition to local sources will be used in computing claims.
- d. The commission will continue to work with the Cabinet in providing minimum compensation, sensitive to such variable factors as unique situations needing special skills, missional priorities, and ethnic/radical considerations.
- e. When a church withdraws from a charge to a station, its clergy shall not be eligible for minimum salary support for at least five years.
- f. A charge with more than 300 members shall have no claim to minimum salary support.
- g. Any situations limiting full itineracy of clergy will be taken under consideration prior to approving equitable compensation amounts.

2. KEY LEADERSHIP SALARY SUPPORT

Developing/redeveloping Ministries: Situations where new congregations should be developing or where existing congregations are facing circumstances that enhance the potential for unusual growth. These churches have the potential of becoming viable and self-supporting within five years.

3. KEY MISSIONAL SALARY SUPPORT

Situations where churches/parishes have an unusually large or complex program of missional ministries and require clergy leadership for expanded ministries. This also includes Ethnic Churches where support is necessary in getting the ministry established.

4. SPECIAL SALARY SUPPORT

This category provides clergy support on a short-term basis to meet a temporary situation. Funding under this category shall not continue beyond the appointive year in which it began.

C. The goal of the commission is to eliminate the need for long term minimum salary support by:

- 1. Agreeing that any new Equitable Compensation grants for Minimum Salary Support or Key Leadership Salary Support shall not exceed 25% of the total cash salary received by the clergy of the church or charge. The 25% rule shall not apply to Key Missional or Special Salary Support.

2. Limiting the maximum number of years of eligibility for all Equitable Compensation grants to five years per clergy or church. Grants will be decreased by 20% of the original amount each year.
 3. Asking for greater accountability of the local churches in the process of applications for funds through the District Superintendents, providing information on budgeted receipts and expenditures, having a stewardship plan, detailing how they are living within the CORE process, and an apportionment plan.
 4. Being aware that churches and charges which reach the total grant or grant term limitations described above, and which are unable to maintain support for a full-time appointment will be assisted by the District Superintendent to move to a part-time clergy, or to realign the charge.
 5. Being open to knowing that there may be special circumstances that would warrant an exception to these guidelines which can be made with the approval of the cabinet and the Equitable Compensation Executive team.
- D. The commission reminds the members of the Conference, local church Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, and clergy, that total ministerial support package includes: 1) Cash Salary 2) Pension 3) Health Insurance 4) Housing (housing allowance or parsonage) 5) Accountable Reimbursement.
- E. It is the responsibility of the clergy of any church not receiving agreed upon compensation from the church during the calendar year to contact their District Superintendent by the earlier of March 15; one year from the date of the initial arrearage; or at the time of an appointment of change. Failure to submit such notice of arrearage will end the statute of limitation for filing a claim from the Annual Conference for such funds (under the 2016 Book of Discipline Paragraph 342.4 once an appointment ends the pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds) and/or may cause an administrative complaint to be filed against such clergy.
- F. The commission recognizes that compensation contributes to clergy morale and encourages openness in financial matters among all persons, boards, and agencies who share the concern for the well being of churches and clergy.

Recommendation #5

Building a More Sustainable Future

Adopted

Whereas the Earth is the Lord's and everything in it; and God desires for people to be faithful stewards of the land;

Whereas humanity's current use of fossil fuels is changing Earth's climate, raising average global temperatures, leading to more common and more extreme weather events, and harming people, animals and natural ecosystems;

Whereas the 2024 General Conference of The United Methodist Church passed legislation stating "that the people of The United Methodist Church call on every level of its denominational polity to lead the way by...striving continuously to reduce the carbon footprint and greenhouse gas emissions of local churches, districts, annual conferences, jurisdictions...and their respective ministries up to and beyond carbon neutral and net zero";

Whereas at our 2023 Annual Conference, the West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church committed to achieving Net Zero carbon emissions by 2050²; and, for this quadrennium, the West Ohio Just Mission Lead Team has identified environmental sustainability as its top priority;

Whereas the West Ohio Conference's Green Church Movement has developed a sustainability audit guide and a Green Church Pledge in order to mobilize creation care work at the ground level (www.westohioumc.org/green-church-movement);

Whereas building energy use is one of the greatest global contributors to the greenhouse gasses that drive climate change, due to the reliance on fossil fuels to heat, cool and light buildings worldwide;

Whereas many types of changes can be made to existing buildings to make them more environmentally sustainable, and the design of new buildings can often incorporate energy efficiency that is either cost neutral or will result in long term financial savings;

Whereas the District Board of Church Location and Building “shall review the plans of any church in the district which proposes to construct... a new church or educational building or a parsonage” (para. 2521);

Therefore, be it resolved: Effective January 1, 2026, each District Board of Church Location and Building within the West Ohio Conference will require any church that is planning to construct a new church or educational building or parsonage to present to the Board at least one design that incorporates renewable energy, and/or reduces the use of fossil fuels by maximizing energy efficiency, before the Board will approve any new plan;

Be it resolved: The West Ohio Conference urges every church to take immediate action to make their existing buildings more energy efficient; these steps could include installing LED light bulbs, smart thermostats, smart power strips, and energy efficient appliances, adding insulation or weatherization such as caulking and air sealing, using electric heat pumps or more energy efficient HVAC systems, utilizing renewable energy such as solar, purchasing green power, and/ or other energy efficiency upgrades;

Be it resolved: Under the guidance of the Just Mission Lead Team, the West Ohio Conference shall offer resources to equip local churches to build a more sustainable future, provide green church trainings that empower congregations to take tangible steps toward faithful property decisions, and develop practical tools to assist congregations in reaching their sustainability goals;

Be it further resolved: The West Ohio Annual Conference encourages all congregations to perform a sustainability audit³ on their existing properties to seek faithful ways to care for God’s Creation; and to declare their commitment to environmental sustainability by signing the West Ohio Conference Green Church Pledge.⁴

Task Force for LGBTQ+ Ministry

Adopted

Whereas the 2020/2024 General Conference of The United Methodist Church removed Book of Discipline policies targeting the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer (LGBTQ+) community and mandating discrimination throughout the denomination, and

Whereas dismantling discrimination and harm cannot be realized through legislation alone, but requires ongoing engagement in the context of relationship, including but not limited to: policy change, story-sharing and dialogue, education, support, leadership development, solidarity, advocacy, monitoring, accountability, and

Whereas the ministry of Methodist Federation for Social Action, United Women in Faith, Black Methodists for Church Renewal, West Ohio Task Force on Immigration, and Creation Care Task Force model the importance of having dedicated and empowered teams who focus on specific areas of injustice and provide conference-wide opportunities for growth, and

Whereas the West Ohio Annual Conference seeks to be proactive in building relationships, learning, and living into all that is now possible for ministry with and for LGBTQ+ persons,

Therefore be it resolved that the West Ohio Annual Conference calls on our Bishop Hee-Soo Jung and Cabinet to create a Task Force on LGBTQ+ Ministry with the following role and function:

1. Support the LGBTQ+ laity, clergy, and candidates for licensed/ordained ministry in the West Ohio Annual Conference with community-building, faith and leadership development, solidarity, and advocacy.

2. Center and amplify the voices and experiences of the LGBTQ+ community, especially those who have been marginalized by church and society, most notably, transgender and Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) persons.
3. Monitor Annual Conference committees and policies, as well as the status and needs of candidates and clergy under appointment to ensure justice and equity on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, and expression, and to report findings to the Annual Conference.
4. Curate, create, and share resources to equip local churches for:
 - a. relationship building and continuing education
 - b. meaningful ministry with and for LGBTQ+ church and community members
5. Collaborate with ministry-specific areas, particularly children's ministry, youth ministry, and campus ministry in the desire to safely and most effectively be in ministry with and for LGBTQ+ people of all ages.

Be it further resolved that the Task Force on LGBTQ+ Ministry will be established within 3 months of annual conference adjournment, hold its first meeting in 2025, and include:

1. LGBTQ+ persons that make up at least $\frac{1}{3}$ of the total membership
2. Members with established leadership in the area of LGBTQ+ justice and inclusion
3. Intentional diversity throughout all genders
4. Intentional diversity throughout all races and ethnicities
5. Lay and clergy representatives from each district
6. Every effort shall be made to have intentional diversity of age

Be it further resolved that the Task Force on LGBTQ+ Ministry shall be fully included in all future annual conference processes related to ensuring an appropriate budget, representation on other committees, reporting to the annual conference, and ongoing membership based on the above criteria.

Recommendation #7

United Methodist Immigration Ministries of Ohio: Forming an Ohio Site of the Immigration Law & Justice Network

Adopted as amended

Submitted for consideration by both the East and West Ohio Annual Conferences:

Whereas, the Word of God implores all Christians to welcome migrants into our churches and communities and to treat noncitizens as our native-born citizens (e.g., Leviticus 19:33–34, Matthew 25:35); and

Whereas, the state of Ohio is home to more than 594,000 foreign-born people, including migrants, asylum-seekers, refugees, and immigrants, who worship in our pews, stand behind our pulpits, and lead within and beyond the walls of our churches (See United States Census Bureau, QuickFacts: Ohio). In the East and West Ohio Conferences of The United Methodist Church, we are grateful for the ways that US citizens and noncitizens share in leadership and witness as we seek to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world; and

Whereas, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph fled Herod's persecution and sought refuge in Egypt (Matthew 2:13–18). Likewise, refugees and asylum-seekers from around the world have fled persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion, and sought refuge in Ohio. In 2024, Ohio resettled more than 4,300 refugees from 47 countries, including Afghanistan, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Nicaragua, Ukraine, and Venezuela (Ohio Department of Jobs & Family Services). Additionally, more than 16,740 noncitizens have pending cases in the Cleveland Immigration Court, including asylum-seekers from Venezuela, Mauritania, Haiti, Honduras, and Guatemala (TRAC, Immigration Court Backlog); and

Whereas, in the East and West Ohio Conferences of The United Methodist Church, “[w]e oppose all laws and policies that attempt to criminalize, dehumanize, or punish displaced individuals and families based on their status as migrants, immigrants, or refugees” (Social Principles, The Political Community, ¶ 163.G); and

Whereas, unjust immigration laws and policies separate families, detain migrants in inhumane and unsanitary conditions for profit, restrict access to employment authorization and other necessary benefits, and deprive vulnerable migrants of protections like asylum. For example, due to policy-driven backlogs in the Cleveland Immigration Court, asylum-seekers must wait an average of 2,050 days before they are able to present their asylum cases (TRAC, Immigration Court Backlog). And, when they finally get their day in immigration court, only 29% of represented asylum-seekers and 9% of unrepresented asylum-seekers win asylum (TRAC, Asylum Decisions); and

Whereas, racism and xenophobia have led to discrimination and violence against migrants, asylum-seekers, refugees, and immigrants, including members of our churches, communities, and families. For example, in September 2024, Springfield, Ohio was subjected to at least 30 bomb threats due to the racist anti-Haitian rhetoric of our politicians (AP News); and

Whereas, our Social Principles urge all United Methodists to “welcome migrants, refugees, and immigrants into their congregations and to commit themselves to providing concrete support, including help with navigating restrictive and often lengthy immigration policies, and assistance with securing food, housing, education, employment and other kinds of support” (The Political Community, ¶ 163.G); and

Whereas, in 1999, the United Methodist Committee on Relief (“UMCOR”) established the Immigration Law & Justice Network (formerly Justice For Our Neighbors (“JFON”)) to provide free immigration legal services to low-income immigrants, education, and advocacy for migrant rights. Through 19 sites across the United States, the Immigration Law & Justice Network continues to fight for “[a] nation where every immigrant has access to justice in an anti-racist immigration system that honors the dignity of all people” (Immigration Law & Justice Network, Our Purpose: Vision); and

Whereas, the East Ohio Annual Conference has encouraged “all churches to educate and equip their members to provide hospitality and welcome to migrants and refugees in their communities” (East Ohio Annual Conference Resolution 2017-02). Likewise, the West Ohio Annual Conference has encouraged all clergy and congregations to support United Methodists who “organize to provide material, legal and spiritual services to the refugees and immigrants among us” (West Ohio Annual Conference Resolution 2018-06); and

Whereas, the Task Force on United Methodist Immigration Ministries of Ohio, including lay and clergy members of the East and West Ohio Conferences (“Task Force”), has encouraged local churches to offer sanctuary, housing, and food to asylum-seekers and other migrants; distributed educational and Know Your Rights materials to our churches and communities; and advocated for policy change toward migrant justice; and

Whereas, the Task Force recommends forming an Ohio site of the Immigration Law & Justice Network to provide immigration legal services to low-income noncitizens, education about the immigration system, and advocacy for migrant rights, or to otherwise further our work of sharing God’s love and justice with noncitizens in our churches and communities;

Therefore, be it resolved that the Annual Conference supports the Task Force’s efforts to establish an Immigration Law & Justice Network site in Ohio; and

Be it further resolved that, upon recommendation of the conference council on ministries in consultation with the conference council on finance and administration (Book of Discipline, ¶ 265), the Annual Conference establishes an annual “Welcoming Migrants Sunday” or similar special offering to be set no later than July 1, 2025. Members of local churches will be invited to financially support an Ohio Immigration Law & Justice Network site or its predecessor organizations, including the Task Force, through an Advance established by the East Ohio Conference; and

Be it further resolved that the Annual Conference recommits itself to boldly living out our baptismal vows to resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves, including xenophobia, racism, religious discrimination, and all other forms of intersectional oppression; and

Be it further resolved that the Annual Conference supports all other efforts of clergy and congregations to provide tangible support to migrants, asylum-seekers, refugees, and immigrants; and

Be it further resolved that any amendments adopted by the East or West Ohio Annual Conference be reconciled and integrated into this Resolution.

Respectfully submitted by the Task Force on United Methodist Immigration Ministries of Ohio and other supporters:

Amendment 1

Constitutional Amendments will require a vote from conference members. Please note that Constitutional Amendments are debatable but not amendable.

Amendment 1:Regionalization

Regionalization allows United Methodists throughout our connection to best serve their unique communities as they share the love of God, make disciples and transform the world.

WHAT IS REGIONALIZATION?

Regionalization allows each region of the church to make decisions that will best support outreach and ministry efforts in their specific setting.

This ability is already in place in the central conferences; regionalization will bring that ability to the U.S. as well.

Regionalization was developed collaboratively by United Methodists across the globe. It was adopted by an overwhelming majority of General Conference delegates.

Nine regional conferences will comprise The UMC: one in the U.S. and eight in Africa, Europe and the Philippines.

WHAT CAN'T REGIONAL CONFERENCES DO?

- Create their own constitution or adopt any policy in violation of the constitution contained in the General Book of Discipline
- Alter The Doctrinal Standards, Our Theological Task, The Ministry of All Christians or The Social Principles

WHAT CAN REGIONAL CONFERENCES DO?

- Draft and publish their own regional Book of Discipline, hymnals, books of worship and other liturgical resources
- Set requirements for ordination and licensed ministry with respect to their needs and resources
- Set standards for lay membership
- Develop practices around marriage ceremonies, funerals and other rites that align with cultural contexts and laws in each country
- Reorganize their annual conferences, districts or charge conferences to best serve their missional needs and convene their own judicial courts
- Work with annual conferences to ensure policies and practices align with the laws in each country

To view the changes if ratified, please see the secretary's page at westohioumc.org. The changes are too extensive to list here.

Amendment #2: Inclusiveness

The amended portion of the Constitution adds ability and gender to existing social categories that clergy in The United Methodist Church cannot use to discriminate against a potential member. Said another way, a pastor may not deny a person membership in the church because they have a disability, are female or male, married or single, young or old.

If ratified, the paragraph would read as follows:

¶ 4. Article IV. Inclusiveness of the Church - The United Methodist Church is a part of the church universal, which is one Body in Christ. The United Methodist Church acknowledges that all persons are of sacred worth. All persons without regard to race, gender, ability, color, national origin, status or economic condition, shall be eligible to attend its worship services, participate in its programs, receive the sacraments, upon baptism be admitted as baptized members, and upon taking vows declaring the Christian faith, become professing members in any local church in the connection. In The United Methodist Church, no conference or other organizational unit of the Church shall be structured so as to exclude any member or any constituent body of the Church because of race, color, national origin, status or economic condition.

Amendment #3: Racial Justice

Overview & Historical Significance

Article V of the Book of Discipline serves as a pivotal framework for the United Methodist Church's commitment to addressing and eliminating racism in all its forms. Recent proposed changes to Article V, at the postponed 2020/2024 General Conference session in April/May 2024, have strengthened this commitment by explicitly recognizing the church's role in combating racism, racial inequity, colonialism, white privilege, and white supremacy both within the denomination and in broader society. These changes reflect a critical shift in the church's acknowledgment of and response to deeply entrenched racial injustice.

Key Points of Significance

1. Explicit Acknowledgment of Racism

The inclusion of terms like "white supremacy," "white privilege," and "colonialism" represents a significant departure from previous language that may have been more vague or indirect. By explicitly naming these issues, the church confronts its own history and complicity in systemic injustices, marking a pivotal moment in its moral and ethical evolution.

2. Commitment to Active Anti-Racism

Declaring that the United Methodist Church must live as an actively anti-racist institution challenges the church to move beyond passive acknowledgment of racism. This language signifies a commitment to proactive measures, calling for tangible actions that dismantle racist structures within the church and society, thereby fostering a culture of accountability.

3. Response to Historical Context

These changes arise in the context of broader societal movements advocating for racial justice, including the civil rights movement and more recent protests against systemic racism. By aligning itself with these movements, the United Methodist Church positions itself as a relevant and responsive body that seeks to address systemic racism rooted in historical injustices of the Church.

4. Emphasis on Unity and Healing

The language promotes a vision of The UMC as a community that actively works to root out discrimination and oppression. This approach emphasizes the need for unity and healing within the church, encouraging members to engage in dialogue and reconciliation, thus fostering a more inclusive and equitable environment.

5. Moral Leadership

By incorporating this language into its Constitution, The UMC positions itself as a leader in the fight against racism within religious and social contexts. This sets a precedent for other denominations and organizations, encouraging a broader commitment to justice and equity in faith communities.

6. Legacy of Reform and Justice

These proposed changes connect to the long history of reform within the United Methodist Church, reflecting a legacy of addressing social issues. By explicitly confronting racism, the church reaffirms its mission to promote justice and equity, continuing the work of past leaders and movements within the denomination.

Conclusion

The commitment reflected in the changes in Article V represents a significant step forward for the United Methodist Church in its pursuit of racial justice. The proposed changes hold significant historical importance as they explicitly acknowledge systemic racism and commit The United Methodist Church to actively combat it. These changes challenge the Church to claim its prophetic witness as a redemptive and transformative force in both its community and the wider society, dedicated to the principles of equity, dignity, and respect for all individuals.

If ratified, the paragraph would read as follows:

¶ 5. Article V. Racial Justice-The United Methodist Church proclaims that from God's goodness and love, God created all persons as God's unique and beloved children. Racism opposes God's law, goodness, and love and diminishes the image of God in each person. Fueled by white privilege, white supremacy, and colonialism, the sin of racism has been a destructive scourge on global society and throughout the history of The United Methodist Church. It continues to destroy our communities, harm persons, obstruct unity, and undermine God's work in this world. Racism must be eradicated. Therefore, The United Methodist Church commits to confronting and eliminating all forms of racism, racial inequity, colonialism, white privilege, and white supremacy, in every facet of its life and in society at large.

Amendment #4: Clergy education requirements

The 2020/24 General Conference voted to amend Section VI, Article IV of the United Methodist Constitution. This paragraph outlines the educational requirements for clergy members of annual or provisional conferences who are eligible to vote for clergy delegates to the General Conference.

Previously, the paragraph required a clergy delegate to have completed a "course of study or an M. Div. degree..." It now states: "course of study or Master of Divinity from a University Senate approved theological school or its equivalent as recognized in a Central Conference..."

This amendment ensures that those voting for clergy delegates have met the denominational standards for theological education. It does not expand or restrict voting access for licensed local pastors (LLPs) in central or regional conferences. Instead, it clarifies the meaning of an M. Div. degree and specifies qualifying theological schools and their equivalents.

Local pastors retain the right to elect clergy delegates to the General Conference if they meet the following criteria:

1. Educational Requirements: They must have either
 - a. Completed the Course of Study, or
 - b. Earned a Master of Divinity degree from a University Senate-approved theological school or its equivalent as recognized in a central or regional conference.
2. Service Requirement: They must have served a minimum of two consecutive years under appointment immediately before the election.

This amendment brings greater clarity and consistency to the voting process for clergy delegates while allowing for necessary contextualization within central and regional conferences.

If ratified, the paragraph would read as follows:

¶ 35. Article IV. The clergy delegates to the General Conference and to the jurisdictional or central conference shall be elected from 74 the clergy members in full connection and shall be elected by the clergy members of the annual conference or provisional annual conference who are deacons and elders in full connection, associate members, and those provisional members who have completed all of their educational requirements and local pastors who have completed course of study or a Master of Divinity degree from a University Senate-approved theological school or its equivalent as recognized in a central conference and have served a minimum of two consecutive years under appointment immediately preceding the election.

[Editorial note: The proposed change of language in this paragraph related to central conferences would be changed to reflect the necessary updates should the Proposed Constitutional Amendment related to Regionalization be ratified.]

2024 STATISTICIAN'S REPORT

West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church

The Statistical Data collected from our local churches for 2024 is highlighted in this report. Unfortunately, many churches did not complete their reports to give a true statistical picture of the West Ohio Conference. We did not have single district complete their reports. We again allow churches to enter their data using the online entry method or by sending the information to the Conference Office to be manually entered by the Conference Statistician.

At the close of 2024, the membership of the West Ohio Conference stood at 71,141 members. A total of 2,417 members were added to the membership across our conference in 2024. That meant that every day last year, 7 members either joined a congregation or restored their affirmation in our conference. The largest increase was received from Profession of Faith through Confirmation, a total of 27 members. In 2024, a total of 73 churches held confirmation classes, representing 12% of our churches. In 2024 that number increased from the previous year.

At the close of 2024, the West Ohio Conference membership was reduced from what was reported at the end of 2023. The total loss of members in all statistical categories was 8,789. Unfortunately, that meant that every day last year 24 people were leaving congregations within the conference. The largest loss was removed by Charge Conference Action, a total of 2,979 members. The net loss from the new members, minus the number of members lost shown below is 6,372 members. The West Ohio Conference membership has been reduced by 49,476 members over the last 5 years. The average annual loss for our conference over the last ten years has been 8,184 members per year.

Those received during 2024 – Add	2,417
Those removed during 2024 – Subtract	-8,789
Ending Membership 2024	71,141

During 2024 worship attendance on Sunday in the West Ohio Conference, it had an average of 35,195 members participating in worship across the conference. Online worship had 24,962 members participating. The average attendance in principal worship services decreased by 12,309 members from what was reported in 2022. These numbers were inflated, because of disaffiliations. We also baptized 940 individuals during 2023. The number of baptisms decreased by 312 from the total reported in 2023. A total of 245 churches or 28% of the congregations in our conference reported at least 1 baptism in during 2023.

The Total number of Christian Formation Participants for 2023 was 34,980 participants. Overall, the West Ohio Conference experienced an increase of 169 in the number of participants from 2023. The Average Attendance at Sunday School decreased from that of 2023 by 576 members. There were 12,037 participants involved in Vacation Bible School in our churches during 2024. This was an increase from those participating in 2023 of 83.

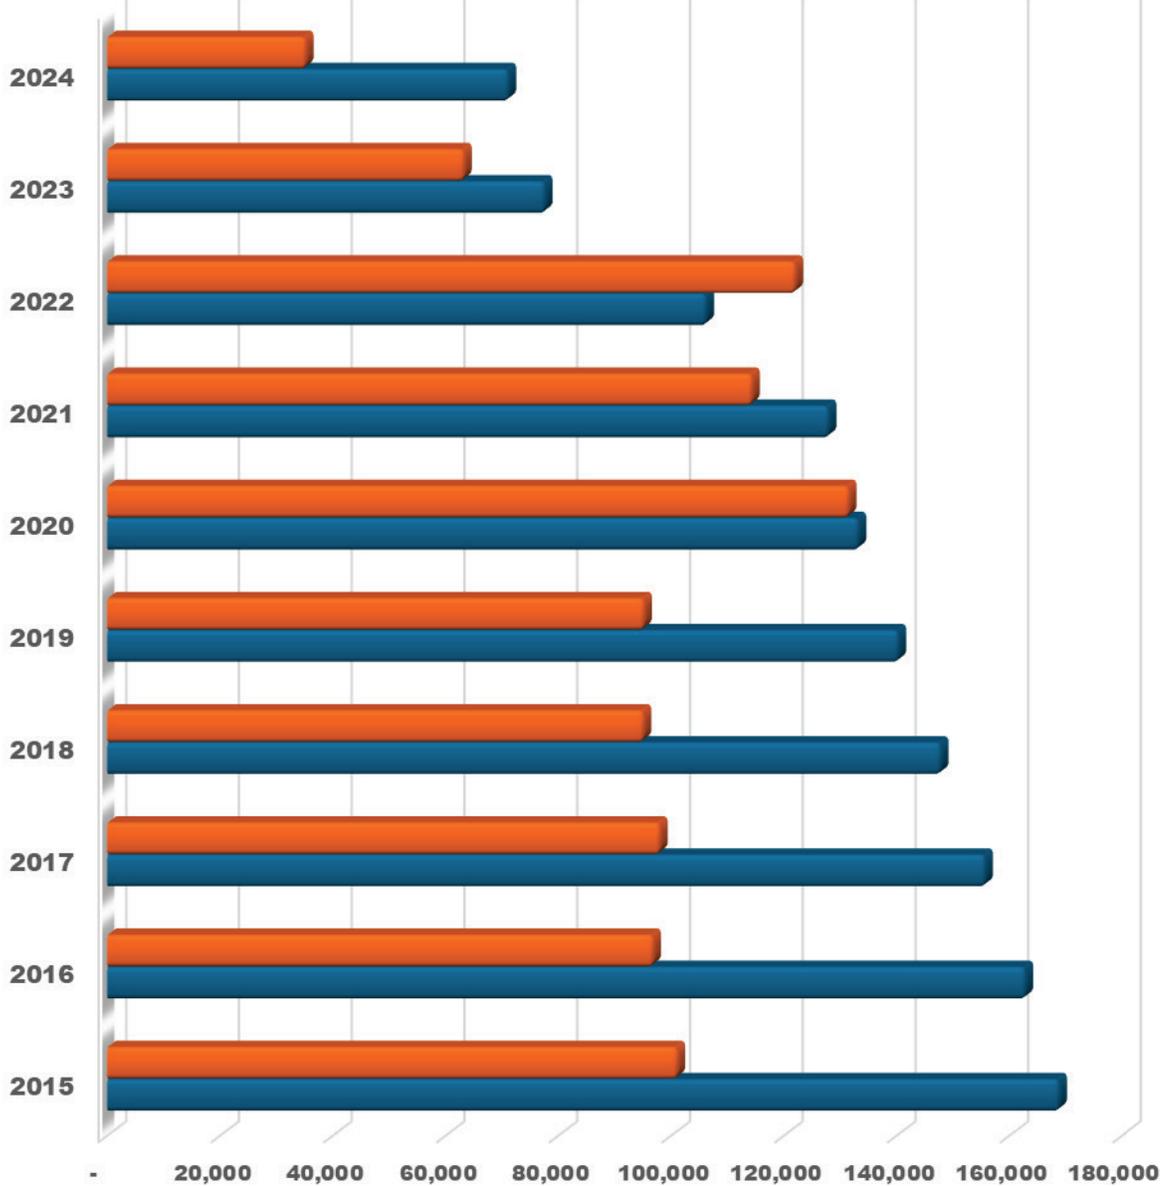

There were 52 UMVIM teams sent out from local churches in 2024. That was a decrease from 2023 of 8 mission teams. That accounted for 406 participants in UMVIM teams which increased by 26 participants. We also have several churches that are involved in community ministries for outreach, justice, mercy, and daycare. The number of people engaged in missions in the local churches was 26,854, serving 1,119,890 people in those communities. There were 463 or 76% of our congregations that had people engaged in mission.

The West Ohio Conference recorded a decrease in total paid in 2024. The conference received $123,897,402 which increased from that of 2023. That breaks out to a cost of $1,742 per member as compared to $1,624 per member in 2023. Almost 51% or 311 of the churches in our conference paid their apportionments at 100% or more in 2024. General Advance Special giving for specific, designated ministries and projects showed an increase of $92,170 in 2024. Total giving to General Advance Specials was $504,823.

Other ministries in the conference that are not recorded in the Statistical Data include: Groups and gatherings of people using the churches of the West Ohio Conference for worship, Emmaus Walks, Chrysalis, food pantries, after school programs, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4H, kindergarten, pre-school, and many other civic functions. Some ethnic congregations are using West Ohio Conference churches for worship services. In situations like those mentioned above, vital ministries are taking place to help establish or re-establish the United Methodist Church as an integral part of their communities. The West Ohio Conference appreciates those churches for providing this outreach.

In conclusion, please be aware that this report covers only part of the Statistician's entire Report. Please review your church's records in the conference journal and compare how your church measures up against others in your district and across the conference. Hopefully in 2025 our churches will be back to a more normal day-to-day operation like we have grown accustomed to.

FINANCIAL REPORTS

A. CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER REPORT

Presented by: Bill Brownson

Thank you for keeping the Connection strong. Without the support of local churches and their members, the West Ohio Conference would not exist, and The United Methodist witness in our region and around the world would be greatly diminished. Because of you – and countless others that have come before us over the decades -- the financial state of the conference remains strong. Six districts, the Board of Pensions, the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio and the West Ohio Conference are the nine corporations that together equip our churches and fund our work.

Sound expense control, solid investment returns, sale proceeds from closed churches and Camp Otterbein position the conference well for 2025 and beyond. As of December 31, 2024, unrestricted net assets were $132 million, of which $69 million is attributable to the Board of Pensions. (Unrestricted net assets are all assets, including property and fixtures, minus liabilities. It includes assets that donors have restricted for certain purposes or a period of time.)

Apportionment receipts remain the most important contributor to the resources needed to equip local churches. On a combined conference and district basis, apportionments provide 64% of the 2026 budget.

In 2022 a “Balance Sheet Transformation Working Group” was convened to provide insight and guidance on the then nearly 150 funds at the conference and district levels. Their work significantly informs the other 36% of the budget – $3.6 million. While significant, the spending from each fund has been thoughtfully reasoned to ensure those funds will continue to support the work of the conference and lessen reliance on apportionments. The work from 2022 will continue to pay dividends in the form of program support in future years.

As noted in the CF&A Chair’s report, apportionments for 2026 will decrease by 3% to $11.7 million. This continues a multi-year trend of lower apportionments. This is an accomplishment given the inflation of recent years in combination with our commitment not to increase apportionments in total on churches post-disaffiliation. This is possible because our balance sheet is strong and we can use investment earnings and be attentive to expense management.

As with local churches, salaries and benefits account for around half of conference and district expenses. In 2015, apportionments supported the equivalent of 71.5 full-time district and conference employees (excluding seasonal camp staff). As of July 1 of 2025, we expect 43 full time equivalents employees, a 40% reduction over the past 10 years. When adjusting for the Board of Pensions and Foundation employees, neither of which rely on apportionments for operations, conference and district employees supported by apportionments are fewer by nearly half (48%).

While the conference and districts have worked to create staff efficiencies, grants to local churches are stable. Over $2.2 million of grants were paid to local churches in 2024 from the conference, districts, Board of Pensions and the Foundation. Expressed in terms of apportionments, that means total grants were more than 31% of receipts of $7.2M.

Grants to churches provide:

- Compensation and benefit support so churches can retain clergy leaders and clergy receive appropriate pay and benefits
- Starting and chartering new churches and faith communities
- Assisting churches with small facilities improvements that make churches more welcoming to a wider range of people
- Investing in churches with new ideas for engaging the community
- A United Methodist witness in some locales that would not be possible but for financial support.

In addition to conference support, the apportioned budget includes denominational agencies and funds and makes possible our global witness. The General Church is doing its share to live into current financial realities. The 2026 budget reflects actions of the 2024 General Conference which voted to reduce denominational apportionment budgets by 20%. The reduction in apportionments in combination with fewer churches means some agencies will see a nearly 50% reduction in apportionment support over the next four years.

West Ohio’s financial reporting in the Book of Reports is among the most complete and transparent among annual conferences. In addition to reporting conference and district budgets, which rely on apportionments, budgets and results for the Board of Pensions and the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio are also reported. The audited financial statement is available on request. This level of transparency hopefully builds trust and confidence in the data.

For even more information about the budget and how your dollars are used, see Recommendation #2.

Thank you for your engagement in the life of the church beyond your immediate community. You are appreciated.

United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio 2024 Financial Results & 2026 Budget

1 2024 Review

2 The Foundation's financial position improved in 2024 over 2023 due to three key drivers:

- 3 • Solid investment performance by the Foundation's investment manager, Wespath (9% for balanced strategies)
- 4 • New investments accounts, largely from the conference, including investing most proceeds from the sale of
- 5 Camp Otterbein and CFA's policy to invest excess reserves
- 6 • Positive net income from completed pledges

7 While investment administration income of $414,000 was 1% worse than the budget, it improved significantly from 8 the beginning of the year and is well positioned to meet or exceed the 2024 budget. Operating expenses were in line

10 Key data as of December 31, 2024:

- 11 • $129 million invested assets, an increase of $23 million from the prior year
- 12 • $709,000 unrestricted net assets, a 17% increase from December 31, 2023
- 13 • $601,000 cash on hand

14 2026 Budget

15 The 2026 budget is balanced and includes use of $35,000 of investment income from Foundation assets. Investment
16 administration revenue provides for nearly all operating expenses of the Foundation. $492,000 investment administration
17 income is planned for 2026, an increase of $72,000 (17%) from 2024 and 2025. The Foundation will incur $133,000
18 in overhead expenses payable to the conference, primarily for financial administration. This expense reduces what would 19 otherwise be covered by conference apportionment receipts. The Foundation plans to make $118,000 in grants and 20 mission investments which contribute to the mission of the conference and West Ohio local churches.

2024 Financial Results & 2026 Budget

1 2024 Results

2 The Board of Pensions net assets increased by $8.3 million (12%) due to positive investment returns and a reduction
3 in the retiree healthcare liability.

4 These are the material contributors to the 2024 financial results.

- 5 • The Board subsidized the cost of HealthFlex premiums by $800,000 in an effort to keep local church 6 premium expenses from becoming even more difficult. The subsidy was $100,000, better than anticipated.
- 7 • The $1.7 million 2024 defined pension liability was fulfilled by redirecting surplus from the Pre-82 pension
8 plan, which was overfunded. The amount directly billed to local churches throughout the year was retained 9 and increased the board's net assets.
- 10 • Net operating income, adjusted for the $1.7 million redirection, was $500,000 worse than budget.
- 11 • Investments increased 7.5% to $85.5 million due to solid investment returns of 9.2% in 2024.
- 12 • Actuaries have valued the retiree healthcare liability at $14.8 million as of December 31, 2024, a decrease 13 of $1.6 million from 2023. The reduction was due mostly to rising interest rates (discount rate). If rates are 14 lower in a year, the liability will increase. 100% of the liability is backed by investments: retiree healthcare is 15 funded.
- 16 • Retiree health care (VIA) cost of $900,000 are paid from investments.

17 2026 Budget Highlights

18 As has been the case in recent years, the Board of Pension & Health Benefits is supported not just by directly billing
19 local churches for benefit costs, but also its strong balance sheet. The Board has not requested nor does it rely on 20 apportionments.

- 21 • The HealthFlex subsidy is projected to be $500,000, less than the 2024 actual results. 2026 will be the 22 third year for this is fully insured plan.
- 23 • 2026 will be the first year of COMPASS, the new clergy retirement plan. It replaces CRSP which terminates 24 December 31, 2025. Churches will be directly billed a fixed percent of pensionable compensation so that the 25 Board has sufficient funds to remit to Wespeth.
- 26 • The cost of the retiree health care plan (Wespeth-VIA Benefits HRA) is budgeted at $1.0 million, all of which 27 is funded from invested reserves

28 The Conference Council on Finance and Administration respectfully requested $325,000 in grant funding for the 29 appointive cabinet ($25,000 emergency support for clergy and $300,000 to provide non-salary support for clergy
30 appointed to local churches). 2026 would be the third full year of the grant. Though it is too early to know how much 31 of the 2024 grant will be applied by the cabinet, early indications are that most, if not all, will support clergy as the 32 BOP intended.

33 2026 budgeted expenses exceed receipts by just over $2.2 million, all of which is funded with accumulated

1 investment earnings. With a December 31,2024 investment balance of $85.5 million, that equals a 3.0% spending
2 rate, below prevailing endowment plan spending levels.

3 Board of Pensions has demonstrated strong financial performance in 2024, with significant increases in net assets and
4 positive investment returns. The proactive measures taken to manage healthcare liabilities and pension obligations
5 have further strengthened our financial position.

6 Looking ahead to 2026, the Board remains committed to supporting local churches and clergy through strategic 7 subsidies and the introduction of the COMPASS retirement plan. Our prudent financial management ensures that we 8 can continue to meet our obligations and support our mission without relying on apportionments.

9 We are confident that our strong balance sheet and investment strategy will enable us to navigate future challenges
10 and continue to provide robust support to our beneficiaries

C. AUDIT REPORT

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration and Board of Trustees
West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Columbus, Ohio

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliates (a not-for-profit organization), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliates as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the results of their net assets and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliates and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliates' ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliates' internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliates' ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole. The consolidating schedules are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the consolidated financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements or to the consolidated financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements as a whole.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of activities

The West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates (the "Conference") is a religious not-for-profit organization that was established to provide organizational structure and support to its member churches. The Conference provides management of conference-wide programs for missional, ministerial, and charitable giving purposes. The Conference also operates retirement and healthcare programs for eligible lay and clergy employees and retirees of the Conference and member churches.

Conference and Affiliates

There were 598 apportioned churches at (or as of) December 31, 2024 organized into districts. During 2023, the eight districts and the Community Ministries of the Capitol Areas were reorganized into six districts. January 1, 2024 is the legal effective date for the six reorganized districts. Accordingly, as of December 31, 2024, the Conference is legally the sole member of eight corporations that are included in these consolidated financial statements. The eight corporations are:

- Olentangy River District of the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church (ORD)
- Hocking River District of the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church (HRD)
- Maumee River District of the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church (MRD)
- Western Lakes District of the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church (WLD)
- Great Miami River District of the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church (GMD)
- Scioto River District of the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church (SRD)
- West Ohio Conference Board of Pensions (BOP)
- United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio (UMFWO)

Under regulations adopted in 2019 by the General Conference, the denomination's primary governance body, churches may disaffiliate from the United Methodist Church if terms set by the Conference Board of Trustees are met. Key terms include payment of a share of pension liability and current and one additional year of apportionments. In exchange, the Conference releases all claims to church property (i.e., the "Trust Clause"). The 2019 regulations expired December 31, 2023. In the West Ohio Conference, 172 met the terms by June 30, 2023. A final group of 96 churches met the terms by October 31, 2023. The short-term financial effect is a material increase in support (reference Note 15, liquidity). By the end of 2024, the continuing effect of disaffiliations is projected to diminish resources from apportionments by approximately 32% from pre-disaffiliation levels. Prior preparation in addition to a solid net asset position will allow the Conference to continue meeting its mission over the long term.

The Conference is also the sole legal member of the Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, UMCH Family Services, and OhioHealth. However, the powers reserved by their respective Boards indicates a level of control that does not warrant consolidating their results into these statements.

Basis of presentation

The Conference's consolidated financial statement presentation is in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP). Under U.S. GAAP, the Conference's consolidated financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, and the Conference reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: net assets without donor restrictions and net asset with donor restrictions.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

Accordingly, the net assets of the Conference, and changes therein, are classified and reported as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and are available for use in the Conference's ongoing operations.

Net assets with donor restrictions – Net assets that are “temporarily restricted” and therefore limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that can be fulfilled by either the actions of the Conference, or the passage of time; and net assets that are “permanently restricted” and therefore limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that permanently restrict the use of the funds by the Conference, with the exception of the investment earnings.

Generally, if the corpus of a contribution will, at some future time, become available for spending, it is recorded as with donor restrictions. In addition, contributions that are promised to be given in a future period are presented as with donor restrictions. If the corpus never becomes available for spending, it will be held in perpetuity by others and classified as net assets with donor restrictions. Net assets held by others represent the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date and the original value of subsequent gifts to donor-restricted endowment funds.

Net assets without donor restrictions include liquid and illiquid resources without restrictions, including donations, gifts, and bequests available for the use of the Conference, over which the Board of Trustees has discretionary control. The Conference reviewed all endowment funds, and no reclassification of net assets was required.

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash includes all cash on hand, demand deposits, and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less. Cash and cash equivalents exclude the cash components of investments.

The Conference maintains financial relationships with financial institutions subject to Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) or National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) membership. Under FDIC and NCUA guidelines, all depository accounts are insured up to $250,000. Throughout the year, the Conference's and certain Affiliates' deposits exceeded these limitations for deposits held at certain financial institutions. Balances are insured subject to the regulatory guidelines for banks and credit unions. Further, periodic reviews of financial institution relationships include assessment of capital adequacy. Deposits in excess of insured limits were approximately $1.0 million and $2.3 million at December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

Accounts receivable and revenue

Total revenue recognized at a point in time is $251,956 and $99,237 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Total revenue recognized over time is $14,464,186 and $18,396,713 for December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Contract assets were $597,630 as of January 1, 2023.

Apportionments - Apportionment revenue represents amounts paid by member churches to fund Conference initiatives and operating expenses. Notice of the next year's apportionment requests are sent in the fall of each year. Statements requesting apportionment contributions are sent in the early part of each year, and additional requests are sent throughout the year. The Conference records revenue based on the satisfaction of the performance obligations over time. Final revenue and receivables for the current year are recorded at year-end, based on subsequent receipts collected in January that relate to the prior year. Accordingly, there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible apportionments. Receivables are never considered delinquent and no interest is charged on receivables. Apportionment revenue does not include amounts collected from member churches to be passed on to the general United Methodist Church. These amounts are recorded as liabilities until transferred.

Medical Coverage Insurance and Post-Retirement Pension Contributions - The Conference provides a medical coverage plan and administers pension plans covering eligible lay employees and eligible clergy employees. Medical coverage premiums and pension contributions are collected from member churches and retirees. Revenue is recognized based on the related satisfaction of the performance obligations over time, which is monthly. Receivables are recorded, and there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible accounts as payments are automatically pulled electronically when invoiced.

Camp Operations - The Conference owns one camp as of December 31, 2024. Camp operations were suspended in April 2023 and in October 2023, the Annual Conference authorized the sale of two camps. In 2024, Camp Otterbein was sold. Camp operations are expected to resume at one camp in 2026.

Program Fee Income - At times, the Conference also requests a fee for events (other than camps) to defray a portion of program costs. These programs may be educational sessions or mission trips. Revenue is recorded at the related satisfaction of the performance obligations at point in time, which is at the completion of the event. Any revenue collected during the current year that pertains to a future event is recorded as deferred revenue.

Miscellaneous Revenue - Non-operational and ancillary income is reflected as miscellaneous revenue in the consolidated statements of activities. Miscellaneous revenue consists primarily of revenue generated from rental income, and random monetary or property gifts received from donors.

Investments

Investments are recorded at fair value based on quoted market values. Investment returns, including interest income, dividends, unrealized and realized gains or losses and fees are included in the consolidated statement of activities. See Notes 3 and 5.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost and depreciated over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. Routine repairs and maintenance are charged to expense when incurred, and improvements and additions are capitalized. The carrying value of long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the amount of assets may not be recoverable. Management has determined there was no asset impairment on depreciable assets in 2024 or 2023.

The Conference holds land related to its camps that was donated or otherwise acquired in prior years. As the fair market value of this land could not be reasonably determined at the time of its donation, it is not recorded in the consolidated financial statements. Assets for which values were reported at the two camps that were authorized for sale were retired. In addition, the Conference was holding 10 properties for resale at December 31, 2024 and 2023. These properties have been recorded at their estimated fair values.

Endowment investment and spending policies

The Conference has adopted investment policies for all investment assets for which it is accountable, including certain endowment assets. The investment policy acknowledges and accommodates objectives unique to each fund, pool, or donor. In some cases, the investment policy is designed to produce an income stream to meet conference obligations to annuitants; in other cases, the policy is designed to preserve the real purchasing power of the assets and produce increasing income over time. In all cases, the policy provides a governance framework and guidance on investment management practices that are prudent and respectful of The United Methodist Church's social principles and underlying investment objectives.

Where not restricted by donor intent, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). Spending and disbursements from each fund are set by donor agreement or the investing body (e.g., Board of Pensions (BOP), Trustees, or The United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio (UMFWO)). Certain affiliated churches that have placed investment assets with the UMFWO, be they endowed or otherwise, may request a distribution of some or all of their balances at any time. The liability for funds held for the benefit of these churches is included in amounts held for distribution on the consolidated statements of financial position.

Each district or mission board within the Conference that has investable assets, separately maintains an investment policy statement designed to meet their respective needs and objectives or adopts the policy of the UMFWO if invested with that entity.

Contributions

Revenues from contributions are recognized when a donor's unconditional commitment is received. Donor contributions are recorded as without donor restrictions or with donor restrictions, depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions. When a restriction is satisfied, net assets with donor restrictions are released to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the consolidated statements of activities as satisfaction of donor restrictions. Any restricted contributions that are received and fulfilled in the same year are recorded as net assets without donor restrictions. Contributions of marketable securities and property and equipment are recorded at their fair value at the date of the gift.

Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

Expense allocation

The Conference allocates a portion of administrative expenses to program and mission services based on various direct costs related to each program and an analysis of personnel time.

Income and property taxes

The Conference along with nearly all US-based United Methodist churches, conferences, districts, and agencies, is included in the denomination's IRS group ruling exempting it from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Conference did not have any unrelated business income during 2024 or 2023. Accordingly, no provision for federal, state, and local income taxes is included in the consolidated financial statements.

As a religious organization, the Conference is not required to file tax returns if it has no unrelated business income. Based on its review, management does not believe the Conference has taken any material uncertain tax positions, including any position that would place the Conference's exempt status in jeopardy for 2024 and 2023.

Real property held long term and not directly for program purposes, such as parsonages, are subject to property taxes which are paid timely.

Life annuity gifts

The UMFWO receives funds from donors classified as life annuity gifts. The donors contribute an irrevocable remainder interest in the donated funds and establish an interest that requires monthly or quarterly payments of a specified amount to the donor annuitant or another annuitant. Payments must be made for the remaining life of the specified annuitant or annuitants.

Upon the death of the donor, other identified party or annuitant, the remainder interest becomes available for the final beneficiary, which is either the Conference, or other organizations generally associated with The United Methodist Church. The final beneficiary is designated in the life annuity contracts; however, the Conference enables the donor to change the final beneficiary up until the time of death, with the stipulation that the donor must either change the final beneficiary to the Conference or to another organization associated with The United Methodist Church. Since the final beneficiary is not determinable until the date of death, the Conference records all original gifts as liabilities and includes them in amounts held for distribution in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Upon the death of the donor, identified party or annuitant, if the Conference is named as the final beneficiary, then the Conference records contribution revenue for the remaining portion of the gift in the year of death. If another organization is named as the final beneficiary, then a liability is recorded to that organization by the Conference for the remaining portion of the gift. When the remaining portion of the gift is paid to the other organization, the liability is released.

Subsequent events

In preparing these consolidated financial statements, the Conference has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure as of May 30, 2025 the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements

2. NOTES RECEIVABLE

From time to time the Conference extends loans to local churches. Assessed interest rates are generally at or below market and where applicable, tied to published rates such as prime. Lending is not considered a core conference program.

Management assesses the collectability of notes receivable at year-end. The allowance for credit losses is based upon historical account write-off trends, facts about the current financial condition of the debtor, forecasts of future operating results based upon current trends and macroeconomic factors. Credit quality is monitored through the timing of payments compared to payment terms and known facts regarding the financial condition of debtors. Notes receivable balances are charged off against the allowance for credit losses after recovery efforts have ceased. The Conference generally does not require collateral for accounts receivable. Management deems its allowance for credit losses to be immaterial.

Year ending December 31
2026	32,518
2027	34,456
2028	486,762
	$ 585,581

3. INVESTMENTS

Marketable securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain marketable securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the value will occur in the near term, and such changes could be material. Investments consisted of the following as of December 31:

	2024	2023

4. BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN ASSETS HELD BY OTHERS

Three bequests are held and administered as endowments by the Board of Trustees of The United Methodist Church. Two of the funds are for the benefit of the GMD and one is for the benefit of the BOP. All three are recorded as "beneficial interests in assets held by others."

Under the terms of the endowments, GMD and BOP have the irrevocable right to receive income earned in perpetuity. The original corpus and accumulated income as reported by the Board of Trustees of The United Methodist Church are recorded as permanently and temporarily restricted beneficial interests, respectively. When distributions are received, they become donor-restricted assets. Restrictions are released only when qualifying expenses are incurred.

5. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Generally accepted accounting principles define fair value, establish a framework for measuring fair value, and establish a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Conference has the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Money market and certificates of deposit: Valued based on the contractual terms of the underlying money market or cash equivalent account.

Common stock, corporate securities and government obligations: Valued at the closing price reported on the active market on which the individual securities are traded.

Mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value of shares held by the Conference at year-end.

Property held for sale: Valued at fair market value based upon real estate appraisals.

Beneficial interest in assets held by others: Valuation is determined by the underlying interest in funds held by the custodian, which are primarily invested in marketable securities with quoted market prices.

The following table summarizes the valuation of financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis in the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31:

The Conference had no purchases, issuances or transfers of Level 3 investments for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Property held for sale is measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis in the consolidated statements of financial positions as of December 31, 2024 and 2023. Property held for sale is valued at $3,281,436 and $2,685,181 as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, as a Level 3 input.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The Conference has acquired church properties from former congregations that have ceased to be associated with the Conference. These properties are recorded at their estimated fair value when the Conference determines it will be held for resale. The Conference is committed to selling these properties as soon as possible.

6. LINE OF CREDIT AND LOAN GUARANTEE

GMD maintains a $1,500,000 revolving line of credit with a financial institution due on demand. The line of credit bears interest at a rate determined by the size of the District's assets that are under management of the financial institution (6.01% and 7.0% at December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively). In 2024 the Line of Credit was used to pay off the mortgage on a held for mission church. The assets of the GMD are pledged as collateral.

9. FUNDS HELD IN TRUST BY OTHERS

The UMFWO is named as the remainder beneficiary of certain trusts held by others. These trusts are not included in the consolidated financial statements as the funds are neither in the possession of nor under the control of the UMFWO and it is unknown if such interests are irrevocable. Total estimated fair value of the UMFWO's interest in these funds at December 31, 2024 and 2023, is not available.

10. EPISCOPAL FUND

The Conference receives funds from the Episcopal Fund established by the General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) of The United Methodist Church. This fund is one of the general church funds to be used for administrative expenses of annual conferences.

 Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements

The GCFA requires certain comparative information to be disclosed as a part of the annual audit of the Conference for the years ended December 31:

	2024	2023
Revenue
GCFA Episcopal Fund receipts	$ 90,845	88,490

	537,867	439,695
	$ (447,022)	(351,205)

Episcopal related expenses exceed funding received annually; accordingly, there is no beginning or ending cash balances as funds are fully utilized by the year-end. Other operational or contribution funding is effectively utilized to pay for Episcopal expenditures greater than the funds provided from the Episcopal Fund. Except for equipment approved for and reimbursed by GCFA, none of the Episcopal Funds were used for property and equipment purchases in 2024 or 2023.

11. ENDOWMENT FUNDS AND UPMIFA

Management has determined that certain Conference assets meet the definition of endowments under the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act of 2006 (UPMIFA). The Conference has interpreted UPMIFA as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as net assets with donor restrictions (a) the original value of gifts donated to endowments, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to endowments, and (c) accumulations to the endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

In accordance with UPMIFA, the Conference considers these factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the fund;
- (2) The purposes of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund;
- (3) General economic conditions;
- (4) The possible effect of inflation and deflation;
- (5) The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments;
- (6) Other resources of the organization; and
- (7) The investment policies of the organization.

12. HEALTHCARE POST-RETIREMENT BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS

The Conference sponsors a defined benefit post-retirement healthcare plan covering all eligible clergy and lay staff and is a participant in a multi-employer denomination-sponsored defined benefit pension plan as described in Note 13.

Effective January 1, 2022, the Conference ceased providing a retiree group health care plan for retirees and spouses age 65 and older. The group plan was succeeded by a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) funding model. Under this arrangement, the Conference funds annually an HRA for retired clergy and their spouses at levels based on their years of service.

The size of the post-retirement healthcare obligation and related expense is based upon the plan benefit levels approved each year by the BOP and anticipated future increases. The Conference had assets designated for this liability totaling approximately $70.6 million and $65.0 million as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, in the Retired Clergy Benefits Fund.

13. RETIREMENT PLANS

The Conference is one of many United Methodist-related sponsors of a multi-employer retirement Program administered by Wespeth on behalf of the United Methodist Church. The Program is comprised of a series of retirement plans organized under appropriate code sections and includes defined benefit plans and defined contribution plans. The Program is intended to meet the requirements of a "church plan" and be exempt from ERISA to the extent permitted.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

Broadly, the Program is comprised of three sequential retirement plans, the Pre-82, MPP (Ministerial Pension Plan) and a Core Defined Benefit Plan and Core Defined Contribution Plan (CRSP-DB and CRSP-DC). The Pre-82 plan was frozen December 31, 1981, and it was succeeded by MPP. MPP was in effect until December 31, 2006, when it was succeeded by the CRSP plans. CRSP was amended effective January 1, 2014, and it is the current plan for eligible participants.

The Conference is responsible for funding its share of liabilities in each Plan in the Program. Wespath created a trust to receive contributions from plan sponsors in support of the Program. Wespath is responsible for investing Program assets and where applicable providing participants with mechanisms to accommodate their risk profiles. Sponsors have no control over program investments. Over the years, the Conference has employed various methods to ensure current service costs and accumulated liabilities are funded. All benefits under the program are provided exclusively by distributions from the trust. Annually, Wespath retains a third-party actuary to develop plan liabilities and assign funding levels based on plan assets. The most recent actuarial valuations were issued October 2024. As of January 1, 2023 and January 1, 2024, no plan assets or liabilities are recorded on the Conference's statement of financial position.

Current Funding Levels

On a Funding Plan basis, plan assets and liabilities as of January 1, 2024 are as indicated in the table below. Funding plan liability is discounted based on average expected asset returns. This type of liability may provide incentives to adopt riskier investment policies that increase expected returns and lead to lower reported cost or increased funded status. The Conference's share of plan assets and liabilities on a Funding plan basis is reflected in the table below.

	Pre-82	MMP Current Annuities	CRSP-DB	Total
Assets	55,265,916	171,533,417	100,481,582	327,280,915
Liabilities	(46,226,495)	(133,415,514)	(86,212,235)	(265,854,244)
Funded Status	9,039,421	38,117,903	14,269,347	61,426,671
Funded ratio	120%	129%	117%	123%

The Market Liability is not discounted based on the allocation of invested plan assets. It is priced to reflect the lower risk that participants experience in receiving the benefit. This liability uses a discount rate curve that attempts to reflect the current price at which the liabilities would trade in the open market. The table below reflects estimated plan liabilities on a market basis and the resulting funding levels.

	Pre-82	MMP Current Annuities	CRSP-DB	Total
Assets	50,734,252	155,765,307	90,188,482	296,688,041
Liabilities	(49,750,768)	(149,660,182)	(104,683,590)	(304,094,540)

Funded ratio	102%	104%	86%	98%

The Conference's share of total plan assets range from 3.33% to 3.53%. As Program administrator, Wespath is responsible for assigning funding responsibility to plan sponsors. The need for additional funding could result from persistent lower than expected investment returns or the inability of one or more plan sponsors to meet their share of obligations.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

The terms of the plan permit the Conference to use an over-funded position in the Pre-82 Plan to fund the defined benefit component of the CRSP. A surplus was available which the Conference used part of the surplus to make the full contribution of $1,741,050 and $2,298,325 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023. For the year ended December 31, 2023, an additional $1,100,000 of West Ohio's Pre-82 surplus was used to satisfy the Virginia Annual Conference's CRSP liability. In exchange, the Virginia Annual Conference made a $1,100,000 contribution to West Ohio. The Conference bills its churches at a percentage of eligible compensation regardless of whether the surplus is utilized. When amounts collected exceed the amount remitted to Wespath, the excess funds are used to build a reserve for the post-retirement healthcare liability or other clergy benefits, as designated by the BOP.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan

The Conference sponsors a 403(b) defined contribution plan for clergy and full-time lay employees of the Conference and Affiliates. Participants are 100% vested in their contributions. The Conference and Affiliates make matching contributions subject to their respective adoption agreements with Wespath. Matching contributions for the 403(b) defined contribution plan are immediately vested. Matching contributions totaled approximately $172,308 and $174,514 for years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

14. MORTGAGE PAYABLE

As a result of a church that closed effective December 31, 2023, the West Ohio Conference became responsible for the remaining sixteen years of a thirty-year variable rate Mortgage Note. As of December 31, 2023, the mortgage balance was $1,089,980 with a current interest rate of 8.25%. During 2024, the mortgage was paid off using a line of credit.

15. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

The Conference is substantially supported by earned revenue. The Conference also receives contributions with donor restrictions. Because a donor's restriction requires resources to be used in a particular manner or in a future period, the Conference must maintain sufficient resources to meet those responsibilities to its donors. Thus, financial assets may not be available for general expenditure within one year. As part of the Conference's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due.

The membership may consist of all licensed and ordained clergy, commissioned and diaconal ministers and deaconesses residing within the district and designated lay members representing local congregations and district ministries.
2. The district superintendent shall ensure the organization and operation of each district's incorporated entity consistent with its code of regulations (bylaws) and articles of incorporation. Therefore, each district shall have a Board of Directors that fulfills obligations of the district's articles of incorporation and code of regulations (bylaws). The members of this board shall be nominated by the District Nominations Committee and elected by the District Conference. It should meet at least quarterly to conduct the business of the district.

5. Each district shall have a District Board on Church Location and Building to approve purchase and sale of church or district properties within the district. It also shall approve new building projects and significant (over 25% of the value of the building) remodeling projects for the district or the churches in the district.

D. CLERGY PROCEDURES

1. MOVING TO A NEW APPOINTMENT

The cabinet shall annually determine the effective date of appointment changes and the moving date for pastors.

2. COMPENSATION FOR NEWLY APPOINTED PASTORS

When a pastor receives a new appointment, the cabinet shall determine the date for compensation changes including salaries, pension, and hospitalization.

3. COMMITTEE ON STAFF/PASTOR-PARISH RELATIONS AND NEWLY APPOINTED PASTORS

We strongly recommend that the Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations and newly appointed pastors meet monthly for the first six months and at least quarterly thereafter for the purpose of developing a supportive relationship.

4. VACATION

a. Vacation Policy

Time for vacation, continuing education, Sabbath and formational renewal are extremely important to every person involved in professional ministry. There must be times of recreation, study and recentering in each clergy's life. The West Ohio Conference adopts these guidelines for clergy and churches as a way of encouraging clergy to live a balanced life in ministry.

The guidelines that are listed below are the minimum of all clergy under appointment to local congregations. A charge and the appointed clergy in consultation with the District Superintendent may negotiate mutually agreeable changes to fit unusual circumstances in line with the spirit of this section.

Details and agreements regarding vacation, sick time, continuing education, days off, formational and spiritual growth leave, and connectional responsibilities should be established at the time of the appointment and reviewed annually as part of the annual pastor evaluation with the charge's Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations (SPRC).

All clergy shall have at least, but not limited to, the equivalent of four weeks (based on estimated weekly workdays), plus two days. These days may be taken individually. This shall include a maximum of four Sundays. The following table shows minimum paid vacation days by nature of appointment.

MINIMUM VACATION STANDARDS

Appointment Level	Estimated Weekly Workdays	Total Vacation Days including 4 Sundays
Full Time Appointment	6	26 (6 x 4 = 24) + 2
¾ Time	4.5	20 (4.5 x 4 = 18) + 2
½ Time	3	14 (3 x 4 = 12) + 2
¼ Time	1.5	8 (1.5 x 4 = 6) + 2

Clergy do not need to take a vacation day for regularly scheduled weekly day(s) off

Vacation shall be granted on the annual conference year (July 1 through June 30). In order to establish proper healthy boundaries, pastors and other clergy persons under appointment are expected and encouraged to take all vacation days annually. Vacation is not cumulative and cannot be carried over to the succeeding year. It is expected that the pastor will make arrangements in advance with the SPRC and consult with them in obtaining vacation supply coverage. Vacation leave for appointment beyond the local church (deacons) or extension ministry (elders and local pastors) is determined by that employer.

b. Continuing Education and Spiritual Growth

In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.2, clergy members continuing education and spiritual growth program shall include professional formation leaves at least one week each year and may include at least one month during one year of every quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered vacation time and should be coordinated through your SPRC committee. More extended time for renewal leave is a healthy part of the rhythms of vocational ministry. In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.3, clergy members who have held full-time appointment for at least six years may request a formational and spiritual growth leave of up to six months while continuing to hold an appointment in the local church.

c. Sabbath and Weekly Day Off

It is important for clergy to have regular time away each week. Clergy members are strongly encouraged to establish a schedule that includes at least one day of Sabbath and one day away from ministerial responsibilities each week. Experiencing and modeling the rhythm of weekly Sabbath rest is vital to the work of vocational ministry. This day is included as a part of the six-day workweek for full time appointment in the chart above. Such days should be communicated so that congregation and staff will know when such days are to occur, so as to allow a time of refreshment. These are not vacation days.

d. Connectional and Community Responsibilities

All clergy are expected to attend all sessions of the Annual Conference. In addition, clergy may have other connectional responsibilities. Time spent on these responsibilities shall not be counted as vacation or as continuing education. Clergy will inform the SPRC of time needed for these responsibilities.

Clergy are also often involved in various community groups. Such involvement provides an opportunity to build a bridge between the community and the church. These involvements shall not be considered vacation or continuing education. Clergy are encouraged to use good judgement in determining the commitment accepted beyond the primary appointment. Consultation with the SPRC should take place before accepting such responsibilities.

In retirement, he was chaplain at Otterbein Lebanon. Each congregation offered love and lessons, deep friendships and complex problems, and George was thankful for all.

Beyond family and ministry, George divided time between reading books and playing with trains...not just any trains; the most intricate of model trains, N-scale. In recent years, he found a hobby shop which could 3-D print almost any building from any city. He painted each building in perfect detail along with people waiting on a platform or playing in a yard. He created the topography and tunnels to be just as he imagined. If he weren't playing with trains, he could be found reading in his other favorite place, a porch swing. This was a constant throughout the years, whether at the small Lancaster cottage or at his beautiful house on Lake Norris. He loved smoking his pipe and reading the latest book from John Meachum, Ron Chernow, or Shelby Foote.

Jesus' word to the disciples always resonated with George: "Do not think you chose me. You did not. I chose you." (John 15:16) Through changes in life and health, he was a consummate disciple of Christ, always showing God's love through warmth, generosity, and sense of peace.

WANDA BETH BOGGS

Wanda Beth Boggs was born on January 19, 1928. She died on December 31, 2024, at the age of ninety-six years, eleven months, and twelve days. She was preceded in death by her husband, Clarence Eldon "Evarts" Boggs on February 17, 2000.

Eldon served in the Pacific theater in World War II and was stationed at General McArthur's headquarters in Tokyo as an MP. While there, he felt God's call to missionary service in Japan. He returned to the states, entered the Kentucky Mountain Bible College to prepare for the mission work. There he met Beth, and they married and moved to Seattle Pacific College to study Japanese and then Indiana Wesleyan University. Three babies blessed their marriage and in June of 1956, they sailed aboard a freighter bound for Yokusuka, Japan. Two more babies were born and their Japanese friends would pat their heads and jokingly say, "Ni-hon-sei—made in Japan." They had themselves and two others making up the congregation; in a year and a half, thirteen members signed the charter and officially became members as a Japanese pastor was assigned to the church, Sapporo Immanuel Church. They then returned to the states and entered The Methodist Church. Their first appointment was The Coolville Circuit, consisting of five churches.

Other appointments included Fort Jefferson, Stryker, Hartwell, Brecon, Mt Sterling First UMC, retiring on July 1, 1990, after he had had a heart attack.

Eldon believed that second in importance to the sermon was the music. He loved the old hymns and encouraged "singing as only Methodists." In retirement, they were able to terrace the mountainside to garden on level ground, develop a small fruit farm, and had five bluebird boxes. The superintendent called from the Red Bird Missionary Conference, and he drove fifty-seven miles to preach to seventeen members on his last Sunday there. A highlight of their Christmas celebration in 1999, was their gathered family of sixteen (with only two grandchildren missing), receiving the Holy Sacraments from his hands on Christmas Eve around their table.

She was a consultant during Mark's doctoral program. While supporting Mark in her own quiet way, Peggy was a strong, independent, and loving person. Beginning in seminary and as they moved within the conference, Peggy worked as secretary and office manager in various settings including Capital University, a local newspaper, and Clinton Memorial Hospital.

Peggy was always ready when her children called for a listening ear and wise advice. When her granddaughter was born, she retired to become a full-time grandmother. Peggy loved animals, especially dogs and cats. She was also passionate about her opportunities to volunteer time and effort at the food pantry at St Pauls in Defiance.

MARGARET TERRY TOMER

Margaret Tomer died on May 14, 2025, at the age of ninety-three. She was born to Clara and William Terry who preceded her in death. In addition to her parents, she was also preceded in death by her husband, Albert Eugene Tomer, on June 20, 2014; brother Geoffrey Terry; nephew Richard Terry; niece, Anne Huett. She is survived by children, Mark David (Sandy) Tomer, Jonathan (Tracy) Tomer, Sarah (Dana) Tomer; grandchildren, Nathan, Evelyn, Adrian, and Justin; great-grandchildren, Aylla, Syllis, Bayne, Titus, Emrys, Amaria; nephew, Steven (Sarah) Terry.

Margaret was an original War Child, Dubbed Operation Pied Piper, in 1940, while Nazi Germany continued its bombing campaign in and around London, England. Britain began evacuating children into safe areas, including Canada and the United States. Despite her vigorous objections, she and her older brother Geoff, were scheduled to set sail for Canada in November of that same year. Meanwhile, already out to sea, with ninety "War Children" evacuees aboard, the SS City Benares was torpedoed and sunk by a German U-boat, killing seventy-seven. Sea evacuations were immediately halted, and she remained in Reading, England, with her family under indiscriminate aerial attacks through the end of the war.

She met her husband, Albert Tomer, at The London School of Economics. They were married in 1955 and moved to the United States, where he served appointments in West Virginia and West Ohio. After Al's ordination as an elder and full member of The West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church, they served appointments to Kenton Epworth, Toledo Broadway, Church of the Saviour, and Mason. He was superintendent of the Cincinnati District from 1988 to 1994, when he retired.

Margaret's professional journey was marked by her master's degree in Gifted Education and significant contributions as the Gifted Coordinator in the Clermont County School District. Her passion for teaching earned her the prestigious title of Educator of the Year in Ohio in 1990. She dedicated her career to nurturing young minds and helping students realize their full potentials.

A true lover of the arts, Margaret had an enduring passion for acting and theater, both directing and performing in various plays. Her strong faith anchored her throughout her life; she was actively involved in the church, where she taught Bible study courses. Margaret's interests extended beyond her professional life. She played tennis, was an avid fan of the Cincinnati Reds, and enjoyed playing bridge with friends. Her green thumb flourished in the garden where she found peace and joy among her plants. An animal lover, she held a special fondness for her cat, Susie.

The memorial service was June 9, 2025, at Clifton United Methodist Church, in Cincinnati.

Marilyn grew up on a small farm in Fayette County. She graduated from Washington High School in 1955, and attended Asbury College where she earned a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. XIV HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The hardy pioneer itinerants who blazed their way through the uncharted Indian wilderness were people of giant hearts, stalwart frames and steadfast convictions. Surely these faithful pioneers, always ready for any hardship and toil the Church and its elders might demand, would be most happy that the Church militant has achieved such a historical time line as is evidenced in the continued health and aspirations of this, the oldest original Conference in the Northwest Territory.

The east and west borders of the Western Conference were that portion of Ohio bordering the Ohio River on the east to the "shores of the setting sun" on the west. At the annual meeting of the Western Conference in Cincinnati on October 1, 1811, both Bishop Frances Asbury and Bishop William McKendree were in attendance. At that time it was decided that, if the General Conference voted to divide the Western Conference, the "lower conference" would next meet at Fountain Head, Tennessee, and the "upper conference" – to be called the Ohio Conference – would be held in Chillicothe, Ohio, on October 1, 1812.

Our present West Ohio Conference, therefore, reflects the unions of the former Cincinnati (1913), Central Ohio (1913), old West Ohio (1927), part of the former Central German (1936), and part of the Lexington (1964), Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Ohio (1939) and the Muskingum (1918) Conferences of the Methodist Protestant Church, and the Ohio Miami (1968), Ohio Sandusky (1968), and Ohio Southeast (1968) Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

On June 10, 1970, a Special Session of Six Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church, within the Ohio West and Ohio East areas, was held in Veterans' Memorial Auditorium, Columbus, Ohio, for the purpose of uniting the six conferences into two. The former Ohio Methodist, Ohio Sandusky Evangelical United Brethren, Ohio Miami Evangelical United Brethren, and Ohio Southeast Evangelical United Brethren Conferences were united to become the West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church. The former North East Ohio Methodist, the East Ohio Evangelical United Brethren and a designated number of churches in the former Ohio Sandusky and Ohio Southeast Conferences were united to become The East Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church.

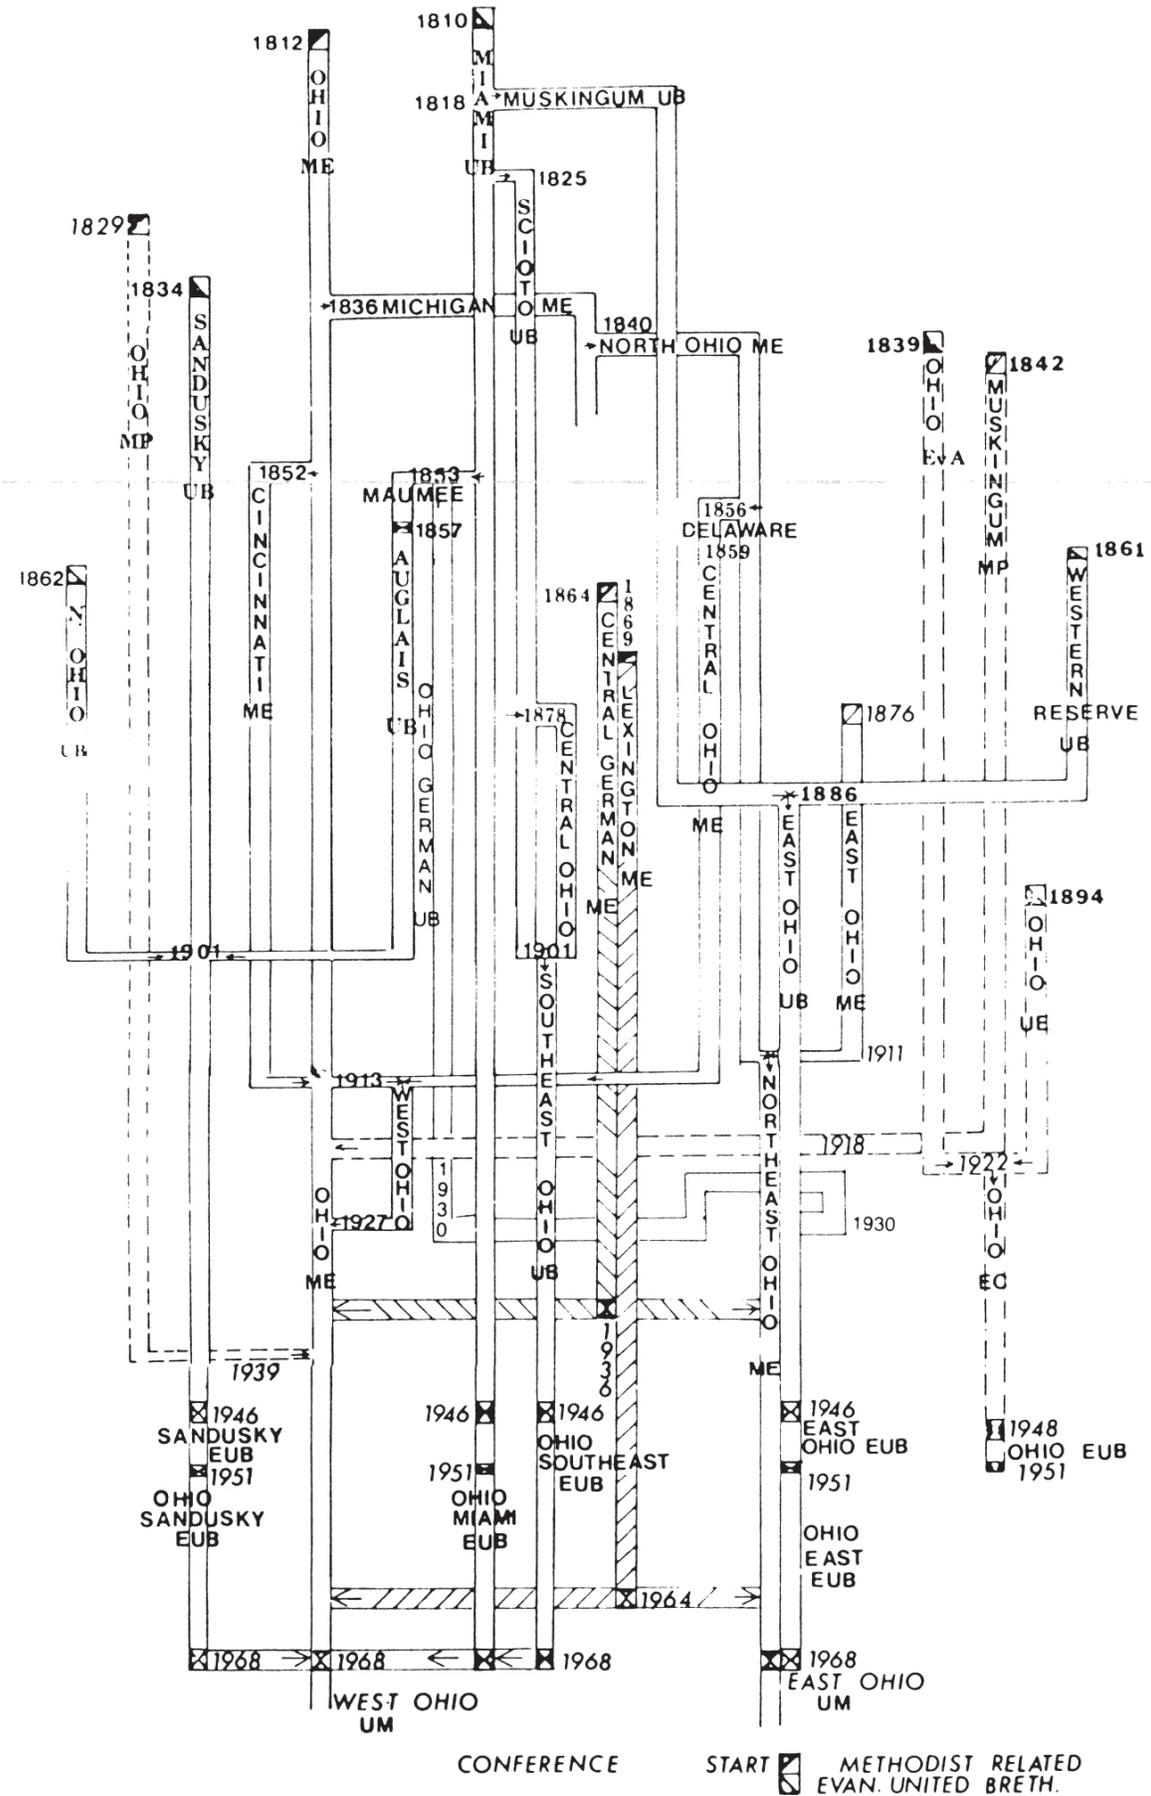

West Ohio, State of Ohio: counties of Adams, Allen, Athens, Auglaize, Brown, Butler, Champaign, Clark Clermont, Clinton, Darke, Defiance, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Gallia, Greene, Hamilton, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Highland, Hocking, Jackson, Lawrence, Licking (excluding the towns of Homer and Utica), Logan, Lucas, Madison, Meigs, Mercer, Miami, Montgomery, Paulding, Perry, Pickaway, Pike, Preble, Putnam, Ross, Scioto, Shelby, Union, Van Wert, Vinton, Warren, Williams, and Wood; west of the Muskingum River in the counties of Morgan, Muskingum (including the city of Zanesville), and Washington (including the city of Marietta); west of Route 23, north of Route 37, and west of Route 71, south of Route 37 in Delaware County and west of Sandusky Street (excluding Asbury United Methodist Church) in the city of Delaware; west of Route 23 in the counties of Marion and Wyandot (including the city of Upper Sandusky); west of the 83rd longitude in Ottawa County; and west of the Sandusky River through the counties of Sandusky (including the city of Fremont) and Seneca.

This is the 228th year of organized Methodism in Ohio. It also marks the 214th Conference Session within the territory covered by the West and East Ohio Conferences.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Since 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has educated faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world. An official seminary of The United Methodist Church, Candler holds true to the Wesleyan value of ecumenical openness, welcoming students from more than 40 denominations. Our student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 416 from 13 countries, 41 states, 32 annual conferences, and 43% persons of color. We see this diversity as a blessing, enriching our life together and providing the perfect context for training for relevant ministry in the 21st century—ministry that cultivates community across difference, welcomes all to contribute and belong, and embodies Christ's love in and among us.

Candler offers six degrees (Master of Divinity, Master of Theological Studies, Master of Arts in Religion and Leadership, Master of Religion and Public Life, Master of Theology, Doctor of Ministry), most of which are available in hybrid or online formats. Response to our hybrid-format Master of Divinity, blending online classes and in-person intensives, continues to be strong: 63% of 2024's MDiv entering class chose the hybrid model. Nearly a quarter of MDiv students participate in Candler's Teaching Parish program, earning contextual education credit by serving as student pastors in local churches. And our proven DMin program—with a near 90% completion rate—is 90% online. These flexible options along with Candler's recognized academic excellence and hands-on learning opportunities are opening possibilities for more people to follow God's call to ministry.

Generous financial aid is a top priority for Candler. In 2024-2025, we are on track to award nearly $6.5 million in scholarship support across all degree programs. All MDiv students receive scholarship support, and those who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in the UMC receive full-tuition scholarships. Plus, a remarkable gift this year of $20 million from the O. Wayne Rollins Foundation promises to have a transformative impact on the school and future students alike, fueling a considerable expansion of our scholarship program and reducing financial barriers to high-quality theological education.

Several programs beyond our formal degrees make Candler a hub of Christian learning for an expanding audience. Those who are not seeking a graduate degree can engage in learning through The Candler Foundry, which offers in-person and online short courses, events, and certificate programs; the United Methodist Course of Study for educating licensed local pastors; the Candler Center for Christian Leadership for refining business skills of United Methodist leaders; and La Mesa Academy, offering a graduate certificate in theological studies via a two-year hybrid program with courses in Spanish, English, and Korean.

Candler continued to strengthen the already robust United Methodist presence among our faculty with four key appointments this year: Geordan Hammond, associate professor of Methodist and Wesleyan studies; Soren Hessler, assistant professor in the practice of leadership and administration; Jennifer Quigley, assistant professor of New Testament; and Bishop Hope Morgan Ward, who joined us as bishop-in-residence following the retirement of Bishop Larry Goodpaster.

Jonathan Strom became dean of Candler in August 2024, when former dean Jan Love returned to the faculty. Strom has served on Candler's faculty since 1997 as professor of church history, with nearly a decade as senior associate dean of faculty and academic affairs, and a number of years as director of international initiatives. He is committed to nurturing the school's deep connection with The United Methodist Church.

Candler is strengthened by your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of the church. We invite you to visit us online at candler.emory.edu and follow us on social media to stay informed of all we offer throughout the year.

DREW UNIVERSITY THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL

Rev. Edwin David Aponte, PhD, ThD (honorary)
Dean and Professor of Religion & Culture

Drew University Theological School educates and mentors pastors, preachers, deacons, activists, teachers, thought leaders, and change agents for ministry and service in the church, society, and the wider world. Building upon its Wesleyan and Methodist foundations, Drew Theological School is diverse in theology, vocations, age, as well as racial, ethnic, national, and international identities of its faculty, students, and staff. Many Drew students are just beginning their ministry, while others come to graduate theological education with prior ministry experience. The latter reflects a growing trend among all theological schools in the United States and Canada. In providing theological education to the world, Drew holds in-person classes in Madison, New Jersey, classes that meet exclusively online, while others meet in hybrid fashion, i.e., partially online, partially in-person, as well as in-person Doctor of Ministry cohort in South Korea and a pilot in-person Master of Divinity cohort in Liberia. Regular chapel worship originates on campus in Seminary Hall, but also is live-streamed so that students, alumni, and friends around the world can participate. Drew Theological School is a global seminary with a global student population serving the worldwide church.

In Fall 2024 Drew Theological School welcomed 94 new students in all degree programs, with total student enrollment (by headcount) in Fall 2024 semester being 388. Enrollment of international students at Drew increased from 120 students in Fall 2021 to 157 students in Fall 2024. This number includes students who are studying full-time in the U.S.A. on a student Visa, students who are studying online from their home country, and students in the South Korean Cohort of the Doctor of Ministry program.

Drew's interdisciplinary degree programs provide real-world apprenticeships, promote adaptive leadership skills, and encourage innovation through team-taught core courses as well as a variety of electives that integrate theological disciplines and faith practices. The Drew faculty's shared values are infused across all aspects of the teaching, learning, and the formation of students: 1) a commitment to anti-racism; 2) gender and sexual-identity equality; 3) eco-sustainability and environmental justice; and 4) interfaith understanding and cooperation. Drew Theological School has an increase in United Methodist students, additionally, Drew has many United Methodist Global Fellows pursuing further education for ministry. UMC graduates are serving in conferences across the United States, and especially within nearby regional episcopal areas of The United Methodist Church in the annual conferences of Greater New Jersey, Eastern Pennsylvania, Susquehanna, Upper New York, New York, and New England.

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

Through God's sustaining grace and faithfulness, Duke Divinity School continues to welcome students from across the nation and around the world to be trained for ministries ranging from rural church pastorates to hospital and prison chaplains to community service leaders to theological educators. In 2024, we were joined by 224 students from 41 U.S. states and the District of Columbia as well as new students who hold either primary or secondary citizenship in 11 other countries. The Master of Divinity program gained 108 new students, including 62 residential students (up from 54 the year before) and 46 in the hybrid program. The Master of Arts in Christian Practice enrolled eight new students; the Doctor of Ministry, 39 (up from 22 last year); Master of Theology, 10; Master of Theological Studies, 27; the Doctor of Theology welcomed five new students to campus. The Certificate in Theology and Health Care welcomed five residential students to campus and 21 to the hybrid program.

This has been a year of centennial celebrations for Duke University and The Duke Endowment. DDS was honored to participate in a Founders' Weekend chapel service, held in Duke Chapel, in which both United Methodist Church bishops in North Carolina (Bishop Connie Shelton and Bishop Ken Carter) participated in leading the service, along with Dean Colón-Emeric. Divinity students and alumni contributed prayers and music, and of particular note were three women in our Master of Theology program who offered prayers in Mandarin, Hindi, and Korean.

Duke Divinity School continues to invest in ways to support Methodist leadership and pastoral formation. Our D.Min. program welcomed two new cohorts, one in Traditional Leadership and one in Missional Leadership, with support from the Parish Ministry Fund and The Duke Endowment. These 39 students are strengthening their capacity for leadership, establishing new faith communities, and meeting the challenges confronting churches and communities.

Master of Divinity students in the UMC had the opportunity in the spring 2024 semester to enroll in a course designed to prepare them to be observers at the UMC General Conference. Students met weekly with DDS faculty who are ordained elders in the UMC and nearly half a dozen bishops and denominational leaders. As one student said: "It is a time when we hold fast to our convictions and identify what is unique to the United Methodist Church. What is our role, currently and in the future? It's amazing: our mission is to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. I am excited about my ministry journey and the future of the UMC."

Duke Divinity continues to build on our connection to Methodist churches around the world through a formal partnership with Methodist Theological University in Seoul, South Korea. This agreement, signed on Sept. 21, 2024, supports the creation of pathways for the exchange of students, faculty, and academic programming.

Two scholars joined our faculty this year: Aaron Griffith, assistant professor of American church history, and Kevin Hart, Jo Rae Wright University Distinguished Professor, with a joint appointment in the Duke University department of English. William Turner Jr., James T. and Alice Mead Cleland Professor Emeritus of the Practice of Preaching, received the Duke University Medal for Distinguished Meritorious Service, the highest honor bestowed by the university.

Duke Divinity commemorated the 50th anniversary of the Women's Center at the school with a guest preacher and celebration dinner. With a $5 million gift from The Duke Endowment, we are strengthening our Office of Black Church Studies through recruiting a senior scholar and supporting academic, theological research. A $1.25 million grant from Lilly Endowment Inc., part of their Nurturing Children through Worship and Prayer Initiative, will help launch a Duke Divinity program, "Let the Children Come," to study how congregations more fully and intentionally engage children in intergenerational corporate worship and prayer practices.

Duke Divinity School continues to be grateful for our ongoing participation in The United Methodist Church and partnership with this annual conference. We look forward to our ongoing work with you as we join the leading of God's Spirit in the task of preparing people for Christian ministry. GARRETT-EVANGELICAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary continues to live into its mission of Forming courageous leaders in the way of Jesus to cultivate communities of justice, compassion, and hope...for the thriving of the Church and the healing of the world. We do this work in partnership with the annual conferences of the United Methodist Church and other partners who share our values. Now in our 172nd year of ministry to the church, the academy, and the world, Garrett is a strong, growing, thriving community of faith and learning that represents the fullness of the global church's witness.

During this past academic year, Garrett welcomed its largest entering class in over a decade for a fifth straight year, with 135 new students, and a current enrollment of 324 students representing 38 states and 24 nations from across the globe. We continue to see growth in our student body from Asia, Africa, and Latin America, adding to an already richly diverse student body. While our denominational diversity also continues to grow, we also proudly welcomed growth in our United Methodist students who constitute more than half of our student body. Our faculty also reflect this regional and global diversity, with fully half originating from nations outside the United States.

Our growth in recent years continues to reflect patterns seen across theological education, mainly in distance and online learners. For the first time in our history, distance learners in the entering class outnumbered residential students. This has allowed for truly global learning spaces that have enriched our conversations and our overall learning environment. We're blessed to have the world represented in our classrooms, which also impacts how our faculty teach, what they research, and for whom.

Over the last year Garrett has also been blessed by multiple major grants to fund faculty research and institutional priorities. A major grant is funding the work of our Center for Ecological Regeneration, allowing the seminary to partner with local congregations in the Midwest to equip them to respond to climate change in their communities and the disproportionate impact it tends to have on the poor and local economies. Another major grant is funding work in our Centro Raices Latinas to strengthen Hispanic-Latiné pastoral leaders and congregations, helping clergy and communities build institutional capacity and expand their ministries. Yet another grant is helping to expand the reach and impact of our Garrett Collective, our lifelong learning and resource platform that seeks to make theological education accessible and affordable to a significantly broader audience.

Garrett's world-class faculty continue developing curricular innovations that are responsive to the church's growing needs, while also contributing a significant body of scholarly work to their respective fields. They are also partnering with annual conferences and local churches in delivering much needed programming for leadership development and faith formation, an expanding focus of our Strategic Initiatives and Partnerships division. Garrett is proud to be a United Methodist institution, and proud to continue to deepen its partnership and programming with annual conferences around the globe.

Thank you for this opportunity to bring news from MTSO.

Field education students will benefit from Liturgy and Leadership Cohort Program

To equip the next generation of leaders with the ability to navigate complexity with resilience and adaptive leadership skills, MTSO has developed the Liturgy and Leadership Field Education Cohort Program. Funded with a grant from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry through the Ministerial Education Fund, the program is presented by United Methodist pastors Rachel Billups and Matt Rawle, built upon their deep-rooted dedication to creativity and innovation within the church. Over the course of three academic years, we are convening three cohorts of seven promising ministry candidates to immerse them in the methodologies that foster church growth and community impact.

Lisa Allen-McLaurin and Beth Stroud elected to faculty

We began the 2024 Fall Semester with two newly elected faculty members. Assistant Professor of History Beth Stroud, an ordained United Methodist elder, comes to MTSO from Princeton University, where she served as a lecturer in the Princeton Writing Program. She also has taught at Union Theological Seminary, Princeton Theological Seminary and Sarah Lawrence College.

Professor of Worship, Music and Spirituality Lisa Allen-McLaurin, an ordained elder in the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, is the author of Worship Matters! A Collection of Essays on the Practical and Spiritual Discipline of Worship. Prior to her election to the faculty, Dr. Allen-McLaurin served under appointment at MTSO starting in July 2023. Previously, she chaired the Church Music and Worship Department at Interdenominational Theological Center.

Racial Resilience project launched

Beginning in April, MTSO brought together congregational clergy, lay leaders and youth for training around anti-racism and justice as part of a new project, Cultivating Racial Resilience, made possible by a grant from the Lilly Endowment Inc. Pathways for Tomorrow Initiative. While many anti-racism training programs ask participants to set aside the complex feelings about race and racism, this program treats those feelings as effective guideposts for sustainable anti-racist work. Three cohorts will participate in Cultivating Racial Resilience over the next two to three years.
